Thus saith the LORD God: Moreover in this your fathers blasphemed me, in that they committed treachery against me. <sup>28</sup> When I brought them into the land for <sup>g</sup> which I lifted up my hand to give it to them, then <sup>h</sup> they saw every high hill and all the thick trees, and they offered there their sacrifices, and there they presented the provocation of their offering; there also they made their sweet savour, and poured out there their drink offerings. <sup>29</sup> Then I said unto them, What is the high place wherunto ye go? And the name thereof is called Baniath unto this day.

Israel? <sup>a</sup> As I live, saith the LORD God, I will not be inquired of by you. <sup>32</sup> And that which cometh into your mind shall not be at all, that ye say, <sup>i</sup> We will be like the nations, like the families of the countries, to minister unto wood and stone.

Desolating judgments on Jerusalem and on the whole nation, represented by the images of (47) a burning forest and (ch. 21. 8) an unsheathed sword.

45 AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying :

46 Son of man, <sup>a</sup> set thy face towards the South*

And drop words towards the South,
And prophesy to the forest of the south field;
47 And say to the forest of the south,
Hear the word of the LORD;
Thus saith the Lord GOD :

Behold, <sup>b</sup> I will kindle a fire in thee,
And it shall devour every green tree in thee,
and every dry tree;
The flame of the conflagration shall not be quenched,
And all faces shall be scorched thereby
From the south to the north.

48 And <sup>c</sup> all flesh shall see That I the LORD have kindled it;
It shall not be quenched.

49 Then said I: Ah Lord GOD! They say of me, Doth he not speak parables?

21. And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying :

2 Son of man, set thy face towards Jerusalem,

And <sup>d</sup> drop words towards the holy places,
And prophesy against the land of Israel;

3 And say to the land of Israel :
Thus saith the LORD :

Behold, I am against thee,
And <sup>e</sup> I will draw forth my sword out of its sheath,

And will cut off from thee <sup>f</sup> the righteous and the wicked.

4 Seeing that I will cut off from thee the righteous and the wicked, Therefore shall my sword go forth out of its sheath against all flesh,
From the south to the north.

5 And all flesh shall know
That I the LORD have drawn forth my sword out of its sheath ;
It shall not return any more.

6 Sigh therefore, thou son of man ;
With the breaking of loins, and with bitterness,
Sigh before their eyes.

7 And it shall be, when they say unto thee,
Wherefore sighest thou ?

That thou shalt answer :
For the tidings, <sup>g</sup> because it cometh.

And <sup>h</sup> every heart shall melt,
And all hands shall be feeble,
And every spirit shall faint,
And all knees shall be weak as water.

Behold it cometh and shall be brought to pass, saith the Lord GOD.

8 Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying :

9 Son of man, prophesy and say,
Thus saith the LORD :

Say, <sup>i</sup> A sword, a sword !
It is sharpened, and also whetted !

10 It is <sup>k</sup> sharpened to make a sore slaughter,
It is whetted that it may glitter.

Or shall we make mirth, saying,
The sceptre of my son contemneth all wood ?

11 And he hath given it to be whetted,
That it may be handled ;

The sword is sharpened and it is whetted,
To give it into the hand of the slayer.

12 Cry and howl, son of man !
For it shall be upon my people,

It shall be upon all the princes of Israel ;
They are delivered to the sword with my people :

Therefore <sup>l</sup> smite upon thy thigh.

And what if even the sceptre that contemneth shall be no more ?

Saith the Lord GOD.

14 And thou, son of man, prophesy,
And <sup>m</sup> smite thy hands together,

And <sup>n</sup> let the sword be doubled the third time*,

The sword of the slain,
It is the sword of the great one that is slain,
Which surroundeth them.

15 I have set the point <sup>t</sup> of the sword against all their gates,

That their heart may faint,
And their stumbling-blocks be multiplied.

Ah ! it is made bright, sharp for slaughter.

16 Collect thyself to the right,
Turn thyself to the left,

Whithersoever thy face is set.

17 I will also <sup>o</sup> smite my hands together,
And I <sup>p</sup> will cause my fury to rest.

I the LORD have said it.

20 Set a way, for the coming of the sword, to <sup>a</sup> Rabbath of the Ammonites, and to Judah in <sup>b</sup> Jerusalem the fortified. 21 For the king of Babylon standeth at the parting of the way, at the head of the two ways, to use divination. He shaketh the

The prophecy continued—(23) The universal wickedness of all classes of the people—(25) the prophets, (26) priests, (27) princes, and (28) the common people.

An allegorical representation of the idolatries and heathenish alliances, (5) first of the Ten Tribes, and (11) then of Judah with still greater aggravations—(36) Further recital of the sins of both nations, and (46) judgment thereon.

they handled the teats of their virginity. <sup>4</sup> And the names of them were Aholah [i. e. Her tabernacle<sup>c</sup>] the elder, and Aholibah [i. e. My tabernacle in her<sup>d</sup>] her sister: and <sup>e</sup> they became mine, and they bare sons and daughters. And as to their names, <sup>f</sup> Samaria is Aholah, and Jerusalem, Aholibah.

A Divine announcement to the exiles in Chaldaea of the siege of Jerusalem being begun on that day; and (4) a parabolical representation of the judgment.

24. AND in <sup>a</sup> the ninth year, in the tenth month, on the tenth of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying: <sup>2</sup> Son of man, write thee the name of the day, of this very day: the king of Babylon hath set himself against Jerusalem this very day.

15 AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying: <sup>16</sup> Son of man, behold, I take away from thee the desire of thine eyes with a stroke, yet thou shalt not mourn or weep, nor shall thy tears run down. <sup>17</sup> Forbear to cry, <sup>a</sup> make no mourning for the dead, <sup>b</sup> bind the tire* of thy head upon thee, and put on thy shoes upon thy feet, and <sup>c</sup> cover not thy beard, and <sup>d</sup> eat not the bread of men.

<sup>18</sup> So in the morning I spake unto the people; and in the evening my wife died; and I did in the morning as I was commanded. <sup>19</sup> And the people said unto me, <sup>e</sup> Wilt thou not tell us what these things are to us that thou doest so? <sup>20</sup> Then I answered them, The word of the LORD came unto me, saying, <sup>21</sup> Say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD:

Behold, <sup>f</sup> I will profane my sanctuary, the pride of your strength, the desire of your eyes, and your soul's longing; and your sons and your daughters whom ye have left shall fall by the sword. <sup>22</sup> And ye shall do as I have done: ye shall not cover the beard, nor eat the bread of men: <sup>23</sup> and your tires shall be upon your heads, and your shoes upon your feet; ye shall not <sup>g</sup> mourn nor weep; and ye <sup>h</sup> shall pine away for your iniquities, and mourn one towards another. <sup>24</sup> Thus <sup>i</sup> Ezekiel is unto you a sign; according to all that he hath done shall ye do; and when <sup>k</sup> it cometh, ye shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

25. AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, <sup>2</sup> Son <sup>a</sup> of man, set thy face against <sup>b</sup> the Ammonites and prophesy against them; <sup>3</sup> and say unto the Ammonites, Hear the word of the Lord GOD: thus saith the Lord GOD:

Because <sup>c</sup> thou saidst, Aha! Against my sanctuary when it was profaned, And against the land of Israel when it was desolate, And against the house of Judah when they went into captivity;

<sup>4</sup> Therefore behold, I will deliver thee to the men of the East for a possession; And they shall set their forts in thee, And make their dwellings in thee;

Judgments on Egypt—(3) The ruin and desolation of the country, and (12) dispersion of the people for forty years—(14) The future feeble and degraded state of the nation.

29. IN the tenth year, in the tenth month, on the twelfth of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, <sup>2</sup>Son of man, set thy face against Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, and prophesy against him and <sup>3</sup>against all Egypt: <sup>3</sup> speak and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD:

Behold, <sup>b</sup> I am against thee, Pharaoh king of Egypt,

The great <sup>c</sup>crocodile that lieth in the midst of his rivers;

Which saith, My river * is mine own, And I have made it for myself.

<sup>4</sup> But <sup>e</sup> I will put hooks in thy jaws, And I will cause the fish of thy rivers to stick to thy scales,

And I will bring thee up out of the midst of thy rivers,

And all the fish of thy rivers shall stick to thy scales.

<sup>5</sup> And I will cast <sup>f</sup> thee into the wilderness, Thee and all the fish of thy rivers:

Thou shalt fall upon the face of the field; Thou <sup>g</sup> shalt not be lifted up, nor gathered together,

I <sup>h</sup> give thee for food To the beasts of the field and to the fowls of the heaven.

<sup>6</sup> And all the inhabitants of Egypt shall know that I am the LORD.

Because they have been a <sup>i</sup> staff of reed to the house of Israel;

And when they leaned upon thee, Thou brakest, and madest all their loins to tremble;

Behold, <sup>l</sup> I will bring a sword upon thee, And cut off man and beast out of thee;

<sup>9</sup> And the land of Egypt shall be desolate and waste.

And they shall know that I am the LORD.

Because he hath said, The river is mine, and I made it;

<sup>10</sup> Therefore behold, I am against thee and against thy rivers;

And <sup>m</sup> I will make the land of Egypt utterly waste, and a desolation,

And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations,

And will disperse them through the countries.

<sup>13</sup> For thus saith the Lord GOD:

At the end of forty years

I will gather the Egyptians from the peoples whither they were scattered;

<sup>14</sup> And I will restore the captivity of Egypt, And <sup>q</sup> I will cause them to return to the land of Pathros,

To the land of their nativity.

And they shall be there <sup>r</sup> a base kingdom.

<sup>15</sup> It shall be the basest of the kingdoms, And it shall not <sup>s</sup> exalt itself any more above the nations;

And I will diminish them, that they shall no more rule over the nations.

<sup>16</sup> And it shall no more be <sup>t</sup> the confidence of the house of Israel,

Bringing iniquity to remembrance, in their turning after them:

And they shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

<sup>17</sup> AND it came to pass in the seven and twentieth year, in the first month, on the first of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying:

<sup>18</sup> Son of man, <sup>u</sup> Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, caused his army to serve a great service against Tyre: every head was made bald, and every shoulder was peeled: yet had he no wages, nor his army, from Tyre, for the service that he had served against it.

<sup>19</sup> Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD: Behold, I will give the land of Egypt to Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon; and he shall take her multitude, and take her spoil, and take her prey; and it shall be the wages for his army.

<sup>20</sup> I give him the land of Egypt, for his labour wherewith he served against it; because they wrought for me, saith the Lord GOD.

<sup>21</sup> In that day <sup>v</sup> will I cause a horn to bud forth for the house of Israel, and I will give thee <sup>w</sup> the opening of the mouth in the midst of them; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

31. AND it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the third month, on the first of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, <sup>2</sup> Son of man, speak to Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, and to his multitude:

To whom art thou like in thy greatness?

Behold, <sup>a</sup> the Assyrian was a cedar in Lebanon,

With fair branches and with a forest shade,
and high of stature;

And his top was among the thick boughs*.

* or, the clouds;
and in vers. 10,

The deep set him up on high,

With its streams running round about his plantations,

And it sent out its channels unto all the trees of the field.

And his boughs were multiplied, and his branches became long,

Because of the multitude of waters, when he spread forth.

And under his shadow dwelt all the many nations.

13; Ge. 2.

<sup>8</sup> The cedars in <sup>b</sup> the garden of God could not hide him,

The eypresses were not like his boughs,
And the plane-trees were not like his branches;

Nor was any tree in the garden of God like unto him in his beauty.

<sup>9</sup> I made him fair by the abundance of his branches,

And all the trees of Eden, that were in the garden of God, envied him.

<sup>10</sup> Therefore thus saith the Lord God: Because thou hast lifted up thyself in thy height,

And he hath shot up his top among the thick boughs,

And <sup>c</sup> his heart is lifted up by his height;

He shall surely deal with him;

Have cut him off, and have left him.

His branches are fallen upon the mountains and in all the valleys,

And his boughs are broken, in all the rivers*
of the land;

And all the peoples of the earth are <sup>f</sup> gone down from his shadow,

heaven settle,

And all the beasts of the field shall be upon his branches.

<sup>14</sup> To the end that none of all the trees by the waters exalt themselves in their height,

Nor shoot up their top among the thick boughs,

And that all the trees that drink water stand not up in their height;

For they are all delivered unto death,

To <sup>h</sup> the lower parts of the earth,

In the midst of the children of men,

With them that go down to the pit.

<sup>15</sup> Thus saith the Lord God:

In the day when he went down to the grave<sup>i</sup>,
I caused a mourning, I covered the deep for him;

And the great waters were stayed.

<sup>10</sup> Thus saith the Lord God: And it shall come to pass at the same time <sup>r</sup>that things shall come up into thy mind, and <sup>s</sup>thou wilt think an evil thought, <sup>t</sup>and thou wilt say, I will go up against the land of unwall'd villages; I will go to <sup>u</sup>them that are at rest, that dwell in security, all of them dwelling without walls, and having no bars or gates; <sup>12</sup> to take spoil and to take prey; to turn thy hand against <sup>v</sup>the desolate places re-occupied, and upon the people gathered out of the nations, who have gotten cattle and goods, dwelling in the midst of the earth.

In that day when <sup>y</sup>my people Israel dwelleth safely, shalt thou not know it?

<sup>18</sup> And it shall come to pass at the same time when Gog shall come against the land of Israel, saith the Lord God, <sup>d</sup>that my fury shall come up in my face; <sup>19</sup> (for <sup>d</sup>in my jealousy, and in the fire of my wrath have I spoken). Surely <sup>e</sup>in that day there shall be a great earthquake in the land of Israel; <sup>20</sup> and <sup>f</sup>the fishes of the sea, and the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the field, and all creeping things that creep upon the earth, and all men that are upon the face of the earth, shall quake at my presence; and <sup>g</sup>the mountains shall be thrown down, and the steep places shall fall, and every wall shall fall to the ground. <sup>21</sup> And I will call for a sword against him throughout all my mountains, saith the Lord God; <sup>h</sup>every man's sword shall be against his brother. <sup>22</sup> And <sup>i</sup>I will enter into judgment against him by pestilence and by blood; and <sup>k</sup>I will rain upon him, and upon his hordes, and upon many peoples that are with him, an overflowing rain and <sup>l</sup>great hailstones, fire and brimstone. <sup>23</sup> Thus will I magnify myself and <sup>m</sup>sanctify myself; and <sup>n</sup>I will be known in the eyes of many nations, and they shall know that I am the LORD.

39. And thou, son of man, prophesy against Gog, and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD:

Behold, I am against thee, Gog, prince of Rosh, Meshech and Tubal! <sup>2</sup> And I will turn thee back and lead thee, and <sup>3</sup> will cause thee to come up from the sides of the North, and will bring thee upon the mountains of Israel. <sup>4</sup> And I will smite thy bow out of thy left hand, and will cause thine arrows to fall out of thy right hand. <sup>5</sup> Upon the mountains of Israel thou shalt fall, thou and all thy hordes, and the peoples that are with thee. I <sup>6</sup> will give thee to the ravenous birds of every sort and to the beasts of the field, to be devoured. <sup>7</sup> Thou shalt fall upon the face of the field. For I have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD.

<sup>8</sup> And I will send a fire on Magog, and among them that dwell in security in the isles*. And they shall know that I am the LORD. <sup>9</sup> And I will make my holy name known in the midst of my people Israel; and I will not let my holy name be polluted any more; and the nations shall know that I am the LORD, the Holy One in Israel. <sup>10</sup> Behold, <sup>11</sup> it is come, and it is done, saith the Lord GOD. This is the day whereof I have spoken.

<sup>12</sup> And they that dwell in the cities of Israel shall go forth, and shall set on fire and burn the weapons, both the shield and the buckler, the bow and the arrows, and the hand-pike and the spear; and they shall burn them with fire seven years. <sup>13</sup> So that they shall take no wood out of the field, nor cut down out of the forests; for they shall burn the weapons with fire. <sup>14</sup> And <sup>15</sup> they shall spoil those that spoiled them, and plunder those that plundered them, saith the Lord GOD.

<sup>16</sup> And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will give unto Gog a place of graves there in Israel, the valley of the passers-by on the East of the sea; and it shall stifle† the passers-by. And there shall they bury Gog and all his multitude; and they shall call it The valley of Hamon-gog. <sup>17</sup> And seven months shall the house of Israel be burying them, in order to cleanse the land; <sup>18</sup> and all the people of the land shall be burying. And it shall be to them for a name in the day that <sup>19</sup> I am glorified, saith the Lord GOD. <sup>20</sup> And they shall set apart men going continually through the land, who, with the passers-by, shall bury, those that remain upon the face of the land, to cleanse it. After the end of seven months shall they search; <sup>21</sup> and the passers-by shall pass through the land; and when any seeth a man's bone, then shall he set up a mark by it, till the buriers have buried it in the valley of Hamon-gog. <sup>22</sup> And also the name of the city* shall be Hamonah†. So shall they cleanse the land.

<sup>29</sup> And <sup>30</sup> I will set my glory among the nations; and all the nations shall see my judgment that I execute, and <sup>31</sup> my hand that I lay upon them. <sup>32</sup> And <sup>33</sup> the house of Israel shall know that I am the LORD their God, from that day and forward. <sup>34</sup> And <sup>35</sup> the nations shall know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity, because they trespassed against me; therefore <sup>36</sup> hid I my face from them, and <sup>37</sup> gave them into the hand of their enemies: so that they all fell by the sword. <sup>38</sup> According to their uncleanness, and <sup>39</sup> according to their transgressions have I done unto them, and hidden my face from them.

Vision of a new city in the land of Israel; and (3) a Divine messenger commissioned to instruct the prophet.

40. IN the five and twentieth year of our captivity, in the beginning of the year, on the tenth of the month, in the fourteenth year after <sup>a</sup> the city was smitten, on the selfsame day, <sup>b</sup> the hand of the LORD was upon me, and he brought me thither; <sup>2</sup> in <sup>c</sup> the visions of God he brought me into the land of Israel, and set me upon a very high mountain; and upon it was <sup>d</sup> as the building of a city, on the South. <sup>3</sup> And he brought me thither, and behold, a man whose appearance was <sup>e</sup> like the appearance of brass*, <sup>f</sup> with a flax-cord in his hand, and a <sup>g</sup> measuring-reed; and he was standing in the gate.

<sup>4</sup> And the man said unto me: <sup>h</sup> Son of man, behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears, and set thy heart upon all that I shall show thee; for in order that they be shown unto thee art thou brought hither. Declare <sup>i</sup> all that thou seest to the house of Israel.

<sup>5</sup> AND behold, <sup>a</sup> a wall on the outside of the house round about, and in the man's hand a measuring-reed of six cubits, by the cubit and a hand breadth. And he measured the breadth of the building, one reed; and the height, one reed. <sup>6</sup> And he came to the gate which looketh towards the east, and he went up its stairs, and he measured the threshold of the gate, one reed broad; and the other threshold, one reed broad. <sup>7</sup> And every chamber was one reed long and one reed broad and between the chambers were five cubits. And the threshold of the gate, by the side of the porch of the gate within, was one reed. <sup>8</sup> And he measured the porch of the gate within, one reed. <sup>9</sup> And he measured the porch of the gate, eight cubits; and its posts, two cubits; and the porch of the gate was within. <sup>10</sup> And the chambers of the gate eastward were three on this side and three on that side; they three were of one measure; and the posts had one measure on this side and on that side. <sup>11</sup> And he measured the breadth of the entry of the gate, ten cubits; and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits. <sup>12</sup> And the barrier before the chambers was one cubit on this side, and the barrier was one cubit on that side; and the chambers were six cubits on this side and six cubits on that side. <sup>13</sup> And he measured the gate from the roof of one chamber to the roof of another; the breadth was five and twenty cubits, door over against door. <sup>14</sup> And he made posts of threescore cubits, even unto the post of the court round about the gate. <sup>15</sup> And from the face of the gate of the entrance unto the face of the porch of the inner gate were fifty cubits. <sup>16</sup> And there were <sup>b</sup> closed windows to the chambers, and to their posts within the gate round about, and so to the arches*; and the windows were around about inwards; and upon each post were palm-trees.

<sup>20</sup> And the gate of the outer court, that looked towards the north, he measured its length and its breadth. <sup>21</sup> And its chambers were three on this side and three on that side; and its posts and its arches were after the measure of the first gate; its length was fifty cubits, and its breadth five and twenty cubits. <sup>22</sup> And its windows and its arches and its palm-trees were after the measure of the gate, that looketh toward the east. And they went up to it by seven steps; and its arches were before them. <sup>23</sup> And the gate of the inner court was over against the gate towards the north and towards the east. And he measured from gate to gate a hundred cubits.

<sup>24</sup> And he brought me towards the South; and behold, a gate towards the south: and he measured its posts and its arches according to these measures. <sup>25</sup> And there were windows in it and in its arches round about, like those windows; the length, fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits. <sup>26</sup> And seven steps were its stairs, and its arches were before them. And it had palm-trees, one on this side and another on that side, upon its posts. <sup>27</sup> And there was a gate in the inner court towards the south. And he measured from gate to gate towards the south, a hundred cubits.

28 AND he brought me into the inner court by the south gate; and he measured the south gate according to these measures; 29 and its chambers and its posts and its arches, according to these measures. And there were windows in it and in its arches round about: fifty cubits long and five and twenty cubits broad. 30 And the arches round about were five and twenty cubits long and five cubits broad. 31 And its arches were <sup>a</sup>towards the outer court; and palm-trees were upon its posts. And its ascent was eight steps.

32 And he brought me into the inner court towards the east; and he measured the gate according to these measures; 33 and its chambers and its posts and its arches, according to these measures. And there were windows therein and in its arches round about: fifty cubits long and five and twenty cubits broad. 34 And its arches were towards the outer court; and palm-trees upon its posts, on this side and on that side. And its ascent was eight steps.

35 And he brought me to the north gate, and he measured according to these measures; 36 its chambers, its posts, and its arches, and the windows to it round about; the length fifty cubits and the breadth five and twenty cubits. 37 And its posts were towards the outer court; and palm-trees were upon its posts, on this side and on that side. And its ascent was eight steps.

38 And a chamber* and its entry were by the posts at the gates, <sup>b</sup>where they washed the burnt-offering. 39 And in the porch of the gate were two tables on this side and two tables on that side, to slay thereon <sup>c</sup>the burnt-offering and <sup>d</sup>the sin-offering and <sup>e</sup>the trespass-offering. 40 And at the side without, as one goeth up to the entry of the north gate, were two tables; and on the other side, which was the porch of the gate, two tables. 41 Four tables were on this side and four tables on that side, by the side of the gate; eight tables, whereupon they slew the sacrifices. 42 And the four tables were of hewn stone, for the burnt-offering, of a cubit and a half long and a cubit and a half broad and one cubit high; whereupon also they laid the instruments wherewith they slew the burnt offering and the sacrifice. 43 And within were hooks a hand broad, fastened round about; and upon the tables was the flesh of the offering.

44 And outside the inner gate were the chambers* of <sup>f</sup>the singers, in the inner court, which was at the side of the north gate; and their front was towards the south: one at the side of the east gate, fronting towards the north. 45 And he said unto me, This chamber† whose front is towards the south is for the priests, <sup>g</sup>the keepers of the charge of the house; 46 and the cell whose front is towards the north is for the priests, <sup>h</sup>the keepers of the charge of the altar. These are the sons of <sup>i</sup>Zadok, those who from the sons of Levi are near to the LORD to minister unto him.

47 And he measured the court, a hundred cubits long and a hundred cubits broad, foursquare. And the altar was before the house.

48 And he brought me to the porch of the house; and he measured each post of the porch, five cubits on this side and five cubits on that side; and the breadth of the gate, three cubits on this side and three cubits on that side. 49 The <sup>k</sup>length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the breadth eleven cubits; and there were steps by which they went up to it. And there were <sup>l</sup>pillars by the posts, one on this side and another on that side.

41. AND he brought me to the temple. And he measured the posts, six cubits broad on the one side and six cubits broad on the other side, the breadth of the tabernacle. 2 And the breadth of the door was ten cubits; and the sides of the door were five cubits on the one side and five cubits on the other side; and he measured its length, forty cubits; and the breadth, twenty cubits.

3 And he went inside; and he measured the post of the door, two cubits; and the door, six cubits; and the breadth of the door, seven cubits. 4 And <sup>a</sup>he measured its length, twenty cubits, and the breadth, twenty cubits, in front of the temple. And he said unto me, <sup>b</sup>This is the most holy place†.

5 And he measured the wall of the house, six cubits; and the breadth of the side-chambers, four cubits, round about the house on every side. 6 And <sup>c</sup>the side-chambers were three, one over another, and thirty in order; and they entered into the wall which the house had for the side-chambers round about, that they might have hold; but they had not hold in the wall of the house. 7 And <sup>d</sup>there was an enlarging and a winding about still upward to the side-chambers; for the winding about of the house went still upward, round about the house: therefore the house had width upward, and so ascended from the lowest chamber to the highest, by the middle.

<sup>22</sup> The <sup>i</sup> altar was wood, three cubits high, and its length two cubits; and its corners and its length and its walls were of wood.

And he said to me, <sup>k</sup> This is the table that is before the LORD.

<sup>23</sup> And <sup>l</sup> the temple and the sanctuary had two doors. <sup>24</sup> And the doors had two leaves, two turning leaves; two leaves for the one door and two for the other. <sup>25</sup> And on them were made, on the doors of the temple, cherubim and palm-trees, as they were made upon the walls. And there were thick planks* in front of the porch without. <sup>26</sup> And there were closed windows and palm-trees, on the one side and on the other side, on the sides of the porch and the side-chambers of the house, and the steps.

<sup>11</sup> And the way before them was like the appearance of the chambers* which were towards the north; as long as they, and as broad as they: and all their goings out were both according to their fashions and according to their doors. <sup>12</sup> And according to the doors of the chambers§ that were towards the south was a door in the head of a way,

and <sup>o</sup> the place of the soles of my feet, <sup>p</sup> where I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel for ever; and my holy name, shall the house of Israel <sup>q</sup> no more defile, they nor their kings, by their whoredom, nor by the carcases of their kings in their high places. <sup>8</sup> In <sup>r</sup> their setting of their threshold by my thresholds, and their door-post by my door-posts, and the wall between me and them, they have even defiled my holy name, by their abominations that they have committed. Wherefore I have consumed them in mine anger. <sup>9</sup> Now let them put away their whoredom, and the carcases of their kings, far from me; and I will dwell in the midst of them for ever.

44. AND he brought me back, the way of the outer gate of the sanctuary, which looketh towards the east; and it was shut. <sup>2</sup> And the LORD said unto me: This gate shall be shut, it shall not be opened, and no man shall enter in by it; <sup>a</sup> because the LORD, the God of Israel, hath entered in by it, therefore it shall be shut. <sup>3</sup> As for <sup>b</sup> the prince, the prince, <sup>c</sup> he shall sit in it <sup>d</sup> to eat bread before the LORD; he shall enter by the way of the porch of the gate, and he shall go out by the way of the same. <sup>4</sup> Then brought he me, the way of the north gate, to the front of the house: and I looked, and behold, <sup>e</sup> the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD: and <sup>f</sup> I fell upon my face.

<sup>5</sup> And the LORD said unto me, <sup>g</sup> Son of man, mark well, and behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears all that I say unto thee concerning all the ordinances of the house of the LORD and all its laws; and mark well the entering in of the house, with every going forth of the sanc-

<sup>19</sup> And he brought me, through the entry which was at the side of the gate, into the holy chambers* of the priests, which looked toward the north; and behold, there was a place on the two sides westward. <sup>20</sup> Then said he to me, This is the place where the priests <sup>21</sup> shall boil the trespass-offering and the sin-offering, where they <sup>22</sup> shall bake the meal-offering; that they bring them not out into the outer court, <sup>23</sup> to sanctify the people.

<sup>21</sup> And he brought me forth to the outer court, and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court; and behold, in every corner of the court there was a court. <sup>22</sup> In the four corners of the court were courts enclosed, of forty cubits long and thirty broad; these four corner-courts were of one measure. <sup>23</sup> And there was a row of building round about in them, round about those four, and there were boiling places made under the rows round about. <sup>24</sup> Then said he unto me, These are the place of the cooks, where the ministers of the house shall boil the sacrifice of the people.

northward, and he led me round without to the outer gate, by the way that looketh eastward; and behold, there ran out waters on the right side.

<sup>28</sup> And when <sup>29</sup> the man went forth eastward, he had the line in his hand; and he measured a thousand cubits; and he made me pass through the waters; the waters were to the ancles. <sup>30</sup> Again he measured a thousand, and he made me pass through the waters; the waters were to the knees. Again he measured a thousand, and he made me pass through; the waters were to the loins. <sup>31</sup> Again he measured a thousand; and there was a river that I could not pass through; for the waters were risen, waters to swim in, a river that could not be passed through. <sup>32</sup> And he said to me, Son of man, seest thou this?

Then he led me and brought me back to the brink of the river. <sup>33</sup> And when I returned, behold, at the brink of the river were very many <sup>34</sup> trees, on the one side and on the other. <sup>35</sup> And he said to me, These waters issue out towards the east country, and they go down into the plain <sup>36</sup> and go into the sea; they are let out into the sea, that the waters may be healed. <sup>37</sup> And it shall come to pass that every living thing which moveth, whithersoever the swollen river* shall come, shall live; and there shall be a very great multitude of fish; because these waters shall come thither: for they shall be healed, and every thing shall live whither the river cometh. <sup>38</sup> And it shall come to pass, that fishers shall stand upon it; from <sup>39</sup> En-gedi even unto En-eglam, shall be places to spread forth nets; their fish shall be according to their kinds, as the fish of <sup>40</sup> the Great Sea, exceeding many. <sup>41</sup> But the miry places thereof and the marshes thereof shall not be healed; they <sup>42</sup> shall be given to salt. <sup>43</sup> And by the river upon its bank, on this side and on that side, shall grow all trees for food, <sup>44</sup> whose leaf shall not fade, neither shall their fruit fail; it shall bring forth new fruit according to its months; because their waters flow forth from the sanctuary; and their fruit shall be for food, and <sup>45</sup> their leaf for medicine.

THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET

DANIEL.

The education of some Jewish captives of noble birth at the court of Babylon—(8) The religious fidelity of Daniel and three others; (15) the Divine blessing following thereupon; (17) the extraordinary progress of the four youths in knowledge and wisdom, and (19) their appointment to the service of the king.

1. IN the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim, the king of Judah, <sup>a</sup> came Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, to Jerusalem, and besieged it. <sup>2</sup> And <sup>b</sup> the Lord gave Jehoiakim, the king of Judah, into his hand, with <sup>c</sup> part of the vessels of the house of God; which he carried into <sup>d</sup> the land of Shinar, to the house of his god; and <sup>e</sup> he brought the vessels into the treasure-house of his god.

and who had ability in them to stand in the king's palace, and whom they might teach the learning† and the tongue of the Chaldeans. <sup>5</sup> And the king appointed them a daily provision of the king's food and of the wine which he drank, for nourishing them three years; that at the end thereof they might <sup>g</sup> stand before the king.

<sup>6</sup> And among these were of the sons of Judah, Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. <sup>7</sup> And <sup>h</sup> the chief of the eunuchs gave to them names; <sup>i</sup> and to Daniel he gave the name Belteshazzar; and to Hananiah, Shadrach; and to Mishael, Meshach; and to Azariah, Abednego.

eunuchs said to Daniel : I fear my lord the king who hath appointed your food and your drink ; for why should he see your faces worse looking than the youths who are of your age ? And ye will endanger my head to the king.

King Nebuchadnezzar, being anxious to learn the signification of a dream, (2) tests the ability of his wise men to interpret it, by requiring them to tell him the dream; and on their failure to do this, condemns them to death as impostors; but (14) in answer to prayer, (19) the secret is revealed to Daniel.

<sup>8</sup> The king answered and said, I know of certainty that ye would gain time, because ye see the word is gone forth from me. <sup>9</sup> But if ye will not make known to me the dream, there is one decree for you ; for <sup>h</sup> ye have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, till the time be changed. Therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that ye can show me its interpretation.

<sup>10</sup> The Chaldeans answered before the king, and said : There is not a man upon the earth that can show the king's matter ; therefore no king, lord, or ruler, hath asked such things of any magician or enchanter or Chaldean. <sup>11</sup> And the thing that the king requireth is hard, and there is none other that can show it before the king‡ except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh.

19 Then was the secret revealed unto Daniel <sup>m</sup> in a night vision. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven. <sup>20</sup> Daniel answered and said : <sup>n</sup> Blessed be the name of God for ever and ever ! For <sup>o</sup> wisdom and might are his. <sup>21</sup> And he changeth the times and the seasons ; he <sup>p</sup> removeth kings, and he setteth up kings. He <sup>q</sup> giveth wisdom to the wise, and knowledge to them that know understanding. <sup>22</sup> He <sup>r</sup> revealeth the deep and secret things ; he <sup>s</sup> knoweth what is in the darkness, and <sup>t</sup> the light dwelleth with him. <sup>23</sup> I thank thee, and praise thee, the God of my fathers, who hast given me wisdom and might ; and <sup>u</sup> now hast made known unto me what we desired of thee ; for thou hast made known to us the king's matter.

<sup>24</sup> Then Daniel went in to Arioch, whom the king had ordained to destroy the wise men of Babylon, he went and said thus to him : Destroy not the wise men of Babylon ; bring me in before the king, and I will show to the king the interpretation.

Daniel tells the king (28) his dream, and (37) its interpretation ; revealing a succession of four great empires—the Babylonian, Medo-Per-sian, Greek and Roman—with their several characteristics ; and (44) the rise, growth and ultimate universality of God's everlasting kingdom.

<sup>25</sup> THEN Arioch brought in Daniel before the king in haste, and said thus unto him ; I have found a man of the captives of Judah who will make known unto the king the interpretation.

<sup>26</sup> The king answered and said to Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, Art thou able to make known to me the dream which I have seen, and its interpretation ?

Thy dream and the visions of thy head upon thy bed are these : <sup>29</sup> As for thee, O king, thy thoughts arose upon thy bed as to what should come to pass hereafter ; and He who revealeth secrets maketh known to thee what shall come to pass. <sup>30</sup> But <sup>c</sup> as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for wisdom that I have more than any living, but to the intent that the interpretation should be made known to the king, and that thou mightest know the thoughts of thy heart.

Daniel's three friends, (8) refusing to worship a golden statue set up by the king, (13) are cast into a furnace of fire, and (24) are miraculously preserved—(28) The impression made by this event on Nebuchadnezzar.

3. NEBUCHADNEZZAR the king made an image of gold, whose height was three-score cubits, and its breadth six cubits; he set it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon.

<sup>7</sup> Therefore at the very time when all the people heard the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and all kinds of music, all the peoples, nations and languages, fell down and worshipped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

<sup>13</sup> Then Nebuchadnezzar, in rage and fury, commanded to bring Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego. Then they brought these men before the king. <sup>14</sup> Nebuchadnezzar spake and said to them: Is it of purpose, Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego, that ye serve not my gods, nor worship the golden image which I have set up? <sup>15</sup> Now if ye be ready that at the time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of music, ye fall down and worship the image which I have made, well; but if ye worship not, ye shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. And <sup>e</sup> who is the God that shall <sup>f</sup> deliver you out of my hands?

<sup>19</sup> Then was Nebuchadnezzar filled with fury, and the form of his visage was changed against Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego. He spake and commanded that they should heat the furnace seven times more than it was wont to be heated.

<sup>20</sup> And he commanded the mighty men who were in his army, to bind Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace. <sup>21</sup> Then these men were bound in their coats, their tunics, and their mantles, and all their garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace. <sup>22</sup> Therefore because the king's commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceedingly hot, the flame of the fire slew those men that took up Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego. <sup>23</sup> And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego, fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

<sup>26</sup> Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the door of the burning fiery furnace; and he spake and said: Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego, ye servants of the most high God, come forth and come hither. Then Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego, came forth from the midst of the fire. <sup>27</sup> And the princes, the governors and the captains, and the king's counsellors, being gathered together, saw these men, <sup>i</sup> upon whose bodies the fire had no power, nor was a hair of their head singed, neither were their coats* changed, nor had the smell of fire passed on them.

Another divine revelation, warning Nebuchadnezzar of a severe chastisement for his pride and tyranny—(28) Its fulfilment; and (34) the restored monarch's humble acknowledgment of God's supremacy, justice and truth.

4. NEBUCHADNEZZAR the king, <sup>a</sup> unto all the peoples, nations and languages, that dwell in all the earth; Peace be multiplied unto you. <sup>2</sup> I have thought it good to show the signs and wonders that the most high God hath wrought towards me. <sup>3</sup> How <sup>b</sup> great are his signs, and how mighty his wonders! His kingdom is <sup>c</sup> an everlasting kingdom, and his dominion from generation to generation.

Babylon. <sup>30</sup> The king spake and said: Is <sup>a</sup> not this great Babylon that I have built for the house of the kingdom*, by the might of my power, and for the honour of my majesty!

<sup>33</sup> The same moment was the thing fulfilled upon Nebuchadnezzar; and he was driven from men, and ate grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, till his hairs were grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds' claws.

<sup>36</sup> At the same time my reason returned to me; and for the glory of my kingdom, mine honour and brightness returned to me; and my counsellors and my lords sought me; and I was established in my kingdom, and excellent majesty was added unto me.

concubines, might drink therein. <sup>3</sup> Then they brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the temple of the house of God which was at Jerusalem; and the king and his lords, his wives and his concubines, drank in them. <sup>4</sup> They drank wine, and praised the gods of gold and of silver, of brass*, of iron, of wood and of stone.

light and understanding and excellent wisdom is found in thee. <sup>15</sup> And now the wise men, the astrologers*, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing and make known to me its interpretation: but they could not show the interpretation of the thing. <sup>16</sup> And I have heard of thee, that thou canst make interpretations and solve knotty questions. Now if thou canst read the writing and make known to me its interpretation, thou shalt be clothed with purple, and a chain of gold shall be about thy neck, and thou shalt be the third ruler in the kingdom.

<sup>17</sup> Then Daniel answered and said before the king, Let thy gifts be to thyself, and give thy rewards† to another; yet I will read the writing unto the king, and make known to him the interpretation.

A symbolical vision of four wild-beasts, representing successive great empires, of which the fourth is exceedingly strong and terrible; and ten other powers growing out of the fourth; also another, rising up amongst the ten, an oppressive, impious and persecuting power; ending with the judgment of God, introducing his universal and everlasting kingdom.

7. IN the first year of Belshazzar, the king of Babylon, Daniel saw a dream and "visions of his head upon his bed; then he wrote the dream, and told the sum of the matters.

had great iron teeth; it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with its feet; and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it; and <sup>k</sup> it had ten horns. <sup>8</sup> I considered the horns, and behold, <sup>l</sup> there came up among them another, a little horn, before which three of the first horns were plucked up by the roots; and behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man, and <sup>m</sup> a mouth speaking great things.

<sup>15</sup> I Daniel was grieved in my spirit, in the midst of my body, and the visions of my head troubled me. <sup>16</sup> I came near to <sup>a</sup> one of them that stood by, and asked him the truth concerning all this. And he told me, and made me know the interpretation of the things. <sup>17</sup> As to <sup>b</sup> these great beasts, which are four, four kings shall arise out of the earth: <sup>18</sup> but <sup>c</sup> the saints of the Most High shall receive the kingdom, and shall possess the kingdom for ever, even for ever and ever.

<sup>19</sup> Then I desired to know the truth concerning the fourth beast, which was diverse from all the others, exceedingly dreadful, whose teeth were iron and its nails brass*, devouring, breaking in pieces, and stamping the residue with its feet; <sup>20</sup> and concerning the ten horns that were in its head; and, concerning the other which came up, and before which three fell; even that horn which had eyes, and a mouth that spake very great things; and its aspect was greater than its fellows. <sup>21</sup> I beheld, and <sup>d</sup> that horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them; <sup>22</sup> until the Ancient of days came, and <sup>e</sup> judgment* was given to the saints of the Most High, and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom.

<sup>23</sup> Thus he said: The fourth beast shall be the fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be diverse from all kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down and break it in pieces. <sup>24</sup> And as to <sup>f</sup> the ten horns, out of that kingdom ten kings shall arise; and another shall arise after them; and he shall be diverse from the first, and he shall subdue three kings; <sup>25</sup> and <sup>g</sup> he will speak words against the Most High, and <sup>h</sup> wear out the saints of the Most High, and <sup>i</sup> think to change times and laws; and <sup>k</sup> they shall be given into his hand <sup>l</sup> until a time and times and the half of a time. <sup>26</sup> But the judgment shall sit, and his dominion shall be taken away, and he consumed and destroyed unto the end. <sup>27</sup> And the kingdom and dominion and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven shall be given to the people of the saints of the Most High; whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey Him.

<sup>28</sup> So far is the end of the matter. As for me Daniel, <sup>m</sup> my thoughts much troubled me, and my countenance changed in me; but I kept the matter <sup>n</sup> in my heart.

Symbolical vision of a ram and a he-goat, denoting the Medo-Persian and Macedonian empires, and the division of the latter into four monarchies; out of one of which arises an exceedingly wicked and tyrannical power, persecuting God's people and profaning his temple, for an appointed time.

8. IN the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar a vision appeared unto me, even me <sup>a</sup> Daniel, after that which appeared unto me at the first.

<sup>2</sup> And I saw in the vision, and while I saw it came to pass that I was in Shushan, the palace, which is in the province of <sup>b</sup> Elam; and I saw in the vision, and I was by the river Ulai. <sup>3</sup> And I lifted up mine eyes and saw, and behold, there stood before the river a ram which had two horns; and the two horns were high, but one <sup>c</sup> was higher than the other, and the higher came up last. <sup>4</sup> I saw the ram pushing westward and northward and southward; and no beasts could stand before him, and none could deliver out of his hand; but <sup>e</sup> he did according to his will, and became great.

<sup>5</sup> And as I was considering, behold, a he-goat came from the West over the face of the whole earth, without touching the ground: and the goat <sup>g</sup> had a notable horn between his eyes. <sup>6</sup> And he came to the ram that had the two horns, which I had seen standing before the river, and ran unto him in the fury of his strength. <sup>7</sup> And I saw him come close to the ram, and he was embittered against him, and he smote the ram, and broke his two horns; and there was no power in the ram to stand before him, but he cast him down to the ground, and stamped upon him: and there was none that could deliver the ram out of his hand. <sup>8</sup> And the he-goat waxed very great; and when he was strong the great horn was broken; and in the place of it came up <sup>d</sup> four notable* ones towards the four winds of heaven. <sup>9</sup> And out of one of them came forth a little horn, which waxed exceedingly great <sup>e</sup> towards the South and towards the East and towards the <sup>f</sup> glorious land. <sup>10</sup> And it waxed great even to <sup>g</sup> the host of heaven; and <sup>h</sup> it cast down to the ground <sup>i</sup> some of the host and of the stars, and <sup>j</sup> stamped upon them; <sup>11</sup> yea, <sup>k</sup> it waxed great even to <sup>l</sup> the prince of the host; and <sup>m</sup> by it the daily sacrifice was taken away; and the place of his sanctuary was cast down. <sup>12</sup> And a host was delivered up, with the daily sacrifice, by reason of transgression; and it cast the truth down to the ground, and it <sup>n</sup> acted and prospered.

Daniel's prayer for his people; and (20) the revelation made to him of the time appointed for the great atonement for sin and the bringing in of everlasting righteousness, by the work and suffering of Messiah; (26) to be followed by the destruction of the city and temple.

9. IN the first year of <sup>a</sup> Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of the seed of the Medes, who became king over the realm of the Chaldeans, <sup>2</sup> in the first year of his reign, I Daniel understood by the books the number of the years|| whereof the word of the LORD came to <sup>b</sup> Jeremiah the prophet, that he would accomplish seventy years in the desolations of Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup> And <sup>c</sup> I set my face unto the Lord God, to seek by prayer and supplications, with fasting and sackcloth and ashes. <sup>4</sup> And I prayed unto the LORD my God, and <sup>d</sup> made my confession, and said:

O Lord, <sup>e</sup> the great and dreadful God, <sup>f</sup> keeping the covenant and mercy to them that love him and to them that keep his commandments; <sup>5</sup> we <sup>g</sup> have sinned, and have committed iniquity, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even by departing from thy precepts and from thy judgments; <sup>6</sup> and <sup>h</sup> we have not hearkened to thy servants the prophets, who spake in thy name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land.

<sup>7</sup> Unto thee, Lord, <sup>i</sup> belongeth righteousness, but <sup>k</sup> unto us confusion of faces, as at this day; to the men of Judah and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to all Israel, near and far off, through all the countries whither thou hast driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against thee. <sup>8</sup> O Lord, to us belongeth confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against thee. <sup>9</sup> To thee, O Lord our God belong mercies and forgivenesses; for we have rebelled against him, <sup>10</sup> and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets. <sup>11</sup> Yea, <sup>m</sup> all Israel have transgressed thy law, even by departing, so as not to obey thy voice. And the curse is poured upon us, and the oath that is written in <sup>n</sup> the law of Moses the servant of God, because we have sinned against him. <sup>12</sup> And <sup>o</sup> he hath established his words, which he spake against us and against our judges who judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil; which hath not been done <sup>p</sup> under the whole heaven as it hath been done in Jerusalem. <sup>13</sup> As it is written in the law of Moses, all this evil is come upon us. And <sup>q</sup> we have not made our prayer before the LORD our God, that we might turn from our iniquities, and give heed to thy truth. <sup>14</sup> And the LORD hath <sup>r</sup> watched upon the evil, and brought it upon us: for the LORD our God is righteous in all his works which he hath done; and we obeyed not his voice.

Another prophetic vision:—(7) The overpowering glory of the divine messenger; and (12) his introductory communications to Daniel, assuring him of heavenly help and protection to God's people against their enemies.

10. IN the third year of Cyrus, the king of Persia, a word was revealed unto Daniel,

<sup>2</sup> In those days I Daniel was mourning three whole weeks; <sup>3</sup> I ate no pleasant bread, neither came flesh or wine into my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all, till three whole weeks were fulfilled.

<sup>10</sup> And behold, <sup>o</sup> a hand touched me, and set me trembling on my knees and the palms of my hands. <sup>11</sup> And he said unto me: Daniel, the man greatly beloved, consider thou the words that I speak unto thee, and stand upright; for unto thee am I now sent. And when he had spoken this word unto me, I stood trembling.

<sup>15</sup> And when he spoke such words unto me, <sup>w</sup> I set my face towards the ground, and I became dumb. <sup>16</sup> And behold, <sup>x</sup> one like the similitude of the sons of men <sup>y</sup> touched my lips. And I opened my mouth and spake, and I said unto him that stood before me: My lord, by the vision <sup>a</sup>my sorrows are turned upon me, and I have retained no strength; <sup>17</sup>and how now can the servant of my lord talk now with my lord? For as for me, straightway there remaineth no strength in me, neither is there breath left in me.

<sup>18</sup>And there came again and touched me one like the appearance of a man, and he strengthened me. <sup>19</sup>And he said: Thou man greatly beloved, fear not; peace be unto thee, be strong, yea be strong. And when he spoke to me, I was strengthened; and I said: Let my lord speak; for thou hast strengthened me.

<sup>20</sup>And he said: Knowest thou wherefore I come unto thee? And now I will return to fight with the prince of Persia; and when I am gone forth, lo, <sup>b</sup>the prince of Grecia shall come. <sup>21</sup>But I will show thee that which is written in the book of truth. And there is none that strengtheneth himself with me against these but Michael your prince. <sup>11</sup>And I, in the first year of Darius the Mede, even I, stood to confirm and to strengthen him.

<sup>2</sup>AND now will I show thee the truth. Behold, there will stand up yet three kings in Persia; and the fourth will be far richer than they all; and by his strength through his riches he will stir up the whole against* the realm of Grecia.

<sup>6</sup>And at the end of years they will join themselves together; and the daughter of the king of the South will come to the king of the North to make an agreement; but she shall not retain the power of the arm; and he shall not stand, nor his arm; and she shall be given up, and they that brought her, and he that begat her, and he that strengthened her in the times.

<sup>7</sup>And out of a branch of her roots will one stand up in his stead, who will come with an army, and will enter into the fortress of the king of the North; and he will deal against them, and will prevail.

<sup>8</sup>And he will bring in captivity to Egypt their gods, with their princes, and with their precious vessels of silver and of gold. And he will stand for years against the king of the North. <sup>9</sup>And he* will enter into the kingdom of the king of the South; and he shall return into his own land.

<sup>10</sup>And his sons will be stirred up and will assemble a multitude of great forces; and he will certainly come and <sup>d</sup>overflow and pass through. Then will he return, and be stirred up, even to his fortress.

<sup>13</sup>And the king of the North will anew set forth a multitude greater than the former, and will certainly come at the end of the times, the years, with a great army and with much riches. <sup>14</sup>And in those times many will stand up against the king of the South; and the most violent of thy people will exalt themselves, to establish the vision; but they shall fall. <sup>15</sup>And the king of the North will come, and cast up a mount, and take the city of defences. And the arms of the South shall not withstand, neither his chosen people, and there shall be no strength to withstand. <sup>16</sup>But he that cometh against him <sup>f</sup>will do according to his own will, and none shall stand before him; and he will stand in <sup>g</sup>the glorious land, and destruction shall be in his hand.

<sup>17</sup>And he will set his face to enter with the strength of his whole kingdom, and upright ones with him, and he will perform. And he will give him the daughter of women, to destroy her; but she shall not stand, and she shall not be for him. <sup>18</sup>And he will turn his face unto the isles, and will take many. But a captain for his own behalf will cause his reproach to cease; moreover he will cause his reproach to turn upon him. <sup>19</sup>And he will turn his face towards the fortresses of his own land. But he shall stumble and fall, and shall <sup>h</sup>not be found.

of the kingdom; but within few days he shall be destroyed, neither by anger nor by war.

<sup>30</sup> Then will he return into his land with great riches; and his heart will be against the holy covenant; and he will act, and will return to his own land. <sup>31</sup> At the time appointed he will return and come towards the South; but it shall not be in the latter time as in the former. <sup>32</sup> And the ships of Chittim will come against him; and he will be grieved, and will return, and will have indignation against the holy covenant; and he will act; and he will return, and will give heed to them that forsake the holy covenant. <sup>33</sup> And arms will stand on his part; and <sup>34</sup> they will pollute the sanctuary, even the strong-hold, and will take away the daily sacrifice; and they will set up <sup>35</sup> the abomination that maketh desolate.

and many will cleave to them with flatteries. <sup>40</sup> And some of those who understand shall fall; <sup>41</sup> to refine them, and to purify, and to make them white, to <sup>42</sup> the time of the end; because it is yet for the time appointed.

<sup>43</sup> And the king will do according to his will; and he <sup>44</sup> will exalt himself and magnify himself against every god, and will speak monstrous things against the God of gods. And he shall prosper <sup>45</sup> till the indignation be accomplished; for what is determined shall be done. <sup>46</sup> And he will not regard the god of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any god; for he will magnify himself above all; <sup>47</sup> but in his place he will honour the god of strong-holds; and a god whom his fathers knew not will he honour, with gold and silver and with precious stones and pleasant things. <sup>48</sup> And he will act in the most strong-holds with a strange god. Whoever shall acknowledge him he will increase with glory; and he will cause them to rule over the many, and will divide the land for reward.

<sup>49</sup> And at the time of the end the king of the South will push at him; and the king of the North will hurl himself against him like a whirlwind, with chariots and with horsemen and with many ships; and he will enter into the countries, and will overflow and pass over. <sup>50</sup> And he will enter into the glorious land; and many countries shall be overthrown; but these shall escape out of his hand; Edom and Moab and the chief of the sons of Ammon. <sup>51</sup> And he will stretch forth his hand upon the countries; and the land of Egypt shall not escape; <sup>52</sup> but he shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and all the precious things of Egypt; and the Libyans and the Ethiopians shall be at his steps*. <sup>53</sup> But tidings out of the East and out of the North shall trouble him; and he will go forth with great fury to destroy and utterly ruin many. <sup>54</sup> And he will plant the tents of his palace between the seas and the glorious holy mountain. And <sup>55</sup> he will come to his end, and none shall help him.

Neither am I her husband.

Let <sup>b</sup> her therefore put away her whoredom from her face,
And her adulteries from between her breasts;

And set her <sup>d</sup> as in the day that she was born,

And make her <sup>e</sup> as a wilderness,
And set her like a dry land,

For they are <sup>g</sup> the children of whoredom.

She that conceived them hath done shamefully:

For she said, <sup>i</sup> I will go after my lovers;
That <sup>k</sup> give me my bread and my water,
My wool and my flax,
Mine oil and my drink.

And she shall not find her paths.

And she shall seek them, but shall not find them.

And she shall say, <sup>n</sup> I will go and return to my <sup>o</sup> former husband,
For <sup>p</sup> then was it better with me than now.

And multiplied her silver and gold,
Which <sup>r</sup> they use for Baal.

And my wine in its season,
And I will take away my wool and my flax,
That should cover her nakedness.

And none shall deliver her out of my hand.

And all her solemn feasts.

Whereof she saith, They are my hire,

That my lovers have given me;
And <sup>w</sup> I will make them a forest,
And the beasts of the field shall eat them.

Wherein <sup>b</sup> she burned incense to them,
And <sup>c</sup> she decked herself with her rings and her jewels,
And she went after her lovers,
And <sup>d</sup> forgot me, saith the LORD.

<sup>14</sup> Therefore behold, I will allure her,
And <sup>e</sup> bring her into the wilderness,

And the valley of Achor† for a door of hope.

And she shall sing† there,
As in <sup>i</sup> the days of her youth,
And as <sup>j</sup> in the day when she came up out of the land of Egypt.

<sup>16</sup> And it shall be at that day, saith the LORD,

That thou shalt call me <sup>k</sup> Ishi‡,
And thou shalt no more call me Baalish.

A covenant with the beasts of the field,
And with the fowls of heaven,
And the creeping things of the ground;
And <sup>o</sup> I will break bow and sword and battle out of the land;

And I will make them <sup>p</sup> to lie down safely.
<sup>19</sup> And <sup>q</sup> I will betroth thee unto me for ever;

Yea I will betroth thee unto me in righteousness and in judgment,
And in lovingkindness and in mercies;

And <sup>r</sup> thou shalt know the LORD.

I will answer, saith the LORD,

I will answer the heavens,
And they shall answer the earth;

And <sup>u</sup> I will have mercy upon her that had not obtained mercy‡;

And I will say to Not my people,
Thou art my people;
And they shall say, My God.

7. WHEN <sup>a</sup> I would heal Israel, Then the iniquity of Ephraim is discovered,

And <sup>b</sup> the wickedness of Samaria: For <sup>c</sup> they commit falsehood, And the thief cometh in, The robber-troop plundereth in the street, <sup>2</sup> And they consider not in their hearts, That I remember all their wickedness: Now <sup>d</sup> their own doings beset them about, They are <sup>e</sup> before my face.

I <sup>r</sup> bring them down like the birds of the heaven;

I chastise them,

As <sup>s</sup> their congregation heareth.

Destruction unto them, because they transgress against me!

But they howl upon their beds.

They assemble themselves for corn and wine,

They turn away from me.

And strengthened their arms,

They are <sup>x</sup> like a deceitful bow.

Their princes shall fall by the sword,

Because of <sup>y</sup> the rage of their tongue;

This shall be their derision <sup>z</sup> in the land of Egypt.

Approaching judgments, by foreign invasion.

8. THE trumpet to thy mouth!

He † cometh <sup>a</sup> as an eagle against the house of the LORD;

Because <sup>b</sup> they have transgressed my covenant,

And trespassed against my law.

My God, we, Israel, know thee.

They make princes, and I know them not:

Of <sup>e</sup> their silver and their gold they make for themselves idols,

That <sup>f</sup> they may be cut off.

And they reap whirlwind;

It hath no stalk,

The sprout yieldeth no meal;

If so be it yield, <sup>n</sup> strangers shall swallow it up.

Now shall they be among the nations

Now <sup>t</sup> will I gather them,

JOEL.

1. THE word of the LORD that came to Joel the son of Pethuel.

Lamentation over the devastation of the country by (4) locusts and (8) drought; and (13) prayer to God for help.

2 HEAR this, ye old men, And give ear, all ye inhabitants of the land!

Hath<sup>a</sup> this been in your days,
Or in the days of your fathers?

3 Tell ye to your children concerning it,

And your children to their children,
And their children to the next generation.

The cankerworm hath eaten;
The caterpillar hath eaten.

5 Awake, ye drunkards, and weep,
And howl, all ye drinkers of wine!
Because of the new wine,

For <sup>e</sup> it is cut off from your mouth. 6 For <sup>d</sup> a nation is come up upon my land, Strong, and without number; Whose <sup>e</sup> teeth are the teeth of a lion, And it hath the jaw-teeth of a lioness. 7 It <sup>f</sup> hath laid waste my vine, And barked my fig-tree: It hath made it clean bare, and cast it away; Its branches are made white. 8 Lament like a virgin, Girded with sackcloth, for the husband of her youth. 9 The <sup>g</sup> meal-offering and the drink-offering are cut off from the house of the LORD; The priests, the LORD's ministers, mourn. 10 The field is laid waste, The <sup>h</sup> land mourneth. For the corn is wasted, The <sup>i</sup> new wine is dried up, The oil languisheth.	Because they have no pasture; Yea the flocks of sheep are destroyed. 19 To <sup>u</sup> thee, LORD, I cry; For <sup>z</sup> fire hath devoured the pastures of the wilderness, And flame hath burned up all the trees of the field. 20 Yea the beasts of the field <sup>v</sup> cry unto thee; For <sup>s</sup> the rivers of waters are dried up, And fire hath devoured the pastures of the wilderness. Announcement of judgment upon the land, and (12) summons to repentance and prayer. 2. BLOW <sup>a</sup> ye the trumpet in Zion, And sound an alarm in <sup>b</sup> my holy moun- tain! Let all the inhabitants of the land trem- ble! For <sup>c</sup> the day of the LORD cometh, For it is nigh; 2 A <sup>d</sup> day of darkness and of gloom, A day of clouds and of thick darkness. Like the morning-dawn spread upon the mountains, Cometh a great people and strong, There <sup>e</sup> hath not ever been the like; Neither shall be any more after it, To the years of many generations. 3 A fire devoureth before them, And behind them a flame burneth up: The land is as <sup>f</sup> the garden of Eden before them, And behind them a desolate wilderness; Yea and nothing escapeth them. 4 The <sup>g</sup> appearance of them is as the appear- ance of horses, And as horsemen, so they run. 5 Like <sup>h</sup> the noise of chariots, on the tops of the mountains they leap, Like the noise of the flame of fire that de- voureth stubble, Like a strong people set in array for battle. 6 Before their face peoples tremble, All <sup>i</sup> faces gather blackness*. 7 They run like mighty men, They climb the wall like men of war; And they march every one on his ways, And <sup>k</sup> they break not their ranks; 8 Neither doth one press upon another, They march every one in his path: And when they fall upon the dart, they are not wounded. 9 They <sup>l</sup> rush to and fro in the city; They run upon the wall, They <sup>m</sup> climb up into the houses, They enter in at the windows like a thief. 10 The earth quaketh before them, The heavens tremble;	u Ps. 50, 15. z ch. 2, 3; Jer. 9, 10. v Job 38, 41; Ps. 104, 21. s 1 Ki. 17, 7; 18, 6. a Num. 10, 1-9; Jer. 4, 5. b Dan. 9, 16. c Obad. 15; Zeph. 1, 14, 15. d Ex. 10, 15; Is. 5, 30; Am. 5, 18-20. e ch. 1, 2; Ex. 10, 6, 14. f Ge. 2, 8; 13, 10. g Rev. 9, 7. h Rev. 9, 9. i Nah. 2, 10. * or, paleness. k Pro. 30, 27. l Is. 33, 4. m Ex. 10, 6.

 The sun and the moon are darkened,
 And the stars withdraw their shining.
 11 And <sup>o</sup> the LORD uttereth his voice before his army;
 For his host is very great,
 For strong is he that executeth his word.
 For <sup>p</sup> the day of the LORD is great and very terrible,
 And <sup>q</sup> who can abide it?
 12 Yet even now, saith the LORD,
 Turn <sup>r</sup> ye unto me with all your heart, And <sup>s</sup> with fasting and with weeping and with mourning.
 13 And <sup>t</sup> rend your heart, and not your garments,
 And turn unto the LORD your God;
 For he is <sup>u</sup> gracious and merciful,
 Slow <sup>v</sup> to anger, and of great kindness,
 And <sup>w</sup> he repenteth him of the evil.
 14 Who <sup>x</sup> knoweth <sup>y</sup> if he will return and repent,
 And leave <sup>z</sup> a blessing behind him;
 A meal-offering and a drink-offering,
 Unto the LORD your God!
 15 Blow the trumpet in Zion, Sanctify <sup>b</sup> a fast, call the assembly;
 16 Gather the people,
 Sanctify <sup>c</sup> the congregation,
 Assemble the elders,
 Even those that suck the breasts.
 Let <sup>e</sup> the bridegroom go forth of his chamber,
 And the bride out of her closet.
 17 Let the priests, the ministers of the LORD,
 Weep, between the porch and the altar,
 And let them say,
 Spare thy people, O LORD,
 And give not thy heritage to reproach.
 That the heathen should make them a by-word*:
 Wherefore <sup>f</sup> should they say among the peoples,
 Where is their God?
 Promise of the removal of the plague and the bestowment of abundant blessing.
 18 THEN will the LORD be <sup>a</sup> jealous for his land,
 And <sup>b</sup> pity his people.
 19 Yea the LORD will answer, and say unto his people:
 Behold, I will <sup>c</sup> send you corn and wine and oil,
 And ye shall be satisfied therewith;
 And I will no more make you a reproach
 among the nations.
 20 And I will remove far off from you the northern army†,
 And will drive him* into a land barren and desolate;
 With his face toward <sup>d</sup> the East sea,
 And his stench shall come up,
 And his foul smell shall come up;
 Because he hath done great things.
 21 Fear not, O land!
 Be glad, and rejoice!
 For the LORD doeth great things.
 22 Be not afraid, <sup>f</sup> ye beasts of the field!
 For the pastures of the wilderness spring;
 For the tree beareth its fruit,
 The <sup>g</sup> fig-tree and the vine yield their strength.
 23 And ye sons of Zion, be glad,
 And <sup>h</sup> rejoice in the LORD, your God;
 For he will give you the early rain in measure,
 And <sup>i</sup> he will cause to come down for you
 the rain,
 The early rain and the latter rain, at the first.
 24 And the floors shall be full of wheat,
 And the vats shall overflow with new wine and oil.
 25 And I will restore to you the years That <sup>k</sup> the locust, the cankerworm and the caterpillar and the palmerworm have eaten;
 My great army which I sent among you.
 26 And ye shall <sup>l</sup> eat in plenty, and be satisfied,
 And ye shall praise the name of the LORD your God.
 Who hath dealt wondrously with you;
 And <sup>m</sup> my people shall never be ashamed.
 27 And <sup>n</sup> ye shall know that I am <sup>o</sup> in the midst of Israel,
 And that <sup>p</sup> I am the LORD your God, and

 And my people shall never be ashamed.
 The prophecy continued—(28) Promise of the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon all mankind—(ch. 3. 1) Judgment upon all nations—(17) The everlasting blessedness and glory of the people of God.
 28 And it shall come to pass afterwards,
 That <sup>a</sup> I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh;
 And your sons and <sup>b</sup> your daughters shall prophesy,
 Your old men shall dream dreams,
 Your young men shall see visions;
 29 And even upon <sup>c</sup> the servants and upon the handmaids,
 In those days, will I pour out my Spirit.
 30 And <sup>d</sup> I will show wonders in the heavens and in the earth,

Judgments on neighbouring heathen nations, viz. (3) Syria, (6) Philistia, (9) Tyre, (11) Edom, (13) Ammon, (ch. 2. 1) Moab; also on (4) Judah and (9) Israel.

1. THE words of Amos, <sup>a</sup> who was among the herdmen of <sup>b</sup> Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel, <sup>c</sup> in the days of Uzziah, the king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam, the son of Joash, the king of Israel, two years before <sup>d</sup> the earthquake.

2 And he said :

The LORD <sup>e</sup> roareth from Zion,
And uttereth his voice from Jerusalem.
And the pastures of the shepherds mourn,
And the top of <sup>f</sup> Carmel withereth.

3 Thus saith the LORD :

For three transgressions of <sup>g</sup> Damascus, and for four,

I will not reverse it * ;
Because <sup>h</sup> they threshed Gilead with threshing instruments of iron.

4 And <sup>i</sup> I will send a fire into the house of

5 And I will break the bar† of Damascus,
And cut off the inhabitant from the valley of Aven,

And the sceptre-holder from Beth-Eden :
And <sup>m</sup> the people of Syria shall go into captivity, unto <sup>n</sup> Kir ; saith the LORD.

6 Thus saith the LORD :

For three transgressions of <sup>o</sup> Gaza, and for four,

I will not reverse it ;
Because <sup>p</sup> they carried away captive a complete captivity,
To deliver them up to Edom.

7 And I will send a fire on the wall of Gaza,

And it shall devour the palaces thereof.

8 And I will cut off the inhabitant from

And the sceptre-holder from Ashkelon ;

And I will turn my hand against Ekron,

And <sup>r</sup> the remnant of the Philistines shall perish ; saith the Lord God.

9 Thus saith the LORD :

For three transgressions of <sup>s</sup> Tyre, and for four,

I will not reverse it ;

Because they delivered up a complete captivity to Edom,

And remembered not <sup>t</sup> the brotherly covenant.

10 And <sup>u</sup> I will send a fire on the wall of Tyre,

And it shall devour the palaces thereof.

11 Thus saith the LORD :

For three transgressions of <sup>v</sup> Edom, and for four,

I will not reverse it ;

Because <sup>w</sup> he pursued his brother with the sword,

And cast off all pity ;

And his anger did tear perpetually,

And he kept his wrath for ever.

12 And I will send a fire upon Teman,

And it shall devour the palaces of <sup>x</sup> Bozrah.

13 Thus saith the LORD :

For three transgressions of <sup>y</sup> the children of Ammon, and for four,

I will not reverse it ;

Because they ripped up the women with child of Gilead,

In order to enlarge their own border.

14 And I will kindle a fire in the wall of

And it shall devour the palaces thereof ;

With shouting in the day of battle,

With a tempest in the day of the whirlwind.

15 And their king shall go into captivity,

He and his princes together, saith the LORD.

2. Thus saith the LORD :

For three transgressions of <sup>c</sup> Moab, and for four,

I will not reverse it ;

Because he burned the bones of the king of Edom into lime.

2 And I will send a fire upon Moab,

And it shall devour the palaces of Kiriath ;

And Moab shall die in tumult,

With shouting and with the sound of the trumpet.

3 And I will cut off the judge from the midst thereof,

And <sup>d</sup> will slay all his princes with him, saith the LORD.

So shall the children of Israel be rescued,
That dwell in Samaria,
In the corner of a bed, and on the damask of a couch.

of Jacob,

Saith the Lord GOD, the God of hosts :

<sup>14</sup> That in the day when I visit the transgressions of Israel upon him, <sup>1</sup> I will also visit the altars of Beth-el;
And <sup>k</sup> the horns of the altar shall be cut off, and shall fall to the ground.

<sup>m</sup> the summer-house ;
And <sup>n</sup> the houses of ivory shall perish,
And many houses shall have an end,
Saith the LORD.

The prophecy continued—Judgments on (1) the women of Samaria, (2) who shall be carried into captivity; and (4) on the whole nation, still persisting in idolatry, after many chastisements.

That are in the mountain of Samaria;
That oppress the poor, that crush the needy, That say to their masters*, Bring thou, and let us drink.

iness,
That lo, days are coming upon you,
When ye shall be dragged away <sup>c</sup> with hooks,

And your remnant with fish-hooks, <sup>3</sup> And <sup>d</sup> ye shall go out at the breaches,
each straight before her;
And ye shall be cast out to Harmon,
Saith the LORD.

At <sup>f</sup> Gilgal multiply transgression ;
And <sup>g</sup> bring your sacrifices every morning,
And proclaim ye, publish ye, <sup>k</sup> free offerings :
For so ye like, ye children of Israel,
Saith the Lord GOD.

<sup>6</sup> And I, even I, have given you cleanness of teeth, in all your cities,
And <sup>l</sup> want of bread, in all your places.
Yet <sup>m</sup> have ye not returned unto me, saith
the LORD.

rain from you,
When there were yet three months to the harvest ;
And I caused it to rain upon one city,
And caused it not to rain upon another city ;
One field was rained upon,

And the field whereupon it rained not withered ;

<sup>8</sup> And two or three cities wandered unto one city, to drink water,
And they were not satisfied.
Yet have ye not returned unto me,
Saith the LORD.

<sup>9</sup> I <sup>o</sup> have smitten you with blasting and mildew ;
The produce of your gardens and your vineyards,
And your fig-trees and your olive-trees,
<sup>p</sup> the locust devoured.
Yet have ye not returned unto me,
Saith the LORD.

Your young men have I slain with the sword,
And have <sup>r</sup> taken away your horses ;
And I have made <sup>s</sup> the stench of your camps to come up unto your nostrils.
Yet have ye not returned unto me,
Saith the LORD.

<sup>11</sup> I have overthrown among you,
As <sup>t</sup> God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah ;
And ye were <sup>u</sup> as a fire-brand snatched out of the burning.
Yet have ye not returned unto me,
Saith the LORD.

<sup>12</sup> Therefore thus will I do unto thee, Israel :
And because I will do this unto thee,
Prepare <sup>x</sup> to meet thy God, O Israel.

<sup>13</sup> For lo, He who formeth the mountains and createth the wind, And who <sup>y</sup> declareth unto man what is his thought,
Who <sup>z</sup> maketh morning, darkness,
And <sup>a</sup> treadeth upon the high places of the earth,

The <sup>b</sup> LORD, the God of hosts, is his name.

The prophecy continued—(1) Lamentation over impending desolation; with warnings and calls to repentance.

<sup>5</sup>. HEAR ye this word which I take up against you,
A <sup>a</sup> lamentation, O house of Israel !

She shall no more rise :
She is cast down upon her land,
There is none to raise her up.

<sup>3</sup> For thus saith the Lord GOD :
The <sup>d</sup> city that went out a thousand Shall have a hundred left ;
And that which went forth a hundred Shall have ten left, to the house of Israel.

the king's mowings. 2 And it came to pass when they had made an end of eating the grass of the land, that I said:

O Lord GOD, forgive, I beseech thee.
How shall Jacob endure?

3 The <sup>m</sup> LORD repented for this:
It shall not be, saith the LORD.

4 Thus the Lord GOD showed me; and behold, the Lord GOD called to contend <sup>n</sup> by fire; and it devoured the great deep, and ate up the field.

5 Then said I, O Lord GOD, cease, I beseech thee.
How shall Jacob endure?
For he is small.

6 The LORD repented for this:
This also shall not be, saith the Lord GOD.

7 Thus he showed me; and behold, the Lord stood upon a wall <sup>o</sup> made by a plumbline, with a plumb-line in his hand. 8 And the LORD said unto me, Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A plumb-line. Then said the Lord:

Behold, <sup>p</sup> I will set a plumb-line in the midst of my people Israel:
I <sup>q</sup> will not again pass over them any more.
9 And <sup>r</sup> the high places of Isaac shall be desolate,
And the sanctuaries of Israel shall be laid waste;
And <sup>s</sup> I will arise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword.

thus Amos saith, Jeroboam shall die by the sword, and Israel shall surely go into

12 And Amoziah said unto Amos: Thou and there eat bread, and prophesy there: 13 but thou shalt not prophesy any longer

JONAH.

Jonah's mission from the land of Israel to the heathen city, Nineveh—(3) His disobedience and (1) punishment.

<sup>7</sup>And they said every one to his fellow: Come and let us <sup>n</sup>cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us. So they cast lots, and <sup>o</sup>the lot fell upon Jonah. <sup>8</sup>And they said unto him: Tell us, we pray, for whose cause this evil is upon us. What is thine occupation, and whence comest thou? What is thy country, and of what people art thou? <sup>9</sup>And he said unto them: I am a Hebrew; and I fear the LORD, the God of heaven, who made the sea and the dry land.

<sup>10</sup>And the men were exceedingly afraid, and they said unto him: What is this thou hast done? (For the men knew that he was fleeing from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.) <sup>11</sup>Then said they unto him: What shall we do unto thee, that the sea may be calm unto us? For the sea wrought and was tempestuous. <sup>12</sup>And he said unto them: Take me up and cast me forth into the sea; so shall the sea be calm unto you: for I know that for my sake this great tempest is upon you.

the dry land; but they could not, for the sea wrought and was tempestuous against them. <sup>14</sup>So they cried unto the LORD, and said: We beseech thee, O LORD, we beseech thee, let us not perish for this man's life, and <sup>o</sup>lay not upon us innocent blood: for thou, LORD, doest as it pleaseth thee. <sup>15</sup>Then they took up Jonah and cast him forth into the sea: and the sea ceased from its raging. <sup>16</sup>And the men feared the LORD exceedingly; and offered a sacrifice unto the LORD, and vowed vows.

I <sup>b</sup>cried out of my distress unto the LORD, And he answered me; Out of the belly of <sup>c</sup>hell* cried I, And thou heardest my voice. <sup>3</sup>For <sup>d</sup>thou castedst me into the deep, In the midst of the seas; And the floods compassed me about; All <sup>e</sup>thy breakers and thy billows passed over me.

But <sup>i</sup>thou hast brought up my life from <sup>k</sup>the pit, O LORD my God.

Jonah's renewed mission to Nineveh—(5) The humiliation and repentance of the king and people—(10) God's reversal of his sentence.

3. AND the word of the LORD came unto Jonah the second time, saying, <sup>2</sup> Arise, go unto Nineveh, the great city, and <sup>a</sup> preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee. <sup>3</sup> So Jonah arose and went unto Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD.

Now Nineveh was <sup>b</sup> an exceedingly great city, of three days' journey. <sup>4</sup> And Jonah began to enter into the city one day's journey; and he cried and said: Yct forty days, and <sup>c</sup> Nineveh shall be overthrown. <sup>5</sup> And the people of Nineveh <sup>d</sup> believed in God, and proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them. <sup>6</sup> And the matter came unto the king of Nineveh; and he arose from his throne, and <sup>e</sup> laid his robe from him, and covered himself with sackcloth, and <sup>f</sup> sat on the ashes. <sup>7</sup> And <sup>g</sup> he caused it to be proclaimed and published in Nineveh, by the decree of the king and his nobles, saying: Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste any thing; let them not feed, nor drink water; <sup>8</sup> but let man and beast be covered with sackcloth; and let them cry mightily unto God. And <sup>h</sup> let them turn every one from his evil way, and from the violence that <sup>i</sup> is in their hands. <sup>9</sup> Who <sup>j</sup> knoweth but God will turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not?

Jonah's discontent at the sparing of Nineveh—(6) The means employed by God to reprove and instruct him.

4. AND it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was very angry. <sup>2</sup> And he prayed unto the LORD and said: I pray thee, O LORD, was not this my saying, when I was yet in my country? Therefore <sup>a</sup> I fled before unto Tarshish. For I knew that thou art <sup>b</sup> a gracious, and merciful God, slow to anger and of great kindness, and <sup>c</sup> repenting thee of the evil. <sup>3</sup> And now, LORD, <sup>d</sup> take, I beseech thee, my life from me; for it is better for me to die than to live.

<sup>5</sup> And Jonah went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city; and there he made him a booth, and sat under it in the shade, till he might see what would become of the city. <sup>6</sup> And the LORD God prepared a gourd, and made it to come up over Jonah, that it might be a shade over his head, to deliver him from his trouble. So Jonah was exceedingly glad of the gourd.

<sup>7</sup> But God prepared a worm when the morning rose the next day, and it smote the gourd, so that it withered. <sup>8</sup> And it came to pass, when the sun shone forth, that God prepared a sultry east wind; and the sun beat upon the head of Jonah, that he fainted, and wished himself dead*, and said: It is better for me to die than to live.

<sup>9</sup> And God said to Jonah: Doest thou well to be angry for the gourd? And he said: I do well to be angry, unto death.

<sup>10</sup> Then said the LORD: thou hast pity on the gourd, for which thou hast not laboured, neither madest it grow; which came up in a night and perished in a night: <sup>11</sup> and should not I have pity on Nineveh, <sup>e</sup> that great city, wherein are more than sixscore thousand persons <sup>f</sup> that cannot discern between their right hand and their left hand, and much <sup>g</sup> cattle?

MICAH.

1. THE word of the LORD that came to <sup>a</sup> Micah the Morasthite, in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, the kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

Judgments on Israel and Judah (5) For their idolatry—(6) Samaria shall be totally destroyed; and the desolation shall reach to the very gates of Jerusalem.

3. AND I said:

Hear, I pray you, ye heads of Jacob,
And ye princes of the house of Israel!
Is <sup>a</sup> it not for you to know judgment?

Who pluck off <sup>b</sup> men's skin from off them,
And flay their skin from off them;
And they break their bones,
And chop them in pieces, as for the pot,
And <sup>e</sup> like flesh within the caldron.

But he will not answer them;
And he <sup>e</sup> will hide his face from them at that time,
As they have made evil their doings.

And it shall be dark unto you, without divination;
And the sun shall go down over the prophets,
And the day shall be dark over them.
<sup>7</sup> And the <sup>i</sup> seers shall be ashamed,

And the diviners confounded;
Yea they shall all <sup>k</sup> cover their lips,
Because <sup>l</sup> there is no answer of God.

with the spirit of the LORD,
And with judgment and might;
To <sup>n</sup> declare unto Jacob his transgression,
And to Israel his sin.

<sup>9</sup> Hear this, I pray you,
Ye heads of the house of Jacob,
And ye princes of the house of Israel!
Who abhor judgment,
And pervert all that is right;

And <sup>q</sup> their priests teach for hire,
And their prophets divine for money.
Yet <sup>r</sup> they lean upon the LORD, and say,
Is not the LORD among us?

Evil <sup>s</sup> shall not come upon us.
<sup>12</sup> Therefore for your sake,
Zion shall be <sup>t</sup> ploughed as a field,
And <sup>u</sup> Jerusalem shall become heaps,
And the mountain of the House, as the high places of a forest.

4. BUT <sup>a</sup> in the last days it shall come to pass,
That the mountain of the house of the LORD

Shall be established on the top of the mountains;
And shall be exalted above the hills;
And peoples will flow unto it.

Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD,

And to the house of the God of Jacob;
And he will teach us of his ways,
And we will walk in his paths.
For <sup>c</sup> the law* shall go forth from Zion,
And the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

And will rebuke strong nations, even afar off.

And <sup>e</sup> they shall beat their swords into plough-shares†,
And their spears into pruning-hooks!
Nation shall not lift up sword against nation,
Neither shall they learn war any more.

p Zec. 9. 10.	<sup>10</sup> And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD, That <sup>11</sup> I will cut off thy horses out of the midst of thee, And I will destroy thy chariots. <sup>12</sup> And I will cut off the cities of thy land, And throw down all thy strong-holds. <sup>13</sup> And I will cut off witchcrafts out of thy hand, And thou shalt have no <sup>14</sup> soothsayers. <sup>15</sup> Thy <sup>16</sup> graven images also will I cut off, And thy statues out of the midst of thee; And thou shalt no more bow down to the work of thy hands. <sup>17</sup> And I will pluck up thine Asherim* out of the midst of thee; And I will destroy thy cities. <sup>18</sup> And <sup>19</sup> I will execute vengeance, in anger and fury, Upon the nations which have not heark- ened.	<sup>7</sup> Is <sup>k</sup> the LORD pleased with thousands of rams, With ten thousands of rivers of <sup>l</sup> oil? # NAHUM.

The Lord's glorious attributes and doings set forth for the consolation of his people. (9) Rebukes of the Assyrian oppressor. (12) The destruction of Nineveh and deliverance of Israel.

1. THE burden<sup>a</sup> of <sup>a</sup>Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.

2 The LORD is <sup>b</sup>a jealous and <sup>c</sup>avenging God,

The LORD is an avenger and wrathful;
The LORD taketh vengeance on his adversaries,

And <sup>d</sup>he reserveth anger for his enemies;

3 The LORD is <sup>e</sup>slow to anger, and great in power,

And <sup>f</sup>he will not at all acquit the wicked.

The <sup>g</sup>LORD—his way is in the whirlwind and in the storm,

And the clouds are the dust of his feet.

4 He <sup>h</sup>rebuketh the sea, and maketh it dry,

And he drieth up all the rivers.

Bashan <sup>i</sup>and Carmel languish,

And the blossom of Lebanon languisheth.

And the earth <sup>m</sup>heaveth at his presence,

Yea, the world and all that dwell therein.

6 Who <sup>n</sup>can stand before his indignation?

And <sup>o</sup>who can abide in the fierceness of his anger?

His <sup>p</sup>wrath is poured out like fire,

And the rocks are rent asunder by him.

7 The <sup>q</sup>LORD is good, a strong-hold in the day of trouble;

And <sup>r</sup>he knoweth them that trust in him.

8 And <sup>s</sup>with an overrunning flood will he make an end of her place,

And will pursue his enemies into darkness.

9 What <sup>t</sup>do ye imagine against the LORD?
He will make an end;

Affliction shall not rise up twice.

10 Though they be tangled together like thorns,

And besotted in their settling,

They shall be devoured, <sup>u</sup>like stubble fully dry.

11 From thee came forth one <sup>v</sup>meditating evil against the LORD, Counselling wickedness.

12 Thus saith the LORD:

Though they be whole and likewise many.

Even so <sup>w</sup>shall they be cut down,

And each shall pass away.

Though I have afflicted thee<sup>x</sup>,

I will afflict thee no more;

13 But now will I <sup>z</sup>break his yoke from off thee,

And will burst thy fetters.

14 And the LORD hath commanded concerning thee,

That <sup>a</sup>no more of thy name be sown.

Out of the house of thy gods will I cut off the graven and the molten image,

I <sup>b</sup>will make thy grave, for thou art despised.

15 Behold <sup>c</sup>upon the mountains

The feet of him that bringeth good tidings,
That publisheth peace!

(O Judah, keep thy solemn feasts,

Perform thy vows!

For the wicked shall no more pass through thee;

He <sup>d</sup>is utterly cut off.

2. HE that <sup>a</sup>dasheth in pieces cometh up against thy face:

Keep <sup>b</sup>the fortress, watch the way,

Strengthen thy loins,

Fortify thy power mightily.

3 For the LORD restoreth the excellency of Jacob,

As the excellency of Israel:

For <sup>c</sup>plunderers have plundered them,

And destroyed their vine-branches.

3 The shield of his warriors is made red,
The valiant men are in scarlet:

The chariots shall be with flashing blades,

In the day of his preparation;

And the cypresses shall be brandished.

4 The chariots rush madly in the streets,

They jostle one against another in the broad ways:

Their appearance is like torches,

They flit about like lightnings.

5 He shall remembereth his nobles:

They stumble in their courses.

They make haste to her wall,

And the defence is prepared.

HABAKKUK.

Complaint of the Lord's delay to punish iniquity and violence—(5) Jehovah's answer, announcing the invasion of the land of Judah by the terrible Chaldeans.

 7; Lam.
 3. 8.
 1. THE burden* <sup>a</sup> which Habakkuk the prophet saw.

2 How long, LORD, do I cry,
 And <sup>b</sup> thou hearest not!
 I cry out unto thee, Violence!
 And thou savest not.

 6; Mic. 7.
 1-4.
 3 Why dost thou cause me to see iniquity?
 And why dost thou look upon grievance?
 For <sup>c</sup> spoiling and violence are before me;
 And there is strife, and contention lifteth itself up.

<sup>d</sup> or, goeth not forth according to truth.
 d Ps. 94. 3
 -6, 20, 21.
 c Is. 23. 14;
 Ac. 15. 41.
 4 Therefore the law is slack,
 And judgment doth never go forth <sup>d</sup>:
 For <sup>d</sup> the wicked compasseth about the righteous;

Therefore perverted judgment goeth forth.

 work is working.
 f Deu. 28.
 49, 50;
 Jer. 5. 15;
 fulfilled,
 2 Chr. 36.
 || or, the earth.
 5 See <sup>e</sup> ye, among the nations, and observe,
 And wonder marvellously:
 For I work a work <sup>f</sup> in your days,
 Which ye believe not though it be told you.

6 For lo, <sup>f</sup> I raise up the Chaldeans,
 The bitter and impetuous nation, Which marcheth through the breadth of the land <sup>g</sup>,
 To take possession of dwelling-places not their own.

7 Terrible and dreadful are they;
 Their judgment and their dignity proceed from themselves.

 -29.
 h Jer. 5. 6;
 Zeph. 3.
 i Jer. 4. 13;
 48. 40.
 8 And their <sup>g</sup> horses are swifter than leopards,
 And fiercer than <sup>h</sup> evening wolves:
 And their horsemen prance about,
 And their horsemen come from afar;
 They <sup>i</sup> fly like an eagle hastening to devour.

9 They all come for violence:
 The crowd* of their faces <sup>k</sup> is forwards;
 And they collect captives, like the sand.
<sup>10</sup> And they scoff at kings,
 And princes are a laughing-stock to them:
 They laugh at every strong-hold,
 And they heap dust <sup>l</sup> and take it.
 Yea, he passeth on, and offendeth;
 He whose might is his god!

The prophet's intercession for his people against their cruel and impious oppressors. (ch. 2. 1)
 The Lord's answer, (2) promising blessing to the patient believer, while the proud and unbelieving shall perish—(6) A five-fold woe on the Chaldeans for their (6) insatiable ambition, (9) covetousness, (12) cruelty, (15) treachery and (18) idolatry.

12 ART thou not <sup>a</sup> from everlasting,
 O LORD my God, <sup>b</sup> my Holy One?
 We shall not die.
 Thou <sup>c</sup> LORD, hast set him for judgment,
 And thou, O <sup>d</sup> Rock, hast appointed him for correction.

13 Thou <sup>e</sup> art of purer eyes than to behold evil,
 And thou canst not look upon iniquity.
 Wherefore <sup>f</sup> lookest thou upon them that deal treacherously,
 And <sup>g</sup> art silent when the wicked devoureth a more righteous man than he?

14 And thou makest men as the fishes of the sea,
 As the creeping things, that have no ruler over them?

15 He <sup>h</sup> taketh up all of them with a hook,
 He catcheth them in his net,
 And gathereth them in his drag:
 Therefore he rejoiceth and exulteth;
 16 Therefore <sup>i</sup> he sacrificeth unto his net,
 And burneth incense to his drag;

 37. 24, 25.

Because by them his portion is rich,
And his food fat.
17 Shall he therefore empty his net,
And not spare continually to slay nations?

2. I <sup>k</sup> will stand upon my watch,
And set me upon a tower,
And I will wait to see what He will speak
by me,
And what answer I shall have to my complaint.

2 And the LORD answered me, and said :
Write <sup>l</sup> the vision, and engrave it on tablets,
That he may run who readeth it.

3 For <sup>m</sup> the vision is for the appointed time,
And it hasteneth to the end,
And it deceiveth not :

Though it delay, <sup>n</sup> wait for it,
For <sup>o</sup> it will surely come, it will not tarry.

4 Behold, the proud, his soul within him is not upright ;

But <sup>p</sup> the just shall live by his faith*.

5 And moreover <sup>q</sup> the wine is treacherous ;
He is a haughty man, and he resteth not ;
Who <sup>r</sup> enlargeth his desire like the gravet,
And he is like death, and cannot be satisfied ;
But he <sup>s</sup> gathereth unto himself all the nations,
And heapeth unto himself all the peoples.

6 Will not all these <sup>t</sup> take up a parable :
against him,

And a taunting proverb against him ;
And say : Woe to him that increaseth what is not his own ! <sup>u</sup> How long !

And to him that loadeth himself with robbery <sup>v</sup> !

7 Will <sup>w</sup> not they that bite thee rise up suddenly,
And they that vex thee wake up ?

And thou shalt be for booties unto them.

8 Because thou hast plundered many nations, All <sup>x</sup> the remnant of the peoples shall plunder thee ;

Because of men's blood, and the violence
done to the earth <sup>y</sup> ,

To the city and to all that dwell therein.

9 Woe to him that <sup>z</sup> gaineth wicked gain for his house ;

That he may <sup>a</sup> set his nest on high,
That he may be delivered from the power of calamity !

10 Thou hast devised shame to thy house ;
Cutting off many peoples,
And sinning against thine own soul.

11 For the stone crieth out of the wall,
And the beam out of the timber answereth
it.

12 Woe to him that buildeth a town with

And foundeth a city by iniquity !

13 Behold, is it not from the LORD of hosts
That <sup>c</sup> the nations labour for the fire, And the peoples weary themselves for very vanity ?

14 For <sup>d</sup> the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD,
As the waters cover the sea.

15 Woe unto him that <sup>e</sup> giveth his neighbour drink,

Pouring out thy bottle, yea even to make drunk,

That thou mayest look on their nakedness !

16 Thou art <sup>f</sup> filled with shame instead of glory ;

Drink <sup>g</sup> thou also, and let thy foreskin be uncovered.

The cup of the LORD's right hand shall be turned unto thee,

And contempt shall be on thy glory.

17 For the violence done to <sup>h</sup> Lebanon shall cover thee,

And the destruction of beasts, which maketh them afraid ;

Because of men's blood, and the violence
done to the earth* ,

To the city and to all that dwell therein.

18 What <sup>i</sup> profiteth the graven image,
That its maker hath graven it ?

Or the molten image, and <sup>k</sup> the teacher of falsehood,

That the maker of its form trusteth therein,

In making <sup>l</sup> dumb idols ?

19 Woe unto him that saith to the wood, Awake,

To the dumb stone, Arise !

Shall it teach ? Behold it is overlaid with gold and silver,

And <sup>m</sup> there is no breath at all inside it.

20 But <sup>n</sup> the LORD is in his holy temple ; Let <sup>o</sup> all the earth keep silence before him.

A concluding psalm, (2) praying that God will accomplish his work, but show mercy while executing judgment ; (3) describing in imagery derived from former deliverances, His coming to subdue his enemies and save his people ; and, (16) in view of coming calamities, (17) expressing joyful confidence in God.

3. A PRAYER of Habakkuk the prophet <sup>a</sup> upon Shigionoth.

thee, I am afraid.

H A G G A I.

The first message—(2) Reproof of the people's neglect of the temple-building—(12) Their repentance, and recommencement of the work—(13) Promise of God's presence with them.

a Ezra 4. 24. <sup>1</sup> IN <sup>a</sup> the second year of Darius the king, in the sixth month, on the first day of the month, came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet unto <sup>b</sup> Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, the governor* of Judah, and to Joshua the son of <sup>c</sup> Josedech, the high priest, saying, <sup>2</sup> Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying:

This people say, The time is not come, the time that the LORD's house should be built.

d Ezra 5. 1. <sup>3</sup> And the word of the LORD came <sup>d</sup> by Haggai the prophet, saying:

e comp. 2 Sam. 7. 2; Ps. 132. 3 —5. <sup>4</sup> Is <sup>e</sup> it time for you yourselves to dwell in your wainscoted houses, while this house is waste? <sup>5</sup> And now thus saith the LORD

f ch. 2. 16; Deu. 28. 38—40; Mic. 6. 14, 15. of hosts: Consider your ways. <sup>6</sup> Ye <sup>f</sup> have sown much, and brought in little; ye <sup>g</sup> eat, but ye have not sufficiency; ye drink, but ye are not filled with drink; ye clothe you, but ye are not made warm; and he that earneth wages earneth wages for a bag with holes.

<sup>7</sup> Thus saith the LORD of hosts: Consider your ways. <sup>8</sup> Go up to the mountain, and bring wood, and build the house; and I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified, saith the LORD.

A ch. 2. 17; Mal. 2. 2. <sup>9</sup> Ye looked for much, and lo, it came to little; and when ye brought it home, <sup>h</sup> I did blow upon it. Why? saith the LORD of hosts: Because of my house that is waste, and ye run every man unto his own house. <sup>10</sup> Therefore <sup>i</sup> the heaven over you is restrained from dew, and the earth restraineth her fruit. <sup>11</sup> And <sup>k</sup> I called for a drought* upon the land and upon the mountains, and upon the corn and upon the new wine and upon the oil, and upon what the ground bringeth forth; and upon men and upon cattle, and upon all the labour of the hands.

<sup>12</sup> Then <sup>l</sup> Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, with all the rest of the people, hearkened to the voice of the LORD their God, and the words of Haggai the prophet, as the LORD their God had sent him; and the people feared before the LORD.

<sup>14</sup> And the LORD stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, the governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, and the spirit of all the rest of the people; and <sup>o</sup> they came and worked on the house of the LORD of hosts, their God, <sup>15</sup> on the four and twentieth day of the sixth month, in the second year of Darius the king.

Second message—The people, (3) discouraged on account of the inferiority of the second temple, (4) are reminded of the promises of God's covenant; and (6) assured that the second temple shall surpass the first in glory.

2. IN the seventh month, on the one and twentieth of the month, came the word of the LORD by the prophet Haggai, saying: <sup>2</sup> Speak now to Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, the governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, and to the rest of the people, saying:

Third message, accounting for past calamities—(10) No service or sacrifices offered by impure hands can be acceptable to God; but (15) obedience shall be assuredly followed by his blessing.

10 ON the four and twentieth of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet, saying, <sup>11</sup> Thus saith the LORD of hosts: <sup>a</sup> Ask now the priest concerning the law, saying, <sup>12</sup> If one bear <sup>b</sup> holy flesh in the skirt of his garment, and with his skirt do touch bread or pottage or wine or oil or any food, shall it be holy? And the priests answered and said, No. <sup>13</sup> Then said Haggai: If one <sup>c</sup> unclean by a dead body touch any of these, shall it be unclean? And the priests answered and said, It shall be unclean.

<sup>14</sup> Then answered Haggai, and said: So <sup>d</sup> is this people, and so is this nation before me, saith the LORD, and so is every work of their hands; and what they offer there is unclean.

<sup>15</sup> And now, I pray you, <sup>e</sup> consider, from this day and backward*, from before a stone was laid upon a stone in the temple of the LORD. <sup>16</sup> Before these things were, one came to a heap of twenty measures, and there were ten. He came to the wine-vat, to draw out fifty buckets, and there were twenty. <sup>17</sup> I <sup>f</sup> smote you with blight and with mildew and with hail, in all the labours of your hands. Yet <sup>g</sup> ye turned not to me, saith the LORD. <sup>18</sup> Consider now from this day and backward†, from the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, from <sup>h</sup> the day that the foundation of the LORD's temple was laid, consider ye. <sup>19</sup> Is the seed yet in the barn? And as yet the vine and the fig-tree and the pomegranate and the olive-tree hath not borne fruit. From <sup>i</sup> this day will I bless you.

Fourth message—(20) Promise to a faithful representative of the true Israel, of Divine protection and favour amidst wars and convulsions of nations.

20 AND a second time the word of the LORD came unto Haggai, on the four and twentieth of the month, saying, <sup>21</sup> Speak to Zerubbabel, the governor of Judah, saying:

I <sup>a</sup> will shake the heavens and the earth; <sup>22</sup> and <sup>b</sup> I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms, and I will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the nations. And <sup>c</sup> I will overthrow the chariots and their riders; and the horses and their riders shall come down, every <sup>d</sup> one by the sword of his brother.

<sup>23</sup> In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, will I take thee, Zerubbabel, my servant, the son of Shealtiel, saith the LORD, and will set thee as <sup>e</sup> a signet: for <sup>f</sup> thee have I chosen, saith the LORD of hosts.

ZECHARIAH.

Introduction—(2) Ancient calls to repentance repeated to the present generation; and (4) enforced by an appeal to their fathers' experience.

1. IN the eighth month, <sup>a</sup> in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD unto <sup>b</sup> Zechariah, the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo, the prophet, saying:

<sup>5</sup> Your fathers, where are they? And the prophets, do they live for ever? <sup>6</sup> But <sup>h</sup> my words and my statutes, which I commanded my servants the prophets, did they not overtake your fathers? And they turned and said: <sup>i</sup> Like as the LORD of hosts thought to do unto us, according to our ways and according to our doings, so hath he done to us.

A series of symbolical visions, beheld in one night, representing future events, near and distant—(7) First vision—Messengers sent through the earth report that the whole world is at rest; but (14) the cities of Judah being still desolate, (16) the interceding Angel obtains a promise of their restoration.

<sup>7</sup> ON the four and twentieth day of the eleventh month, (which is the month Sebat), in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD unto Zechariah, the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo, the prophet, saying:

<sup>8</sup> I saw by night, and behold, <sup>a</sup> a man riding upon a red horse, and he stood among the myrtle-trees that were in the shady place; And behind him were <sup>b</sup> red horses, speckled, and white. <sup>9</sup> And I said, My lord, what are these? And the angel that talked with me said unto me: I will show thee what these are. <sup>10</sup> And the man that stood among the myrtle-trees answered and said: <sup>c</sup> These are they whom the LORD hath sent to walk to and fro through the earth. <sup>11</sup> And they answered the angel of the LORD that stood among the myrtle-trees, and said: We have walked through the earth, and behold, all the earth sitteth still and is at rest.

Thus saith the LORD of hosts: I am <sup>g</sup> jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great jealousy. <sup>15</sup> And I am very sore displeased with the nations at ease; for <sup>h</sup> I was a little displeased, and they helped forward the affliction.

Second vision—(18) Four horns and four smiths—representing the enemies of God's people, and the agents employed by Him for their defeat and overthrow.

<sup>18</sup> AND I lifted up mine eyes and looked, and behold, four <sup>a</sup> horns. <sup>19</sup> And I said unto the angel that talked with me, What are these? And he answered me: These are the horns which have scattered Judah, Israel and Jerusalem.

<sup>20</sup> And the LORD showed me four smiths. <sup>21</sup> And I said: What come these to do? And he spake saying: These are the horns which have scattered Judah, so that no man did lift up his head; but these are come to terrify them, to cast out the horns of the nations which lifted up their horn against the land of Judah, to scatter it.

Third vision—(1) The measuring of Jerusalem—(4) Promises of Zion's enlargement, safety and glory, through God's presence—(6) The Jewish exiles remaining in Babylon are summoned to return.

garments, and he was standing before the Angel. <sup>4</sup> And he answered and spake unto those that stood before him, saying: Take away the filthy garments from him. And unto him he said: Behold, <sup>f</sup> I have caused thine iniquity to pass from thee, and <sup>g</sup> I will clothe thee with festal garments. <sup>5</sup> And I said, Let them set a clean <sup>h</sup> mitre upon his head. So they set a clean mitre upon his head, and clothed him with garments. And the Angel of the LORD was standing by.

If thou wilt walk in my ways and if thou wilt <sup>i</sup> keep my charge, then thou shalt also judge my house, and shalt also keep my courts; and I will give thee goings among these that <sup>k</sup> stand.

<sup>4</sup> And the angel that talked with me came again, and waked me, <sup>a</sup> as a man that is wakened out of his sleep. <sup>2</sup> And he said unto me: What seest thou? And I said: I have looked, and behold, <sup>b</sup> a lampstand all gold, with a bowl† upon the top of it, and <sup>c</sup> its seven lamps thereon, and seven pipes to the seven lamps which are upon the top thereof; <sup>3</sup> and <sup>d</sup> two olive-trees by it, one upon the right of the bowl and the other upon the left thereof.

<sup>4</sup> And I answered and spake to the angel that talked with me, saying: What are these, my lord? <sup>5</sup> And the angel that talked with me answered and said unto me: Knowest thou not what these are? And I said: No, my lord.

<sup>12</sup> And I answered again and said unto him: What are the two olive-branches which through the two golden pipes empty the golden oil* out of themselves? <sup>13</sup> And he answered me and said: Knowest thou not what these are? Sixth vision—(1) A long unrolled parchment flying over the land; (3) signifying the speedy execution of God's threatenings against all wickedness.

<sup>5</sup> AND again I lifted up mine eyes and looked, and behold, a flying <sup>a</sup> scroll. <sup>2</sup> And he said unto me: What seest thou? And I answered: I see a flying scroll; its length twenty cubits and its breadth ten cubits. <sup>3</sup> And he said unto me: This is <sup>b</sup> the curse that goeth forth over the face of the whole land; for every one that stealeth shall be cut off on this side according to it, and every one that sweareth shall be cut off on that side according to it. <sup>4</sup> I have brought it forth, saith the LORD of hosts, and it shall enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of <sup>c</sup> him that sweareth falsely by my name; and it shall remain in the midst of his house, and shall consume it, with its timber and its stones.

Seventh vision—(5) A woman called Wickedness, closely imprisoned, is carried away to a distant land.

<sup>5</sup> AND <sup>a</sup> the angel that talked with me came forth, and said unto me: Lift up now thine eyes and see what is this that goeth forth. <sup>6</sup> And I said: What is it? And he said: This is the <sup>b</sup> ephah that goeth forth. And he said: This is their appearance through all the land.

<sup>7</sup> And behold, there was lifted up a round piece of lead; and this is a woman sitting in the midst of the ephah. <sup>8</sup> And he said: This is Wickedness. And he cast her into the midst of the ephah, and he cast the weight of lead upon its mouth.

<sup>9</sup> And I lifted up mine eyes and looked, and behold, there came out two women, and the wind was in their wings; for they had wings like the wings of a stork; and they lifted up the ephah between the earth and the heaven. <sup>10</sup> Then said I to the angel that talked with me: Whither do these carry the ephah? <sup>11</sup> And he said unto me: To build for her a house in <sup>e</sup> the land of Shinar; and it shall be established and settled there upon its own base.

Eighth vision—(1) Chariots and horses going forth over all the earth—(5) representing the execution of God's purposes with respect to various nations, and particularly the great northern and southern kingdoms which had oppressed his people.

<sup>4</sup> Then I answered and said unto the angel that talked with me: What are these, my lord? <sup>5</sup> And the angel answered and said unto me: These are the four winds of heaven, coming forth from <sup>e</sup> standing before the Lord of all the earth. <sup>6</sup> That in which are the black horses goeth forth into the North country, and the white go forth after them; and the grised go forth towards the South country. <sup>7</sup> And the bay† went forth, and sought to go that they might walk to and fro through the earth; and he said: Go ye, pass to and fro through the earth. So they went to and fro through the earth.

<sup>8</sup> Then cried he unto me and spake unto me, saying: Behold, these that go towards the North country† have caused my spirit to rest upon the North country.

*Conclusion of the prophecy—(1) The Lord's blessing contrasted with the sorrows of idolatry—
(2) Further promises to Israel of deliverance,

10. ASK ye <sup>a</sup> of the LORD rain, in the 2 For the idols! have <sup>d</sup> spoken vanity,

And <sup>e</sup> the diviners have seen a lie,
And have told false dreams;
They comfort in vain.

Therefore they have wandered, like a flock,
They are oppressed, <sup>f</sup> because there is no shepherd.

3 Mine <sup>g</sup> anger is kindled against the shepherds,
And <sup>h</sup> I will punish the he-goats.

For the LORD of hosts <sup>i</sup> visiteth his flock,
the house of Judah,
And maketh them like his goodly* horse in the battle.

4 From him <sup>k</sup> the corner-stone,
From him <sup>l</sup> the nail,
From him the battle-bow,
From him every exactor,
Go forth together.

5 And they shall be as mighty men Who <sup>m</sup> tread down their enemies in the mire of the streets in the battle;
And they shall fight, because <sup>n</sup> the LORD is with them,
And the riders on horses shall be put to shame.

6 And I will strengthen the house of Judah.

And I will save the house of Joseph;
And <sup>o</sup> I will bring them again, to place them,

For <sup>p</sup> I have mercy upon them;
And they shall <sup>q</sup> be as though I had not cast them off:
For I am the LORD their God, and <sup>r</sup> I will hear them.

7 And Ephraim shall be like a mighty man,
And their heart shall rejoice, <sup>s</sup> as with wine;
And <sup>t</sup> their children shall see it, and be glad,
Their heart shall rejoice in the LORD.

8 I will <sup>u</sup> hiss for them, and gather them,

For <sup>v</sup> I have redeemed them;
And <sup>w</sup> they shall increase as they did increase.

9 And <sup>x</sup> I will sow them among the peoples,
And <sup>y</sup> they shall remember me in the far countries;
And with their children they shall live and shall return.

10 And <sup>z</sup> I will bring them again out of the land of Egypt,
And gather them out of Assyria;
And I will bring them into <sup>a</sup> the land of Gilead and Lebanon,

11 And <sup>c</sup> he will pass through the sea with affliction;
And he will smite the waves in the sea,

But lo, I will deliver the men, every one into his neighbour's hand, and into the hand of his king. And they shall smite the land; and I will not deliver out of their hand.
<sup>7</sup> And I fed the flock of slaughter, even you, the poor of the flock. And I took unto me two staves; the one I called Beauty*, and the other I called Bands †; and I fed the flock. <sup>8</sup> And I cut off three shepherds <sup>e</sup> in one month.

<sup>10</sup> And I took my staff, Beauty, and cut it asunder, that I might break my covenant which I made with all the peoples. <sup>11</sup> And it was broken in that day; and so <sup>i</sup> the poor of the flock that gave heed to me knew that it was the word of the LORD.

<sup>12</sup> And I said unto them: If it be good in your eyes give ye my wages; and if not, forbear, So they weighed for my wages <sup>k</sup> thirty shekels of silver. <sup>13</sup> And the LORD said unto me: Cast it to <sup>l</sup> the potter: the goodly price that I was prized at by them! 12. THE burden* of the word of the LORD concerning Israel.

Thus saith the LORD, <sup>a</sup> who stretcheth forth the heavens, and layeth the foundation of the earth, and <sup>b</sup> formeth the spirit of man within him: <sup>2</sup> Behold, I will make Jerusalem <sup>c</sup> a bowl of trembling unto all the peoples round about; and against Judah also shall it be, in the siege against Jerusalem.

<sup>4</sup> In that day, saith the LORD, I will smite every horse with astonishment, and his rider with madness; and I will open mine eyes upon the house of Judah; and I will smite every horse of the peoples with blindness.

<sup>8</sup> In that day will the LORD <sup>a</sup> defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem. And he that is feeble among them at that day shall be as David; and the house of David shall be as God, <sup>a</sup> as the angel of the LORD before them. <sup>9</sup> And it shall come to pass in that day that I will seek <sup>k</sup> to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

Israel's conversion to God—(10) Promised outpouring of the Holy Spirit, producing deep and universal repentance; followed by (ch. 13. 1) pardon and purification, and (2) the complete extirpation of all ungodliness and wickedness.

<sup>13</sup> In that day there shall be <sup>i</sup> a fountain opened to the house of David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, for sin and for uncleanness.

<sup>2</sup> And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD of hosts, that <sup>k</sup> I will cut off the names of the idols out of the land; and they shall no more be remembered. And also I will cause <sup>l</sup> the prophets and the unclean spirit to pass out of the land.

<sup>3</sup> And it shall come to pass, if any shall yet prophesy, that his father and his mother, who begat him, shall say unto him, Thou shalt not live, for thou speakest lies in the name of the LORD; and his father and his mother, who begat him, <sup>m</sup> shall thrust him through when he prophesieth.

wounds in thy hands? And he will say, Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends.

The smiting of the Shepherd of Israel; (8) scattering of the flock; (9) salvation and purification of a remnant.

Israel's (1) final conflict, and (3) glorious deliverance—(12) Judgments on the enemies of God and his people—(16) Conversion of all nations—(20) Universal holiness.

camel, and of the ass, and of all the beasts that shall be in those camps, as this plague.

And in that day <sup>f</sup>there shall be no more a Canaanite in <sup>g</sup>the house of the LORD of hosts.

MALACHI.

Introduction—(2) God's love to Israel, notwithstanding his chastisements, proved by their history contrasted with that of other descendants of Abraham.

1. THE burden† of the word of the LORD to Israel by Malachi.

LORD hath indignation for ever. <sup>5</sup> And your eyes shall see, and ye shall say, <sup>e</sup>Let the LORD be magnified beyond the border of Israel.

Rebukes of the priests for profaneness, false teaching, and judicial corruption—God will punish them with shame; and he will be glorified over the whole earth by pure and holy worship.

<sup>6</sup> A SON honouret<sup>h</sup> his father, and a servant his master: <sup>a</sup>if then I am a father, where is mine honour; and if I am a master, where is my fear? saith the LORD of hosts unto you, <sup>b</sup>O priests, that despise my name.

But ye say, Wherein have we despised thy name? <sup>7</sup> Ye offer polluted <sup>c</sup>bread upon mine altar. And ye say, Wherein have we polluted thee? In that ye say, The table of the LORD is contemptible. <sup>8</sup> And <sup>d</sup>when ye offer the blind for sacrifice, is it not evil*? And when ye offer the lame and sick, is it not evil*? Offer it unto thy governor, will he be pleased with thee, or<sup>e</sup> accept thy person? saith the LORD of hosts. <sup>9</sup> And now, I pray you, beseech ye God that he will be gracious unto us. This hath been by your hand; will he regard your persons?† saith the LORD of hosts.

<sup>10</sup> Who<sup>f</sup> is there even among you that will shut the doors, that ye kindle not fire on mine altar to no purpose? I have no pleasure in you, saith the LORD of hosts; <sup>11</sup> neither will I accept an offering at your hand.

<sup>13</sup> But ye profane it, in that ye say: The table of the LORD is polluted, and the fruit thereof, its food, is contemptible. <sup>14</sup> Ye say also, Behold, <sup>15</sup> what a weariness! And ye have puffed at it, saith the LORD of hosts. And ye brought the stolen and the lame and the sick; thus ye brought the offering. Shall I<sup>m</sup> accept this from your hand? saith the LORD. <sup>16</sup> And<sup>n</sup> cursed is the deceiver, who hath in his flock a male, and voweth and sacrificeth unto the LORD a blemished victim.

For<sup>o</sup> I am a great King, saith the LORD of hosts; and my name is to be feared among the nations.

<sup>2</sup> And now, ye priests, this commandment is for you. <sup>3</sup> If<sup>o</sup> ye will not hear, and if ye will not lay it to heart, to give glory unto my name, saith the LORD of hosts, I will even send the curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings: yea, I have even cursed them, because ye do not lay it to heart. <sup>4</sup> Behold, <sup>5</sup> I will rebuke your seed, and<sup>q</sup> spread dung upon your faces, the dung of your solemn feasts; and they shall take you away with it.

<sup>6</sup> And ye shall know that I have sent this commandment unto you, that my covenant should be with Levi, saith the LORD of hosts. <sup>7</sup> My<sup>r</sup> covenant was with him of life and peace; and I gave them to him for reverence; and he feared me, and was afraid before my name. <sup>8</sup> The law of truth was in his mouth, and perverseness was not found in his lips; he walked with me in peace and uprightness, and he turned many away from iniquity.

ledge; and men should seek the law from his mouth; for he is<sup>t</sup> a messenger of the LORD of hosts. <sup>10</sup> But ye have departed out of the way; <sup>11</sup> ye have caused many to stumble at the law; <sup>12</sup> ye have violated the covenant of Levi, saith the LORD of hosts. <sup>13</sup> Therefore<sup>v</sup> also I make you contemptible and base before all the people; according as ye keep not my ways, but have respect of persons in the law*.

Condemnation of unlawful divorces, and marriages with heathen women.

Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal treacherously against the wife of his youth. <sup>17</sup> For the LORD, the God of Israel, saith that<sup>1</sup> he hateth putting away; for one covereth violence with his garment, saith the LORD of hosts. Therefore take heed to your spirit, that ye deal not treacherously.

In reply to (17) complaints of the Lord's delay to vindicate his people, (ch. 3. 1) His coming is announced (2) to separate the righteous from the wicked, to purify his true servants, and to punish all evil-doers—(1) Call to reformation, and promises of blessing.

<sup>13</sup> YOUR <sup>a</sup> words are strong against me, saith the LORD: yet ye say, What do we speak against thee? <sup>14</sup>Ye <sup>b</sup>say, It is vain to serve God; and what profit is it that we have kept his ordinance, and that we have walked mournfully before the LORD of hosts? <sup>15</sup>And so <sup>c</sup>we call the proud happy; yea they that work wickedness are set up, yea they tempt God, and they escape.

A BRIEF SUMMARY OF THE HISTORY OF THE JEWS DURING THE PERIOD BETWEEN THE OLD AND NEW TESTAMENTS.

JUDEA continued subject to the kings of Persia about two centuries. It does not appear to have had a separate governor after Nehemiah; but the administration of its affairs was left to the high priest, subject to the control of the governor of Syria.

On the conquest of Persia by Alexander (331 B.C.), Syria and the neighbouring countries, including Palestine, fell under his power. He continued to the Jews the free enjoyment of their laws and religion; and when he built the city of Alexandria, he placed a great number of Jews there, and gave to them the same privileges as to his Greek subjects.

After the death of Alexander (323 B.C.) and the division of his empire among his generals, Judæa became, for a time, part of the monarchy of Egypt; and Ptolemy Soter induced many thousands of Jews to settle in that country. In the city of Alexandria, Greek became the common language of the Jewish settlers and their descendants; who on that account were called Hellenists, or Grecian Jews;—a name afterwards applied to all Jews speaking the Greek language (see Acts vi. 1; ix, 29, etc.) For these Grecian Jews in Alexandria, primarily, the Greek translation of the Hebrew Scriptures, called the Septuagint, was made. Great numbers of Jews also settled in Syria and Asia Minor; being invited thither by Seleucus, to his newly built cities.

After the Jewish nation had been tributary to the kings of Egypt for about eighty years, they became (about 203 B.C.) subject to Antiochus III., king of Syria; but they were still governed by their own laws, under the high priest and great council.

About this time the peace of the nation was greatly disturbed by contests between different members of the family of Aaron for the office of high priest. There was also a growing degeneracy among all classes of the people; who began to neglect the worship and the law of God far more than they had ever done since their return from the captivity. God saw fit to punish them for this defection by the hand of Antiochus Epiphanes; who attacked and pillaged Jerusalem, desecrated the temple, abolished the public worship of God, compelled the people under penalty of death to sacrifice to idols, and destroyed all copies of the sacred writings that could be seized. This bitter persecution continued for three years and a half; when God raised up deliverers for his people in the persons of Mattathias, an aged priest, and his two sons, Judas and Simon; to whom and their successors was given the name of Maccabees; derived, it is said, from the initial letters of the motto on their standard. After several victories over Antiochus, Judas Maccabeus (in 165 B.C.) gained possession of Jerusalem, repaired and purified the temple, and restored the Divine worship. This event was ever afterwards commemorated by an annual festival of eight days, called the Feast of Dedication (see John x. 22). After twenty-six years of war, the Syrians were driven out of the country; and the Jews, under their Maccabean princes, regained their independence. They had again a regular army, and alliances with other powers; and their boundaries were extended by the subjugation of neighbouring countries; Idumæa, Philistia, Moab, Ammon, and Arabia Petrea.

This prosperity was, however, of short duration. The nation was exceedingly troubled by fierce quarrels between the Pharisees and Sadducees, and by contests for the throne between rival members of the royal family; and it was ill prepared to withstand the extending power of Rome. In the year 63 B.C. Pompey besieged and took Jerusalem, and made the country tributary to the Romans; though it was still governed by the Maccabean princes. But in the year 37 B.C. Herod, an Idumæan by birth, having obtained from the Romans the appointment of king of Judæa, came against Jerusalem with an army of 60,000 men, took the city by storm, and massacred many of the inhabitants. To gain popularity with his subjects, as well as to increase his own fame, he enlarged and beautified the temple, and constructed numerous public works, the cost of which he defrayed by heavy exactions upon his subjects.

In the thirty-sixth year of the reign of Herod, while Augustus was emperor of Rome, the SAVIOUR of the world was born.

Herod was succeeded in the government of the greater part of Palestine by his son Archelaus; who, after reigning ten years with great injustice and cruelty, was banished by Augustus. The president of Syria, Publius Sulpitius Quirinus (called in Greek Cyrenius, Luke ii. 2), was then sent to reduce the country to a Roman province: and a governor of Judæa was appointed, under the title of Procurator. But the Jews were still permitted to exercise their religious worship without molestation.

During this period, the Jews had become very numerous, both in the countries which had been subject to the Babylonian and Persian powers, and in those which subsequently constituted the vast Roman empire. From Syria and Egypt they had made their way to Greece and Italy; and they formed large communities in the great cities; where many of them had become by trade rich and powerful. In all these countries, they had carried with them their divine law and prophecies, and had established their synagogues and worship. A few only of the Gentiles had become complete converts to the Jewish religion; but many had embraced it so far as to renounce their national idolatries and to worship the only true God.

All these widely dispersed Jews, and many of the Gentile proselytes, regarded Jerusalem as their common centre; and not only sent yearly offerings to the temple, but also frequently repaired thither, to the great festivals. Thus it came to pass, that on the great day of Pentecost (Acts ii. 5, 9—11) there were assembled at Jerusalem 'Jews, devout men out of every nation under heaven; and in almost every city where the apostle Paul preached he found a body of his countrymen, many of whom were waiting for the 'Consolation of Israel.'

1. THE <sup>a</sup> genealogy* of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham.

18 NOW the <sup>a</sup> birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise. When his mother Mary was betrothed to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child <sup>b</sup> by the Holy Spirit. <sup>19</sup> Then Joseph her husband, being a just man, and not wishing <sup>c</sup> to make her a public example, was minded to put her away privately. <sup>20</sup> But while he thought on these things, behold, <sup>d</sup> an angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying: Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife; for that which is conceived in her is by the Holy Spirit. <sup>21</sup> And <sup>e</sup> she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS*: for <sup>f</sup> he shall save his people from their sins.

<sup>22</sup> Now all this was done that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying: <sup>23</sup> Behold, the virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son; and they shall call his name Emmanuel [Isa. vii. 14], which being interpreted is, <sup>g</sup> God with us [Isa. viii. 8, 10].

<sup>24</sup> Then Joseph, when he arose from sleep, did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him his wife: <sup>25</sup> and he knew her not until she had brought forth a son†: and he called his name JESUS.

Visit of Magi from the East, and (3) Herod's jealousy; (13) flight of Joseph and Mary to Egypt; (16) massacre of the infants at Bethlehem; (19) return of Joseph and Mary, and (22) their settlement at Nazareth.

2. NOW when Jesus was born in <sup>a</sup> Bethlehem of Judaea, in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise men†: <sup>b</sup> from the East to Jerusalem, <sup>2</sup> saying: Where is he that is born <sup>c</sup> King of the Jews? For we have seen <sup>d</sup> his star in the East; and we are come to worship him.

sent them to Bethlehem, and said : Go and search out exactly concerning the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may go and worship him also.

<sup>9</sup> And having heard the king, they departed; and lo, the star, which they saw in the East, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.

<sup>12</sup> And being warned by God <sup>c</sup> in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed to their own country by another way.

<sup>13</sup> And when they were departed, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying: Arise and take the young child and his mother, and flee to Egypt, and be thou there until I bring thee word; for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him.

<sup>15</sup> And he was there until the death of Herod; that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying: 'Out of Egypt have I called my son' [Hos. xi. 1.]

<sup>16</sup> Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked by the wise men, was exceeding wroth; and he sent forth and slew all the male children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the borders thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had learned exactly from the wise men.

<sup>18</sup> 'In Ramah was there a voice heard, lamentation and weeping and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children; and she would not be comforted, because they are not' [Jer. xxxi. 15.]

<sup>19</sup> But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, <sup>20</sup> saying: Arise and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel; for they are dead that sought the young child's life.

<sup>21</sup> And he arose and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel.

came and dwelt in a town called Nazareth; that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophets, He shall be called <sup>m</sup> a Nazarene.

<sup>11</sup> I <sup>g</sup> indeed baptize you with water unto repentance, but <sup>h</sup> he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear; <sup>i</sup> he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit, and with fire: <sup>12</sup> whose winnowing-fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly cleanse his threshing-floor; and he will <sup>k</sup> gather his wheat into the barn, but <sup>l</sup> he will burn up the chaff with <sup>m</sup> unquenchable fire.

The baptism of Jesus—(16) The testimony of the Father and of the Spirit—(ch. 4. 1) The fasting and (3) temptation.

4. Then was <sup>g</sup> Jesus led up by the Spirit into the wilderness, to be tempted by the devil. <sup>h</sup> And when he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he afterwards hungered. <sup>i</sup> And the tempter came to him, and said: If thou be the Son of God, command that these stones become loaves of bread. <sup>j</sup> But he answered and said: <sup>k</sup> It is written, 'Man shall not live by bread alone, <sup>l</sup> but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God' [Deut. viii. 3].

<sup>m</sup> 5 Then the devil taketh him unto the holy city, and setteth him on the pinnacle* of the temple; <sup>n</sup> and he saith unto him: If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down; for it is written, 'He will give his angels charge concerning thee; and on their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone' [Psa. xci. 11, 12]. <sup>o</sup> Jesus said unto him: It is written again, 'Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God' [Deut. vi. 16].

<sup>w</sup> 12 NOW when Jesus heard that John was cast into prison, he departed unto Galilee. <sup>x</sup> 13 And leaving Nazareth, he came and dwelt in Capernaum, which is by the seat, in the borders of Zabulon and Naphthali: <sup>y</sup> 14 that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying: <sup>z</sup> 15 'The land of Zebulon and the land of Naphthali, by the way of the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles; <sup>aa</sup> 16 the people which sat in darkness saw a great light; and to them which sat in the region and shadow of death light is sprung up' [Isa. ix. 1, 2].

The Sermon on the mount—(2) The characteristics of the true subjects of Christ's kingdom; (10) their happiness, notwithstanding present sufferings; and (18) their influence upon others.

the salt have lost its savour, wherewith shall it be salted? It is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out and to be trodden under foot by men.

The righteousness required of Christ's disciples, (20) in contrast with that of the Pharisees, as relating to (21) murder, (27) adultery, (31) divorce, (33) swearing, (36) revenge, and (43) hatred.

them of old time: Thou shalt not commit adultery [Ex. xx. 14]. <sup>28</sup> But I say unto you, that whosoever <sup>k</sup> looketh on a woman to lust after her hath already committed adultery with her in his heart. <sup>29</sup> And <sup>l</sup> if thy right eye cause thee to offend, pluck it out and cast it from thee; for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell*. <sup>30</sup> And if thy right hand cause thee to offend, cut it off and cast it from thee; for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell.

love them that love you, what reward have ye? Do not even the publicans* the same? 47 And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more than others? Do not even the heathen† so? 48 Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father who is in heaven is perfect.

—(1) True-heartedness towards God illustrated in (2) alms-giving, (5) prayer, and (16) fasting; and trust in God as opposed to (19) covetousness, (24) double-mindedness and (25) worldly carefulness.

6. TAKE heed that ye do not your righteousness: before men, <sup>a</sup> to be seen by them; otherwise ye have no reward with your Father who is in heaven.

2 When therefore thou doest alms, do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do, in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, they have || their reward. 3 But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth; 4 that thine alms may be in secret; and thy Father who <sup>b</sup> seeth in secret himself will reward thee§.

5 And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be <sup>c</sup> as the hypocrites; for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen by men. Verily I say unto you, they have their reward. 6 But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father who is in secret; and thy Father who seeth in secret will reward thee.

7 And when ye pray, <sup>d</sup> use not vain repetitions, like the heathen; for <sup>e</sup> they think that they will be heard for their much speaking; 8 be not ye therefore like unto them; for <sup>f</sup> your Father knoweth what things ye have need of before ye ask him.

9 After this manner therefore pray ye: 10 Our Father who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. 10 Thy <sup>h</sup> kingdom come. Thy will be done, <sup>i</sup> as in heaven, so also upon earth. 11 Give us this day our daily bread. 12 And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. 13 And lead us not into temptation, but <sup>k</sup> deliver us from evil. [For† thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.] 14 For† if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you; 15 but <sup>m</sup> if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

16 And <sup>n</sup> when ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance; for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily I say unto you, they have their reward. 17 But thou, when thou fastest, <sup>o</sup> anoint thy head and wash thy face; 18 that thou appear not unto men to fast, but unto thy Father who is in secret; and thy Father, who seeth in secret, will reward thee.

19 Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break* through and steal; 20 but <sup>p</sup> lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break* through nor steal. 21 For <sup>q</sup> where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

22 The <sup>r</sup> lamp of the body is the eye; if then thine eye be clear, thy whole body will be full of light; 23 but if thine eye be <sup>s</sup> evil, thy whole body will be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is the darkness!

24 No <sup>t</sup> man can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will hold to the one and despise the other. <sup>u</sup> Ye cannot serve God and mammon†.

25 Therefore I say unto you, <sup>x</sup> Be not anxious for your life, what ye shall eat or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than the food, and the body than the raiment? 26 Behold <sup>y</sup> the birds of the air; for they sow not, neither do they reap nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. <sup>z</sup> Are ye not of much more value than they? 27 And which of you by being anxious can add one cubit unto his stature?

28 And why are ye anxious for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin; 29 and yet I say unto you, that even <sup>a</sup> Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. 30 And if God so clothe the grass of the field, which to-day is and to-morrow is cast into the oven, will he not much more <sup>b</sup> clothe you, <sup>b</sup> O ye of little faith?

31 Therefore be not anxious, saying, What shall we eat, or, What shall we drink, or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed? 32 For after all these things do the Gentiles seek. For your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things. 33 But seek ye first the kingdom of God and <sup>c</sup> his righteousness; and <sup>d</sup> all these things shall be added unto you. 34 Be not therefore anxious for the morrow; for the morrow will be anxious for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

 —(1) Charitable and wise conduct towards others, (1) faith and constancy in prayer, and (13) separation from the world; (15) warnings against false teachers, (21) self-deception, and (24) practical disobedience.

7. JUDGE <sup>a</sup> not, that ye be not judged;

<sup>7</sup> Ask, <sup>f</sup> and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you: <sup>8</sup> for every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened. <sup>9</sup> Or what man is there of you, of whom if his son ask for bread, will he give him a stone? <sup>10</sup> Or if he ask for a fish, will he give him a serpent? <sup>11</sup> If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good things unto them that ask him!

8. AND when he came down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him.

<sup>2</sup> And <sup>a</sup> behold, there came a leper and worshipped him, saying: Lord, if thou wilt thou canst make me clean. <sup>3</sup> And Jesus put forth his hand and touched him, saying: I will, be thou clean. And immediately his leprosy was cleansed. <sup>4</sup> And Jesus saith unto him: See thou tell no one; but go thy way, show thyself to the priest, and offer <sup>b</sup> the gift that Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

<sup>10</sup> And Jesus hearing it marvelled, and said to them that followed: Verily I say unto you, I have not found such great faith, no not in Israel. <sup>11</sup> And I say unto you, that <sup>e</sup> many will come from the East and West, and will sit down with Abraham and Isaac and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven; <sup>12</sup> but <sup>f</sup> the children of the kingdom shall <sup>g</sup> be cast out into the outer darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

<sup>13</sup> And Jesus said unto the centurion: Go thy way; and <sup>h</sup> as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. And his servant was healed in that very hour.

<sup>16</sup> And when <sup>l</sup> the evening was come, they brought unto him many that were possessed with devils; and he cast out the spirits with a word, and healed all that were sick: <sup>17</sup> that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying, 'Himself took our infirmities, and bare our sicknesses' [Isa. liii. 4].

Some requirements of discipleship; (23) Christ's authority over the elements and (28) demons and (ch. 9. 2) disease (3) and even the forgiveness of sins—(8) The admiration of the multitude.

<sup>18</sup> And <sup>a</sup> Jesus, seeing great multitudes about him, gave commandment to depart unto the other side †.

<sup>19</sup> And a certain scribe came and said unto him: Master ‡, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest. <sup>20</sup> And Jesus saith unto him: The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but <sup>b</sup> the Son of man <sup>c</sup> hath not where to lay his head.

<sup>21</sup> And another of his disciples said unto him: Lord, <sup>d</sup> suffer me first to go and bury my father. <sup>22</sup> But Jesus said unto him: Follow me; and leave the dead to bury their dead.

<sup>23</sup> And when he entered into the ship, his disciples followed him. <sup>24</sup> And behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea §, so that the ship was being covered with the waves; but he was asleep. <sup>25</sup> And his disciples came to him and awoke him, saying: Lord, save us; we perish! <sup>26</sup> And he saith unto them: <sup>e</sup> Why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? Then <sup>f</sup> he arose and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm. <sup>27</sup> And the men marvelled, saying: What manner of man is this, that even <sup>g</sup> the winds and the sea obey him!

there met him two possessed with devils*, coming out of the tombs, exceeding fierce, so that no one could pass by that way. <sup>29</sup> And behold, they cried out, saying: What have we to do with thee, Jesus, <sup>i</sup> thou Son of God? Art thou come hither to torment us <sup>k</sup> before the time?

<sup>30</sup> And there was a good way off from them a herd of many <sup>l</sup> swine feeding. <sup>31</sup> So the devils besought him, saying: If thou cast us out, suffer us to go away into the herd of swine. <sup>32</sup> And he said unto them, Go. And they came out and went into the herd of swine; and behold, the whole herd of swine rushed violently down the steep place into the sea, and perished in the waters.

<sup>6</sup> But that ye may know that the Son of man hath authority on earth to forgive sins—then saith he unto the palsied man—Arise, take up thy bed, and go to thine house. <sup>7</sup> And he arose and departed to his house.

<sup>9</sup> AND <sup>a</sup> as Jesus passed on from thence, he saw a man, named Matthew, sitting at the receipt of custom †: and he saith unto him, Follow me. And he arose and followed him.

16 Behold, <sup>q</sup> I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves; be ye therefore wise as serpents, and <sup>r</sup> harmless as doves. 17 But beware of men; for <sup>s</sup> they will deliver you up to the Councils, and <sup>t</sup> they will scourge you in their synagogues; 18 and <sup>u</sup> ye will be brought before governors and kings for my sake, <sup>x</sup> for a testimony unto them and unto the Gentiles*.

19 But <sup>y</sup> when they deliver you up, be not anxious as to how or what ye shall speak; for <sup>z</sup> it shall be given to you in that same hour what ye shall speak; 20 for <sup>a</sup> it is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father which speaketh in you.

21 And <sup>b</sup> the brother will deliver up the brother to death, and the father the child; and children will rise up against their parents, and cause them to be put to death. 22 And <sup>c</sup> ye will be hated by all men for my name's sake; but <sup>d</sup> he that endureth to the end shall be saved. 23 But <sup>e</sup> when they persecute you in this city, flee ye unto another: for verily I say unto you, ye will not have gone over the cities of Israel <sup>f</sup> before the Son of man be come.

24 A <sup>g</sup> disciple is not above his master <sup>h</sup>, nor a servant above his lord. 25 It is enough for the disciple that he be as his master, and the servant as his lord. If <sup>i</sup> they have called the master of the house Beelzebub, how much more <sup>j</sup> will they call them of his household!

26 Fear them not therefore; for <sup>k</sup> there is nothing covered that shall not be revealed, and hidden that shall not be known. 27 What <sup>l</sup> I tell you in darkness, that speak ye in light; and what ye hear in the ear, that proclaim ye upon the housetops.

28 And <sup>m</sup> fear not them that kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul; but rather fear him who is able to destroy both soul and body in hell. 29 Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing? And one of them shall not fall on the ground without your Father. 30 But the very hairs of your head are all numbered. 31 Fear ye not therefore; ye are of more value than many sparrows.

32 Whosoever therefore shall confess me before men, him will I also confess before my Father who is in heaven; 33 but whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father who is in heaven.

34 Think <sup>n</sup> not that I am come to send peace on earth: I am not come to send peace, but a sword. 35 For I am come to set a man at variance against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law. 36 And a man's foes <sup>o</sup> will be they of his own household [Mic. vii. 6].

37 He <sup>p</sup> that loveth father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; and he that loveth son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. 38 And <sup>q</sup> he doth not take his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me. 39 He <sup>r</sup> that findeth his life will lose it; and he that loseth his life for my sake will find it.

40 He <sup>s</sup> that receiveth you receiveth me; and <sup>t</sup> he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me. 41 He <sup>u</sup> that receiveth a prophet in the name of a prophet shall receive a prophet's reward; and he that receiveth a righteous man in the name of a righteous man shall receive a righteous man's reward. 42 And <sup>v</sup> whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water only in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, <sup>w</sup> he shall in no wise lose his reward.

11. And it came to pass, when Jesus had made an end of commanding his twelve disciples, he departed thence to teach and to preach in their cities.

2 NOW <sup>a</sup> when John heard in the prison of the works of Christ, he sent by his disciples*, 3 and said unto him: Art thou he that was to come; or are we to look for another? 4 And Jesus answered and said unto them: Go and tell John <sup>b</sup> the things which ye hear and see: 5 the blind receive their sight, and the lame walk; 6 the lepers are cleansed, and <sup>c</sup> the deaf hear; the dead are raised up, and the poor have the Gospel preached to them. 6 And blessed is <sup>d</sup> he, whosoever shall not <sup>e</sup> be offended in me.

John : What went ye out <sup>f</sup> into the wilderness to behold? <sup>8</sup> A reed shaken with the wind? <sup>8</sup> But what went ye out to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they that wear soft <sup>g</sup> clothing are in kings' houses. <sup>9</sup> But what went ye out to see? <sup>9</sup> A prophet? Yea, I say unto you, and more than a prophet. <sup>10</sup> For <sup>h</sup> this is he of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, who shall prepare thy way before thee. [Mal. iii. 1]. <sup>11</sup> Verily I say unto you, Among them that are born of women there hath not arisen a greater than John the Baptist : but he that is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he. <sup>12</sup> And <sup>i</sup> from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force. <sup>13</sup> For all the Prophets and the Law prophesied until John. <sup>14</sup> And if ye are willing to receive it, he is <sup>k</sup> Elijah who was to come. <sup>15</sup> He <sup>l</sup> that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

<sup>25</sup> At <sup>i</sup> that time Jesus answered and said : I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because thou hast hidden these things from the wise and prudent and hast revealed them unto babes. <sup>26</sup> Even so, Father, for so it seemed good in thy sight. <sup>27</sup> All things have been delivered unto me by my Father : and no one knoweth the Son, but the Father; neither knoweth any one the Father, but the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son will <sup>28</sup> reveal him.

Jesus vindicates (1) his disciples for plucking corn, and (11) himself for healing, on the sabbath; (14) the Pharisees, silenced in argument, begin to plot his destruction—(17) Fulfilment of ancient prophecy in Jesus.

<sup>12.</sup> AT that time <sup>a</sup> Jesus went on the sabbath day through the corn fields; and his disciples were hungry, and they began <sup>b</sup> to pluck the ears of corn and to eat. <sup>2</sup> And the Pharisees, seeing it, said unto him : Behold, thy disciples do that which it is not lawful to do upon the sabbath day. <sup>3</sup> But he said unto them : Have ye not read <sup>c</sup> what David did, when he was hungry, and they that were with him; <sup>4</sup> how he entered into the house of God, and ate <sup>d</sup> the showbread, which it was not lawful for him to eat, nor for them that were with him, but <sup>e</sup> only for the priests? <sup>5</sup> Or have ye not read in the Law, <sup>f</sup> that on the sabbath day the priests in the temple profane the sabbath, and are blameless? <sup>6</sup> But I say unto you, that in this place is <sup>g</sup> one greater than the temple. <sup>7</sup> But <sup>h</sup> if ye had known what this meaneth, 'I desire mercy and not sacrifice' [Hos. vi. 6], ye would not have condemned the guiltless. <sup>8</sup> For the Son of man is Lord of the sabbath.

counsel against him, how they might destroy him. <sup>15</sup> And Jesus knowing it <sup>p</sup> withdrew himself from thence.

And <sup>q</sup> great multitudes followed him; and he healed them all; <sup>16</sup> and he <sup>r</sup> charged them that they should not make him known: <sup>17</sup> that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying: <sup>18</sup> 'Behold my Servant, whom I have chosen; my beloved, <sup>s</sup> in whom my soul is well pleased; I will put my Spirit upon him, and he shall declare judgment to the Gentiles. <sup>19</sup> He shall not strive nor cry, neither shall any one hear his voice in the streets. <sup>20</sup> A bruised reed shall he not break, and smoking flax shall he not quench, till he send forth his judgment unto victory. <sup>21</sup> And <sup>t</sup> nations shall hope in his name' [Isa. xlii. 1-4].

Casting out of a demon—Answers to (24) the charge of employing Satanic power, and (38) the demand of a sign from heaven.

and who are my brethren? <sup>49</sup> And he stretched forth his hand towards his disciples, and said: Behold my mother and my brethren! <sup>50</sup> For <sup>c</sup> whosoever shall do the will of my Father who is in heaven, the same is my brother and sister and mother.

Parables concerning the kingdom of heaven; setting forth (3) the various dispositions of men towards it, (24) the unfaithfulness of some of its professed subjects, (31) its progressive and soul-attracting power, and (47) its future deliverance from all admixture of evil.

13. THE same day went Jesus out of the house, <sup>a</sup> and sat by the sea side. <sup>2</sup> And great multitudes were gathered together unto him; so that <sup>b</sup> he went into a ship, and sat; and the whole multitude stood on the shore.

<sup>3</sup> And he spake many things unto them in parables, saying: Behold, a sower went forth to sow. <sup>4</sup> And as he sowed, some seeds fell by the way side, and the birds came and devoured them up. <sup>5</sup> And others fell upon the rocky places, where they had not much earth; and forthwith they sprang up, because they had no deepness of earth; <sup>6</sup> but when the sun was up, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away. <sup>7</sup> And others fell among thorns; and the thorns grew up, and choked them. <sup>8</sup> But others fell upon the good ground, and brought forth fruit, some <sup>c</sup> a hundredfold, some sixtyfold, some thirtyfold. <sup>9</sup> He <sup>d</sup> that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

<sup>34</sup> All these things spake Jesus unto the multitudes in parables ; and without a parable spake he not unto them : <sup>35</sup> that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying : ' I will open my mouth in parables ; <sup>d</sup> I will utter things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world ' [ Ps. lxxviii. 2. ]

every scribe <sup>e</sup> instructed for the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is a householder who bringeth forth out of his storehouse <sup>t</sup> things new and old.

Jesus teaches at Nazareth, and is rejected there.

<sup>53</sup> AND <sup>a</sup> it came to pass that when Jesus had finished these parables, he departed thence. <sup>54</sup> And going into his own country, <sup>b</sup> he taught them in their synagogue, so that they were astonished, and said : Whence hath this man this wisdom, and these mighty works ? <sup>55</sup> Is not this the carpenter's son ? <sup>c</sup> Is not his mother called Mary ; and <sup>d</sup> his brethren, <sup>e</sup> James and Joseph * and Simon and Judas ? <sup>56</sup> And his sisters, are they not all with us ? Whence then hath this man all these things ? <sup>57</sup> And they <sup>f</sup> were offended in him.

But Jesus said unto them : <sup>g</sup> A prophet is not without honour except in his own country and in his own house. <sup>58</sup> And he did not many mighty works there, because of their unbelief.

miah, or one of the prophets. <sup>15</sup> He saith unto them: But who say ye that I am? <sup>16</sup> And Simon Peter answered and said: Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God.

<sup>21</sup> From that time forth began Jesus <sup>k</sup> to show unto his disciples, that he must go unto Jerusalem, and suffer many things from the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be put to death, and rise again the third day.

<sup>22</sup> Then Peter took him, and began to rebuke him, saying: Be it far from thee, Lord! <sup>24</sup> Then said Jesus unto his disciples: If any one desire to come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. <sup>25</sup> For <sup>m</sup> whosoever shall desire to save his life will lose it; and whosoever shall <sup>n</sup> lose his life for my sake will find it. <sup>26</sup> For what is a man profited <sup>o</sup> if he gain the whole world and lose his soul*? Or what shall a man give as an exchange for his soul*? <sup>27</sup> For <sup>p</sup> the Son of man will come in the glory of his Father with his angels, and then he will render to every man according to his works. <sup>28</sup> Verily, I say unto you, There are some standing here who will <sup>q</sup> not taste of death till <sup>r</sup> they have seen the Son of man coming in his kingdom.

The transfiguration of Jesus.

unto them Moses and Elijah, talking with him.

<sup>14</sup> AND <sup>a</sup> when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a man, kneeling down to him, and saying: <sup>15</sup> Lord, have mercy on my son; for he is lunatic, and sorely afflicted; for oftentimes he falleth into the fire, and oft into the water. <sup>16</sup> And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could not cure him. <sup>17</sup> Then Jesus answered and said: O faithless and perverse generation! <sup>18</sup> How long shall I be with you, how long shall I bear with you? Bring him hither to me. <sup>18</sup> And Jesus <sup>c</sup> rebuked him; and the devil came out of him; and the child was cured from that very hour.

<sup>19</sup> Then came the disciples to Jesus apart, and said: Why could not we cast it out? <sup>20</sup> And Jesus said unto them: Because of your want of faith; for verily I say unto you, <sup>d</sup> If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and <sup>e</sup> nothing shall be impossible unto you. <sup>21</sup> Howbeit; this kind goeth not out but by prayer and fasting.

22 AND <sup>a</sup> while they abode in Galilee, Jesus said unto them : The Son of man is to be delivered up into the hands of men ; <sup>23</sup> and they will kill him, and <sup>b</sup> the third day he will rise again. And they were exceeding sorry.

Jesus pays the temple-tribute, although entitled to exemption.

24 AND when they were come to Capernaum, they that received the tribute-money * came to Peter, and said : Doth not your master pay the tribute-money ? <sup>25</sup> He saith, Yes.

And when he was come into the house, Jesus spake first to him, saying : What thinkest thou, Simon ; of whom do the kings of the earth take custom or tribute ? Of their own sons, or of strangers ? <sup>26</sup> Peter saith unto him, Of strangers. Jesus saith unto him, Then are the sons free. <sup>27</sup> Notwithstanding, <sup>a</sup> lest we should offend them, go thou to the sea, and cast a hook, and take up the fish that first cometh up ; and when thou hast opened its mouth, thou wilt find a stater† : that take, and give unto them for me and thee.

Concerning (1) greatness in Christ's kingdom (7) humility, self-denial, and a forgiving spirit ; (22) parable of the unmerciful servant.

18. AT <sup>a</sup> that time came the disciples unto Jesus, saying, <sup>b</sup> Who then is greatest in the kingdom of heaven ? <sup>2</sup> And Jesus called a little child unto him, and set him in the midst of them, <sup>3</sup> and said : Verily I say unto you, <sup>c</sup> Unless ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall in no wise enter into the kingdom of heaven. <sup>4</sup> Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven. <sup>5</sup> And <sup>d</sup> whosoever shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth me. <sup>6</sup> But <sup>e</sup> whosoever shall offend : one of these little ones who believe in me, it were better for him that a great millstone were hanged about his neck and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.

<sup>f</sup> Woe unto the world because of offences ! ! For I tell you it must needs be that offences come ; but woe to that man by whom the offence cometh ! <sup>8</sup> Wherefore <sup>g</sup> if thy hand or thy foot cause thee to offend, cut it off, and cast it from thee ; it is better for thee to enter into life lame or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into the everlasting fire. <sup>9</sup> And if thine eye cause thee to offend, pluck it out, and cast it from thee ; it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into hell-fire.

<sup>15</sup> Moreover <sup>n</sup> if thy brother sin against thee, go and reprove him, between thee and him alone. If he hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother. <sup>16</sup> But if he do not hear thee, then take with thee one or two more, that by the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established [Deu. xix. 15]. <sup>17</sup> And if he refuse to hear them, <sup>o</sup> tell it unto the church. But if he refuse also to hear the church, let him be unto thee as a <sup>p</sup> heathen man and a publican.

<sup>19</sup> Again I say unto you, that if two of you shall agree on earth, concerning any thing that they shall ask, <sup>r</sup> it shall be done for them by my Father who is in heaven. <sup>20</sup> For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.

with compassion, and released him, and forgave him the debt.

<sup>22</sup> But the same servant went out, and found one of his fellowservants who owed him a hundred pence*; and he laid hands on him, and took him by the throat, saying: Pay me what thou owest. <sup>29</sup> And his fellowservant fell down at his feet and besought him, saying: Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all. <sup>30</sup> And he would not; but went and cast him into prison till he should pay the debt. <sup>31</sup> And when his fellowservants saw what was done, they were very sorry; and they came and told unto their lord all that was done. <sup>32</sup> Then his lord, having called for him, saith unto him: Thou wicked servant, I forgave thee all that debt, because thou didst entreat me; <sup>33</sup> shouldest not thou also have had compassion on thy fellowservant, <sup>x</sup> even as I had compassion on thee? <sup>34</sup> And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tormentors till he should pay all that was due unto him. <sup>35</sup> So <sup>y</sup> likewise will my heavenly Father do unto you if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses.

<sup>4</sup> And he answered and said unto them: Have ye not read that He who made them from the beginning made them male and female [Ge. i. 27], <sup>b</sup> and said: 'For this cause shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife; and <sup>b</sup> they two shall be one flesh'? [Ge. ii. 24, Sept.] <sup>c</sup> Wherefore they are no more two, but one flesh. <sup>c</sup> What therefore God hath joined together let not man put asunder.

<sup>7</sup> They say unto him: Why then did Moses command to give a writing of divorcement, and to put her away [Deu. 24. 1]? <sup>8</sup> He saith unto them: Moses because of the hardness of your hearts suffered you to put away your wives; but from the beginning it was not so. <sup>9</sup> And <sup>d</sup> I say unto you, Whosoever putteth away his wife except for fornication, and marrieth another, committeth adultery; and he who marrieth her when put away committeth adultery.

<sup>16</sup> AND <sup>a</sup> behold, one came and said unto him: Good Master, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life?

<sup>17</sup> And he said unto him: Why callest thou me good?? There is none good but One. <sup>b</sup> But if thou wouldest enter into life, keep the commandments. <sup>18</sup> He saith unto him, Which? Jesus said: 'Thou shalt do no murder, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, <sup>19</sup> Honour thy father and thy mother' [Exod. xx. 12—16]; and, <sup>c</sup> 'Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself' [Lev. xix. 18].

<sup>25</sup> And when his disciples heard it they were exceedingly amazed, saying: Who then can be saved? <sup>26</sup> But Jesus looked upon them, and said unto them: With men this is impossible, but <sup>a</sup> with God all things are possible.

<sup>27</sup> Then answered Peter and said unto him: Behold, <sup>i</sup> we have forsaken all, and followed thee; what then shall we have? <sup>28</sup> And Jesus said unto them: Verily <sup>i</sup> I say unto you, that ye who have followed me, <sup>k</sup> in the regeneration when the Son of man shall sit on the throne of his glory, <sup>l</sup> ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. <sup>29</sup> And every one that hath forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive a hundredfold, and shall inherit everlasting life.

this last even as unto thee. <sup>15</sup> Is <sup>p</sup> it not lawful for me to do what I will with mine own? Or is thine eye evil because I am good?

She saith unto him: Command that these my two sons <sup>c</sup> may sit, one on thy right hand, and the other on thy left, in thy kingdom.

<sup>22</sup> But Jesus answered and said: Ye know not what ye ask. <sup>24</sup> And <sup>h</sup> when the ten heard it, they were moved with indignation against the two brethren. <sup>25</sup> But Jesus called them unto him, and said: Ye know that the rulers of the nations exercise lordship over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them. <sup>26</sup> But <sup>i</sup> it shall not be so among you; but <sup>k</sup> whosoever would become great among you shall be <sup>l</sup> your minister; <sup>27</sup> and whosoever would be chief among you shall be <sup>m</sup> your servant: <sup>28</sup> even as the Son of man came, not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

21. AND <sup>a</sup> when they drew nigh unto Jerusalem, and were come to Bethphage, unto the Mount of Olives, then sent Jesus two disciples, <sup>2</sup> saying unto them: Go into the village over against you, and straightway ye will find an ass tied, and a colt with her; loose them, and bring them unto me. <sup>3</sup> And if any one say aught unto you, ye shall say that the Lord hath need of them; and straightway he will send them.

Hosanna to the Son of David!

Blessed <sup>e</sup> is he that cometh in the name of the Lord! [Ps. cxvii. 26]. Hosanna in the highest!

<sup>10</sup> And when he was come into Jerusalem, all the city was moved, saying: Who is this? <sup>11</sup> And the multitude said: This is Jesus, the prophet, from Nazareth of Galilee.

<sup>14</sup> And the blind and the lame came to him in the temple; and he healed them.

<sup>15</sup> But when the chief priests and the scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children crying in the temple, and saying, Hosanna to the son of David; they were sore displeased; <sup>16</sup> and they said unto him: Hearest thou what these say? And Jesus saith unto them: Yea, <sup>h</sup> have ye never read: 'Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise?' [Ps. viii. 2, Sept.]

<sup>18</sup> Now <sup>l</sup> in the morning as he returned into the city, he hungered. <sup>19</sup> And seeing one fig tree by the way-side, he came to it; and he found nothing thereon but leaves only; and he said unto it: Let no fruit grow on thee henceforward for ever. And immediately the fig tree withered away.

And they reasoned with themselves, saying: If we say, From heaven; he will say unto us, Why then did ye not believe him? <sup>26</sup> But if we say, From men; we fear the multitude; <sup>d</sup> for all hold John as a prophet. <sup>27</sup> And they answered Jesus, and said: We know not.

first, and said, Son, go work to-day in my vineyard. <sup>29</sup> He answered and said, I will not; but afterwards he repented, and went. <sup>30</sup> And he came to the second, and said in like manner. And he answered and said, I will, sir; and went not. <sup>31</sup> Which of these two did the will of his father? They say unto him, The first.

Jesus saith unto them: <sup>e</sup> Verily I say unto you, that the publicans and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you. <sup>32</sup> For <sup>f</sup> John came unto you in the way of righteousness, and <sup>g</sup> ye believed him not; <sup>h</sup> but the publicans and the harlots believed him; and ye, when ye had seen it, repented not afterwards, so as to believe him.

<sup>33</sup> Hear another parable: <sup>i</sup> There was a certain householder who planted a vineyard, and hedged it round about, and digged a winepress in it, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country. <sup>34</sup> And when the season of the fruit drew near, <sup>k</sup> he sent his servants to the husbandmen that they might receive the fruits of it. <sup>35</sup> And the husbandmen took his servants, and <sup>l</sup> beat one, and killed another, and <sup>m</sup> stoned another. <sup>36</sup> Again, he sent other servants more than the first: and they did in like manner unto them. <sup>37</sup> But last of all <sup>n</sup> he sent unto them his son, saying, They will reverence my son. <sup>38</sup> But when the husbandmen saw the son, they said among themselves, This is the heir; <sup>o</sup> come, let us kill him, and let us seize on his inheritance. <sup>39</sup> And <sup>p</sup> they took him, and cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. <sup>40</sup> When therefore the lord of the vineyard cometh, what will he do unto those husbandmen?

<sup>41</sup> They say unto him: <sup>r</sup> He will miserably destroy those wicked men, and will let out his vineyard unto other husbandmen, who will render him the fruits in their seasons.

<sup>42</sup> Jesus saith unto them: <sup>s</sup> Did ye never read in the Scriptures, 'The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner: this was the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes'? [Psa. cxviii. 22, 23]. <sup>43</sup> Therefore say I unto you: The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof. <sup>44</sup> And he that <sup>t</sup> falleth on this stone will be broken: <sup>u</sup> but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

<sup>45</sup> And when the chief priests and the Pharisees heard his parables, <sup>x</sup> they perceived that he spake of them. <sup>46</sup> But when they sought to lay hands on him, they feared the multitudes, because <sup>y</sup> they took him for a prophet.

Another parable showing the reception given to God's invitations, and the guilt of those who reject or pervert them.

22. AND Jesus answered and spake unto them again in parables, and said: <sup>2</sup> The <sup>a</sup> kingdom of heaven is like unto a king who made a marriage-feast for his son, <sup>3</sup> and sent forth his servants to call them that had been bidden to the marriage-feast; and they would not come. <sup>4</sup> Again, he sent forth other servants, saying: Tell them that have been bidden, Behold, <sup>b</sup> I have prepared my dinner; my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready; come unto the marriage-feast. <sup>5</sup> But they made light of it, and went their ways, <sup>c</sup> one to his farm, another to his merchandize; <sup>d</sup> and <sup>e</sup> the rest seized his servants, and treated them spitefully, and slew them. <sup>7</sup> And when the king heard thereof, he was wroth; and he sent forth <sup>f</sup> his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city.

Crafty attempts to ensnare Jesus, by (15) the Pharisees and Herodians, (23) the Sadducees, and (35) a lawyer—(41) Question concerning David's Son and Lord.

<sup>15</sup> THEN <sup>a</sup> went the Pharisees and took counsel how they might ensnare him in his speech. <sup>16</sup> And they send unto him their disciples with the Herodians, saying: Master*, we know that thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth, neither carest thou for any man; for thou regardest not the person of men. <sup>17</sup> Tell us therefore, what thinkest thou; Is it lawful to give tribute unto <sup>b</sup> Cæsar, or not?

18 But Jesus <sup>c</sup> perceived their wickedness, and said : Why tempt ye me, ye hypocrites ? 19 Show me the tribute money. And they brought unto him a penny*. 20 And he saith unto them : Whose is this image and superscription ? 21 They say unto him, Caesar's. Then saith he unto them : <sup>d</sup> Render therefore unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and unto God the things that are God's.

22 When they heard these words, they marvelled ; and they left him, and went their way.

23 The <sup>e</sup> same day there came to him Sadducees, <sup>f</sup> who say that there is no resurrection ; and they asked him, 24 saying : Master, Moses said, ' If a man die having no children, his brother shall marry his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother' [Deut. xxv. 5]. 25 Now there were with us seven brethren : and the first married a wife, and died ; and, having no seed, left his wife unto his brother ; 26 likewise the second also, and the third, even unto the seventh ; 27 and last of all the woman died also. 28 In the resurrection then whose wife will she be of the seven ? For they all had her.

29 Jesus answered and said unto them : <sup>g</sup> Ye do err, <sup>h</sup> not knowing the Scriptures, <sup>i</sup> nor the power of God. 30 For in the resurrection they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but <sup>k</sup> are as the angels of God in heaven. 31 But concerning the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying : 32 ' I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob ?' [Exod. iii. 6]. God is not God of the dead, but of the living.

33 And when the multitude heard this, <sup>l</sup> they were astonished at his teaching.

34 But <sup>m</sup> when the Pharisees heard that he had put the Sadducees to silence, they were gathered together ; 35 and one of them, <sup>n</sup> a lawyer, asked a question, tempting him, and saying : 36 Master†, which is the great commandment in the law ? 37 Jesus said unto him : ' Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind' [Deut. vi. 5] : 38 this is the first and great commandment. 39 And the second is like unto it, ' Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself' [Lev. xix. 18]. 40 On <sup>o</sup> these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets.

41 And while <sup>p</sup> the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them, 42 saying : What think ye of the Christ ; whose son is he ? They say unto him, The son of David. 43 He saith unto them, How then doth David <sup>q</sup> in the Spirit call him Lord, saying, 44 ' The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool ?' [Psa. cx. 1]. 45 If then David calleth him Lord, how is he his son ?

23. THEN spake Jesus to the multitudes and to his disciples, <sup>2</sup> saying : ' The Scribes and the Pharisees sit on Moses' seat ; 3 all things therefore whatsoever they bid you observe, observe and do ; but do not ye after their works ; for <sup>b</sup> they say, and do not. 4 For <sup>c</sup> they bind heavy burdens and grievous to be borne, and lay them on men's shoulders ; but they themselves will not move them with their finger. 5 But <sup>d</sup> all their works they do to be seen by men. They make broad their phylacteries*, and enlarge the fringes of their garments, <sup>e</sup> and love the uppermost places at feasts, and the chief seats in the synagogues, <sup>f</sup> and greetings in the markets, and to be called by men, Rabbi, Rabbi. 8 But be not ye called Rabbi ; for one is your Teacher†, even Christ ; and all ye are brethren. 9 And call no one your Father upon the earth ; <sup>g</sup> for one is your Father, even he who is in heaven. 10 Neither be ye called leaders : for one is your Leader, even Christ. 11 But <sup>h</sup> he that is greatest among you shall be your servant. 12 And <sup>i</sup> whosoever shall exalt himself shall be humbled ; and he that shall humble himself shall be exalted.

13 But <sup>k</sup> woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites ! For ye shut up the kingdom of heaven against men : for ye go not in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering to go in.

[4 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites ! For ' ye devour widows' houses, and in pretence make long prayer. Therefore ye shall receive the greater condemnation ].

15 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites ! For ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte ; and when he is made, ye make him twofold more a child of hell† than yourselves.

16 Woe unto you, <sup>k</sup> ye blind guides, who say : ' Whosoever sweareth by the temple, it is nothing ; but whosoever sweareth by the gold of the temple, he is bound by his oath !' 17 Ye fools and blind ! For which

m Ex. 30. 29. is the greater, the gold, <sup>m</sup> or the temple that sanctifieth the gold? <sup>13</sup> And, Whosoever sweareth by the altar, it is nothing; but whosoever sweareth by the gift that is upon it, he is bound by his oath. <sup>19</sup> Ye fools and blind! For which is the greater, the gift, or <sup>n</sup> the altar that sanctifieth the gift? <sup>20</sup> He therefore that sweareth by the altar, sweareth by it, and by all things thereon. <sup>21</sup> And he that sweareth by the temple, sweareth by it, and by <sup>o</sup> Him who dwelleth therein. <sup>22</sup> And he that sweareth by heaven, sweareth by <sup>p</sup> the throne of God, and by Him who sitteth thereon.

Having finally left the temple Jesus foretells (2) its destruction and (4) the troubles and persecutions preceding and following the destruction of Jerusalem and his own second coming, and (42) enjoins fidelity and watchfulness.

<sup>3</sup> And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying: Tell us, when will these things be? And what will be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world*?

<sup>9</sup> Then <sup>h</sup> will they deliver you up to tribulation, and will kill you; and ye will be hated by all nations for my name's sake. <sup>10</sup> And then will many <sup>i</sup> be offended, and will betray one another, and will hate one another. <sup>11</sup> And <sup>k</sup> many false prophets will arise, and <sup>l</sup> will deceive many. <sup>12</sup> And because iniquity† will abound the love of the many will grow cold. <sup>13</sup> But <sup>m</sup> he that endureth unto the end, the same shall be saved. <sup>14</sup> And this <sup>n</sup> gospel of the kingdom <sup>o</sup> shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come.

15 When <sup>p</sup> therefore ye see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by <sup>q</sup> Daniel the prophet, standing in the holy place, (<sup>r</sup> let him that readeth understand), <sup>16</sup> then let them that are in Judaea flee unto the mountains; <sup>17</sup> let <sup>s</sup> him that is on the housetop not come down to take any thing out of his house; <sup>18</sup> neither let him that is in the field turn back to take his clothes.

<sup>19</sup> And <sup>t</sup> woe unto them that are with child and to them that give suck, in those days! <sup>20</sup> And pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on the sabbath day. <sup>21</sup> For <sup>u</sup> then will be great tribulation, such as hath not been since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be. <sup>22</sup> And except those days were shortened, there would no flesh be saved; but for the elect's sake* those days shall be shortened.

<sup>23</sup> Then <sup>x</sup> if any one shall say unto you, Lo, here <sup>y</sup> is the Christ, or There! believe <sup>z</sup> it not. <sup>24</sup> For <sup>y</sup> there will arise false Christs, and false prophets, and will show great signs and wonders; so as to deceive, if possible, even the elect. <sup>25</sup> Behold, I have foretold you. <sup>26</sup> If therefore they shall say unto you, Behold, he is in the desert; go not forth; Behold, <sup>he</sup> is in the secret chambers; believe <sup>it</sup> not. <sup>27</sup> For <sup>a</sup> as the lightning cometh out of the East and shineth even unto the West, so will the coming of the Son of man be. <sup>28</sup> Where-soever <sup>a</sup> the carcase is, there will the eagles be gathered together.

<sup>29</sup> But immediately after the tribulation of those days <sup>b</sup> shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and <sup>c</sup> the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken.
<sup>30</sup> And <sup>d</sup> then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven; <sup>e</sup> and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn; <sup>f</sup> and they shall see the Son of man coming upon the clouds of heaven, with power and great glory. <sup>31</sup> And <sup>g</sup> he will send his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, <sup>h</sup> and they shall gather together his elect; from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

<sup>32</sup> Now learn a parable from the fig tree;
When now its branch becometh tender, and putteth forth its leaves, ye know that summer <sup>i</sup> is nigh; <sup>33</sup> so likewise ye, when ye see all these things, know <sup>j</sup> that it is near, <sup>even</sup> at the doors. <sup>34</sup> Verily I say unto you, <sup>k</sup> this generation shall not pass away till all these things be fulfilled.
<sup>35</sup> Heaven and earth shall pass away, <sup>l</sup> but my words shall not pass away.

<sup>36</sup> But <sup>m</sup> concerning that day and hour knoweth no one, no, not the angels of heaven, <sup>n</sup> but my Father only. <sup>37</sup> But <sup>o</sup> as the days of Noah were, so will be also the coming of the Son of man. <sup>38</sup> For <sup>p</sup> as in the days before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark, <sup>39</sup> and knew not until the flood came and took them all away; so will be also the coming of the Son of man.
<sup>40</sup> Then will two be in the field, the one will be taken and the other left: <sup>41</sup> two women will be grinding at the mill, one will be taken and the other left.

this, that if the master of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be broken through. <sup>44</sup> Therefore be ye also ready; for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh.

<sup>45</sup> Who then is the faithful and wise servant whom his lord hath made ruler over his household, to give them their food in due season? <sup>46</sup> Blessed <sup>i</sup> is that servant whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing. <sup>47</sup> Verily I say unto you, that he will make him ruler over all his goods.
<sup>48</sup> But if that evil servant shall say in his heart, <sup>s</sup> My lord delayeth his coming; <sup>49</sup> and shall begin to smite <sup>his</sup> fellowservants, and shall eat and drink with the drunken; <sup>50</sup> the lord of that servant will come in a day when he looketh not for <sup>him</sup>, and in an hour that he is not aware of, <sup>51</sup> and will <sup>t</sup> cut him asunder, and appoint <sup>him</sup> his portion with the hypocrites: <sup>u</sup> there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

out. <sup>9</sup> But the wise answered, saying: Not so, lest there be not enough for us and you; but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves. <sup>10</sup> And while they went to buy the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage-feast: and <sup>d</sup> the door was shut.

<sup>11</sup> And afterwards come also the other virgins, saying: Lord, Lord, open to us. <sup>12</sup> But he answered and said: Verily I say unto you, <sup>e</sup> I know you not.

<sup>15</sup> And unto one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one; <sup>h</sup> to every man according to his several ability; and straightway took his journey.

<sup>16</sup> Then he that had received the five talents went and traded with them, and made other five talents. <sup>17</sup> And likewise he that had received the two, he also gained other two. <sup>18</sup> But he that had received the one went and digged in the earth, and hid his lord's money.

<sup>20</sup> Then he that had received the five talents came and brought other five talents, saying: Lord, thou deliverdest unto me five talents; behold, I have gained five other talents besides them. <sup>21</sup> His lord said unto him: <sup>k</sup> Well done, good and faithful servant!

<sup>22</sup> Thou hast been faithful over a few things, <sup>l</sup> I will make thee ruler over many things; enter thou into <sup>m</sup> the joy of thy lord. <sup>23</sup> He also that had received the two talents came and said: Lord, thou deliverdest unto me two talents; behold, I have gained two other talents besides them.

<sup>24</sup> His lord said unto him: Well done, good and faithful servant! Thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things; enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

<sup>25</sup> Then he also that had received the one talent came and said: Lord, I knew thee that thou art a hard man, reaping where thou didst not sow, and gathering where thou didst not scatter abroad; <sup>26</sup> and I was afraid; and I went and hid thy talent in the earth; lo, thou hast that which is thine own. <sup>27</sup> His lord answered and said unto him: Thou wicked and slothful servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I scattered not abroad? <sup>28</sup> Thou oughtest then to have put my money to the bankers; and then at my coming I should have received mine own with interest. <sup>29</sup> Take therefore the talent from him, and give it to him who hath the ten talents. <sup>30</sup> For <sup>n</sup> unto every one that hath shall be given, and he shall have abundance; but from him that hath not <sup>o</sup> shall be taken away even that which he hath. <sup>31</sup> And cast ye the unprofitable servant <sup>p</sup> into the outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

<sup>36</sup> For <sup>w</sup> I was hungry, and ye gave me meat; I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink; <sup>x</sup> I was a stranger, and ye took me in; <sup>y</sup> I was naked, and ye clothed me; I was sick, and ye visited me; <sup>z</sup> I was in prison, and ye came unto me.

<sup>37</sup> Then will the righteous answer him, saying: Lord, when saw we thee hungry, and fed thee; or thirsty, and gave thee drink? <sup>38</sup> When saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in; or naked, and clothed thee? <sup>39</sup> Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee?

<sup>44</sup> Then will they also answer him, saying: Lord, when saw we thee hungry, or thirsty, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister unto thee? <sup>45</sup> Then will he answer them, saying, Verily I say unto you, <sup>g</sup> inasmuch as ye did it not to one of the least of these, ye did it not to me.

Christ's announcement of his crucifixion—(3) The rulers conspire against him—(6) The embalming beforehand for His burial—(14) Judas's compact with the chief priests.

26. AND it came to pass, when Jesus had finished all these sayings, he said unto his disciples: <sup>2</sup> Ye <sup>a</sup> know that after two days cometh the Passover, and the Son of man is betrayed * to be crucified.

<sup>6</sup> Now <sup>c</sup> when Jesus was in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, <sup>7</sup> there came unto him a woman having an alabaster box of very costly ointment; and she poured it on his head, as he sat at meat. <sup>8</sup> But when his disciples saw it, they had indignation, saying: To what purpose is this waste? <sup>9</sup> For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor. <sup>10</sup> But Jesus perceiving it, said unto them: Why trouble ye the woman? For she hath wrought a good work upon me. <sup>11</sup> For <sup>d</sup> ye have the poor always with you; but <sup>e</sup> me ye have not always. <sup>12</sup> For in that she poured this ointment on my body, <sup>f</sup> she did it for my burial. <sup>13</sup> Verily I say unto you, whosoever this Gospel shall be preached in the whole world, there shall this also that she hath done be told for a memorial of her.

<sup>14</sup> Then one of the twelve, called Judas Iscariot, went unto the chief priests, <sup>15</sup> and said unto them: What will ye give me, and I will betray him unto you? And they covenanted with him for <sup>g</sup> thirty pieces of silver. <sup>16</sup> And from that time he sought opportunity to betray him.

Jesus (17) celebrates the Passover with his disciples; (21) announces Judas's treachery; (26) institutes the Lord's Supper; and (31) foretells the scattering of the disciples, and (34) Peter's denial.

17 NOW <sup>a</sup> on the first day of the feast of unleavened bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying unto him: Where wilt thou that we make ready for thee to eat the Passover? <sup>18</sup> And he said: Go into the city, to such a man, and say unto him, The Master <sup>b</sup> saith, <sup>b</sup> My time is at hand; I will keep the Passover at thy house with my disciples.

<sup>19</sup> And the disciples did as Jesus had appointed them; <sup>c</sup> and they made ready the Passover.

<sup>20</sup> Now <sup>d</sup> when the evening was come, he sat down with the twelve. <sup>21</sup> And as they were eating, he said: Verily I say unto you, that one of you will betray me*. <sup>22</sup> And they were exceeding sorrowful, and began every one of them to say unto him: Lord, is it I? <sup>23</sup> And he answered and said: He that dippeth his hand with me in the dish, the same will betray me. <sup>24</sup> The Son of man goeth his way, even <sup>e</sup> as it is written of him; but <sup>f</sup> woe unto that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed. It had been good for that man if he had not been born. <sup>25</sup> Then Judas, who betrayed him, answered and said: Master, is it I? He said unto him: Thou hast said it. <sup>26</sup> And <sup>g</sup> as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and blessed, and brake, and gave it to the disciples, and said: Take, eat; this is my body. <sup>27</sup> And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying: Drink ye all of it; <sup>28</sup> for this is my <sup>h</sup> blood of the New <sup>i</sup> Covenant, which is shed for many, for the remission of sins. <sup>29</sup> But <sup>j</sup> I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, <sup>k</sup> until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom.

36 THEN <sup>a</sup> cometh Jesus with them unto a place called Gethsemane; and he saith unto the disciples: Sit ye here, while I go and pray yonder.

possible, let this cup pass from me; nevertheless <sup>e</sup> not as I will, but as thou wilt.

<sup>f</sup> And he cometh unto the disciples, and findeth them asleep; and he saith unto Peter: Were ye so unable to watch with me one hour? <sup>41</sup> Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation. <sup>g</sup> The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.

<sup>42</sup> He went away again the second time, and prayed, saying: O my Father, if it be not possible that this cup pass from me, except I drink it, thy will be done. <sup>43</sup> And he came and found them asleep again; and went away again, and prayed the third time, saying the same words.

<sup>47</sup> And <sup>h</sup> while he yet spake, lo, Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude, with swords and staves, from the chief priests and elders of the people. <sup>48</sup> Now he that betrayed him gave them a sign, saying: Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he; lay hold of him.

<sup>49</sup> And forthwith he came to Jesus, and said: Hail, Master! and kissed him. <sup>50</sup> And Jesus said unto him: Friend, wherefore art thou come? Then came they and laid their hands on Jesus, and took him.

<sup>m</sup> more than twelve legions of angels? <sup>54</sup> But how then should the Scriptures be fulfilled, <sup>n</sup> that thus it must be?

<sup>55</sup> In that same hour said Jesus to the multitudes: Are ye come out as against a robber with swords and staves to take me? <sup>o</sup> I sat daily with you teaching in the temple, and ye laid no hold on me. <sup>56</sup> But all this is done, that the <sup>p</sup> Scriptures of the prophets may be fulfilled.

Then <sup>q</sup> all the disciples forsook him, and fled.

Jesus is (57) tried and condemned by the Sanhedrim; (59) denied by Peter; (ch. 27. 1) and taken before Pilate.

<sup>57</sup> AND <sup>a</sup> they that had laid hold on Jesus led him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled.

<sup>58</sup> But Peter followed him afar off unto the high priest's hall; and he went in, and sat with the servants, to see the end.

<sup>62</sup> And the high priest arose, and said unto him: Answerest thou nothing? What is it which these witness against thee?

<sup>63</sup> But <sup>e</sup> Jesus held his peace. And the high priest answered and said unto him: <sup>f</sup> I adjure thee by the living God <sup>g</sup> that thou tell us whether thou be the Christ, the Son of God. <sup>64</sup> Jesus saith unto him: Thou hast said it; but I say unto you, Hereafter <sup>h</sup> shall ye see the Son of man <sup>i</sup> sitting on the right hand of power, and coming on the clouds of heaven. <sup>65</sup> Then the high priest rent his clothes, saying: <sup>k</sup> He hath spoken blasphemy; what further need have we of witnesses? Behold, now ye have heard his blasphemy. <sup>66</sup> What think ye? They answered and said: <sup>l</sup> He is guilty of death.

<sup>3</sup> THEN <sup>a</sup> Judas, who had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and the elders, <sup>4</sup> saying: I have sinned in betraying innocent blood. And they said: What is that to us? See thou to that. <sup>5</sup> And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, <sup>b</sup> and departed, and went and hanged himself.

<sup>9</sup> Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremias the prophet, saying: 'And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him on whom a price was set, on whom they of the children of Israel set their price, <sup>10</sup> and gave them for the Potter's field, as the Lord appointed me' [Zech. xi. 12, 13].

Jesus before the Roman governor, (15) who seeks to release him, but (20) the people choose Barabbas and reject Jesus, and (24) Pilate sentences him to crucifixion.

<sup>15</sup> Now <sup>d</sup> at the Feast-time the governor was wont to release* unto the people one prisoner, whom they would. <sup>16</sup> And they had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas. <sup>17</sup> When therefore they were gathered together, Pilate said unto them: Whom will ye that I release unto you; Barabbas, or Jesus who is called Christ? <sup>18</sup> For he knew that for envy they had delivered him up.

<sup>19</sup> And while he was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent unto him, saying: Have thou nothing to do with that just man: for I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of him.

<sup>20</sup> But the chief priests and the elders persuaded the multitude that they should ask for Barabbas, and destroy Jesus. <sup>21</sup> The governor answered and said unto them: Which of the two will ye that I release unto you? And they said, Barabbas. <sup>22</sup> Pilate saith unto them: What shall I do then with Jesus who is called Christ? They all say unto him: Let him be crucified. <sup>23</sup> And the governor said: Why, what evil hath he done? But they cried out the more, saying: Let him be crucified.

<sup>24</sup> When Pilate saw that it availed nothing, but that rather a tumult was being made, he <sup>e</sup> took water and washed his hands before the multitude, saying: I am innocent of the blood of this just person*: see ye to it. <sup>25</sup> Then answered all the people and said: His blood be on us and on our children.

<sup>26</sup> Then released he Barabbas unto them; and when <sup>g</sup> he had scourged Jesus, he delivered him up to be crucified.

The soldiers' insults; (35) the crucifixion; (45) the signs which followed; and (54) the testimony of the spectators.

<sup>27</sup> THEN the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the Praetorium†, and gathered unto him the whole band‡ of soldiers. <sup>28</sup> And they stripped him, and put on him a scarlet robe. <sup>29</sup> And when they had platted a crown of thorns, they put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand: and they bowed the knee before him, and mocked him, saying: Hail, King of the Jews! <sup>30</sup> And they spat upon him; and took the reed and <sup>d</sup> smote him on the head. <sup>31</sup> And <sup>b</sup> after they had mocked him, they took the robe off from him, and put his own raiment on him. And they led him away to crucify him.

<sup>35</sup> And <sup>e</sup> when they had crucified him, they parted his garments, casting lots; [that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet: They parted my garments among them, and upon my vesture did they cast lots] [Psa. xxii. 18]. <sup>36</sup> And sitting down they watched him there.

<sup>39</sup> And <sup>g</sup>they that passed by reviled him, wagging their heads, <sup>40</sup> and saying: Thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself. If thou be the Son of God, come down from the cross. <sup>41</sup> Likewise also the chief priests mocking him, with the scribes and elders, said, <sup>42</sup> He saved others; himself he cannot save. He is* the King of Israel; let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe him. <sup>43</sup> He trusted in God; let him deliver him now, if he will have him [Psa. xxii. 8]; for he said, <sup>h</sup>I am the Son of God. <sup>44</sup> And in the same manner the robbers also who were crucified with him reviled him.

<sup>45</sup> Now <sup>i</sup>from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land unto the ninth hour. <sup>46</sup> And about the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying: Eli, Eli! lama sabachthani? That is to say, 'My God, my God! Why hast thou forsaken me?' <sup>50</sup> Jesus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up his spirit.

<sup>54</sup> Now when the centurion, and they that were with him, watching Jesus, saw the earthquake and those things that were done, they feared greatly, saying: Truly this was the Son of God.

The burial; and (62) the guard set to secure the sepulchre.

<sup>57</sup> WHEN <sup>α</sup>the evening was come, there came a rich man of Arimathea, named Joseph, who also himself was a disciple of Jesus: <sup>58</sup> he went to Pilate, and <sup>β</sup>begged the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be given up. <sup>59</sup> And Joseph took the body, and wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, <sup>60</sup> and <sup>ε</sup>laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock; and he rolled a great stone to the door of the tomb, and departed. <sup>61</sup> And Mary of Magdala was there, and the other Mary, sitting over against the sepulchre.

Angelic announcement of the resurrection—Our Lord's appearances (9) to the women, and (16) to the eleven disciples at an appointed place in Galilee—(18) His final commission.

<sup>5</sup> And the angel answered and said unto the women: Fear not ye, for I know that ye seek Jesus, who was crucified. <sup>6</sup> He <sup>δ</sup>is not here; for he is risen, <sup>ε</sup>as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay. <sup>7</sup> And go quickly, and tell his disciples that he is risen from the dead; and behold, <sup>ζ</sup>he goeth before you into Galilee; there shall ye see him. ## THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. MARK.

The Messiah's forerunner; the (9) baptism of Jesus; (10) the testimony of the Father and of the Holy Spirit—(12) The temptation.

him forth into the wilderness. <sup>13</sup> And he was there in the wilderness forty days, tempted by Satan; and he was with the wild beasts; and the angels ministered unto him.

<sup>16</sup> And <sup>d</sup> as he passed along by the Sea of Galilee, he saw <sup>e</sup> Simon and Andrew his brother casting a net into the sea; for they were fishers. <sup>17</sup> And Jesus said unto them: Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men. <sup>18</sup> And straightway they left their nets, and followed him.

<sup>19</sup> And when he had gone a little farther thence, he saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who also were in the ship mending their nets. <sup>20</sup> And straightway he called them; and they left their father Zebedee in the ship, with the hired servants, and went after him.

Jesus teaches in the synagogues, heals the diseased, and casts out demons, at Capernaum, and throughout Galilee.

<sup>21</sup> AND <sup>a</sup> they enter into Capernaum. And straightway on the sabbath day he entered into the synagogue, and taught. <sup>22</sup> And <sup>b</sup> they were astonished at his teaching; for he taught them as one that had authority, and not as the scribes.

23 And <sup>c</sup>there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit; and he cried out, 24 saying: Let us alone; <sup>d</sup> what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth*? Art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, <sup>e</sup> the Holy One of God. 25 And Jesus rebuked him, saying: Hold thy peace, and come out of him. 26 And the unclean spirit <sup>f</sup> tare him, and cried with a loud voice, and came out of him.

27 And they were all amazed, so that they questioned among themselves, saying: What thing is this? What new teaching is this? For with authority he commandeth† even the unclean spirits, and they obey him. 28 And immediately his fame spread abroad into the whole surrounding country of Galilee.

29 And <sup>g</sup> immediately, when they came out of the synagogue, they entered into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John. 30 And Simon's wife's mother lay sick of a fever; and immediately they tell him of her. 31 And he went to her and took her by the hand, and lifted her up; and immediately the fever left her, and she ministered unto them.

32 And in the evening, when the sun set, they brought unto him all that were diseased, and them that were possessed with devils‡. 33 And all the city was gathered together at the door. 34 And he healed many that were sick of divers diseases, and cast out many devils; and he <sup>h</sup> suffered not the devils to speak, because they knew him.

35 And <sup>i</sup> rising very early in the morning, he went out, <sup>k</sup> and departed into a desert place, and there prayed. 36 And Simon and they that were with him followed after him. 37 And when they had found him, they say unto him: All men seek for thee. 38 And he saith unto them: Let us go into the neighbouring towns, that I may preach there also; for <sup>l</sup> therefore came I forth.

39 And <sup>m</sup> he preached in their synagogues throughout all Galilee, and cast out devils‡.

40 And <sup>n</sup> there cometh a leper to him, beseeching him, and kneeling down to him, and saying unto him: If thou wilt thou canst make me clean. 41 And Jesus, moved with compassion, put forth <sup>o</sup> his hand and <sup>o</sup> touched him, and saith unto him: I will; be thou cleansed. 42 And as soon as he had spoken, immediately the leprosy departed from him, and he was cleansed. 43 And <sup>p</sup> he strictly charged him, and immediately sent him away; 44 and saith unto him: See thou say nothing to any man; but go thy way, show thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing those things <sup>q</sup> which Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them. 45 But <sup>r</sup> he went out, and began to publish <sup>q</sup> it much, and to blaze abroad the matter; so that Jesus could no more openly enter into any city, but was without in desert places; and they came to him from every quarter.

2. AND again <sup>a</sup> he entered into Capernaum after some days. And it was heard that he was in the house; <sup>2</sup> and straightway many were gathered together, so that there was no more room for them, even at the door. And he spake the word unto them.

3 And they come unto him bringing one who was palsied, borne by four men. 4 And not being able to come nigh unto him because of the multitude, they removed the roof* where he was; and having made an opening, they let down the bed whereon the palsied man lay. 5 And Jesus seeing their faith, saith unto the palsied man: Son, <sup>b</sup> thy sins are forgiven thee.

6 But there were some of the scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts: 7 Why doth this man thus <sup>c</sup> speak blasphemies? <sup>d</sup> Who can forgive sins but God only? 8 And Jesus immediately <sup>e</sup> knowing in his spirit that they were so reasoning within themselves, said unto them: Why reason ye these things in your hearts? 9 Which is easier; to say to the palsied man, Thy sins are forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and take up thy bed and walk?

10 But that ye may know that <sup>f</sup> the Son of man <sup>h</sup> hath authority on earth to forgive sins, (he saith to the palsied man,) 11 I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy bed, and go thy way unto thy house. 12 And immediately he arose, took up the bed, and went forth before them all; so that they were all amazed, and glorified God, saying: We never saw it on this fashion.

Call of Matthew; and answers to questions respecting (15) association with sinners, and (18) nonobservance of fasting.

13 AND he went forth again by the seaside; and all the multitude came unto him, and he taught them.

14 And <sup>a</sup> as he passed by, he saw Levi, the son of Alphæus, sitting at the receipt of custom‡; and said unto him: Follow me. And he arose and followed him.

15 And it came to pass that as Jesus sat at meat in his house<sup>l</sup>, many publicans and sinners sat down together with Jesus and his disciples; for there were many, and they followed him. 16 And when the scribes

<sup>23</sup> AND <sup>a</sup> it came to pass that he was going through the corn fields on the sabbath; and his disciples began as they went <sup>b</sup> to pluck the ears of corn. <sup>24</sup> And the Pharisees said unto him: Behold, why do they on the sabbath that which is not lawful? <sup>25</sup> And he said unto them: Have ye never read <sup>c</sup> what David did, when he had need and was hungry, he and they that were with him; <sup>26</sup> how he went into the house of God, in the days of Abiathar, the high priest, and ate the showbread, <sup>d</sup> which it is not lawful to eat but for the priests, and gave also to them that were with him? <sup>27</sup> And he said unto them: <sup>e</sup> The sabbath day was made for man, and not man for the sabbath day; <sup>28</sup> so that the Son of man is Lord even of the sabbath day.

<sup>3</sup> And <sup>f</sup> he entered again into the synagogue. And there was a man there who had a withered hand. <sup>2</sup> And <sup>g</sup> they watched him, whether he would heal him on the sabbath day; that they might accuse him. <sup>3</sup> And he saith unto the man who had the withered hand, Stand forth in the midst. <sup>4</sup> And he saith unto them: Is it lawful to do good on the sabbath days, or to do evil; to save life, or to kill? But they held their peace. <sup>5</sup> And when he had looked round about on them with anger, being grieved for the hardness of their heart, he saith unto the man, Stretch out thy hand. And he stretched <sup>it</sup> out; and his hand was restored whole as the other.

<sup>7</sup> But Jesus withdrew with his disciples to the sea*. <sup>i</sup> And a great multitude from Galilee followed him, and from Judæa, <sup>8</sup> and from Jerusalem, and from Idumæa, and from beyond Jordan. And they about Tyre and Sidon, a great multitude, when they heard what great things he did, came unto him.

<sup>9</sup> And he spake to his disciples that a boat should wait on him, because of the multitude, that they might not throng him. <sup>10</sup> For he healed many; so that they pressed upon him, to touch him, as many as had plagues; <sup>11</sup> and <sup>k</sup> the unclean spirits, when they saw him, fell down before him, and cried out, saying, Thou art the Son of God. <sup>12</sup> And <sup>l</sup> he strictly charged them that they should not make him known.

Appointment of the twelve apostles.

Jesus is charged (21) by his relations with madness, and (22) by the Scribes with being in league with Satan—(31) Message of his mother and brethren, and (34) his answer.

<sup>20</sup> AND they went into a house; and a multitude cometh together again, <sup>a</sup> so that they could not so much as eat bread. <sup>21</sup> And when his friends heard of <sup>it</sup>, they went out to lay hold on him, <sup>b</sup> for they said: He is beside himself.

<sup>22</sup> And <sup>c</sup> the scribes who came down from Jerusalem said: He hath Beelzebub; and,

4. AND <sup>a</sup>he began again to teach by the sea-side; and there was gathered unto him a great multitude; so that he entered into the ship, and sat in the sea; and the whole multitude was by the sea on the land.

2 And he taught them many things by parables; and he said unto them in his teaching: <sup>3</sup>Hearken, behold, there went out a sower to sow; <sup>4</sup>and it came to pass, as he sowed, some fell by the way side, and the birds of the air came and devoured it up. <sup>5</sup>And some fell upon the rocky ground, where it had not much earth; and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth; <sup>6</sup>but when the sun was up, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away. <sup>7</sup>And some fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked it, and it yielded no fruit. <sup>8</sup>And some fell on the good ground, and yielded fruit growing up and increasing; and it brought forth, some thirty and some sixty and some a hundredfold. <sup>9</sup>And he said unto them: He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

<sup>10</sup>And when he was alone, they that were about him, with the twelve, asked him concerning the parable. <sup>11</sup>And he said unto them: Unto you <sup>b</sup>it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God; but unto <sup>c</sup>them that are without all things are done in parables; <sup>12</sup>that <sup>d</sup>'seeing they may see and not perceive, and hearing they may hear and not understand; lest haply they should turn, and their sins should be forgiven them' [Isa. vi. 9, 10].

<sup>13</sup>And he saith unto them: Know ye not this parable? And how then will ye know all the parables? <sup>14</sup>The sower soweth the word. <sup>15</sup>And these are they by the way side; where the word is sown, and when they have heard, Satan cometh immediately and taketh away the word that was sown in their hearts. <sup>16</sup>And these are they in like manner which are sown on the rocky places; who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladness; <sup>17</sup>yet have they no root in themselves, but endure only for a while; and then, when tribulation or persecution ariseth for the word's sake, immediately they are offended. <sup>18</sup>And these are they that are sown among the thorns; such as hear the word, <sup>19</sup>and the cares of this world <sup>e</sup>and the deceitfulness of riches and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful. <sup>20</sup>And these are they that were sown on the good ground; such as hear the word and receive it, and bring forth fruit, some thirty some sixty and some a hundred fold.

<sup>24</sup>And he said unto them: Take heed what ye hear; <sup>i</sup>with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured unto you, and unto you that hear shall more be given: <sup>25</sup>For <sup>k</sup>he that hath, to him shall be given; and he that hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he hath.

<sup>26</sup>And he said: <sup>l</sup>So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast his seed upon the ground, <sup>27</sup>and should sleep and rise, night and day, and the seed should spring and grow up, he knoweth not how. <sup>28</sup> For the earth bringeth forth fruit of itself; first the blade, then the ear, and then the full corn in the ear; <sup>29</sup> and when the fruit is brought forth, immediately <sup>m</sup> he putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come.

<sup>30</sup> And he said: <sup>n</sup> Unto what must we liken the kingdom of God; or in what parable must we set it forth? <sup>31</sup> It is like a grain of mustard seed, which when it is sown in the earth is less than all the seeds that are upon the earth; <sup>32</sup> but when it is sown it groweth up, and becometh greater than all the herbs, and shooteth out great branches, so that the birds of the air are able to lodge under the shadow of it.

<sup>33</sup> And <sup>a</sup> with many such parables spake he the word unto them, as they were able to hear it; <sup>34</sup> but without a parable spake he not unto them; and when they were alone, he explained all things to his disciples.

Jesus (37) stills a tempest, (ch. 5. 1) casts out demons, (25) heals disease, and (35) restores to life.

<sup>35</sup> AND <sup>a</sup> the same day, when the evening was come, he saith unto them: Let us pass over unto the other side. <sup>36</sup> And when they had sent away the multitude, they took him even as he was in the ship; and there were other boats also with him.

<sup>37</sup> And there ariseth a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the ship, so that it was now filling. <sup>38</sup> And he was in the hinder part of the ship, sleeping on the cushion; and they awake him, and say unto him: Master*, carest thou not that we perish? <sup>39</sup> And being awakened, he rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea: Peace, be still! And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm. <sup>40</sup> And he said unto them: Why are ye so fearful; how is it that ye have no faith? <sup>41</sup> And they feared exceedingly, and said one to another: Who then is this, that even <sup>b</sup> the wind and the sea obey him?

day, in the mountains, and in the tombs, he was crying out, and cutting himself with stones. <sup>6</sup> And when he saw Jesus afar off, he ran and worshipped him, <sup>7</sup> and cried with a loud voice, and said: What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of the most high God? I adjure thee by God, that thou torment me not. <sup>8</sup> For he said unto him: Come out of the man, thou unclean spirit. <sup>9</sup> And he asked him: What is thy name? And he answered, saying: My name is Legion; for we are many. <sup>10</sup> And he besought him much that he would not send them away out of the country.

<sup>11</sup> Now there was there nigh unto the mountains a great herd of swine feeding. <sup>12</sup> And all the devils* besought him, saying: Send us into the swine, that we may enter into them. <sup>13</sup> And forthwith Jesus gave them leave. And the unclean spirits went out, and entered into the swine; and the herd rushed down the steep place into the sea (they were about two thousand) and were choked in the sea.

<sup>14</sup> And they that kept the swine fled, and told it in the city and in the country. And they came out to see what it was that was done. <sup>15</sup> And they came to Jesus, and they behold him that was possessed with the devil, sitting, and clothed, and in his right mind, even him that had the legion: and they were afraid. <sup>16</sup> And they that saw it told them how it befell to him that was possessed with the devil, and concerning the swine. <sup>17</sup> And <sup>d</sup> they began to pray him to depart out of their borders.

<sup>18</sup> And as he was going into the ship, <sup>e</sup> he that had been possessed with the devil prayed him that he might be with him. <sup>19</sup> Howbeit Jesus suffered him not, but saith unto him: Go home to thy friends, and tell them what things the Lord hath done for thee, and hath had compassion on thee. <sup>20</sup> And he departed, and began to publish in Decapolis what things Jesus had done for him; and all men marvelled.

much people followed him, and thronged him.

<sup>25</sup> And a certain woman <sup>1</sup> who had had an issue of blood twelve years, <sup>26</sup> and had suffered much from many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was nothing bettered, but rather grew worse, <sup>27</sup> when she heard of Jesus, came in the multitude behind, and touched his garment; <sup>28</sup> for she said: If I may touch but his garments, I shall be made whole. <sup>29</sup> And straightway the fountain of her blood was dried up; and she felt in her body that she was healed of that plague.

<sup>30</sup> And Jesus, immediately knowing in himself <sup>k</sup> the power which had gone out of him, turned him about in the multitude, and said: Who touched my clothes? <sup>31</sup> And his disciples said unto him: Thou seest the multitude thronging thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me? <sup>32</sup> And he looked round about to see her that had done this thing. <sup>33</sup> But the woman fearing and trembling, knowing what had happened to her, came and fell down before him, and told him all the truth. <sup>34</sup> And he said unto her: Daughter, <sup>l</sup> thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace, and be whole of thy plague.

<sup>38</sup> And he cometh to the house of the ruler of the synagogue; and he beholdeth a tumult, and them that wept and wailed greatly. <sup>39</sup> And when he was come in, he saith unto them: Why make ye this ado and weep? Christ's visit to Nazareth, and rejection there.

6. AND <sup>a</sup> he went out from thence, and came into his own country; and his disciples follow him. <sup>2</sup> And when the sabbath day was come, he began to teach in the synagogue. And many hearing him were astonished, saying: <sup>b</sup> From whence hath this man these things? And what wisdom is this which is given unto him, that even such mighty works are wrought by his hands? <sup>3</sup> Is not this the <sup>c</sup> carpenter, the son of Mary, <sup>d</sup> the brother of James and Joses and Judas, and Simon? And are not his sisters here with us? And they <sup>e</sup> were offended in him.

<sup>21</sup> And a convenient day being come, when Herod on his birthday made a supper for his lords, high captains, and chief men of Galilee; <sup>22</sup> and when the daughter of Herodias herself came in, and danced, and pleased Herod and them that sat with him, the king said unto the damsel: Ask of me whatsoever thou wilt, and I will give it thee. <sup>23</sup> And he sware unto her: <sup>f</sup> Whatsoever thou shalt ask of me, I will give it thee, unto the half of my kingdom. <sup>24</sup> And she went forth, and said unto her mother: What shall I ask? And she said: The head of John the Baptist. <sup>25</sup> And she came in straightway with haste unto the king, and asked, saying: I desire that thou give me forthwith upon a platter the head of John the Baptist. <sup>26</sup> And the king was exceeding sorry; <sup>yet</sup> on account of his oath, and of them that sat with him, he would not refuse her. <sup>27</sup> And immediately the king sent an executioner, and commanded his head to be brought; and he went and beheaded him in the prison, <sup>28</sup> and brought his head upon a platter, and gave it to the damsel; and the damsel gave it to her mother. <sup>29</sup> And when his disciples heard of it, they came and took up his corpse, and laid it in a tomb.

The twelve return, and (31) Jesus retires with them to a desert place; (33) the people following, (34) he teaches and miraculously feeds them.

<sup>30</sup> AND <sup>a</sup> the apostles gathered themselves together unto Jesus; and they told him all things, both what they had done and what they had taught. <sup>31</sup> And he said unto them: Come ye by yourselves apart into a desert place, and rest a while. For there were many coming and going, and they had no leisure so much as to eat. <sup>32</sup> And they departed into a desert place by ship privately.

<sup>33</sup> And the multitudes saw them departing; and many knew him, and ran by land* thither out of all the cities, and outwent them, and came together unto him. <sup>34</sup> And

<sup>b</sup> Jesus went forth, and saw a great multitude; and he was moved with compassion towards them, because they were <sup>c</sup> as sheep not having a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.

<sup>35</sup> And when the day was now far spent, his disciples came unto him, and said: This is a desert place, and now the day is far passed; <sup>36</sup> send them away, that they may go into the country and villages round about, and buy themselves bread; for they have nothing to eat. <sup>37</sup> But he answered and said unto them: Give ye them to eat. And they say unto him: <sup>d</sup> Shall we go and buy two hundred pennyworth* of bread, and give them to eat? <sup>38</sup> He saith unto them: How many loaves have ye? Go and see. And when they knew, they say: <sup>e</sup> Five, and two fishes.

<sup>39</sup> And he commanded them to make all sit down by companies upon the green grass; <sup>40</sup> and they sat down in ranks, by hundreds and by fifties. <sup>41</sup> And he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven <sup>f</sup> he blessed, and he brake the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to set before them; and the two fishes divided he among all. <sup>42</sup> And they all ate, and were filled. <sup>43</sup> And they took up twelve baskets† full of the pieces of bread and of the fishes. <sup>44</sup> And they that had eaten of the loaves were about five thousand men.

Jesus (45) having sent away the disciples, (48) comes to them, walking upon the water—(55) He heals many sick throughout the country.

<sup>45</sup> AND <sup>a</sup> straightway he constrained his disciples to get into the ship, and to go before him to the other side, unto Bethsaida, while he sent away the multitude. <sup>46</sup> And when he had dismissed them, he went away to the mountain to pray.

<sup>47</sup> And when evening was come, the ship was in the midst of the sea, and he alone upon the land. <sup>48</sup> And he saw them toiling in rowing; for the wind was contrary to them. And about the fourth watch of the night he cometh unto them, walking upon the sea; and <sup>b</sup> he would have passed by them; <sup>49</sup> but they seeing him walking upon the sea, supposed it had been a spirit; and they cried out; <sup>50</sup> for they all saw him, and were troubled. And immediately he talked with them, and saith unto them: Be of good cheer; It is I; be not afraid. <sup>51</sup> And he went up unto them into the ship; and the wind ceased. And they were sore amazed in themselves beyond measure, and wondered; <sup>52</sup> for <sup>c</sup> they understood not the miracle of the loaves; for their <sup>d</sup> heart was hardened.

<sup>53</sup> And they passed over, and came into the land of Gennesaret, and cast anchor there. <sup>54</sup> And when they were come out of the ship, straightway they knew him, <sup>55</sup> and ran through that whole region round about, and began to carry about in beds those that were sick, where they heard he was. <sup>56</sup> And whithersoever he entered, into villages, or cities, or country, they laid the sick in the market-places, and besought him that <sup>e</sup> they might touch if it were but the fringe of his garment; and as many as touched it were made whole.

7. AND there <sup>a</sup> come together unto him the Pharisees, and certain of the scribes, who came from Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup> And when they saw some of his disciples eating bread with defiled, that is to say, with unwashed, hands, they found fault. <sup>3</sup> For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, except they wash their hands carefully, eat not, holding the tradition of the elders. <sup>4</sup> And when they come from the market, except they wash themselves they eat not. And many other things there are which they have received to hold, as the washing of cups, and of pots, and of brasen vessels and of couches.

<sup>6</sup> He answered and said unto them: Well did Isaiah prophesy of you hypocrites, as it is written: 'This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me; <sup>7</sup> howbeit in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men' [Isa. xxix. 13.]. <sup>8</sup> For laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, *as** the washing of pots and cups; and many other such like things ye do.

<sup>9</sup> And he said unto them: Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition. <sup>10</sup> For Moses said: <sup>d</sup> 'Honour thy father and thy mother;' and, 'He that <sup>e</sup> curseth father or mother, let him die the death' [Exod. xx. 12, and xxi. 17.]; <sup>11</sup> but ye say: If a man shall say to his father or mother, That <sup>f</sup> by which thou mightest receive benefit from me is Corban, (that is to say, a gift to God), <sup>12</sup> then ye suffer him no more to do ought for his father or his mother; <sup>13</sup> making <sup>g</sup> the word of God of none effect by your tradition, which ye have delivered. And many such like things ye do.

unto him, and said unto them: Harken unto me all of you, and understand: <sup>15</sup> there is nothing from without the man that entering into him can defile him; but <sup>h</sup> the things which come out of him, those are they that defile the man. <sup>16</sup> If <sup>i</sup> any man hath ears to hear, let him hear.

<sup>17</sup> And when he entered into the house from the people, his disciples asked him concerning the parable. <sup>18</sup> And he saith unto them: Are even ye so without understanding also? Do ye not perceive that whatsoever thing from without entereth into the man, it cannot defile him; <sup>19</sup> because it entereth not into his heart, but into the stomach, and goeth out into the draught*, cleansing all meats? <sup>20</sup> And he said: That which cometh out of the man, that defileth the man. <sup>21</sup> For <sup>k</sup> from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders, <sup>22</sup> thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness: <sup>23</sup> all these evil things come forth from within, and they defile the man.

Jesus goes northward to the region of Tyre and Sidon; and grants the prayer of a Gentile woman.

24 AND <sup>a</sup> he arose from thence, and departed into the borders of Tyre and Sidon. And he entered into a house, and would have no one know it; but he could not be hidden; <sup>25</sup> for a woman whose young daughter had an unclean spirit heard of him, and came and fell at his feet; <sup>26</sup> the woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by nation; and she besought him that he would cast forth the devil out of her daughter. <sup>27</sup> But Jesus said unto her: Let the children first be filled; for it is not meet to take the children's bread and to cast it unto the dogs. <sup>28</sup> And she answered and said unto him: Even so, Lord, for even the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs. <sup>29</sup> And he said unto her: For this saying go thy way; the devil is gone out of thy daughter. <sup>30</sup> And she departed to her house; and she found the devil gone out, and her daughter laid upon the bed.

Jesus returns to the Sea of Galilee, and (32) heals a deaf and dumb man—(36) His wonderful works excite the admiration of the people.

speech; and they beseech him to put his hand upon him. <sup>33</sup> And he took him aside from the multitude, and put his fingers into his ears, and <sup>b</sup> he spat, and touched his tongue; <sup>34</sup> and looking up to heaven, <sup>c</sup> he sighed, and saith unto him: Ephphatha, that is, Be opened. <sup>35</sup> And straightway his ears were opened, and the string of his tongue was loosed, and he spake plainly.

<sup>d</sup> <sup>36</sup> And <sup>d</sup> he charged them that they should tell no one; but the more he charged them, so much the more a great deal they published it. <sup>37</sup> And they were astonished beyond measure, saying: He hath done all things well; he maketh both the deaf to hear and the dumb to speak.

<sup>6</sup> And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground; and he took the seven loaves, and gave thanks, and brake, and gave to his disciples to set before them; and they set them before the multitude. <sup>7</sup> And they had a few small fishes; and he blessed them, and commanded to set them also before them. <sup>8</sup> So they ate, and were filled; and they took up of the pieces that were left seven baskets. <sup>9</sup> And they that had eaten were about four thousand; and he sent them away.

take bread, and they had not in the ship with them more than one loaf. <sup>15</sup> And <sup>d</sup> he charged them, saying: Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the leaven of Herod. <sup>16</sup> And they reasoned among themselves, saying: It is because we have no bread. <sup>17</sup> And Jesus knowing it saith unto them: Why reason ye because ye have no bread? Do ye not yet perceive or understand? Have ye your heart still hardened? <sup>18</sup> Having eyes, see ye not; and having ears, hear ye not? And do ye not remember? <sup>19</sup> When <sup>e</sup> I brake the five loaves among five thousand, how many baskets* full of pieces took ye up? They say unto him, Twelve. <sup>20</sup> And when the seven among four thousand, how many baskets* full of pieces took ye up? And they said, Seven. <sup>21</sup> And he said unto them: How is it that ye do not understand?

<sup>22</sup> AND he cometh to Bethsaida. And they bring a blind man unto him, and beseech him to touch him. <sup>23</sup> And he took the blind man by the hand, and led him out of the village; and when <sup>a</sup> he had spit on his eyes, he put his hands upon him, and asked him if he saw any thing. <sup>24</sup> And he looked up, and said: I behold men, for I see them as trees, walking. <sup>25</sup> After that he put his hands again upon his eyes, and made him look up; and he was restored, and saw every thing clearly. <sup>26</sup> And he sent him away to his house, saying: Neither go into the village, <sup>b</sup> nor tell it to any in the village.

Peter's confession—(31) Jesus foretells his death, and resurrection; and (34) exhorts to steadfastness.

<sup>27</sup> AND <sup>a</sup> Jesus went out, and his disciples, into the villages of Caesarea Philippi. And by the way he asked his disciples, saying unto them: Who do men say that I am? <sup>28</sup> And they answered: John the Baptist; but some say, Elijah; and others, One of the prophets. <sup>29</sup> And he saith unto them: But who say ye that I am? And Peter answereth and saith unto him: Thou <sup>b</sup> art the Christ. <sup>30</sup> And he charged them that they should tell no one of him.

<sup>31</sup> And <sup>c</sup> he began to teach them that the Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders and the chief priests and the scribes, and be put to death, and <sup>d</sup> after three days rise again. <sup>32</sup> And he spake that saying openly.

And Peter took him and began to rebuke him. <sup>33</sup> But turning about and looking on his disciples, he rebuked Peter, saying : Get thee behind me, Satan* ; for thy thoughts are not those that are of God, but those that are of men.

<sup>34</sup> And he called the multitude unto him, with his disciples, and said unto them : <sup>6</sup> Whosoever desireth to come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. <sup>35</sup> For <sup>f</sup> whosoever shall desire to save his life will lose it ; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel's, the same will save it. <sup>36</sup> For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world and lose his own soul ? <sup>37</sup> Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul ? <sup>38</sup> For <sup>g</sup> whosoever <sup>h</sup> shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of him shall the Son of man also be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.

<sup>9</sup> And he said unto them : <sup>i</sup> Verily I say unto you, that there are some of them that stand here, who will not taste of death till they have seen <sup>k</sup> the kingdom of God come with power.

<sup>5</sup> And Peter answered and said to Jesus : Master†, it is good for us to be here ; and let us make three tabernacles ; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah. <sup>6</sup> For he knew not what to say ; for they were sore afraid. <sup>7</sup> And there came a cloud overshadowing them ; and a voice came out of the cloud, saying : This is my beloved Son ; hear him. <sup>8</sup> And suddenly, when they looked round about, they saw no man any more, save Jesus only with themselves.

<sup>9</sup> And as they came down from the mountain, he charged them that they should tell no man what things they had seen till the Son of man were risen from the dead. <sup>10</sup> And they kept that saying with themselves, questioning one with another what the rising from the dead should mean.

verily cometh first, and restoreth all things ; and <sup>d</sup> how it is written of the Son of man, that he must suffer many things, and <sup>e</sup> be set at nought. <sup>13</sup> But I say unto you, that <sup>f</sup> Elijah is indeed come, and they have done unto him whatsoever they desired, as it is written of him.

Casting out of a demon which the disciples had been unable to cast out.

<sup>14</sup> AND <sup>a</sup> when he came to his disciples, he saw a great multitude about them, and scribes questioning with them. <sup>15</sup> And straightway all the multitude, when they beheld him, were greatly amazed ; and running to him they saluted him. <sup>16</sup> And he asked the scribes : What question ye with them ? <sup>17</sup> And one of the multitude answered and said : Master*, I have brought unto thee my son, who hath a dumb spirit ; <sup>18</sup> and wheresoever it taketh hold on him, it tear-eth him ; and he foameth, and gnasheth with his teeth, and pineth away. And I spake to thy disciples that they should cast it out, and they could not.

<sup>19</sup> He answereth him, and saith : O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you ; how long shall I bear with you ? Bring him unto me. <sup>20</sup> And they brought him unto him ; and when he saw him, straightway the spirit tare him ; and he fell on the ground, and wallowed foaming. <sup>21</sup> And he asked his father : How long is it ago since this came unto him ? And he said : From his childhood ; <sup>22</sup> and oftentimes it hath cast him into the fire, and into the waters, to destroy him. But if thou canst do any thing, have compassion on us, and help us. <sup>23</sup> Jesus said unto him : <sup>b</sup> If thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth. <sup>24</sup> And straightway the father of the child cried out, and said with tears : Lord, I believe ; help thou mine unbelief.

<sup>25</sup> And Jesus, seeing that a multitude came running together, rebuked the unclean spirit, saying unto it : Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him. <sup>26</sup> And the spirit cried, and rent him sore, and came out of him : and he was as one dead ; insomuch that many said, He is dead ; <sup>27</sup> but Jesus took him by the hand and lifted him up ; and he arose.

<sup>28</sup> And when he was come into the house, his disciples asked him privately : Why could not we cast it out ? <sup>29</sup> And he said unto them : This kind can come forth by nothing but by prayer and fasting†.

Another journey through Galilee; (31) Jesus again foretells his death and resurrection.

30 AND they departed thence, and passed through Galilee: and he would not that any one should know it: <sup>31</sup> for <sup>a</sup> he taught his disciples, and said unto them: The Son of man is delivered into the hands of men, and they will kill him; and after he is killed, he will rise again the third day. <sup>32</sup> But <sup>b</sup> they understood not the saying, and were afraid to ask him.

33 AND <sup>a</sup> he came to Capernaum. And when he was in the house he asked them: What disputed ye among yourselves by the way? <sup>34</sup> But they held their peace; for by the way <sup>b</sup> they had disputed one with another which of them was the greatest.

<sup>35</sup> And he sat down, and called the twelve, and saith unto them: <sup>c</sup> If any one desireth to be first, he shall be last of all, and servant of all. <sup>36</sup> And <sup>d</sup> he took a little child and set him in the midst of them; and when he had taken him in his arms, he said unto them: <sup>37</sup> Whosoever receiveth one of such little children in my name, receiveth me; and <sup>e</sup> whosoever receiveth me, receiveth not me but him that sent me.

<sup>38</sup> And John answered him, saying, Master*, we saw one casting out devils† in thy name, and he followeth not us; and <sup>f</sup> we forbade him, because he followeth not us. <sup>39</sup> But Jesus said: Forbid him not: <sup>g</sup> for there is no one that shall do a miracle in my name, and will be able lightly to speak evil of me. <sup>40</sup> For he that is not against us is on our part‡. <sup>41</sup> For <sup>h</sup> whosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because ye belong to Christ, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward.

fire is not quenched]. <sup>47</sup> And if thine eye cause thee to offend, pluck it out: it is better for thee to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire*; <sup>48</sup> where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched. <sup>49</sup> For every one shall be salted with fire, and <sup>m</sup> every sacrifice shall be salted with salt. <sup>50</sup> Salt <sup>n</sup> is good; but if the salt have lost its saltness, wherewith will ye season it? Have <sup>o</sup> salt in yourselves, and <sup>p</sup> be at peace one with another.

Jesus visits Judæa, and goes beyond the Jordan; and teaches many who resort to him.

10. AND <sup>a</sup> he arose from thence, and goeth into the borders of Judæa, and beyond the Jordan. And the multitudes come together unto him again; and, as he was wont, he taught them again.

13 AND <sup>a</sup> they brought little children to him, that he might touch them; and his disciples rebuked those that brought them. <sup>14</sup> But Jesus seeing <sup>b</sup> it, was much displeased, and said unto them: Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not; for <sup>b</sup> of such is the kingdom of God. <sup>15</sup> Verily I say unto you, <sup>c</sup> Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall in no wise enter therein. <sup>16</sup> And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them.

Answer to the question How to attain eternal life—(23) Dangers of wealth; (28) promised recompense for sufferings for Christ's sake.

17 AND <sup>a</sup> as he was going forth into the way, there came one running, and kneeled to him, and asked him: Good Master*, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life? 18 And Jesus said unto him: Why callest thou me good? There is none good but one, that is God. 19 Thou knowest the commandments, 'Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Defraud not, Honour thy father and thy mother' [Exod. xx. 12—16.] 20 And he answered and said unto him: Master†, all these have I observed from my youth.

21 Then Jesus beholding him loved him, and said unto him: One thing thou lackest; go thy way, sell whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor; and thou shalt have <sup>b</sup> treasure in heaven; and come, take up the cross‡, and follow me. 22 And he was sad at that saying, and went away grieved; for he had great possessions.

23 And Jesus looked round about, and saith unto his disciples: How hard is it for them that have riches to enter into the kingdom of God! 24 And the disciples were astonished at his words. But Jesus answereth again and saith unto them: Children, how hard is it for them <sup>c</sup> that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God! 25 It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God. 26 And they were astonished out of measure, saying among themselves: Who then can be saved? 27 And Jesus looking upon them saith: With men <sup>d</sup> it is impossible, but not with God: for <sup>e</sup> with God all things are possible.

28 Then Peter began to say unto him: Lo, we have left all, and have followed thee. 29 And Jesus answered and said: Verily I say unto you, there is no one that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my sake, and the gospel's, 30 but <sup>e</sup> he shall receive a hundredfold now in this time, houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions; and in the world <sup>f</sup> to come everlasting life. 31 But <sup>g</sup> many that are first will be last; and the last first.

32 AND <sup>a</sup> they were in the way, going up to Jerusalem; and Jesus went before them; and they were amazed; and as they followed, they were afraid.

And he took again the twelve, and <sup>b</sup> began to tell them the things that were about to happen to him, 33 saying: Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man will be delivered up to the chief priests and to the scribes; and they will condemn him to death, and will deliver him to the Gentiles; 34 and they will mock him, and will scourge him, and will spit upon him, and will kill him; and the third day he will rise again.

35 AND <sup>a</sup> there came unto him James and John, the sons of Zebedee, saying unto him: Master*, we would that thou shouldst do for us whatsoever we shall desire. 36 And he said unto them: What would ye that I should do for you? 37 They said unto him: Grant unto us that we may sit, one on thy right hand and the other on thy left hand, in thy glory.

38 But Jesus said unto them: Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able to drink of the cup that I drink of, and to be baptized with <sup>b</sup> the baptism that I am baptized with? 39 And they said unto him: We are able. And Jesus said unto them: Ye shall indeed drink of the cup that I drink of; and with the baptism that I am baptized withal shall ye be baptized; 40 but to sit on my right hand and on my left hand is not mine to give but <sup>c</sup> unto those for whom it is prepared.

41 And when the ten heard it they began to be moved with indignation against James and John. 42 But Jesus called them to him, and saith unto them: <sup>c</sup> Ye know that they who are accounted to rule over the nations exercise lordship over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them. 43 But <sup>d</sup> so shall it not be among you; but whosoever would become great among you shall be your minister: 44 and whosoever of you would become the chiefest shall be servant of all. 45 For even <sup>e</sup> the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and <sup>f</sup> to give his life a ransom for many.

46 AND <sup>a</sup> they came to Jericho. And as he went out of Jericho, with his disciples and a great number of people, blind Bartimæus, the son of Timeus, sat by the highway side begging. 47 And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out, and say: Jesus, thou son of David, have mercy on me! <sup>48</sup> And many rebuked him that he should hold his peace; but he cried out the more a great deal, Thou son of David, have mercy on me! <sup>49</sup> And Jesus stood still, and commanded him to be called. And they call the blind man, saying unto him: Be of good cheer, rise, he calleth thee! <sup>50</sup> And he, casting away his garment, rose<sup>51</sup>, and came to Jesus. <sup>51</sup> And Jesus answered and said unto him: What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? And the blind man said unto him: Lord†, that I may receive my sight. <sup>52</sup> And Jesus said unto him: Go thy way; <sup>b</sup> thy faith hath made thee whole. Christ's public entry into Jerusalem; (12) the barren fig tree; (15) cleansing of the temple.

11. AND <sup>a</sup> when they come nigh to Jerusalem, unto Bethphage and <sup>b</sup> Bethany, at the mount of Olives, he sendeth forth two of his disciples, <sup>2</sup> and saith unto them: Go your way into the village over against you; and as soon as ye are entered into it, ye will find a colt tied, whereon never man sat; loose it, and bring it. <sup>3</sup> And if any one say unto you, Why do ye this? say ye, The Lord hath need of it; and straightway he will send it hither.

<sup>4</sup> And they went their way, and found the colt tied by the door without, in the street; and they began to loose it. <sup>5</sup> And some of them that stood there said unto them: What do ye, loosing the colt? <sup>6</sup> And they said unto them even as Jesus had commanded; and they let them go. <sup>7</sup> And they brought the colt to Jesus, and cast their garments on it; and <sup>c</sup> he sat upon it.

<sup>8</sup> And many spread their garments in the way, and others branches which they cut out of the fields! <sup>9</sup> And they that went before, and they that followed, cried out, saying:

Hosanna! Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord! [Ps. cxviii. 26].

Hosanna <sup>d</sup> in the highest!

<sup>11</sup> And Jesus entered into Jerusalem, and into the temple. And when he had looked round about upon all things, and now the eventide was come, he went out unto Bethany with the twelve.

<sup>12</sup> And <sup>e</sup> on the morrow, when they were come out from Bethany, he was hungry: <sup>13</sup> and seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, he came, if haply he might find any thing thereon; and when he came to it he found nothing but leaves; for the time of figs was not yet. <sup>14</sup> And Jesus answered and said unto it: Let no one eat fruit of thee hereafter for ever. And his disciples heard it.

<sup>15</sup> And <sup>f</sup> they come into Jerusalem. And Jesus went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold and bought in the temple; and he overthrew the tables of the money changers, and the seats of them that sold the doves; <sup>16</sup> and he would not suffer any one to carry a vessel through the temple. <sup>17</sup> And he taught, saying unto them: Is it not written, 'My house shall be called a house of prayer for all nations? But ye have made it a den of robbers' [Isa. lvi. 7; Jer. vii. 11].

<sup>25</sup> And when ye stand praying, <sup>m</sup> forgive, if ye have aught against any one; that your Father also who is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses. <sup>26</sup> But <sup>n</sup> * if ye do not forgive, neither will your Father who is in heaven forgive your trespasses.

by what authority I do these things. <sup>30</sup>The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or from men? answer me.

<sup>31</sup>And they reasoned with themselves, saying: If we say, From heaven, he will say, Why then did ye not believe him? <sup>32</sup>But if we say, From men; they feared the people; for <sup>b</sup>all men counted John, that he was a prophet indeed. <sup>33</sup>And they answered and said unto Jesus: We know not. And Jesus answering saith unto them: Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.

<sup>12</sup>. And <sup>c</sup>he began to speak unto them in parables. A certain man planted a vineyard, and set a hedge about it, and digged a wine-vat, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country. <sup>2</sup>And at the season he sent to the husbandmen a servant, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruits of the vineyard. <sup>3</sup>And they took him and beat him, and sent him away empty. <sup>4</sup>And again he sent unto them another servant; and at him they cast stones, and wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully treated. <sup>5</sup>And again he sent another; and him they killed: and many others; beating some, and killing some. <sup>6</sup>Having therefore besides, one son, his wellbeloved, he sent him also last unto them, saying: They will reverence my son. <sup>7</sup>But those husbandmen said among themselves: This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be ours. <sup>8</sup>And they took him and killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard. <sup>9</sup>What then will the lord of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the husbandmen, and will give the vineyard unto others. <sup>10</sup>And have ye not read this Scripture: 'The stone which the builders rejected is become the head of the corner. <sup>11</sup>This was the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes' [Psa. cxviii. 22, 23]? <sup>12</sup>And <sup>d</sup>they sought to lay hold on him, but they feared the multitude; for they knew that he had spoken the parable concerning them: and they left him, and went their way.

Crafty attempts to ensnare Jesus by (13) the Pharisees and Herodians and (18) the Sadducees. (28) The two great commandments—(35) Question concerning David's Son and Lord.

<sup>13</sup>AND <sup>e</sup>they send unto him some of the Pharisees and of the Herodians, to catch him in his words. <sup>14</sup>And when they were come, they say unto him: Master*, we know that thou art true, and carest for no man; for thou regardest not the person of men, but teachest the way of God in truth: Is it lawful to give tribute to Cæsar, or not? <sup>15</sup>Shall we give, or shall we not give?

But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said unto them: Why tempt ye me? Bring me a penny*, that I may see it. <sup>16</sup>And they brought it. And he saith unto them: Whose is this image and superscription? And they said unto him: Cæsar's. <sup>17</sup>And Jesus answering said unto them: Render unto Cæsar the things that are Cæsar's, and unto God the things that are God's. And they marvelled at him.

<sup>28</sup>AND <sup>e</sup>one of the scribes came near, and having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him: Which is the first commandment of all? <sup>29</sup>And Jesus answered him: The first of all the commandments is, 'Hear, O Israel! The Lord our God is one Lord; <sup>30</sup>and thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength' [Deut. vi. 4, 5]; this is the first commandment. <sup>31</sup>And the second is like, namely this, 'Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself' [Lev. xix. 18]. There is no other commandment greater than these.

<sup>32</sup> And the scribe said unto him: Well spoken, Master*, thou hast said with truth that He is One; and there is no other but he; <sup>33</sup> and to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbour as himself, <sup>34</sup> is more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices. <sup>35</sup> And Jesus seeing that he answered wisely, said unto him: Thou art not far from the kingdom of God.

And no one after that durst ask him any question.

<sup>35</sup> And <sup>h</sup> Jesus answered and said, while he taught in the temple: How say the scribes that the Christ is David's son?

<sup>36</sup> For David himself said by the Holy Spirit: 'The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool' [Psa. cx. 1]. <sup>37</sup> David therefore himself calleth him Lord; and whence is he then his son?

Warning against the Scribes.—(4) Commendation of a widow's offering.

AND the great multitude heard him gladly. <sup>38</sup> And <sup>a</sup> he said unto them in his teaching: <sup>b</sup> Beware of the Scribes, who love to go in long robes, and <sup>c</sup> love salutations in the marketplaces, <sup>39</sup> and the chief seats in the synagogues, and the uppermost places at feasts; <sup>40</sup> who <sup>d</sup> devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayers: these shall receive greater condemnation.

and John and Andrew asked him privately: <sup>4</sup> Tell us, when will these things be? And what will be the sign when all these things are about to be fulfilled?

<sup>5</sup> And Jesus answering them began to say: <sup>c</sup> Take heed lest any man deceive you; <sup>6</sup> for many will come in my name, saying, I am He; and will deceive many. <sup>7</sup> And when ye hear of wars and rumours of wars, be ye not troubled; for such things must needs be; but the end is not yet. <sup>8</sup> For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; and there will be earthquakes in divers places, and there will be <sup>d</sup> famines and troubles. These things are the beginnings of sorrows.

<sup>21</sup> And <sup>p</sup> at that time if any one shall say to you, Lo, here is the Christ! or, Lo, he is there! believe it not; <sup>22</sup> for false Christs and false prophets will rise, and will show signs and wonders, to lead astray, if possible, even the elect. <sup>23</sup> But <sup>a</sup> take ye heed; behold, I have foretold you all things.

<sup>14</sup>. NOW after <sup>a</sup> two days was the Passover*, and the feast of Unleavened bread. And the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might take him by craft, and put him to death; <sup>2</sup> but they said: Not during the feast, lest there be an uproar of the people.

<sup>3</sup> And <sup>b</sup> while he was in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at meat, there came a woman having an alabaster box of ointment of spikenard very costly; and she brake the box, and poured it on his head. <sup>4</sup> And there were some that had indignation within themselves, and said: Why hath this waste of the ointment been made? <sup>5</sup> For it might have been sold for more than three hundred pence*, and have been given to the poor. And they murmured against her.

<sup>10</sup> And Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went unto the chief priests, to betray him † unto them. <sup>11</sup> And when they heard it they were glad, and promised to give him money; and he sought how he might conveniently betray him.

Christ celebrates the Passover; (18) points out the traitor; (22) institutes His supper; and foretells (27) the flight of all his disciples, and (29) Peter's denial.

<sup>12</sup> AND <sup>a</sup> the first day of Unleavened bread, when they killed the Passover, his disciples said unto him: Where wilt thou that we go and make ready that thou mayest eat the Passover?

<sup>13</sup> And he sendeth forth two of his disciples, and saith unto them: Go ye into the city, and there will meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water: follow him; <sup>14</sup> and wheresoever he shall go in, say ye to the master of the house: The Master † saith, Where is the guest-chamber where I may eat the Passover with my disciples? <sup>15</sup> And he will show you a large upper room furnished and prepared; there make ready for us. <sup>16</sup> And his disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as he had said unto them; and they made ready the Passover.

<sup>17</sup> And <sup>b</sup> in the evening he cometh with the twelve. <sup>18</sup> And as they sat and were eating, Jesus said: Verily I say unto you, One of you, even one that eateth with me, will betray me. <sup>19</sup> And they began to be sorrowful, and to say unto him one by one: Is it I? and another said: Is it I? <sup>20</sup> And he answered and said unto them: It is one of the twelve, that dipbeth with me in the dish. <sup>21</sup> For the Son of man goeth his way, even as it is written of him; but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! It had been good for that man if he had not been born.

body. <sup>23</sup> And he took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them; and they all drank of it. <sup>24</sup> And he said unto them: This is my blood of the <sup>d</sup> New Covenant, which is shed <sup>e</sup> for many. <sup>25</sup> Verily I say unto you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God.

<sup>26</sup> And when they had sung a hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives. <sup>27</sup> And <sup>f</sup> Jesus saith unto them: All ye shall be offended in me this night; for it is written, 'I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered' [Zech. xiii. 7]. <sup>28</sup> But <sup>g</sup> after I am risen again, I will go before you into Galilee.

<sup>29</sup> But Peter said unto him: Though all should be offended, yet will not I. <sup>30</sup> And Jesus saith unto him: Verily I say unto thee, that this day, even in this night, before the cock crow twice, thou wilt deny me thrice. <sup>31</sup> But he spake the more vehemently: If I must die with thee, yet will I not deny thee. Likewise also said they all. Christ's agony in Gethsemane; (43) his betrayal and arrest.

<sup>32</sup> AND <sup>a</sup> they came to a place which was named Gethsemane. And he saith to his disciples: Sit ye here while I pray.

speaking, cometh Judas, (being one of the twelve), and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders. <sup>44</sup> And he that betrayed him had given them a token, saying: Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he; take him, and lead him away safely. <sup>45</sup> And when he was come, he goeth straightway to him, and saith: Master, master*; and kissed him. <sup>46</sup> And they laid their hands on him, and took him. <sup>47</sup> And one of them that stood by drew his sword, and smote the servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.

<sup>48</sup> And Jesus answered and said unto them: Are ye come out as against a robber with swords and staves to take me? <sup>49</sup> I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and ye laid no hold on me; but <sup>h</sup> the Scriptures must be fulfilled.

Jesus before the high priest and the Sanhedrim; he is (63) condemned and (65) mocked; (66) Peter's denial.

<sup>53</sup> AND <sup>a</sup> they led Jesus away to the high priest; and there came together unto him all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes. <sup>54</sup> And Peter followed him afar off, even into the hall of the high priest; and he sat with the officers, and warmed himself at the fire.

Again the high priest asked him, and said unto him: Art thou the Christ, the Son of the Blessed? <sup>62</sup> And Jesus said: I am; <sup>f</sup> and ye shall see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming with the clouds of heaven. <sup>63</sup> Then the high priest rent his clothes, and saith:

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. LUKE.

Introduction, describing the origin, plan and purpose of the work.

1. FORASMUCH as many have taken in hand to set forth in order a declaration concerning those things which are most surely believed among us, <sup>2</sup> even <sup>a</sup> as they delivered them unto us who <sup>b</sup> from the beginning were eyewitnesses, and <sup>c</sup> ministers of the word, <sup>3</sup> it <sup>d</sup> seemed good to me also, having exactly traced out all things from the very first, to write unto thee in order*, most excellent Theophilus; <sup>4</sup> that <sup>e</sup> thou mayest know the certainty of those things wherein thou hast been instructed.

5 THERE was <sup>a</sup> in the days of Herod, the king of Judea, a certain priest named Zechariah, of the course of <sup>b</sup> Abijah; and his wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elisabeth. <sup>6</sup> And they were both <sup>c</sup> righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless. <sup>7</sup> And they had no child, because Elisabeth was barren; and they both were far advanced in age.

<sup>12</sup> And when Zechariah saw him, <sup>h</sup> he was troubled, and fear fell upon him. <sup>13</sup> But the angel said unto him: Fear not, Zechariah; for thy prayer is heard; and thy wife Elisabeth shall bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name John. <sup>14</sup> And thou shalt have joy and gladness; and many shall rejoice at his birth. <sup>15</sup> For <sup>i</sup> he shall be great in the sight of the Lord; and <sup>k</sup> shall drink neither wine nor strong drink; and he shall be <sup>l</sup> filled with the Holy Spirit, <sup>m</sup> even from his mother's womb. <sup>16</sup> And <sup>n</sup> many of the children of Israel shall he turn to the Lord their God, <sup>17</sup> And he shall go before him <sup>o</sup> in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just* [Mal. iv. 5, 6]; to make ready a prepared people for the Lord.

<sup>18</sup> And Zechariah said unto the angel: <sup>p</sup> Whereby shall I know this? For I am an old man, and my wife far advanced in age. <sup>19</sup> And the angel answering said unto him: I am <sup>q</sup> Gabriel, who stand in the presence of God; and I have been <sup>r</sup> sent to speak unto thee, and to show thee these glad tidings. <sup>20</sup> And behold, <sup>s</sup> thou shalt be dumb and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall be performed, because thou believedst not my words, <sup>t</sup> which shall be fulfilled in their season.

<sup>21</sup> And the people were waiting for Zechariah; and they marvelled that he tarried so long in the sanctuary. <sup>22</sup> And when he came out, he could not speak to them; and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the sanctuary; and he made signs to them, and remained speechless.

<sup>23</sup> And it came to pass, that as soon as the days of his ministration were accomplished, he departed to his own house. <sup>24</sup> And after those days his wife Elisabeth conceived; and she hid herself five months, saying: <sup>25</sup> Thus hath the Lord dealt with me in the days wherein he looked on me to <sup>u</sup> take away my reproach among men.

God. <sup>31</sup> And behold, <sup>e</sup> thou shalt conceive, and bring forth a son; and thou <sup>d</sup> shalt call his name JESUS. <sup>32</sup> He <sup>e</sup> shall be great, and shall be called <sup>f</sup> the Son of the Most High: and <sup>g</sup> the Lord God will give unto him the throne of his father David: <sup>33</sup> and he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end.

<sup>34</sup> Then said Mary unto the angel: How shall this be, seeing I know not a man; <sup>35</sup> And the angel answered and said unto her: <sup>i</sup> The Holy Spirit shall come upon thee, and the power of the Most High shall overshadow thee! Therefore also the holy child which shall be born of thee shall be called <sup>k</sup> the Son of God. <sup>36</sup> And behold, thy kinswoman Elisabeth, she hath also conceived a son in her old age; and this is the sixth month with her who was called barren. <sup>37</sup> For <sup>i</sup> with God nothing will be impossible. <sup>38</sup> And Mary said, Behold the handmaid of the Lord; be it unto me according to thy word. And the angel departed from her.

<sup>39</sup> And Mary arose in those days, and went into the hill country with haste, unto a city of Judah; <sup>40</sup> and entered into the house of Zechariah, and saluted Elisabeth. <sup>41</sup> And it came to pass that when Elisabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb. And Elisabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit: <sup>42</sup> and she spake out with a loud voice and said: <sup>m</sup> Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb. <sup>43</sup> And whence is this to me that the mother of my Lord should come to me? <sup>44</sup> For lo, as soon as the voice of thy salutation sounded in mine ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy. <sup>45</sup> And blessed is she that believed; for there shall be a performance of those things which have been told her from the Lord. <sup>46</sup> And Mary said:

My <sup>n</sup> soul doth magnify the Lord,

From generation to generation.

He hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts;

<sup>52</sup> He <sup>u</sup> hath put down the mighty from their seats*,

And hath exalted them of low degree;

To <sup>b</sup> Abraham, and to his seed for ever.

<sup>57</sup> NOW Elisabeth's full time came that she should be delivered; and she brought forth a son. <sup>58</sup> And her neighbours and her kinsfolk heard that the Lord had showed great mercy upon her; and they rejoiced with her.

<sup>59</sup> And it came to pass, that <sup>a</sup> on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child; and they were calling him Zechariah, after the name of his father; <sup>60</sup> and his mother answered and said: Not so; but he shall be called John. <sup>61</sup> And they said unto her: There is none of thy kindred that is called by this name. <sup>62</sup> And they made signs to his father, what he would have him called; <sup>63</sup> and he asked for a writing-tablet, and wrote, saying, His name is John; and they all marvelled. <sup>64</sup> And his mouth was opened immediately and his tongue loosed, and he spake and praised God.

For <sup>e</sup> he hath visited and redeemed his people,

<sup>69</sup> And <sup>f</sup> hath raised up a horn of salvation for us

In the house of his servant David;

Who have been since the world began;)

<sup>71</sup> Even salvation from our enemies,

And from the hand of all that hate us;

<sup>36</sup> And there was one, Anna, a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of <sup>p</sup> Asher ; she was of a great age, and had lived with a husband seven years from her virginity ; <sup>37</sup> and she was a widow of about fourscore and four years ; who departed not from the temple, but served God with fastings and prayers <sup>q</sup> night and day. <sup>38</sup> And she, coming in at that instant, gave thanks unto the Lord ; and she spake of him to all them that <sup>r</sup> looked for redemption in Jerusalem.

Childhood and youth of Jesus ; (41) visit to Jerusalem ; (51) his early life at Nazareth.

<sup>41</sup> Now his parents went to Jerusalem <sup>u</sup> every year at the feast of the Passover. <sup>42</sup> And when he was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem according to the custom of the feast. <sup>43</sup> And when they had fulfilled the days, as they returned, the child Jesus tarried behind in Jerusalem ; and his parents <sup>v</sup> knew not of it. <sup>44</sup> But supposing him to be <sup>d</sup> in the company, they went a day's journey ; and they sought him among their kinsfolk and acquaintance ; <sup>45</sup> and when they found him not, they turned back again to Jerusalem, seeking him. <sup>46</sup> And it came to pass that after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the doctors *, both hearing them and asking them questions. <sup>47</sup> And <sup>e</sup> all that heard him were astonished at his understanding and answers. <sup>48</sup> And when they saw him, they were amazed : and his mother said unto him : Son, why hast thou thus dealt with us ? Behold, thy father and I have sought thee sorrowing. <sup>49</sup> And he said unto them : How is it that ye sought me ? Knew ye not that I must be in my Father's house ? <sup>50</sup> And <sup>f</sup> they understood not the saying which he spake unto them.

<sup>51</sup> And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth, and was subject unto them. But his mother kept all these sayings in her heart. <sup>52</sup> And Jesus increased in wisdom as in age ; and in favour with God and man.

Preparatory ministry of John the Baptist ; (21) the baptism of Jesus, and (22) the testimony of the Spirit and of the Father.

3. NOW in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Cæsar—Pontius Pilate being governor of Judæa, and Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of Iturea and of the region of Trachonitis, and Lysanias tetrarch of Abilene, <sup>2</sup> Annas <sup>a</sup> and Caiaphas being the high priests—the word of God came unto John the son of Zechariah, in the wilderness.

<sup>11</sup> And the multitudes asked him, saying : What must we do then ? <sup>11</sup> He answered and said unto them: 'He that hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none; and he that hath food, let him do likewise.

<sup>12</sup> And there came also publicans* to be baptized; and they said unto him, Master†, what must we do? <sup>13</sup> And he said unto them, Exact no more than that which is appointed you.

<sup>14</sup> And soldiers likewise asked him, saying: And what must we do? And he said unto them: Do violence to no man, neither accuse any falsely; and be content with your pay.

<sup>15</sup> And <sup>k</sup> as the people were in expectation, and all were reasoning in their hearts concerning John, whether he were the Christ, or not, <sup>16</sup> John answered saying unto them all: 'I indeed baptize you with water; but he that is mightier than I cometh, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to unloose; he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire; <sup>17</sup> whose winnowing-fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly cleanse his threshing-floor; and <sup>18</sup> will gather the wheat into his barn, but the chaff he will burn with unquenchable fire. <sup>19</sup> And with many other exhortations preached he unto the people.

<sup>21</sup> Now when all the people had been baptized, <sup>o</sup> it came to pass, that Jesus also being baptized, and praying, the heaven was opened, <sup>22</sup> and <sup>p</sup> the Holy Spirit descended in a bodily form, like a dove, upon him, and a voice came from heaven, which said: Thou <sup>q</sup> art my beloved Son; in <sup>r</sup> thee I am well pleased.

The temptation in the wilderness.

4. AND <sup>a</sup> Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan, and <sup>b</sup> was led in the Spirit into the wilderness; <sup>2</sup> being forty days <sup>c</sup> tempted by the devil. And <sup>d</sup> he ate nothing in those days; and when they were ended, he afterwards was hungry. <sup>3</sup> And the devil said unto him: If thou be the Son of God, command this stone that it become bread. <sup>4</sup> And Jesus answered him: It is written that 'man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God' [Deut. viii. 3].

<sup>5</sup> And the devil, taking him up into a high mountain*, showed unto him all the kingdoms of the world† in a moment of time. <sup>6</sup> And the devil said unto him: All this authority will I give thee, and the glory of them; for <sup>e</sup> unto me it hath been delivered, and to whomsoever I will I give

<sup>9</sup> And he brought him to Jerusalem, and set him on the pinnacle of the temple, and said unto him: If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down from hence; <sup>10</sup> for it is written: 'He will give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee; <sup>11</sup> and on their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone' [Psa. xci. 11, 12]. <sup>12</sup> And Jesus answering said unto him: It is said, 'Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God' [Deut. vi. 16, Sept.].

<sup>13</sup> And when the devil had ended all the temptation, he departed from him <sup>f</sup> for a season.

Beginning of Christ's public ministry in Galilee—(16) His visit to Nazareth, and rejection there.

<sup>16</sup> And <sup>c</sup> he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up; and as his custom was, <sup>d</sup> he went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and stood up to read. <sup>17</sup> And there was delivered unto him the book of the prophet Isaiah: and when he had opened the book, he found the place where it was written: <sup>18</sup> 'The Spirit of the Lord is upon me; because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to proclaim <sup>e</sup> deliverance to the captives, and <sup>f</sup> recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are oppressed, <sup>19</sup> to proclaim the acceptable <sup>g</sup> year of the Lord' [Isa. lxi. 1, 2]. <sup>20</sup> And he closed the book, and gave it again to the minister, and sat down. And the eyes of all that were in the synagogue were fastened on him.

<sup>21</sup> And he began to say unto them: This day is this Scripture fulfilled in your ears. <sup>22</sup> And all bare him witness, and <sup>h</sup> wondered at the words of grace which proceeded out of his mouth. And they said: Is not this Joseph's son?

<sup>23</sup> And he said unto them: Ye will surely say unto me this proverb, Physician, heal thyself; whatsoever things we have heard done in <sup>i</sup> Capernaum, do also here in thine own country. <sup>24</sup> And he said: Verily I say unto you, No <sup>k</sup> prophet is accepted in his own country. <sup>25</sup> But I tell you of a truth, many widows were in Israel in the days of Elijah, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, <sup>1</sup> when there was a great famine throughout all the land; <sup>26</sup> yet to no one of them was Elijah sent, but unto <sup>m</sup> Sarepta, a city of Sidon, to a woman that was a widow. <sup>27</sup> And there were many lepers in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet; yet no one of them was cleansed, but <sup>n</sup> Naaman the Syrian.

<sup>28</sup> And all they in the synagogue, when they heard these things, were filled with wrath; <sup>29</sup> and they rose up and thrust him out of the city, and led him unto the brow of the hill whereon their city was built, that they might cast him down headlong; <sup>30</sup> but he <sup>o</sup> passing through the midst of them went his way.

<sup>31</sup> AND he <sup>a</sup> came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee; and he taught them on the sabbath days: <sup>32</sup> and <sup>b</sup> they were astonished at his teaching; for his word was with authority.

<sup>33</sup> And in the synagogue there was a man who had a spirit of an unclean devil*; and he cried out with a loud voice. <sup>34</sup> saying: Let us alone; what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? Art thou come to destroy us? <sup>c</sup> I know thee who thou art; <sup>d</sup> the Holy One of God. <sup>35</sup> And Jesus rebuked him, saying: Hold thy peace and come out of him. And the devil, throwing him into the midst, came out of him, and hurt him not.

<sup>36</sup> And they were all amazed, and spake one to another, saying: What word is this? For with authority and power he commandeth the unclean spirits, and they come out. <sup>37</sup> And the fame of him went out into every place of the country round about.

<sup>38</sup> AND <sup>e</sup> he arose out of the synagogue, and entered into Simon's house. And Simon's wife's mother was taken with a great fever; and they besought him for her. <sup>39</sup> And he stood over her and rebuked the fever, and it left her; and immediately she arose and ministered unto them.

<sup>40</sup> And when the sun was setting, all they that had any sick with divers diseases brought them unto him; and he laid his hands on every one of them and healed them. <sup>41</sup> And devils also came out of many, crying out and saying, Thou art the Christ, the Son of God. saying: Why do ye eat and drink with b publicans and sinners? <sup>31</sup> And Jesus answering said unto them: <sup>c</sup> They that are whole need not a physician, but they that are sick. <sup>32</sup> I <sup>d</sup> am not come to call the righteous but sinners to repentance.

<sup>33</sup> And they said unto him: <sup>e</sup> Why do the disciples of John fast often and make prayers, and likewise the disciples of the Pharisees, but thine eat and drink? <sup>34</sup> And Jesus said unto them: <sup>f</sup> Can ye make the sons of the bridechamber fast while the bridegroom is with them? <sup>35</sup> But the days will come when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and <sup>g</sup> then will they fast in those days.

<sup>36</sup> And he spake also a parable unto them: No man putteth a piece of a new garment upon an old; if otherwise, then both he rendeth the new, and the piece put in from the new will not agree with the old. <sup>37</sup> And no man putteth new wine into old bottles*; else the new wine will burst the bottles, and be itself spilled, and the bottles will be destroyed: <sup>38</sup> but new wine must be put into new bottles; and both are preserved. <sup>39</sup> And no man also having drunk old wine desireth new;
for he saith, The old is better.

Jesus vindicated (1) his disciples for plucking corn, and (6) himself for healing, on the sabbath; (11) the scribes and Pharisees conspire against him.

6. AND <sup>a</sup> it came to pass on a second-first sabbath†, that he went through the corn fields; and <sup>b</sup> his disciples plucked the ears of corn, and ate them, rubbing them in their hands. <sup>2</sup> And some of the Pharisees said unto them: <sup>c</sup> Why do ye that which it is not lawful to do on the sabbath days?

<sup>3</sup> And Jesus answering them said: Have ye not read so much as this, <sup>d</sup> what David did, when he himself was hungry, and they that were with him; <sup>4</sup> how he went into the house of God, and took and ate the showbread, and gave also to them that were with him; <sup>e</sup> which it is not lawful to eat but for the priests alone? <sup>5</sup> And he said unto them: The Son of man is Lord even of the sabbath day.

<sup>6</sup> And <sup>f</sup> it came to pass also on another sabbath, that he entered into the synagogue and taught. And there was a man whose right hand was withered; <sup>7</sup> and the scribes and the Pharisees watched him, whether he would heal on the sabbath day; <sup>8</sup> that they might find an accusation against him. <sup>9</sup> But <sup>h</sup> he knew their thoughts; and he said to the man that had the withered hand: Rise up, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose and stood forth.

<sup>9</sup> Then said Jesus unto them: I ask you whether it is lawful on the sabbath days to do good, or to do evil; to save life, or to destroy it? <sup>10</sup> And looking round about upon them all, he said unto the man:
Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so;
and his hand was restored*.

<sup>11</sup> And they were filled with madness; and they communed one with another what they should do to Jesus.

Appointment of the twelve apostles; (17) a great multitude resort to Jesus.

12. AND <sup>a</sup> it came to pass in those days, that he went out into the mountain to pray; and he continued all night in prayer to God.

<sup>13</sup> And when it was day, he called unto him his disciples; and of them he chose twelve, whom also he named Apostles; <sup>14</sup> Simon, <sup>b</sup> whom he also named Peter, and Andrew his brother, and James and John, and Philip and Bartholomew, <sup>15</sup> and Matthew and Thomas, and James the son of Alphæus, and Simon called Zelotes†, <sup>16</sup> and Judas, the brother of James, and Judas Iscariot, who also was the traitor.

<sup>17</sup> And he came down with them, and stood on a level place, and a multitude of his disciples, and <sup>a</sup> a great crowd of people out of all Judea and Jerusalem, and from the sea coast of Tyre and Sidon, who came to hear him, and to be healed of their diseases; <sup>18</sup> and they that were vexed with unclean spirits; and they were healed.
<sup>19</sup> And the whole multitude <sup>d</sup> sought to touch him; for <sup>e</sup> there went forth a power out of him and healed them all.

Christ's instructions to his disciples, and to the multitudes.

<sup>20</sup> AND he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said:

Blessed <sup>a</sup> are ye poor; for yours is the kingdom of God.

<sup>21</sup> Blessed are ye that hunger now; for ye shall be filled.

Blessed <sup>a</sup> are ye that weep now; for ye

<sup>22</sup> Blessed <sup>c</sup> are ye when men hate you, and when they separate you from their company, and reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake. <sup>23</sup> Rejoice <sup>d</sup> ye in that day and leap for joy; for behold, your reward is great in heaven; for <sup>e</sup> in like manner did their fathers unto the prophets.

Woe unto you that laugh now; for ye shall mourn and weep.

<sup>26</sup> Woe <sup>h</sup> unto you when all men speak well of you; for in like manner did their fathers to the false prophets.

<sup>27</sup> But <sup>i</sup> I say unto you that hear: Love your enemies, do good to them that hate you, <sup>28</sup> bless them that curse you, and <sup>k</sup> pray for them that despitefully use you. <sup>29</sup> And <sup>l</sup> unto him that smiteth thee on the one cheek offer also the other. And him that taketh away thy cloak forbid not to take thy coat also. <sup>30</sup> Give <sup>m</sup> to every one that asketh of thee; and of him that taketh away thy goods ask them not again. <sup>31</sup> And <sup>n</sup> as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise.

<sup>32</sup> For <sup>o</sup> if ye love them that love you, what thanks are due to you? For even the sinners love those that love them. <sup>33</sup> And if ye do good to them that do good to you, what thanks are due to you? For even the sinners do the same. <sup>34</sup> And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thanks are due to you? For even sinners lend to sinners, to receive as much in return. <sup>35</sup> But love ye your enemies; and do good and lend, hoping for nothing again; and your reward shall be great, and <sup>p</sup> ye shall be the children of the Most High; for he is kind unto the unthankful and the evil. <sup>36</sup> Be <sup>q</sup> ye merciful even as your Father also is merciful.

Miraculous healing of a Roman centurion's servant, and (11) raising of a widow's son to life—(16) The fame of Jesus spreads over the whole country.

7. NOW when he had ended all his sayings in the hearing of the people, <sup>a</sup> he entered into Capernaum.

<sup>2</sup> And a certain centurion's servant, who was dear unto him, was sick and ready to die. <sup>3</sup> And hearing of Jesus, he sent unto him elders of the Jews, beseeching him that he would come and heal his servant.

<sup>4</sup> And when they came to Jesus, they besought him earnestly, saying: He is worthy that thou shouldst do this for him; <sup>5</sup> for he loveth our nation, and himself <sup>6</sup> built us our synagogue. <sup>6</sup> Then Jesus went with them.

And when he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying unto him: Lord, trouble not thyself; for I am not worthy that thou shouldst come under my roof; <sup>7</sup> wherefore neither thought I myself worthy to come unto thee; but command with a word, and my servant will be healed. <sup>8</sup> For I also am a man set under authority; having soldiers under me; and I say unto one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.

and said unto the multitude that followed him: I say unto you, I have not found such great faith, no, not in Israel. <sup>10</sup> And they that were sent, returning to the house, found the servant whole that had been sick.

<sup>11</sup> And it came to pass the day after, that he went to a city called Nain; and many of his disciples went with him, and much people. <sup>12</sup> And when he came nigh to the gate of the city, behold, there was a dead man carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow: and much people of the city was with her. <sup>13</sup> And when the Lord saw her, <sup>b</sup> he had compassion on her, and said unto her: Weep not. <sup>14</sup> And he came and touched the bier; and they that bare it stood still. And he said: Young man, I say unto thee, <sup>c</sup> Arise. <sup>15</sup> And the dead man sat up, and began to speak. And he delivered him to his mother.

John the Baptist's inquiry, and (22) our Lord's answer—(24) His testimony to the Forerunner; and (29) review of John's ministry and its results.

<sup>24</sup> And when the messengers of John were departed, he began to say unto the multitudes concerning John: What went ye out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken with the wind? <sup>25</sup> But what went ye out to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they that are gorgeously apparelled and live delicately are in kings' courts. <sup>26</sup> But what went ye out to see? A prophet? Yea, I say unto you, and much more than a prophet. <sup>27</sup> This is he

of whom it is written, 'Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, who shall prepare thy way before thee' [Mal. iii. 1].

<sup>28</sup> For I say unto you, among those that are born of women there is none greater* than John the Baptist; but he that is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he.

<sup>29</sup> And all the people, when they heard him, and the publicans, <sup>g</sup> justified God, <sup>h</sup> being baptized with the baptism of John; <sup>30</sup> but the Pharisees and the lawyers rejected the counsel of God towards themselves, being not baptized by him.

<sup>31</sup> And the Lord said: Unto what then shall I liken the men of this generation; and to what are they like? <sup>32</sup> They are like unto children sitting in the marketplace, and calling one to another, and saying: We piped unto you, and ye danced not; we wailed unto you, and ye wept not.

<sup>36</sup> AND one of the Pharisees asked him to eat with him; <sup>a</sup> and he went into the Pharisee's house, and sat down to meat.

<sup>39</sup> Now when the Pharisee who had bidden him saw it, he spake within himself, saying: This man if he were a prophet would know who and what manner of woman this is that toucheth him; for she is a sinner.

<sup>40</sup> And Jesus answering said unto him: Simon, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And he saith: Master <sup>h</sup>, say on.

<sup>41</sup> A certain creditor had two debtors; the one owed five hundred pence <sup>i</sup>, and the other fifty; <sup>42</sup> and when they had nothing to pay, he freely forgave them both. Tell me therefore, which of them will love him most? <sup>43</sup> Simon answered and said: He I suppose to whom he forgave the most. And he said unto him: Thou hast rightly judged.

<sup>44</sup> And he turned to the woman, and said

Jesus makes a circuit in Galilee, teaching and healing, with the twelve, and (2) the ministering women.

8. AND it came to pass afterwards that he took his way through every city and village, preaching and publishing the glad tidings of the kingdom of God; and the twelve were with him; <sup>2</sup> and <sup>a</sup>certain women who had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities; Mary called the Magdalene, <sup>b</sup>out of whom went seven devils, <sup>3</sup> and <sup>c</sup>Joanna, the wife of Chuza Herod's steward, and Susanna, and many other women, who ministered unto him of their substance.

Parables illustrating (1) the effects of the word of God, according to the reception given to it; and (16) the practical uses of Divine instruction—(19) Message of Christ's mother and brethren, and (21) his answer.

<sup>4</sup> AND <sup>a</sup>when a great multitude was gathering together, and they were coming to him out of every city, he spake by a parable: <sup>5</sup> A sower went forth to sow his seed; and as he sowed, some fell by the way side; and it was trodden down, and the birds of the air devoured it. <sup>6</sup> And some fell upon the rock; and when it sprang up it withered away, because it lacked moisture. <sup>7</sup> And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprang up with it and choked it. <sup>8</sup> And some fell into the good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit a hundredfold. And when he had said these things he cried: He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

<sup>9</sup> And his disciples asked him, saying: What might this parable be? <sup>10</sup> And he said: Unto you it is given to know the mysteries: of the kingdom of God: but to others these things are spoken in parables; that 'seeing they may not see, and hearing they may not understand' [Isa. vi. 9]. <sup>11</sup> Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God. <sup>12</sup> Those by the way-side are they that hear; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved. <sup>13</sup> Those on the rock are they who when they hear receive the word with joy; and these have no root, who for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away. <sup>14</sup> And that which fell among the thorns, these are they who when they have heard go forth and <sup>b</sup>are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of life, and bring no fruit to perfection. <sup>15</sup> But that on the good ground, these are they who <sup>c</sup>in an honest and good heart, having heard the word <sup>d</sup>hold it fast, and bring forth fruit with patience.

<sup>18</sup> Take heed therefore how ye hear; <sup>9</sup> for whosoever hath, to him shall be given; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that which he seemeth to have*.

Christ's authority over (22) the winds and waves, (30) demons, (41) disease, and (49) death.

22 NOW <sup>a</sup>it came to pass on one of those days that he went into a ship with his disciples; and he said unto them: Let us go over unto the other side of the lake; and they launched forth. <sup>23</sup> And as they sailed he fell asleep. And there came down a storm of wind on the lake; and they were filling with water, and were in jeopardy. <sup>24</sup> And they came to him, and awoke him, saying: Master, master, we perish! Then he arose and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water; and they ceased, and there was a calm. <sup>25</sup> And he said unto them, Where is your faith? And they were afraid and wondered, saying one to another: Who then is this, that he commandeth even the winds and the water, and they obey him?

shore to Galilee. <sup>27</sup> And when he went forth upon the land, there met him out of the city a certain man who had had devils* a long time, and he wore no clothes, and abode not in a house, but in the tombs. <sup>28</sup> And when he saw Jesus, he cried out and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said: What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of the Most High God? I beseech thee, torment me not. <sup>29</sup> For he commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For oftentimes it had seized him; and he was kept bound with chains and in fetters; and he brake the bands, and was driven by the devil into the wilderness.

<sup>30</sup> And Jesus asked him, saying: What is thy name? And he said, Legion; because many devils were entered into him.

<sup>31</sup> And they besought him that he would not command them to go out into the deep*.

<sup>32</sup> And there was there a herd of many <sup>c</sup> swine feeding on the mountain; and they besought him that he would suffer them to enter into them; and he suffered them.

<sup>33</sup> Then went the devils out of the man, and entered into the swine; and the herd ran violently down the steep place into the lake, and were choked. <sup>34</sup> And when they that fed them saw what was done, they fled, and went and told it in the city and in the country. <sup>35</sup> Then they went out to see what was done; and they came to Jesus, and found the man out of whom the devils were departed sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and in his right mind; and they were afraid. <sup>36</sup> And they that had seen it told them how he that was possessed by the devils was healed. <sup>37</sup> Then the whole multitude of the country of the Gadarenes† round about <sup>d</sup> besought him to depart from them; for they were taken with great fear. And he went up into the ship, and returned back again.

<sup>38</sup> And <sup>e</sup> the man out of whom the devils were departed besought him that he might be with him; but Jesus sent him away, saying: <sup>39</sup> Return to thine own house, and tell what great things God hath done unto thee. And he went his way and published throughout the whole city what great things Jesus had done unto him.

<sup>40</sup> And it came to pass that when Jesus was returned the multitude gladly received him; for they were all waiting for him.

<sup>41</sup> And <sup>f</sup> behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue; and he fell down at Jesus' feet, and besought him to come into his house; <sup>42</sup> for he had one only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she was dying.

And as he went the people thronged him. <sup>43</sup> And a woman who had had an issue of blood twelve years, who had spent all her living upon physicians, and could not be healed by any one, <sup>44</sup> came behind him, and touched the fringe of his garment; and immediately her issue of blood stanch'd. <sup>45</sup> And Jesus said: Who touched me? When all denied, Peter and they that were with him said: Master, the multitude throng thee and press thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me*? <sup>46</sup> And Jesus said: Somebody touched me: for I perceived that power went out from me. <sup>47</sup> And when the woman saw that she was not hidden, she came trembling, and falling down before him she declared unto him before all the people for what cause she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately. <sup>48</sup> And he said unto her: Daughter, be of good comfort: thy faith hath made thee whole†; go in peace.

<sup>49</sup> While he was yet speaking, there cometh one from the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying to him, Thy daughter is dead; trouble not the Master‡. <sup>50</sup> But Jesus hearing it, answered him, saying, Fear not: only believe, and she shall be made whole¶. <sup>51</sup> And when he entered the house, he suffered no one to go in, save Peter and James and John, and the father and the mother of the maiden. <sup>52</sup> And all were weeping and bewailing her; but he said: Weep not, she is not dead <sup>h</sup> but sleepeth. <sup>53</sup> And they laughed him to scorn, knowing that she was dead. <sup>54</sup> And he put them all out; and he took her by the hand and called, saying, Maid, <sup>i</sup> arise. <sup>55</sup> And her spirit came again, and she arose straightway; and he commanded that something should be given her to eat. <sup>56</sup> And her parents were astonished; but <sup>k</sup> he charged them that they should tell no one what had been done.

9. THEN <sup>a</sup> he called his twelve disciples together, and gave them power and authority over all devils§, and to cure diseases. <sup>2</sup> And <sup>b</sup> he sent them forth to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick. <sup>3</sup> And he said unto them: Take nothing for your journey, neither staves nor scrip nor bread nor money, neither have two coats apiece. <sup>4</sup> And whatsoever house ye enter into, there abide and thence depart. <sup>5</sup> And whosoever will not receive you, when ye go out of that city <sup>c</sup> shake off the very dust from your feet for a testimony against them.

<sup>7</sup> NOW <sup>a</sup> Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was being done by him; and he was perplexed, because it was said by some that John is risen from the dead; <sup>8</sup> and by some that Elijah hath appeared; and by others, that one of the old prophets is risen again. <sup>9</sup> And Herod said: John I beheaded; but who is this of whom I hear such things? And <sup>b</sup> he sought to see him.

The return of the apostles—Jesus retires with them to a desert place; (11) he is followed by a multitude, whom he teaches, and miraculously feeds.

<sup>10</sup> AND <sup>a</sup> the apostles returned, and told him all that they had done. And he took them and withdrew privately unto a desert place belonging to* a city called Bethsaida. <sup>11</sup> But the multitudes, when they knew it, followed him; and he received them, and spake unto them of the kingdom of God, and healed those that had need of healing.

<sup>12</sup> And when the day began to wear away, the twelve came and said unto him: Send the multitude away, that they may go into the villages and country round about, and lodge, and get victuals; for we are here in a desert place. <sup>13</sup> But he said unto them: Give ye them to eat. And they said: We have no more than five loaves and two fishes; except we should go and buy food for all this people. <sup>14</sup> For they were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples: Make them sit down by fifties in a company: <sup>15</sup> and they did so, and made them all sit down. <sup>16</sup> Then he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven he blessed them, and brake, and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude. <sup>17</sup> And they ate and were all filled; and there was taken up of what remained to them of the pieces twelve baskets full.

The various opinions of the people respecting Jesus; (20) Peter's confession; (21) Jesus announces to his disciples his death, and resurrection; and (23) declares the conditions of true discipleship.

<sup>18</sup> AND <sup>a</sup> it came to pass, as he was alone praying, his disciples were with him; and he asked them, saying: Who do the multitudes say that I am? <sup>19</sup> And they answering said: John the Baptist; but some say, Elijah; and others say, that one of the old prophets is risen again. <sup>20</sup> He said unto them: But who say ye that I am? <sup>b</sup> And Peter answering said: The Christ of God.

<sup>21</sup> And he strictly charged them and commanded them to tell this to no man; <sup>22</sup> saying: 'The Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be put to death, and rise again the third day.'

<sup>23</sup> And <sup>a</sup> he said to them all: If any one desireth to come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me. <sup>24</sup> For whosoever shall desire to save his life will lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake, the same will save it. <sup>25</sup> For what is a man profited if he gain the whole world, and lose himself or be cast away? <sup>26</sup> For <sup>c</sup> whosoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words, of him will the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in his own glory, and in the glory of his Father, and of the holy angels. <sup>27</sup> But I tell you of a truth, there are some of them that stand here who will not taste of death till they have seen the kingdom of God.

<sup>28</sup> AND <sup>a</sup> it came to pass about eight days after these sayings, he took with him Peter and John and James, and went up into the mountain to pray. <sup>29</sup> And as he prayed, <sup>b</sup> the appearance of his countenance was altered, and his raiment became white and glistening. <sup>30</sup> And behold, there talked with him two men, who were Moses and Elijah; <sup>31</sup> who appeared in glory, and spake of his decease<sup>c</sup> which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem. <sup>32</sup> And Peter and they that were with him <sup>c</sup> were heavy with sleep; but they kept awake and saw<sup>d</sup> his glory, and the two men that stood with him.

<sup>33</sup> And it came to pass, as they were departing from him, Peter said unto Jesus: Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah; not knowing what he said. <sup>34</sup> And while he thus spake, there came a cloud and overshadowed them, and they feared as they entered into the cloud. <sup>35</sup> And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, <sup>d</sup> This is my Son, my chosen one: hear ye him. <sup>36</sup> And when the voice was past, Jesus was found alone.

And they kept it secret, and told no one in those days any of those things which they had seen.

Concerning (46) ambition and (49) jealousy. <sup>46</sup> AND <sup>a</sup> there arose a dispute among them as to which of them was the greatest. <sup>47</sup> And Jesus, perceiving the thoughts of their heart, took a little child and set him by him, <sup>48</sup> and said unto them: <sup>b</sup> Whosoever receiveth this little child in my name receiveth me; and whosoever receiveth me receiveth him that sent me: for <sup>c</sup> he that is least among you all, the same shall be great. <sup>49</sup> And <sup>d</sup> John answered and said: Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name; and we forbade him, because he followeth not with us. <sup>50</sup> And Jesus said unto him: Forbid him not; for <sup>e</sup> he that is not against us is on our side. the same, and say, <sup>11</sup> Even <sup>2</sup> the dust of your city which cleaveth on us, we wipe off against you; yet know ye this, that the kingdom of God is come nigh unto you. <sup>12</sup> But I say unto you, that <sup>m</sup> it will be more tolerable in that day for Sodom, than for that city.

<sup>13</sup> Woe <sup>n</sup> unto thee, Chorazin! Woe unto thee, Bethsaida! For if the mighty works which have been done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago, <sup>o</sup> sitting in sackcloth and ashes. <sup>14</sup> But it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgment than for you. <sup>15</sup> And thou, Capernaum, shalt thou be exalted to heaven*? Thou shalt be brought down to hell†.

<sup>16</sup> He that heareth you heareth me; and he that rejecteth you rejecteth me; and he that rejecteth me rejecteth him that sent me.

<sup>23</sup> And he turned him unto his disciples, and said privately: <sup>y</sup> Blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye see; <sup>24</sup> for I tell you, that <sup>z</sup> many prophets and kings desired to see those things which ye see, and did not see them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and did not hear them.

Reply to the question. How to obtain everlasting life? (29) A parable explaining and enforcing the second great commandment.

answering said: 'Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbour as thyself' [Deut. vi. 5; Lev. xix. 18.] <sup>28</sup> And he said unto him: Thou hast answered right; this do, and <sup>c</sup> thou shalt live.

<sup>29</sup> But he, desiring to <sup>d</sup> justify himself, said unto Jesus: And who is my neighbour? <sup>30</sup> And Jesus answering said: A certain man was going down from Jerusalem to <sup>e</sup> Jericho; and he fell among robbers, who stripped him of his raiment, and beat him, and departed, leaving him half dead.

<sup>31</sup> And by chance there came down a certain priest that way; and when he saw him, <sup>f</sup> he passed by on the other side. <sup>32</sup> And in like manner a Levite also, when he was at the place, came and looked on him, and passed by on the other side. <sup>33</sup> But a certain <sup>g</sup> Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was; and when he saw him, he was moved with compassion <sup>34</sup> and went to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine, and set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him. <sup>35</sup> And on the morrow when he departed, he took out two pence*, and gave them to the host, and said unto him: Take care of him; and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again, I will repay thee. <sup>36</sup> Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour unto him that fell among the robbers? <sup>37</sup> And he said: He that showed mercy on him. Then said Jesus unto him: Go, and do thou likewise.

Instructions concerning prayer.

<sup>5</sup> And he said unto them: Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go unto him at midnight, and say unto him: Friend, lend me three loaves; <sup>6</sup> for a friend of mine in his journey is come to me, and I have nothing to set before him; <sup>7</sup> and he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not; the door is now shut, and my children with me are in bed; I cannot rise and give thee? <sup>8</sup> I say unto you: <sup>9</sup> Though he will not rise and give him because he is his friend, yet because of his importunity he will rise and give him as many as he needeth.

<sup>9</sup> And I say unto you: <sup>a</sup> Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. <sup>10</sup> For every one that asketh receiveth; and <sup>i</sup> he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

<sup>11</sup> Which of you that is a father, if his son shall ask for bread, will give him a stone? Or if he ask for a fish, will he for a fish give him a serpent? <sup>12</sup> Or if he shall ask for an egg, will he give him a scorpion? <sup>13</sup> If ye then being evil know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him?

Reply to the accusation of casting out demons by Satanic agency—(23) Answer to the demand of a sign from heaven.

<sup>14</sup> AND <sup>a</sup> he was casting out a devil*, <sup>b</sup> and it was dumb; and it came to pass, when the devil was gone out, the dumb man spake. And the multitudes wondered; <sup>15</sup> but some of them said: He casteth out devils through Beelzebub; the chief of the devils; <sup>16</sup> and others, tempting him, <sup>c</sup> sought of him a sign from heaven.

cast out devils, then the kingdom of God is come upon you.

<sup>21</sup> When the strong man armed guardeth his palace, his goods are in peace: <sup>22</sup> but when a stronger than he cometh upon him and overcome him, he taketh from him all his armour wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils.

<sup>23</sup> He <sup>9</sup> that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth. <sup>24</sup> When <sup>a</sup> the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, it goeth through dry places, seeking rest; and finding none, it saith, I will return unto my house whence I came out; <sup>25</sup> and when it cometh, it findeth it swept and furnished. <sup>26</sup> Then goeth it and taketh to itself seven other spirits more wicked than itself, and they enter in and dwell there; and <sup>i</sup> the last state of that man cometh worse than the first.

<sup>27</sup> And it came to pass, as he spake these things, a certain woman from among the multitude lifted up her voice, and said unto him: Blessed is the womb that bare thee, and the breasts which thou hast sucked. <sup>28</sup> But he said, Nay rather, <sup>k</sup> blessed are they that hear and keep the word of God.

Jesus at a Pharisee's house—(39) Condemnation of Pharisee religion—(42) Woes on the false Teachers—(50) The anger of the Scribes and Pharisees.

37 AND as he spake, a certain Pharisee asked him to dine with him; and he went in, and sat down to meat. 38 And when <sup>a</sup> the Pharisee saw <sup>i</sup> it, he marvelled that he had not first washed before dinner. 39 And the Lord said unto him: Now <sup>b</sup> ye Pharisees make clean the outside of the cup and of the platter; but <sup>c</sup> your inward part is full of extortion and wickedness. 40 Ye fools, did not he who made that which is without make that which is within also? 41 But <sup>d</sup> give alms of the things that are in them; and behold, <sup>e</sup> all things are clean unto you<sup>2</sup>.

42 But woe unto you, Pharisees; for ye pay tithe of mint and rue and all manner of herbs, and ye pass over judgment and the love of God. These ought ye to have done, and not to leave the others undone.

43 Woe unto you, Pharisees; for <sup>f</sup> ye love the chief seats in the synagogues, and salutations in the markets.

44 Woe <sup>g</sup> unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites; for ye are as sepulchres which appear not, and the men that walk over them are not aware of them.

45 Then answered one of the lawyers and said unto him: Master†, by thus saying thou revilest us also. 46 And he said: Woe unto you also, <sup>h</sup> ye lawyers; for <sup>i</sup> ye lade men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers.

47 Woe <sup>j</sup> unto you; for ye build the sepulchres of the prophets, and your fathers killed them. 48 So then ye bear witness and consent unto the deeds of your fathers; for they indeed killed them, and ye build their sepulchres. 49 Therefore also said the wisdom of God: I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they will slay and persecute; 50 that the blood of all the prophets which hath been shed from the foundation of the world may be required of this generation; 51 from <sup>k</sup> the blood of Abel unto <sup>l</sup> the blood of Zechariah, who perished between the altar and the temple: verily I say unto you, It shall be required of this generation.

52 Woe <sup>m</sup> unto you, lawyers; for ye have taken away the key of knowledge; <sup>n</sup> ye entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye hindered.

53 And as he went out from thence†, the scribes and the Pharisees began to urge him vehemently, and to provoke him to speak of many things; 54 laying wait for him, and <sup>o</sup> seeking to catch something out of his mouth, that they might accuse him.

12. IN the mean time, when there were gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, so that they trode one upon another, he began to say unto his disciples, first of all: <sup>a</sup> Beware ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. 2 For <sup>b</sup> there is nothing covered that shall not be revealed, nor hidden that shall not be known. 3 Therefore whatsoever ye have spoken in the darkness shall be heard in the light; and that which ye have spoken in the ear in the secret chambers shall be proclaimed upon the housetops.

4 And I say unto you my friends, <sup>c</sup> Be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do. 5 But I will forewarn you whom to fear: Fear him who after he hath killed hath power <sup>d</sup> to cast into hell*; yea, I say unto you, Fear him. 6 Are not five sparrows sold for two farthings? And <sup>e</sup> not even one of them is forgotten before God: 7 but even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not therefore; <sup>f</sup> ye are of more value than many sparrows.

8 Also I say unto you: Whosoever shall confess me before men, <sup>g</sup> him will the Son of man also confess before the angels of God; 9 but <sup>h</sup> he that denieth me before men shall be denied before the angels of God.

10 And <sup>i</sup> whosoever shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him; but unto him that blasphemeth against the Holy Spirit it shall not be forgiven.

11 And <sup>k</sup> when they bring you before the synagogues and the magistrates and the authorities, be not anxious how or what thing ye shall answer, or what ye shall say; 12 for the Holy Spirit will teach you in that very hour what ye ought to say.

Warnings against a worldly and covetous spirit; (22) exhortations to confidence in God, fidelity, and watchfulness.

13 AND one from among the multitude said unto him: Master†, speak to my brother, that he divide the inheritance with me. 14 And he said unto him: Man, who made me a judge or a divider over you?

life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth.

<sup>16</sup> And he spake a parable unto them, saying: The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully; <sup>17</sup> and he thought within himself, saying: What shall I do, because I have no room where to lay up my fruits? <sup>18</sup> And he said: This will I do; I will pull down my barns, and build greater; and there will I lay up all my fruits and my goods. <sup>19</sup> And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry. <sup>20</sup> But God said unto him: Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then <sup>c</sup> whose will those things be which thou hast provided? <sup>21</sup> So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich towards God.

when he shall return from the wedding, that when he cometh and knocketh, they may open unto him immediately. <sup>37</sup> Blessed <sup>q</sup> are those servants whom their lord when he cometh shall find watching. Verily I say unto you, that <sup>r</sup> he will gird himself, and make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth and serve them. <sup>38</sup> And if he come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and find them so, blessed are those servants. <sup>39</sup> And <sup>s</sup> know this, that if the master of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched, and not have suffered his house to be broken into. <sup>40</sup> Be <sup>t</sup> ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh.

<sup>41</sup> Then Peter said unto him: Lord, speak-est thou this parable for us, or also for all? <sup>42</sup> And the Lord said: Who then is <sup>u</sup> the faithful and wise steward, whom his lord will set over his household, to give them their portion of food in due season? <sup>43</sup> Blessed is that servant whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing. <sup>44</sup> Of a truth I say unto you, that he will set him over all <sup>x</sup> his goods. <sup>45</sup> But <sup>y</sup> if that servant shall say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming; and shall begin to beat the menservants and maidens, and to eat and drink and to be drunken; <sup>46</sup> the lord of that servant will come in a day when he looketh not for him, and at an hour when he is not aware, and will cut him asunder, and will appoint him his portion with the faithless. <sup>47</sup> And <sup>z</sup> that servant who knew his lord's will, and prepared not <sup>himself</sup> nor did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes; <sup>48</sup> but <sup>a</sup> he that knew not, and did things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. For <sup>b</sup> unto whomsoever much hath been given, of him will much be required; and to whom men have committed much, of him they will demand the more.

<sup>49</sup> I <sup>c</sup> am come to send fire on the earth; and how I wish that it were already kindled! <sup>50</sup> But <sup>d</sup> I have a baptism to be baptized with; and how am I straitened till it be accomplished! <sup>51</sup> Suppose <sup>e</sup> ye that I am come to give peace on earth? I tell you, Nay, <sup>f</sup> but rather division; <sup>52</sup> for from henceforth there will be five in one house divided, three against two, and two against three; <sup>53</sup> they will be divided, father against son, and son against father; mother against daughter, and daughter against mother; mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law, and daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law [Mic. viii. 6.]

Reproofs of the people's carelessness and false security; (ch. 13. 1) warnings of the necessity of repentance, and (5) diligent use of the season of grace.

<sup>54</sup> AND he said also to the multitudes: When ye see <sup>a</sup>a cloud rising from the west, straightway ye say, There cometh a shower; and so it is. <sup>55</sup> And when ye see <sup>b</sup>the south wind blowing, ye say, There will be heat; and it cometh to pass. <sup>56</sup> Ye <sup>c</sup>hypocrites, ye know how to discern the face of the sky and of the earth, but how is it that ye do not discern this season?

<sup>6</sup> He spake also this parable: <sup>a</sup>A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came and sought fruit thereon, and found none. <sup>7</sup> Then said he unto the dresser of his vineyard: Behold, these three years I have come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and have found none; <sup>8</sup> cut it down; why cumbereth it the ground? <sup>8</sup> And he answering said unto him: <sup>f</sup>Lord, let it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it; <sup>9</sup> and if it bear fruit, well; but <sup>9</sup> if not, then after that thou shalt cut it down.

Jesus vindicates his healing on the Sabbath—(17) The confusion of his enemies, and admiration of the people—(18) Two parables illustrating the growth of the kingdom of God.

<sup>10</sup> AND he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath day. <sup>11</sup> And behold, there was a woman who had had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years; and she was bowed together and could in no wise lift up herself. <sup>13</sup> And when Jesus saw her, he called her to him, and said unto her: Woman, thou art released from thine infirmity. <sup>13</sup> And <sup>a</sup>he laid his hands on her; and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God.

<sup>14</sup> And the ruler of the synagogue answered with indignation, because Jesus had healed on the sabbath day; and he said unto the people: There are six days in which men ought to work; in them therefore come and be healed, and <sup>b</sup>not on the sabbath day. <sup>15</sup> And the Lord answered him and said: Ye hypocrites*, doth not each one of you on the sabbath day loose his ox or his ass from the stall, and lead him away to watering? <sup>16</sup> And ought not this woman, <sup>d</sup>being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan hath bound, lo, these eighteen years, to be loosed from this bond on the sabbath day?

<sup>17</sup> And when he had said these things, all his adversaries <sup>e</sup>were ashamed; and <sup>f</sup>all the multitude rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him.

<sup>18</sup> Then <sup>g</sup>he said he: Unto what is the kingdom of God like; and whereunto shall I liken it? <sup>19</sup> It is like a grain of mustard seed which a man took and cast into his garden; and it grew, and became a tree†; and the birds of the air lodged in the branches of it.

<sup>20</sup> And <sup>h</sup>again he said: Unto what shall I liken the kingdom of God? <sup>21</sup> It is like leaven which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

Journey towards Jerusalem—(29) Reply to a question as to the number of the saved.

<sup>23</sup> And one said unto him: Lord, are there few that are saved? And he said unto them: <sup>24</sup> Strive <sup>b</sup>to enter in through the narrow gate; for <sup>d</sup>many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and will not be able. <sup>25</sup> When once the master of the house shall have risen up and <sup>c</sup>shut the door, and ye begin to stand without and to knock at the door, saying: Lord, Lord, open unto us; and he shall answer and say unto you, I know you not whence ye are; <sup>26</sup> then will ye begin to say: We ate and drank in thy presence, and thou didst teach in our streets; <sup>27</sup> but he will say: I tell you, I know you not whence ye are; <sup>f</sup>depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity. <sup>28</sup> There <sup>g</sup>will be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and you

Being warned by some Pharisees to escape from Herod's jurisdiction, (32) Jesus foretells his death at Jerusalem, and (34) the coming doom of the city.

<sup>31</sup> THE same day there came some of the Pharisees, saying unto him: Get thee out and depart hence; for Herod desireth to kill thee. <sup>32</sup> And he said unto them: Go ye and tell that fox, Behold, I cast out devils* and I do cures to-day and to-morrow, and the third day <sup>a</sup> I am perfected. <sup>33</sup> Nevertheless <sup>b</sup> I must go on my way to-day and to-morrow and the day following; for it cannot be that a prophet perish outside of Jerusalem.

Jesus at a Pharisee's house, (3) again vindicates his healing on the Sabbath; (7) teaches humility, and (12) true hospitality; and (16) shews by a parable the reception given to God's invitations.

<sup>7</sup> And he spake a parable to those who had been bidden, <sup>f</sup> when he marked how they chose out the highest seats; saying unto them: <sup>8</sup> When thou art bidden by any one to a wedding, sit not down in the highest seat; lest a more honourable man than thou may have been invited by him; <sup>9</sup> and he that bade thee and him come and say to thee, Give this man place; and thou begin with shame to take the lowest seat. <sup>10</sup> But <sup>g</sup> when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest seat; that when he that bade thee cometh, he may say unto thee, Friend, go up higher. Then shalt thou have honour in the presence of them that sit at meat with thee. <sup>11</sup> For <sup>h</sup> who-soever exalteth himself shall be humbled, and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

<sup>12</sup> Then said he also to him that had bidden him: When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, nor thy kinsmen, nor <sup>i</sup> thy rich neighbours; lest they also bid thee again, and a recompence be made thee. <sup>13</sup> But when thou makest a feast, call <sup>j</sup> the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind; <sup>14</sup> and thou shalt be blessed; because they cannot recompense thee; for thou shalt be recompensed at <sup>k</sup> the resurrection of the just.

A multitude follow Jesus; (26) he tells them the terms of discipleship; and (28) illustrates them by two parables.

<sup>25</sup> AND there went great multitudes with him; and he turned, and said unto them: <sup>26</sup> If <sup>a</sup> any one cometh after me, and hateth not his father and mother, and wife and children, and brethren and sisters, <sup>b</sup> yea and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple. <sup>27</sup> And <sup>c</sup> whosoever doth not bear his cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple.

<sup>28</sup> For which of you desiring to build a tower, doth not first sit down and count the cost, whether he hath sufficient to finish it? <sup>29</sup> Lest haply after he hath laid the foundation and is not able to finish, all that behold it begin to mock him, <sup>30</sup> saying, This man began to build, and was not able to finish.

<sup>31</sup> Or what king going forth to make war against another king, doth not first sit down and consult whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand? <sup>32</sup> Or else, while the other is still a great way off, he sendeth an embassy, and asketh conditions of peace.

<sup>33</sup> So then whosoever he be of you <sup>d</sup> that renounceth not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple.

<sup>34</sup> Salt <sup>e</sup> is good; but if even the salt have lost its savour, wherewith shall it be seasoned? <sup>35</sup> It is not fit either for the land or for the dunghill, but men cast it out. He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

In answer to the murmurs of the Pharisees (3) Jesus shows by three parables the joy of God in the salvation of sinners; and (11) portrays true conversion to God, (25) in contrast with Pharisaic self-righteousness.

<sup>15</sup> THEN were all the publicans and sinners drawing near unto him to hear him.

had lost. <sup>10</sup> In like manner, I say unto you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth.

<sup>11</sup> And he said: A certain man had two sons; <sup>12</sup> and the younger of them said unto his father, Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me; and he divided unto them his living. <sup>13</sup> And not many days after the younger son gathered all together, and went from home unto a far country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living. <sup>14</sup> And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine throughout that land; and he began to be in want. <sup>15</sup> And he went and joined himself to one of the citizens of that country; and he sent him into his fields* to feed swine. <sup>16</sup> And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the swine were eating; and no man gave unto him.

<sup>17</sup> And when <sup>f</sup> he came to himself, he said: How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I am perishing with hunger! <sup>18</sup> I <sup>g</sup> will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, <sup>h</sup> I have sinned against heaven, and before thee, <sup>i</sup> and <sup>j</sup> am no more worthy to be called thy son; make me as one of thy hired servants. <sup>20</sup> And he arose and came to his father. But <sup>k</sup> when he was still a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran and fell on his neck and kissed him. <sup>21</sup> And the son said unto him: Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son. <sup>22</sup> But the father said to his servants: Bring out quickly <sup>l</sup> the best robe, and put it on him; and put <sup>m</sup> a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet: <sup>23</sup> and bring hither the fatted calf, and kill it; and let us eat, and be merry. <sup>24</sup> For <sup>n</sup> this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry.

<sup>25</sup> Now his elder son was in the field; and as he came and drew nigh to the house, he heard music and dancing; <sup>26</sup> and he called one of the servants, and asked what these things meant. <sup>27</sup> And he said unto him: Thy brother is come; and thy father hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath received him safe and sound. <sup>28</sup> And he was angry, and would not go in; but his father came out, and intreated him. <sup>29</sup> But he answering said to his father: Lo, these many years have I served thee, neither transgressed I at any time thy commandment; and yet thou never gavest me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends; <sup>30</sup> but as soon as this thy son was come, who hath devoured thy living with harlots, thou hast killed for him the fatted calf. <sup>31</sup> And he said unto him: Son, thou art ever with me, and all that I have is thine. <sup>32</sup> But it was meet that we should make merry and be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is alive again; and was lost, and is found.

Parable of the unfaithful steward; and (9) its application, showing the wise use of earthly possessions—(19) Parable of the rich man and Lazarus.

16. AND he said also unto his disciples: There was a certain rich man who had a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he was wasting his goods. <sup>2</sup> And he called him, and said unto him: How is it that I hear this of thee? Give in the account of thy stewardship; for thou mayest be no longer steward. <sup>3</sup> Then the steward said within himself: What shall I do? For my lord taketh away from me the stewardship. I cannot dig; to beg I am ashamed. <sup>4</sup> I am resolved what to do, that when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses. <sup>5</sup> So he called unto him every one of his lord's debtors; and he said unto the first: How much owest thou unto my lord? <sup>6</sup> And he said: A hundred measures* of oil. And he said unto him: Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty. <sup>7</sup> Then said he to another: And how much owest thou? And he said: A hundred measures; of wheat. And he said unto him: Take thy bill, and write fourscore. <sup>8</sup> And his lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely. For <sup>a</sup> the children of this world are for their own generation wiser than <sup>b</sup> the children of light.

<sup>9</sup> And I say unto you: <sup>c</sup> Make to yourselves friends by the mammon of unrighteousness; that when it faileth<sup>h</sup>, they may receive you into <sup>d</sup> the everlasting habitations. <sup>10</sup> He that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much; and he that is unjust in the least is unjust also in much. <sup>11</sup> If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches? <sup>12</sup> And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another's, who shall give you that which is your own? <sup>13</sup> No <sup>e</sup> servant can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will hold to one and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

<sup>14</sup> And the Pharisees also, <sup>f</sup> who were covetous, heard all these things: and they derided him. <sup>15</sup> And he said unto them: Ye are they who <sup>g</sup> justify themselves before men; but <sup>h</sup> God knoweth your hearts: for <sup>i</sup> that which is highly esteemed among men is abomination in the sight of God.

<sup>19</sup> There was a certain rich man who was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously* every day; <sup>20</sup> and there was a certain beggar, named Lazarus, who lay at his gate, full of sores, <sup>21</sup> and desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table: moreover the dogs came and licked his sores. <sup>22</sup> And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried <sup>o</sup> by the angels into Abraham's bosom. And the rich man also died, and was buried; <sup>23</sup> and in hell; he lifted up his eyes, <sup>p</sup> being in torments, and <sup>q</sup> seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom. <sup>24</sup> And he cried and said: Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue; for I am <sup>r</sup> tormented in this flame. <sup>25</sup> But Abraham said: Son, <sup>s</sup> remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and in like manner Lazarus his evil things: but now here he is comforted, and thou art tormented. <sup>26</sup> And besides all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed; so that they that would pass from hence to you cannot, neither can they pass to us that <sup>t</sup> would come from thence. <sup>27</sup> Then he said: I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house; <sup>28</sup> for I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment. <sup>29</sup> But Abraham saith unto him: <sup>u</sup> They have Moses and the Prophets; let them hear them. <sup>30</sup> And he said: Nay, father Abraham; but if one go unto them from the dead, they will repent. <sup>31</sup> And he said unto him: If they hear not Moses and the Prophets, neither will they be persuaded though one rose from the dead.

but woe unto him through whom they come! <sup>2</sup> It were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he cast into the sea, than that he should cause one of these little ones to fall.

<sup>5</sup> And the apostles said unto the Lord: Increase our faith. <sup>6</sup> And the Lord said: <sup>e</sup> If ye had faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye might say unto this sycamine tree, Be thou plucked up by the roots, and be thou planted in the sea; and it should obey you.

<sup>7</sup> But which of you, having a servant ploughing or feeding cattle, will say unto him, when he is come in from the field, Come straightway and sit down to meat? <sup>8</sup> Will he not rather say unto him, Make ready wherewith I may sup, and gird thyself and serve me, till I have eaten and drunk; and afterwards thou shalt eat and drink? <sup>9</sup> Doth he thank that servant because he did the things that were commanded him? I think not. <sup>10</sup> So likewise ye, when ye shall have done all those things which are commanded you, say, We are <sup>f</sup> unprofitable servants; we have done that which it was our duty to do.

<sup>11</sup> AND it came to pass, <sup>a</sup> as he was journeying to Jerusalem, that he passed through the midst of Samaria and Galilee.

<sup>12</sup> And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were lepers, <sup>b</sup> who stood afar off. <sup>13</sup> And they lifted up their voices, and said, Jesus, Master, have mercy on us. <sup>14</sup> And when he saw them, he said unto them: <sup>c</sup> Go show yourselves unto the priests. And it came to pass that <sup>d</sup> while they were going they were cleansed. <sup>15</sup> And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice glorified God; <sup>16</sup> and he fell down on his face at his feet, giving him thanks; and he was a Samaritan.

Answer to the Pharisees respecting the coming of the kingdom of God.

<sup>20</sup> AND <sup>a</sup> being asked by the Pharisees, when the kingdom of God was coming, he answered them and said: The kingdom of God cometh not with observation; <sup>21</sup> neither will they say, Behold here! or, Behold there! For behold, the kingdom of God is in the midst of you.

<sup>22</sup> And he said unto the disciples: <sup>b</sup> The days will come when ye will long to see one of the days of the Son of man, and ye will not see it. <sup>23</sup> And <sup>c</sup> they will say to you, Behold here! or, Behold there! Go not after them, nor follow them. <sup>24</sup> For as the lightning that lighteneth out of the one part under heaven shineth unto the other part under heaven, so will also the Son of man be in his day. <sup>25</sup> But <sup>d</sup> first must he suffer many things and be rejected by this generation.

<sup>26</sup> And as it was <sup>e</sup> in the days of Noah, so will it be also in the days of the Son of man. <sup>27</sup> They were eating, they were drinking, they were marrying wives, they were being given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark, and the flood came and destroyed them all. <sup>28</sup> In like manner also as it was in <sup>f</sup> the days of Lot; they were eating, they were drinking, they were buying, they were selling, they were planting, they were building; <sup>29</sup> but the same day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all. <sup>30</sup> Even thus will it be in the day when the Son of man <sup>g</sup> is revealed.

<sup>37</sup> And they answered and said unto him: Where, Lord? And he said unto them: <sup>m</sup> Whosoever the body is, there also will the eagles be gathered together.

not God, nor regarded man; <sup>3</sup> and there was a widow in that city; and she came unto him, saying, Avenge me of * mine adversary. <sup>4</sup> And he would not for a while; but afterwards he said within himself: Though I fear not God, nor regard man, <sup>5</sup> yet because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me.

<sup>6</sup> And the Lord said: Hear what the unjust judge saith. <sup>7</sup> And <sup>b</sup> will not God avenge his own elect, who cry day and night unto him, <sup>c</sup> though he bear long on their behalf? <sup>8</sup> I tell you that he will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of man cometh will he find faith on the earth?

<sup>9</sup> And he spake also this parable unto some <sup>d</sup> who trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others. <sup>10</sup> Two men went up into the temple to pray, the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican.

<sup>15</sup> AND <sup>a</sup> they brought unto him also their infants, that he might touch them; but when his disciples saw it, they rebuked them. <sup>16</sup> But Jesus called them unto him, and said: Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not; for of such is the kingdom of God. <sup>17</sup> Verily I say unto you: Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child shall in no wise enter therein.

Answer to the question How to attain eternal life—(24) The dangers of wealth; (28) promise of abundant recompense for losses for Christ's sake.

he said: All these have I kept from my youth up.

<sup>22</sup> And Jesus hearing it, said unto him: Yet lackest thou one thing; <sup>c</sup> sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me. <sup>23</sup> And when he heard this he was very sorrowful; for he was very rich.

<sup>24</sup> And when Jesus saw that he was very sorrowful, he said: How hard is it for them that have riches to enter into the kingdom of God! <sup>25</sup> For it is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God. <sup>26</sup> And they that heard it said: Who then can be saved? <sup>27</sup> And he said: The things which are impossible with men are possible with God.

<sup>28</sup> Then Peter said: Lo, we have left all, and have followed thee. <sup>29</sup> And he said unto them: Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children, for the kingdom of God's sake, <sup>30</sup> who shall not receive manifold more in this present time, and in the world to come life everlasting.

On the way to Jerusalem, Jesus again foretells his death, and resurrection.

<sup>31</sup> THEN <sup>a</sup> he took unto him the twelve and said unto them: Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and all things <sup>b</sup> that have been written by the prophets concerning the Son of man will be accomplished. <sup>32</sup> For <sup>c</sup> he will be delivered up unto the Gentiles, and will be mocked, and spitefully treated, and spit on; <sup>33</sup> and they will scourge him, and put him to death; and the third day he will rise again. <sup>34</sup> And <sup>d</sup> they understood none of these things; and this saying was hidden from them, neither knew they the things which were spoken.

<sup>35</sup> AND <sup>a</sup> it came to pass, that as he came nigh unto Jericho, a certain blind man sat by the way side begging; <sup>36</sup> and hearing a multitude passing by, he asked what it meant; <sup>37</sup> and they told him, that Jesus of Nazareth was passing by. <sup>38</sup> And he cried out, saying: Jesus, thou Son of David, have mercy on me! <sup>39</sup> And they who went before rebuked him, that he should hold his peace; but he cried so much the more, Thou Son of David, have mercy on me! <sup>40</sup> And Jesus stood, and commanded him to be brought unto him; and when he was come near, he asked him <sup>41</sup> saying: What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? And he said: Lord, that I

Visit to Zacchæus; (7) the murmurs of the people, and (9) the Lord's answer.

19. AND Jesus entered and was passing through Jericho. <sup>2</sup> And behold, there was a man named Zacchæus; and he was a chief publican*, and he was rich. <sup>3</sup> And he sought to see Jesus who he was; and he could not, for the multitude, because he was little of stature. <sup>4</sup> And he ran before, and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see him, because he was to pass that way. <sup>5</sup> And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up and saw him, and said unto him: Zacchæus, make haste and come down; for to-day I must abide at thy house. <sup>6</sup> And he made haste and came down, and received him joyfully.

<sup>7</sup> And when they saw it they all murmured, saying: <sup>a</sup> He is gone in to be a guest with a man that is a sinner. <sup>8</sup> And Zacchæus stood and said unto the Lord: Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and <sup>b</sup> if I have wrongfully exacted any thing from any man, I restore fourfold. <sup>9</sup> And Jesus said unto him: This day is salvation come to this house, inasmuch as <sup>c</sup> he also is a son of Abraham. <sup>10</sup> For <sup>d</sup> the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.

11 AND as they heard these things, he added and spake a parable, because he was nigh to Jerusalem, and because <sup>a</sup> they thought that the kingdom of God was immediately to appear.

12 He <sup>b</sup> said therefore: A certain nobleman went into a far country, to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return. <sup>13</sup> And he called his ten servants, and gave them ten pounds†, and said unto them, Trade with them until I come. <sup>14</sup> But <sup>c</sup> his citizens hated him, and sent an embassy after him, saying: We will not have this man to reign over us. <sup>15</sup> And it came to pass that when he was returned, having received the kingdom, then he commanded these servants to be called unto him to whom he had given the money, that he might know what each one had gained by trading. <sup>16</sup> Then came the first, saying: Lord, thy pound hath gained ten pounds. <sup>17</sup> And he said unto him: Well done, good servant! Because thou hast been <sup>d</sup> faithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities. <sup>18</sup> And the second came, saying: Lord, thy pound hath gained five pounds. <sup>19</sup> And he said likewise to him: Be thou also over five cities. <sup>20</sup> And another came, saying: Lord, behold, here is thy pound, which I have kept laid up in a napkin; <sup>21</sup> for I feared thee, because thou art an austere man; thou takest up what thou layedst not down, and reapest what thou didst not sow. <sup>22</sup> And he saith unto him: <sup>e</sup> Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked servant. <sup>f</sup> Thou knewest that I am an austere man, taking up what I laid not down, and reaping what I did not sow; <sup>23</sup> wherefore then gavest not thou my money into a bank, and then at my coming I should have required it back with interest? <sup>24</sup> And he said unto them that stood by, Take from him the pound, and give it to him that hath the ten pounds—<sup>25</sup> And they said unto him, Lord, he hath ten pounds already—<sup>26</sup> For I say unto you, that <sup>g</sup> unto every one that hath shall be given; and from him that hath not, even what he hath shall be taken away from him. <sup>27</sup> But <sup>h</sup> those mine enemies who would not that I should reign over them, bring hither and slay them before me.

Jesus enters Jerusalem attended by a great multitude; and (41) on approaching the city utters a lamentation over it.

28 AND when he had thus spoken, <sup>a</sup> he went forward, going up to Jerusalem. <sup>29</sup> And <sup>b</sup> it came to pass, when he was come nigh to Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount called the mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples, <sup>30</sup> saying: Go ye into the village over against you; in which at your entering ye will find a colt tied, whereon no man ever sat; loose it and bring it hither; <sup>31</sup> and if any one ask you, Why do ye loose it? thus shall ye say unto him: Because the Lord hath need of it. <sup>32</sup> And they that were sent went their way, and found even as he had said unto them. <sup>33</sup> And as they were loosing the colt, the owners thereof said unto them: Why loose ye the colt? <sup>34</sup> And they said: The Lord hath need of it. <sup>35</sup> And they brought it to Jesus; and <sup>c</sup> they cast their garments upon the colt, and they set Jesus thereon. <sup>36</sup> And as he went they spread their garments in the way.

<sup>37</sup> And when he was coming near, even now at the descent of the mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works that they had seen, <sup>38</sup> saying: Blessed <sup>d</sup> is the King that cometh in the name of the Lord! Peace <sup>e</sup> in heaven, and glory in the highest!

<sup>39</sup> And some of the Pharisees from among the multitude said unto him, Master*, rebuke thy disciples. <sup>40</sup> And he answered and said unto them: I tell you that if these should hold their peace, <sup>f</sup> the stones would immediately cry out.

Jesus in the temple—(45) He expels the traders, and (47) teaches daily; (ch. 20. 1) replies to the Sanhedrim questioning his authority, (9) shews by a parable their ill treatment of God's messengers, and (13) even the Son; and (17) foretells their ruin.

<sup>45</sup> AND <sup>a</sup> he went into the temple, and began to cast out those that were selling theret; <sup>46</sup> saying unto them: It is written, 'My house shall be a house of prayer;' but ye have made it 'a den of robbers' [Isa. lvi. 7; Jer. vii. 11].

<sup>47</sup> And he taught daily in the temple. But the chief priests and the scribes and the chief of the people sought to destroy him; <sup>48</sup> and they could not find what they might do; for all the people hung upon him, listening.

<sup>20.</sup> And <sup>b</sup> it came to pass, on one of those days, as he was teaching the people in the temple and preaching the gospel, that the chief priests and the scribes came upon him with the elders; <sup>2</sup> and they spake unto him, saying: Tell us, <sup>c</sup> by what authority doest thou these things? Or who is he that gave thee this authority?

<sup>3</sup> And he answered and said unto them: I will also ask you a question, and do ye answer me: <sup>4</sup> The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or from men? <sup>5</sup> And they reasoned with themselves, saying: If we say, From heaven; he will say, Why then did ye not believe him? <sup>6</sup> But if we say, From men; all the people will stone us; for <sup>d</sup> they are persuaded that John was a prophet. <sup>7</sup> And they answered, that they did not know whence it was. <sup>8</sup> And Jesus said unto them: Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.

<sup>9</sup> Then began he to speak to the people this parable: <sup>e</sup> A certain man planted a vineyard, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country for a long time. <sup>10</sup> And at the season he sent a servant to the husbandmen that they might give him of the fruit of the vineyard; but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty. <sup>11</sup> And again he sent another servant; and they beat him also and treated him shamefully, and sent him away empty. <sup>12</sup> And again he sent a third; and they wounded him also, and cast him out. <sup>13</sup> Then said the lord of the vineyard: What shall I do? I will send my beloved son; it may be they will reverence him when they see him. <sup>14</sup> But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying: This is the heir; come, let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours. <sup>15</sup> So <sup>f</sup> they cast him out of the vineyard and killed him. What therefore will the lord of the vineyard do unto them? <sup>16</sup> He will come and destroy these husbandmen, and will give the vineyard to others.

And when they heard it, they said: God forbid*! <sup>17</sup> And he looked upon them, and said: What then is this that is written, 'The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner?' [Psa. cxviii. 22, Sept.] <sup>18</sup> Whosoever <sup>g</sup> shall fall upon that stone will be broken; but <sup>h</sup> on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

<sup>19</sup> And the chief priests and the scribes the same hour sought to lay hands on him; and they feared the people; for they perceived that he had spoken this parable against them.

Jesus in the temple—(20) He defeats crafty attempts to ensnare him by questions; (41) questions the Scribes respecting David's Son and Lord; (45) warns the people against their false teachers; and (ch. 21. 1) commends a poor widow's offering.

<sup>20</sup> AND <sup>a</sup> they kept watch on him, and sent out spies feigning themselves to be just men, that they might take hold of his words, that so they might deliver him up to the power and authority of the governor. <sup>21</sup> And they asked him, saying: Master*, we know that thou speakest and teachest rightly, neither respectest thou persons, but teachest the way of God in truth: <sup>22</sup> Is <sup>b</sup> it lawful for us to give tribute unto Cæsar, or not?

Mt. 14. 5.

<sup>23</sup> But he perceived their craftiness, and said unto them : Why tempt ye me ?

places, and the chief seats in the synagogues, and the uppermost places at feasts ; <sup>47</sup> who <sup>n</sup> 'devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayers : these shall receive greater condemnation.

<sup>21</sup>. And he looked up <sup>o</sup> and saw the rich men casting their gifts into the treasury : <sup>2</sup> and he saw also a certain poor widow casting in thither two mites. <sup>3</sup> And he said : Of a truth I say unto you, that this poor widow hath cast in more than they all ; <sup>4</sup> for all these have of their abundance cast in unto the offerings of God, but she of her penury hath cast in all the living that she had.

Prophecies of (5) the destruction of Jerusalem, (10) wars between nations, (12) persecutions of Christ's disciples, and (25) great troubles in the last days—(34) Exhortations to watchfulness and prayer.

<sup>5</sup> AND <sup>a</sup> as some spake of the temple, how it was adorned with goodly stones and sacred gifts, he said : <sup>6</sup> As for these things which ye behold, the days will come in which <sup>b</sup> there shall not be left one stone upon another that shall not be thrown down.

<sup>7</sup> And they asked him, saying : Master*, when then will these things be ? And what will be the sign when these things are about to come to pass ? <sup>8</sup> And he said : Take heed that ye be not deceived ; for <sup>c</sup> many will come in my name, saying, I am He ; and, The time draweth near. Go ye not therefore after them. <sup>9</sup> But when ye hear of wars and commotions, be not terrified ; for these things must first come to pass ; but the end is not immediately.

<sup>10</sup> Then said he unto them : Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom ; <sup>11</sup> and there will be great earthquakes in divers places, and famines, and pestilences ; and fearful sights and great signs will there be from heaven.

<sup>37</sup> And <sup>e</sup> in the day time he was teaching in the temple; and <sup>f</sup> at night he went out and abode in the mount that is called the mount of Olives. <sup>38</sup> And all the people came early in the morning to him in the temple, to hear him.

The Sanhedrim resolve to seek the death of Jesus, and (5) agree to pay Judas for betraying him—(7) Jesus celebrates the Passover with his disciples, and (19) institutes the holy Supper—(21) He foretells Judas's treachery, (24) reproves contention for pre-eminence, (31) warns Peter of his fall, and (35) all the disciples of the coming conflict.

<sup>7</sup> Then <sup>b</sup> came the day of unleavened bread, when the Passover must be killed. <sup>8</sup> And he sent Peter and John, saying: Go and make ready for us the Passover, that we may eat it. <sup>9</sup> And they said unto him: Where wilt thou that we make ready? <sup>10</sup> And he said unto them: Behold, when ye are entered into the city, there will a man meet you bearing a pitcher of water; follow him into the house where he entereth in. <sup>11</sup> And ye shall say unto the master of the house: The Master ‡ saith unto thee, Where is the guestchamber where I may eat the Passover with my disciples? <sup>12</sup> And he will show you a large upper room furnished; there make ready. <sup>13</sup> And they went and found as he had said unto them; and they made ready the Passover.

This cup is the New Covenant in my blood, which is shed for you.

<sup>35</sup> And he said unto them: <sup>u</sup> When I sent you without purse and scrip and shoes, lacked ye any thing? And they said: Nothing. <sup>36</sup> Then said he unto them: But now he that hath a purse let him take it, and likewise his scrip; and he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment, and buy one. <sup>37</sup> For I say unto you, that this which is written must yet be accomplished in me, <sup>v</sup> "And he was reckoned among the transgressors" [Isa. liii. 12]: for <sup>w</sup> the things concerning me have an end. <sup>38</sup> And they said: Lord, behold, here are two swords. And he said unto them: It is enough.

<sup>39</sup> AND <sup>a</sup> he came out and went, as he was wont, to the Mount of Olives; and his disciples also followed him. <sup>40</sup> And when he was at the place, he said unto them: <sup>b</sup> Pray that ye enter not into temptation.

<sup>47</sup> And <sup>f</sup> while he was still speaking, behold, a multitude, and he that was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them; and he drew near unto Jesus <sup>g</sup> to kiss him. <sup>48</sup> But Jesus said unto him: Judas, betrayest thou* the Son of man with a kiss?

<sup>49</sup> And when they that were about him saw what would follow, they said unto him: Lord, shall we smite with the sword? <sup>50</sup> And one of them smote the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear. <sup>51</sup> And Jesus answered and said: Suffer ye thus far. And he touched his ear and healed him.

<sup>52</sup> Then Jesus said unto the chief priests, and captains of the temple, and the elders, who were come against him: Are ye come out as against a robber with swords and staves? <sup>53</sup> When I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched not forth your hands against me: but this is your hour, and <sup>h</sup> the power of darkness.

Jesus is led to the high priest's house; (55) is denied by Peter; (63) is mocked and beaten; and (66) tried and condemned by the Sanhedrim.

<sup>54</sup> THEN <sup>a</sup> they laid hold on him and led him, and brought him into the high priest's house. And Peter followed afar off. <sup>55</sup> And when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the court, and were set down together, Peter sat down among them. <sup>56</sup> And a certain maid saw him as he sat by the fire, and earnestly looked upon him, and said: This man also was with him. <sup>57</sup> But he denied him, saying: Woman, I know him not. <sup>58</sup> And after a little while another saw him, and said: Thou also art one of them. And Peter said: Man, I am not. <sup>59</sup> And about the space of one hour after another confidently affirmed, saying: Of a truth this man also was with him; for he is a Galileean. <sup>60</sup> And Peter said:

Man, I know not what thou sayest. And immediately, while he was still speaking, the cock crew. <sup>61</sup> And the Lord turned, and looked upon Peter. And Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said unto him, Before the cock crow thou wilt deny me thrice; <sup>62</sup> and Peter went out, and wept bitterly.

<sup>63</sup> And <sup>b</sup> the men that held Jesus <sup>c</sup> mocked him, and smote him; <sup>64</sup> and when they had blindfolded him, they struck him on the face, and asked him, saying: Prophecy, who is it that smote thee? <sup>65</sup> And many other things blasphemously spake they against him.

<sup>66</sup> And <sup>d</sup> as soon as it was day, the assembly of elders, both the chief priests and scribes, came together; and they led him into their council, saying: <sup>67</sup> If <sup>e</sup> thou be the Christ, tell us. And he said unto them: If I tell you, ye will not believe: <sup>68</sup> and if I also ask you, ye will not answer me, nor let me go. <sup>69</sup> But from henceforth I will the Son of man be seated on the right hand of the power of God.

<sup>70</sup> Then said they all: Art thou then the Son of God? And he said unto them: Ye say that I am. <sup>71</sup> And they said: Why need we any further witness? For we ourselves have heard from his own mouth.

Jesus before (1) Pilate, and (8) Herod—(13) Pilate seeks to release Him, but (24) finally sentences him to death.

<sup>8</sup> And when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceedingly glad; for <sup>9</sup> he had been desirous to see him for a long time, because he had heard many things of him; and he hoped to see some miracle done by him. <sup>9</sup> And he questioned him in many words; but he answered him nothing.

<sup>10</sup> And the chief priests and the scribes stood and vehemently accused him. <sup>11</sup> And <sup>a</sup> Herod with his guard of soldiers set him at nought, and mocked him and arrayed him in a gorgeous robe, and sent him again to Pilate. <sup>12</sup> And the same day Pilate and Herod became friends with each other; for before they were at enmity between themselves.

<sup>13</sup> And Pilate, when he had called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people, <sup>14</sup> said unto them: Ye have brought this man unto me as one that perverteth the people; and behold, <sup>15</sup> I, having examined him before you, have found no fault in this man touching those things whereof ye accuse him: <sup>15</sup> no, nor yet Herod; for I sent you to him, and behold, nothing worthy of death hath been done by him. <sup>16</sup> I <sup>k</sup> will therefore chastise him, and release him. [For* of necessity <sup>1</sup> he must release one unto them at the feast.] <sup>18</sup> But they cried out all at once, saying: Away with this man; and release unto us Barabbas; <sup>19</sup> who for a certain insurrection made in the city, and for murder, had been cast into prison.

<sup>20</sup> But Pilate, desiring to release Jesus, spake again to them. <sup>21</sup> But they cried, saying: Crucify, crucify him. <sup>22</sup> And he said unto them the third time: Why what evil hath he done? I have found no cause of death in him; I will therefore chastise him, and let him go. <sup>23</sup> But they were urgent with loud voices, requiring that he should be crucified. And the voices of them and of the chief priests prevailed. <sup>24</sup> And <sup>m</sup> Pilate gave sentence that it should be as they required: <sup>25</sup> and he released unto them him that for insurrection and murder had been cast into prison, whom they required; but he delivered up Jesus to their will.

26. AND <sup>a</sup> as they led him away, they laid hold upon one Simon, a Cyrenian, coming out of the country, and on him they laid the cross, that he might bear it after Jesus.

<sup>27</sup> And there followed him a great multitude of the people, and of women, who also bewailed and lamented him. <sup>28</sup> But Jesus turning unto them, said: Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but weep for yourselves and for your children. <sup>29</sup> For behold, <sup>b</sup> days are coming in which they will say: Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the breasts that never gave suck! <sup>30</sup> Then <sup>c</sup> will they begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us! and to the hills, Cover us! [Hos. x. 8.] <sup>31</sup> For <sup>d</sup> if they do these things in the green tree, what will be done in the dry?

<sup>32</sup> And <sup>e</sup> there were also two others, malefactors, led with him to be put to death. <sup>33</sup> And <sup>f</sup> when they were come to the place which is called Calvary* there they crucified him, and the malefactors, one on the right hand and the other on the left. <sup>34</sup> Then said Jesus: Father, forgive them; for <sup>g</sup> they know not what they do.

And <sup>h</sup> they parted his raiment, and cast lots. <sup>35</sup> And the people stood beholding. And the <sup>i</sup> rulers also with them derided him, saying: He saved others; let him save himself if he be the Christ, the chosen one of God. <sup>36</sup> And the soldiers also mocked him, coming to him and offering him vinegar, <sup>37</sup> and saying: If thou be the King of the Jews save thyself.

<sup>38</sup> And there was also a superscription written over him; THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

<sup>39</sup> And one of the malefactors that were hanged railed at him, saying: If thou art the Christ save thyself and us. <sup>40</sup> But the other answering rebuked him, saying: Dost not thou even fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation? <sup>41</sup> And we indeed justly, for we receive the due reward of our deeds; but this man hath done nothing amiss. <sup>42</sup> And he said unto Jesus: Lord, remember me when thou comest in; <sup>43</sup> thy kingdom. <sup>43</sup> And Jesus said unto him: Verily I say unto thee, To-day shalt thou be with me in <sup>j</sup> paradise.

<sup>46</sup> And Jesus cried with a loud voice, and said: Father, 'into thy hands I commit my spirit' [Psa. xxxi. 5]. <sup>o</sup> And having said thus, he yielded up his spirit.

<sup>47</sup> Now <sup>p</sup> when the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying: Certainly this was a righteous man.

Visits to the tomb, by (ch. 24. 1) the women, and (12) Peter—(13) Our Lord's appearance to two disciples going to Emmaus, and (38) to the rest in the evening after his resurrection—(44) His last instructions, and (50) ascension to heaven.

AND they rested on the sabbath day <sup>y</sup> according to the commandment. <sup>24</sup>. But <sup>z</sup> on the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came unto the sepulchre, bringing the spices which they had prepared*. <sup>2</sup> And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulchre; <sup>3</sup> and when they entered in they found not the body of the Lord Jesus.

<sup>4</sup> And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed about this, <sup>a</sup> behold, two men stood by them in shining garments. <sup>5</sup> And as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them: Why seek ye the living one among the dead? <sup>6</sup> He is not here, but is risen. Remember how he spake unto you when he was still in Galilee, <sup>7</sup> saying: The Son of man must be delivered up into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again.

<sup>12</sup> But <sup>f</sup> Peter arose, and ran to the sepulchre; and stooping down, he saw only the linen clothes lying there; and he went away home, wondering at that which had come to pass.

<sup>13</sup> And <sup>g</sup> behold, two of them were going that same day to a village called Emmaus, which was threescore furlongs* from Jerusalem: <sup>14</sup> and they talked together of all these things which had happened. <sup>15</sup> And it came to pass that while they were talking together and reasoning, Jesus himself drew near and went with them; <sup>16</sup> but <sup>17</sup> their eyes were holden that they might not know him.

<sup>17</sup> And he said unto them: What words are these which ye speak so earnestly one to another, as ye walk, and are sad? <sup>18</sup> And one of them <sup>19</sup> whose name was Cleopas, answering, said unto him: Art thou sojourning alone in Jerusalem, and hast not known the things which are come to pass there in these days? <sup>19</sup> And he said unto them: What things? And they said unto him: Concerning Jesus of Nazareth t, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people; <sup>20</sup> and <sup>21</sup> how our chief priests and rulers delivered him up to be condemned to death, and crucified him. <sup>21</sup> But we hoped <sup>22</sup> that it was he who was to redeem Israel. Moreover besides all this, to-day is the third day since these things were done. <sup>23</sup> Yea, and <sup>24</sup> certain women also of our company made us astonished, who were early at the sepulchre; <sup>25</sup> and when they found not his body, they came, saying that they had also seen a vision of angels, who said that he was alive. <sup>26</sup> And some of them that were with us went to the sepulchre, and found it even so as the women had said; but him they saw not.

<sup>25</sup> Then he said unto them: O foolish ones, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken! <sup>26</sup> Ought not the Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory? <sup>27</sup> And beginning with <sup>28</sup> Moses and <sup>29</sup> all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the Scriptures the things concerning himself.

<sup>28</sup> And they drew nigh unto the village whither they were going; and he made as though he would go further; <sup>29</sup> but they constrained him, saying: Abide with us; for it is towards evening, and the day is far spent; and he went in to abide with them.

<sup>30</sup> And it came to pass, as he sat at meat with them, <sup>31</sup> he took the bread and blessed it, and brake, and gave to them. <sup>32</sup> And their eyes were opened, and they knew him; and <sup>33</sup> he vanished out of their sight.

<sup>32</sup> And they said one to another: Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the Scriptures? <sup>33</sup> And they rose up the same hour and returned to Jerusalem; and they found the eleven and them that were with them gathered together, <sup>34</sup> saying: The Lord is risen indeed, and <sup>35</sup> hath appeared to Simon. <sup>36</sup> And they told the things that were done in the way, and how he became known to them in the breaking of bread.

<sup>36</sup> And <sup>37</sup> while they were speaking these things Jesus himself stood in the midst of them, and saith unto them: Peace be unto you! <sup>37</sup> But they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that they beheld <sup>38</sup> a spirit. <sup>38</sup> And he said unto them, Why are ye troubled? And why do doubts arise in your hearts? <sup>39</sup> Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself; <sup>40</sup> handle me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have. <sup>40</sup> And* when he had thus spoken, he showed them <sup>41</sup> his hands and <sup>42</sup> his feet. <sup>41</sup> And while they still believed not for joy, and wondered, he said unto them: <sup>42</sup> Have ye here anything to eat? <sup>43</sup> And <sup>44</sup> they gave him a piece of a broiled fish† <sup>43</sup> And <sup>45</sup> he took it and ate before them.

<sup>44</sup> And he said unto them: These are the words which I spake unto you while I was still with you, <sup>45</sup> that all things must be fulfilled which are written <sup>46</sup> in the Law of Moses and <sup>47</sup> in the Prophets and <sup>48</sup> in the Psalms concerning me. <sup>45</sup> Then <sup>49</sup> opened he their understanding that they might understand the Scriptures. <sup>46</sup> And he said unto them: <sup>47</sup> Thus it is written, and thus it behoved the Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day; <sup>48</sup> and that repentance and <sup>49</sup> remission of sins should be preached in his name <sup>50</sup> unto all the nations, <sup>51</sup> beginning at Jerusalem. <sup>48</sup> And ye are witnesses of these things. <sup>49</sup> And behold, <sup>50</sup> I send the promise of my Father upon you. But tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem, <sup>51</sup> until ye be endued with power from on high.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. JOHN.

The (1) eternal existence, and (3) Divine attributes and acts of the Word; (6) His manifestation and work; (10) his rejection by the world—(15) Testimony of John the Baptist.

1. IN <sup>a</sup>the beginning was the Word, and the Word was <sup>b</sup>with God, and <sup>c</sup>the Word was God. <sup>2</sup>The same was in the beginning with God. <sup>3</sup>All <sup>d</sup>things were made through him; and without him was not any thing made that hath been made. <sup>4</sup>In <sup>e</sup>him was life; and <sup>f</sup>the life was the light of men. <sup>5</sup>And <sup>g</sup>the light shineth in the darkness; and the darkness comprehended <sup>h</sup>it not.

<sup>15</sup>John bare witness of him, and cried, saying: This was he of whom I spake: He that cometh after me is preferred before me; for he was before me.

John's testimony concerning Jesus to (19) the Jewish rulers, and (29) his own disciples; (37) Christ's first disciples.

<sup>19</sup>AND this is the testimony of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him: Who art thou?

<sup>29</sup>The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and he saith: Behold, <sup>ab</sup>the Lamb of God, <sup>ac</sup>who taketh away the sin of the world! <sup>30</sup>This is he of whom I said: After me cometh a man who is preferred before me; for he was before me. <sup>31</sup>And I knew him not; but that he might be made manifest to Israel, on this account I came baptizing with <sup>ad</sup>water.

<sup>32</sup>And John bare witness, saying: I saw the Spirit descending as a dove from heaven, and it remained upon him. <sup>33</sup>And I knew him not; but he who sent me to baptize with <sup>ae</sup>water, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, <sup>af</sup>the same is he that baptizeth with the Holy Spirit. <sup>34</sup>And I have seen and have borne witness, that this is the Son of God.

4. WHEN therefore the Lord knew that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus made and <sup>a</sup> baptized more disciples than John, <sup>2</sup> (though Jesus himself baptized not, but his disciples), <sup>3</sup> he left Judæa, and departed again into Galilee. <sup>4</sup> And he must needs go through Samaria. <sup>5</sup> Then cometh he to* a city of Samaria which is called Sychar, near to <sup>b</sup> the piece of ground that Jacob gave to his son Joseph. <sup>6</sup> Now Jacob's well† was there. Jesus therefore, being <sup>c</sup> wearied with his journey, was sitting thus by the well; and it was about the sixth hour.

<sup>7</sup> There cometh a woman of Samaria to draw water. Jesus saith unto her: Give me to drink. <sup>8</sup> For his disciples were gone away into the city to buy food. <sup>9</sup> Then saith the Samaritan woman unto him: How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, who am a Samaritan woman? (For Jews have no dealings with Samaritans). <sup>10</sup> Jesus answered and said unto her: If thou hadst known <sup>d</sup> the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink, thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee <sup>e</sup> living water.

the hour cometh <sup>m</sup> when ye shall neither in this mountain nor yet at Jerusalem worship the Father. <sup>22</sup> Ye worship that which <sup>n</sup> ye know not; we worship that which we know; because <sup>o</sup> salvation is of the Jews. <sup>23</sup> But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers will worship the Father in <sup>p</sup> spirit and in <sup>q</sup> truth; for the Father seeketh such to worship him*. <sup>24</sup> God is a Spirit; and they that worship him must worship in spirit and in truth.

<sup>27</sup> And upon this came his disciples; and they marvelled that he talked with a woman; yet no man said, What seekest thou; or, Why talkest thou with her?

<sup>28</sup> The woman then left her waterpot, and went her way into the city, and saith to the people: <sup>29</sup> Come, see a man who told me all things that ever I did. Is this the Christ? <sup>30</sup> Then they went out from the city, and were coming to him.

<sup>35</sup> Say not ye, There are still four months, and then cometh harvest? Behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes and look on the fields, that <sup>v</sup> they are white already for harvest. <sup>36</sup> And <sup>w</sup> he that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto everlasting life; that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together. <sup>37</sup> And herein is fulfilled the true saying, One soweth and another reapeth. <sup>38</sup> I have sent you to reap that whereon ye have bestowed no labour; others have laboured, and ye have entered into their labours.

<sup>39</sup> And many of the Samaritans of that city believed on him because of the saying of the woman who testified, He told me all things that ever I did. <sup>40</sup> So when the Samaritans were come unto him, they besought him to abide with them; and he abode there two days. <sup>41</sup> And many more believed because of his word: <sup>42</sup> and they said unto the woman: Now we believe no longer because of thy saying, for <sup>x</sup> we have heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Saviour of the world.

Jesus begins his public ministry in Galilee; and (45) is better received there than in Judæa—(46) His second miracle in Galilee.

<sup>46</sup> So Jesus came again unto Cana of Galilee, <sup>c</sup> where he made the water wine. And there was a certain nobleman whose son was sick at Capernaum. <sup>47</sup> When he heard that Jesus was come out of Judæa into Galilee, he went unto him, and besought him that he would come down and heal his son; for he was at the point of death.

<sup>48</sup> Then said Jesus unto him: <sup>d</sup> Except ye see signs and wonders ye will not believe. <sup>49</sup> The nobleman saith unto him: Sir, come down ere my child die. <sup>50</sup> Jesus saith unto him: Go thy way; thy son liveth. And the man believed the word that Jesus had spoken unto him, and he went his way. <sup>51</sup> And as he was now going down, his servants met him, and told him, saying: Thy son liveth. <sup>52</sup> Then inquired he of them the hour when he began to amend; and they said unto him: Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him. <sup>53</sup> So the father knew that it was at the same hour in which Jesus said unto him, Thy son liveth; and himself believed, and his whole house. <sup>54</sup> This again, a second miracle, did Jesus, when he was come out of Judæa into Galilee.

Beginning of the conflict in Judæa—(2) Jesus heals on the sabbath; and (10) in answer to the accusations of the Jews, (19) asserts his oneness with the Father, in power, works, and honour, (31) as proved by the Father's testimony to him; and (41) shows the real cause of the Jews' unbelief.

had an infirmity thirty and eight years. <sup>6</sup> When Jesus saw him lying there, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him: Wilt thou be made whole? <sup>7</sup> The sick man answered him: Sir, I have no one, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool; but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me. <sup>8</sup> Jesus saith unto him: <sup>c</sup> Rise, take up thy bed and walk. <sup>9</sup> And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed and walked. And <sup>d</sup> on the same day was the sabbath.

<sup>10</sup> The Jews therefore said unto him that was cured: It is the sabbath day: <sup>e</sup> it is not lawful for thee to carry thy bed. <sup>11</sup> He answered them: <sup>f</sup> He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed and walk. <sup>12</sup> Then asked they him: Who is the man that said unto thee, Take up thy bed and walk? <sup>13</sup> And he that was healed knew not who it was; for Jesus had withdrawn himself, a multitude being in the place.

<sup>14</sup> Afterwards Jesus findeth him in the temple; and he said unto him: Behold, thou art made whole; <sup>g</sup> sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee. <sup>15</sup> The man went away, and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had made him whole. <sup>16</sup> And therefore the Jews persecuted Jesus*, because he did these things on the sabbath day.

<sup>17</sup> But Jesus answered them: <sup>h</sup> My Father worketh even until now, and I work. <sup>18</sup> Therefore the Jews <sup>i</sup> sought the more to kill him, because he not only broke the sabbath, but also called God his own Father, <sup>k</sup> making himself equal with God.

<sup>19</sup> Then answered Jesus and said unto them: Verily verily, I say unto you, <sup>l</sup> The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do; for what things soever he doeth, these in like manner doeth the Son also. <sup>20</sup> For <sup>m</sup> the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth; and he will show him greater works than these, that ye may marvel. <sup>21</sup> For as the Father raiseth up the dead and giveth them life, even <sup>n</sup> so the Son giveth life to whom he will. <sup>22</sup> For neither doth the Father judge any man, but <sup>o</sup> hath committed all judgment unto the Son; <sup>23</sup> that all men may honour the Son even as they honour the Father. <sup>24</sup> He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father who hath sent him.

<sup>25</sup> Verily verily, I say unto you, he that heareth my word, and believeth in him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and cometh not into judgment; but <sup>q</sup> hath passed from death into life. <sup>26</sup> Verily verily, I say unto you, the hour is coming, and now is, when <sup>r</sup> the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God; and they that hear shall live. <sup>26</sup> For as the Father hath life in himself, so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself; <sup>27</sup> and he hath given him authority to execute judgment also, <sup>28</sup> because he is the Son of man. <sup>29</sup> Marvel not at this; for the hour is coming, in which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice, <sup>29</sup> and <sup>30</sup> shall come forth; <sup>31</sup> they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life, and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of judgment.

Beginning of the conflict in Galilee—Miracles of (5) feeding the multitude, and (16) walking on the water—(25) In reply to questions from the people, Jesus reveals himself as the Bread of life, given by God for the salvation of the world; to be personally appropriated by faith—(60) The falling away of many of his followers—(68) Peter's confession.

6. AFTER <sup>a</sup> these things Jesus went away over the Sea of Galilee, (which is the Sea of Tiberias). <sup>2</sup> And a great multitude followed him, because they saw his miracles which he did on them that were diseased. <sup>3</sup> And Jesus went up into the mountain, and there he sat with his disciples. <sup>4</sup> And the Passover, the feast of the Jews, was nigh.

<sup>5</sup> When Jesus then lifted up <sup>6</sup> his eyes and saw a great multitude coming unto him, he saith unto Philip: Whence are we to buy bread, that these may eat? <sup>6</sup> And this he said proving him; for he himself knew what he was about to do. <sup>7</sup> Philip answered him: Two hundred pennyworth* of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little. <sup>8</sup> One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, saith unto him: <sup>9</sup> There is a lad here who hath five barley loaves, and two small fishes; but what are these among so many?

<sup>10</sup> And Jesus said: Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place; so the men sat down, in number about five thousand. <sup>11</sup> And Jesus took the loaves, and <sup>12</sup> when he had given thanks, he distributed to <sup>13</sup> them that were set down; and in like manner of the fishes as much as they would.

<sup>12</sup> And when they were filled, he saith unto his disciples: Gather up the pieces that remain over, that nothing be lost. <sup>13</sup> So they gathered <sup>14</sup> them together, and filled twelve baskets with pieces of the five barley loaves, which remained over and above unto them that had eaten.

<sup>14</sup> Then those men, when they saw the miracle that Jesus did, said: This is of a truth <sup>15</sup> the prophet that was coming into the world. <sup>15</sup> Jesus therefore knowing that they would come and take him by force to make him a king, withdrew again into the mountain, himself alone.

<sup>16</sup> And <sup>17</sup> when evening was come, his disciples went down unto the sea, <sup>17</sup> and entered into a ship, and were going over the sea towards Capernaum. And it was now dark, and Jesus was not yet come to them; <sup>18</sup> and the sea was rising by reason of a great wind that blew. <sup>19</sup> So when they had rowed about five and twenty or thirty furlongs, they behold Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing nigh unto the ship; and they were afraid. <sup>20</sup> But he saith unto them: It is I; be not afraid. <sup>21</sup> Then they willingly received him into the ship; and immediately the ship was at the land whither they were going.

<sup>22</sup> The day following, when the multitude which stood on the other side of the Sea saw that there was no other boat there, save that one wherinto his disciples had entered, and that Jesus went not with his disciples into the boat, but that his disciples went away alone, <sup>(23)</sup> howbeit there came other boats from Tiberias, nigh unto the place where they ate bread, after the Lord had given thanks; <sup>24</sup> when therefore the multitude saw that Jesus was not there, nor his disciples, they went on board the boats, and came to Capernaum, seeking Jesus.

<sup>25</sup> And when they found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him: Rabbi, when camest thou hither? <sup>26</sup> Jesus answered them and said: Verily verily, I say unto you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw miracles*, but because ye ate of the loaves and were filled. <sup>27</sup> Labour <sup>e</sup> not for the meat† which perisheth, but for the meat‡ which endureth unto everlasting life, which <sup>f</sup> the Son of man will give unto you; for <sup>g</sup> him the Father, even God, hath sealed.

<sup>28</sup> Then said they unto him: What must we do that we may work the works of God? <sup>29</sup> Jesus answered and said unto them: <sup>h</sup> This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.

<sup>30</sup> They said therefore unto him: <sup>i</sup> What sign doest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee? What dost thou work?

<sup>31</sup> Our <sup>k</sup> fathers ate the manna in the desert; as it is written, 'He gave them bread from heaven to eat' [Psa. lxxviii. 24]. <sup>32</sup> Then Jesus said unto them: Verily verily, I say unto you, Moses gave you not the bread from heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven: <sup>33</sup> for the bread of God is that <sup>l</sup> which cometh down from heaven and giveth life unto the world.

<sup>34</sup> Then said they unto him: Lord, evermore give us this bread. <sup>35</sup> And Jesus said unto them: I am the bread of life; <sup>m</sup> he that cometh to me shall never hunger, and he that believeth on me <sup>n</sup> shall never thirst.

<sup>36</sup> But I said unto you, that <sup>o</sup> ye have even seen me, and ye believe not. <sup>37</sup> All <sup>p</sup> that the Father giveth me will come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out. <sup>38</sup> For I am come down from heaven, <sup>q</sup> not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me. <sup>39</sup> And this is the Father's will who hath sent me, <sup>r</sup> that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but <sup>s</sup> should raise it up again at the last day. <sup>40</sup> And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one who looketh on the Son and <sup>t</sup> believeth in him, should have everlasting life; and that I should raise him up at the last day.

<sup>41</sup> The Jews then murmured about him, because he said, I am the bread which came down from heaven; <sup>42</sup> and they said: <sup>u</sup> Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How is it then that he saith, I am come down from heaven?

AFTER these things Jesus walked in Galilee ; for he would not walk in Judæa, because <sup>a</sup> the Jews sought to kill him. <sup>2</sup> Now <sup>b</sup> the Jews' Feast of Tabernacles was at hand. <sup>3</sup> His <sup>c</sup> brethren therefore said unto him : Depart hence and go into Judæa, that thy disciples also may see the works that thou doest ; <sup>4</sup> for no man doeth any thing in secret while he himself seeketh to be known openly. If thou doest these things, show thyself to the world. <sup>5</sup> For <sup>d</sup> even his brethren did not believe in him. <sup>6</sup> Jesus therefore said unto them : <sup>e</sup> My time is not yet come ; but your time is always ready. <sup>7</sup> The world cannot hate you ; but <sup>f</sup> me it hateth, <sup>g</sup> because I testify of it that the works thereof are evil. <sup>8</sup> Go ye up unto the feast ; I go not up yet unto this feast ; for my time is not yet fully come.	<sup>25</sup> THEN said some of them of Jerusalem : Is not this he whom they seek to kill ? <sup>26</sup> But lo, he speaketh openly, and they say nothing unto him. Have the rulers indeed learnt that this is the Christ ? <sup>27</sup> Howbeit we know this man whence he is ; but when the Christ cometh no one knoweth whence he is. <sup>28</sup> Jesus then cried aloud in the temple, as he taught, saying : <sup>a</sup> Ye both know me, and ye know whence I am. And <sup>b</sup> I am not come of myself, but he that sent me <sup>c</sup> is true, whom ye know not ; <sup>29</sup> but <sup>d</sup> I know him ; for I am	a see ch. 8. 14. b ch. 5. 43. c ch. 5. 32 ; 8. 26. d ch. 10. 15 ; 17. 25. from him, and he hath sent me. <sup>30</sup> Therefore <sup>e</sup> they sought to seize him; yet no one laid hands on him, because <sup>f</sup> his hour was not yet come.

<sup>31</sup> But <sup>g</sup> of the multitude many believed on him, and said: When the Christ cometh, will he do more miracles* than these which this man hath done? <sup>32</sup> The Pharisees heard the multitude murmuring such things concerning him; and the chief priests and the Pharisees sent officers to seize him.

<sup>33</sup> Then said Jesus unto them: Yet <sup>h</sup> a little while am I with you, and then I go unto him that sent me. <sup>34</sup> Ye <sup>i</sup> will seek me, and ye will not find me; and where I am, <sup>j</sup> thither ye cannot come.

<sup>35</sup> The Jews therefore said among themselves: Whither will he go, that we shall not find him? Will he go unto <sup>k</sup> the dispersed among the Greeks, and teach the Greeks? <sup>36</sup> What saying is this that he said, Ye will seek me, and ye will not find me; and where I am, <sup>l</sup> thither ye cannot come?

<sup>52</sup> They answered and said unto him: Art thou also of Galilee? Search, and see that <sup>b</sup> out of Galilee ariseth no prophet.

Jesus teaches in the temple—(3) Being asked by the Pharisees to pronounce judgment upon an adulteress, (7) in reply he awakens the consciences of the accusers.

<sup>2</sup> And early in the morning he came again into the temple; and all the people came unto him; and he sat down and taught them.

<sup>3</sup> And the scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery; and when they had set her in the midst, <sup>4</sup> they say unto him: Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act; <sup>5</sup> now Moses <sup>a</sup> in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned; but what sayest thou? <sup>6</sup> This they said, <sup>b</sup> tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with <sup>c</sup> his finger wrote on the ground. <sup>7</sup> But as they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them: <sup>e</sup> He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her. <sup>8</sup> And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground. <sup>9</sup> And they who heard <sup>d</sup> it, <sup>d</sup> being convicted by their conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest <sup>e</sup> even unto the last; and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst. <sup>10</sup> Then Jesus lifting up himself, and seeing none but the woman, said unto her: Woman, where are those thine accusers? Hath no man condemned thee? <sup>11</sup> She said: No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her: <sup>f</sup> Neither do I condemn thee; <sup>g</sup> go, and sin no more].

Jesus teaching in the temple, (13) declares himself to be the Light of the world; and (12) replying to objections, speaks of the Father's testimony to him; and (28) announces his crucifixion, and subsequent glorification.

<sup>12</sup> THEN spake Jesus again unto them, saying: <sup>a</sup> I am the light of the world; he that followeth me <sup>b</sup> shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.

<sup>13</sup> The Pharisees therefore said unto him: Thou <sup>c</sup> bearest witness of thyself; thy witness is not true. <sup>14</sup> Jesus answered and said unto them: Though I bear witness of myself, <sup>d</sup> yet my witness is true; for <sup>e</sup> I know whence I came, and whither I go; but <sup>f</sup> ye know not whence I come, and whither I go. <sup>15</sup> Ye judge after the flesh; <sup>g</sup> I judge no man. <sup>16</sup> And even if <sup>h</sup> I judge, my judgment is true; for <sup>i</sup> I am not alone, but I and the Father who sent me. <sup>17</sup> It is also <sup>i</sup> written in your law, that 'the testimony of two men is true' [Deut. xix. 15]. <sup>18</sup> I am one that bear witness of myself, and <sup>k</sup> the Father who sent me beareth witness of me. <sup>19</sup> Then said they unto him: Where is thy Father? Jesus answered: <sup>l</sup> Ye neither know me nor my Father; <sup>m</sup> if ye knew me ye would know my Father also.

<sup>21</sup> Then said he again unto them: I go my way, and <sup>p</sup> ye will seek me, and ye will die in your sin; whither I go, ye cannot come.

<sup>25</sup> They said therefore unto him: Who art thou? And Jesus saith unto them: Even that which I also have spoken unto you from the beginning *. <sup>26</sup> I have many things to say and to judge of you; but he that sent me is true; and <sup>u</sup> I have spoken to the world those things which I have heard from him. <sup>27</sup> They understood not that he spake to them of the Father.

<sup>30</sup> As he spake these words many believed on him.

Further controversy with the Jews—(34) Jesus shows who are the true children of Abraham, and (42) of God; and (58) asserts his Divine pre-existence; (59) the Jews seek to stone him.

the son abideth for ever. <sup>36</sup> If <sup>f</sup> the Son therefore shall make you free, ye will be free indeed. <sup>37</sup> I know that ye are Abraham's seed; but <sup>g</sup> ye seek to kill me, because my word hath no place in you. <sup>38</sup> I speak that which I have seen with my Father, and ye accordingly do that which ye have seen from your father.

<sup>39</sup> They answered and said unto him: <sup>h</sup> Abraham is our father. Jesus saith unto them: <sup>i</sup> If ye were Abraham's children ye would do the works of Abraham; <sup>40</sup> but now ye seek to kill me, a man who hath spoken unto you the truth, which I have heard from God; this did not Abraham. <sup>41</sup> Ye do the works of your father.

Then said they unto him: We have not been born of fornication; <sup>k</sup> we have one Father, even God. <sup>42</sup> Jesus said unto them: <sup>l</sup> If God were your Father ye would love me; for I proceeded forth and am come from God; <sup>m</sup> for neither am I come of myself, but he sent me. <sup>43</sup> Why do ye not understand my speech? Even because <sup>n</sup> ye cannot hear my word. <sup>44</sup> Ye <sup>o</sup> are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. <sup>p</sup> He was a murderer from the beginning; and he standeth not in the truth, because there is no truth in him: when he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own; <sup>q</sup> for he is a liar, and the father of it. <sup>45</sup> And <sup>r</sup> because I speak the truth, ye believe me not. <sup>46</sup> Which <sup>s</sup> of you convicteth me of sin? And if I speak the truth why do ye not believe me? <sup>47</sup> He <sup>t</sup> that is of God heareth God's words; for this cause ye hear them not, because ye are not of God.

<sup>48</sup> Then answered the Jews and said unto him: Say we not well that thou art a Samaritan, and <sup>u</sup> hast a devil? <sup>49</sup> Jesus answered: I have not a devil; but I honour my Father, and ye dishonour me. <sup>50</sup> But <sup>z</sup> I seek not mine own glory; there is one who seeketh and judgeth. <sup>51</sup> Verily verily, I say unto you, <sup>y</sup> if a man keep my word he will never see death.

<sup>52</sup> Then said the Jews unto him: Now we know that thou hast a devil. Abraham died, and the prophets; and thou sayest, If a man keep my word he will never taste death. <sup>53</sup> Art thou greater than our father Abraham, who died? and the prophets died: whom makest thou thyself? <sup>54</sup> Jesus answered: <sup>a</sup> If I glorify myself my glory is nothing; <sup>a</sup> it is my Father who glorifieth me; of whom ye say, that he is your God; <sup>55</sup> yet <sup>b</sup> ye have not known him. But <sup>c</sup> I know him; and if I should say, I know him not, I should be a liar like unto

(13) The Pharisees' judicial investigation of the case, and (24) dispute with the man, ending in his excommunication—(35) The Lord's meeting with him—(39) His declaration respecting the general effect of his ministry upon the world.*

9. AND as Jesus passed by he saw a man who was blind from his birth; <sup>2</sup> and his disciples asked him, saying: Master, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he should be born blind? <sup>3</sup> Jesus answered:
Neither this man sinned nor his parents, but <sup>a</sup> that the works of God might be made manifest in him. <sup>4</sup> I <sup>b</sup> must work the works of him that sent me while it is day; the night cometh, when no one can work. <sup>5</sup> As long as I am in the world <sup>c</sup> I am the Light of the world.

<sup>6</sup> When he had thus spoken, <sup>d</sup> he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle; and he anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay, <sup>7</sup> and said unto him: Go, wash them in the pool of <sup>e</sup> Siloam (which is by interpretation, Sent). He went his way therefore and washed them, and came seeing;

<sup>8</sup> The neighbours therefore, and they that before had seen him, that he was a beggar†, said: Is not this he that sat and begged?
<sup>9</sup> Some said: This is he; others said: He is like him; but he said: I am he. <sup>10</sup> Therefore said they unto him: How were thine eyes opened? <sup>11</sup> He answered and said:
A man that is called Jesus made clay and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash them: and I went and washed them, and I received sight. <sup>12</sup> Then said they unto him: Where is he? He said: I know not.

<sup>13</sup> They <sup>f</sup> brought to the Pharisees him that aforetime was blind. <sup>14</sup> Now <sup>g</sup> it was the sabbath day when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes. <sup>15</sup> Again therefore the Pharisees asked him how he had received his sight. He said unto them: He put clay upon mine eyes, and I washed them, and I see. <sup>16</sup> Therefore said some of the Pharisees: This man is not from God, because he keepeth not the sabbath day.

Others said: <sup>h</sup> How can a man that is a sinner do such miracles? And <sup>i</sup> there was a division among them. <sup>17</sup> They say therefore unto the blind man again: What sayest thou of him, because he opened thine eyes? He said: <sup>k</sup> He is a prophet.

<sup>18</sup> But the Jews did not believe concerning him that he had been blind and received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight.
<sup>19</sup> And they asked them, saying: Is this your son, who ye say was born blind? How then doth he now see? <sup>20</sup> His parents answered them and said: We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind; <sup>21</sup> but by what means he now seeth we know not, or who opened his eyes we know not. He is of age; ask him; he shall speak for himself. <sup>22</sup> These words spake his parents because <sup>l</sup> they feared the Jews; for the Jews had agreed already, that if any one should acknowledge him as Christ, he <sup>m</sup> should be put out of the synagogue*.
<sup>23</sup> Therefore said his parents: He is of age;
ask him.

<sup>24</sup> So they called a second time the man that had been blind; and they said unto him: <sup>n</sup> Give glory to God: we know that this man is a sinner. <sup>25</sup> He answered and said: Whether he is a sinner I know not; <sup>o</sup> one thing I know, that whereas I was blind, now I see.

<sup>26</sup> Then said they to him again: What did he to thee? How opened he thine eyes? <sup>27</sup> He answered them: I have told you already, and ye did not hear; wherefore would ye hear it again? Will ye also be his disciples? <sup>28</sup> Then they reviled him and said: Thou art his disciple, but we are Moses' disciples; <sup>29</sup> we know <sup>p</sup> that God spake unto Moses; but as for this man, <sup>q</sup> we know not from whence he is.

<sup>30</sup> The man answered and said unto them: Why herein is a marvellous thing, that ye know not from whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes. <sup>31</sup> We know that <sup>r</sup> God heareth not sinners; but if any one is a worshipper of God and doeth his will, him he heareth. <sup>32</sup> Since the world began it was never heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was born blind. <sup>33</sup> If <sup>s</sup> this man were not from God, he could do nothing. <sup>34</sup> They answered and said unto him: Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? And they cast him out.

<sup>35</sup> Jesus heard that they had cast him out: and he found him, and said: Dost

And he worshipped him.

<sup>39</sup> And Jesus said: <sup>z</sup> For judgment I am come into this world, <sup>y</sup> that those who see not may see, and that those who see may be made blind.

<sup>40</sup> And some of the Pharisees who were with him heard these words; and they said unto him: <sup>a</sup> Are we blind also? <sup>41</sup> Jesus said unto them: <sup>a</sup> If ye were blind, ye would have no sin; but now ye say, We see, <sup>b</sup> therefore your sin remaineth.

Concerning true and false teachers and leaders—Parables of (7) the door, and (11) the good shepherd—(19) Further controversy among the people respecting Jesus.

10. VERILY verily, I say unto you, <sup>a</sup> he that entereth not through the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. <sup>2</sup> But he that entereth in through the door is the shepherd of the sheep: <sup>3</sup> to him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice; and <sup>b</sup> he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out. <sup>4</sup> And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him; for they know his voice; <sup>5</sup> but <sup>c</sup> a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him; for they know not the voice of strangers.

<sup>6</sup> This parable* spake Jesus unto them; but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them.

<sup>7</sup> Then said Jesus unto them again: Verily verily, I say unto you, <sup>d</sup> I am the door of the sheep. <sup>8</sup> All that ever came before me are thieves and robbers; but the sheep did not hear them. <sup>9</sup> I am the door; <sup>e</sup> through me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and <sup>f</sup> find pasture. <sup>10</sup> The thief cometh not but to steal and to kill and to destroy: <sup>g</sup> I came that they might have life, and that they might have it <sup>h</sup> abundantly.

<sup>11</sup> I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd <sup>i</sup> layeth down his life for the sheep; <sup>12</sup> but <sup>k</sup> he that is a hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep and fleeth; and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep: <sup>13</sup> the hireling fleeth, because he is a hireling, and careth not for the sheep. <sup>14</sup> I am the good shepherd; and I <sup>l</sup> know my sheep, and by <sup>m</sup> my sheep am I known, <sup>15</sup> even as the Father knoweth me, and I know the Father. And I lay down my life for the sheep. <sup>16</sup> And <sup>n</sup> other sheep I have, which are not of this fold; <sup>o</sup> them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; <sup>p</sup> and they shall become one flock, <sup>q</sup> one Shepherd. <sup>17</sup> For this cause doth my Father love me, because I lay down my life, that I may take it again; <sup>18</sup> no <sup>r</sup> man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have authority to lay it down, and I <sup>s</sup> have authority to take it again. <sup>t</sup> This commandment have I received from my Father.

<sup>19</sup> There <sup>u</sup> was therefore again a division among the Jews because of these sayings. <sup>20</sup> And many of them said: <sup>v</sup> He hath a devil*, and is mad; why hear ye him? <sup>21</sup> Others said: These are not the words of him that hath a devil*. Can a devil <sup>w</sup> open the eyes of the blind?

Jesus, (23) teaching in the temple, (30) asserts his oneness with the Father; (33) the Jews charge him with blasphemy, and (33) again attempt to seize him.

<sup>22</sup> AND it was at Jerusalem the Feast of the Dedication: it was winter; <sup>23</sup> and Jesus was walking in the temple <sup>a</sup> in Solomon's porch.

<sup>24</sup> The Jews then came round about him, and said unto him: How long dost thou hold our mind in suspense? <sup>b</sup> If thou be the Christ, tell us plainly. <sup>25</sup> Jesus answered them: <sup>c</sup> I told you, and ye believed not. The works that I do in my Father's name, they bear witness of me. <sup>26</sup> But <sup>d</sup> ye believe not because ye are not of my sheep, as I said unto you. <sup>27</sup> My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. <sup>28</sup> And <sup>e</sup> I give unto them everlasting life; and <sup>f</sup> they shall never perish, neither shall any one pluck them out of <sup>g</sup> my hand. <sup>29</sup> My Father who hath given them to me is greater than all; and no one is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand. <sup>30</sup> I <sup>h</sup> and the Father are one.

<sup>34</sup> Jesus answered them: Is it not written in your law, 'I said, Ye are gods?' [Psa. lxxxii. 6]. <sup>35</sup> If he called them gods unto d ch. 10. 40.

<sup>8</sup> His disciples say unto him: Master <sup>f</sup>, <sup>e</sup> the Jews were of late seeking to stone thee; and goest thou thither again? <sup>9</sup> Jesus answered: Are there not twelve hours in the day? If a man walk in the day he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world; <sup>10</sup> but <sup>f</sup> if a man walk in the night he stumbleth, because there is no light in him.

<sup>11</sup> These things said he; and after that he saith unto them: Our friend Lazarus hath fallen <sup>g</sup> asleep, but I go that I may awake him. <sup>12</sup> Then said his disciples: Lord, if he hath fallen asleep, he will do well. <sup>13</sup> Howbeit Jesus spake of his death; but they thought that he had spoken of taking rest in sleep. <sup>14</sup> Then said Jesus unto them plainly: Lazarus is dead: <sup>15</sup> and I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, that ye may believe; nevertheless let us go unto him.

<sup>16</sup> Then said <sup>h</sup> Thomas, who was called Didymus, unto his fellow-disciples: Let us also go, that we may die with him*.

<sup>17</sup> Then when Jesus came, he found that he had lain in the tomb four days already.

<sup>18</sup> Now Bethany was nigh unto Jerusalem, about fifteen furlongs† off; <sup>19</sup> and many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning their brother. <sup>20</sup> Then Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went to meet him; but Mary sat still in the house.

<sup>28</sup> And when she had so said, she went away, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying: The Master <sup>p</sup> is come, and calleth for thee. <sup>29</sup> And she, as soon as she heard it, arose quickly, and went unto him. <sup>30</sup> Now Jesus was not yet come into the village, but was still in the place where Martha met him. <sup>31</sup> The Jews then who were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mary, that she rose up hastily and went out, followed her, saying: She goeth unto the grave to weep there.

<sup>32</sup> Then when Mary was come where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying unto him: Lord, if thou hadst been here my brother would not have died.

and <sup>a</sup> a stone lay upon it. <sup>39</sup> Jesus said: Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him: Lord, by this time he stinketh, for he hath been there four days. <sup>40</sup> Jesus saith unto her: Said I not unto thee, that if thou wilt believe thou shalt see the glory of God? <sup>41</sup> Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid.

And Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said: Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me; <sup>42</sup> and I knew that thou hearest me always; but <sup>43</sup> for the sake of the multitude that stand around I said it, <sup>44</sup> that they may believe that thou hast sent me. <sup>45</sup> And when he thus had spoken, he cried with a loud voice: Lazarus, come forth. <sup>46</sup> And <sup>47</sup> he that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with graveclothes, and his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith unto them: Loose him and let him go.

<sup>48</sup> Then <sup>49</sup> many of the Jews who had come to Mary, and had seen the things which Jesus did, believed on him. <sup>50</sup> But some of them went away to the Pharisees, and told them what things Jesus had done.

<sup>51</sup> Then <sup>52</sup> the chief priests and the Pharisees gathered a council, and said: <sup>53</sup> What are we doing? For this man doeth many miracles. <sup>54</sup> If we let him thus alone all men will believe on him, and the Romans will come and take away both our place and nation. <sup>55</sup> And one of them named Caiaphas, being the high priest that year, said unto them: Ye know nothing at all, <sup>56</sup> nor consider that <sup>57</sup> it is expedient for us that one man should die for the people, and not that the whole nation should perish. <sup>58</sup> And this spake he not from himself, but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus was to die for the nation; <sup>59</sup> and <sup>60</sup> not for the nation only, but also that <sup>61</sup> he might gather together into one the children of God that are scattered abroad.

Jesus is expected at Jerusalem at the Passover, and (57) the rulers lay wait for him; he (ch. 12. 1) arrives at Bethany, (3) is anointed by Mary, and (12) the next day enters the city attended by a great multitude.

<sup>66</sup> NOW the Jews' Passover was nigh at hand; and many went up out of the country to Jerusalem, before the Passover, <sup>67</sup> to purify themselves. <sup>68</sup> They <sup>69</sup> sought then for Jesus; and they spake among themselves, as they stood in the temple: What think ye; that he will not come to the feast? <sup>70</sup> Now both the chief priests and the Pharisees had given commandment, that if any one knew where he was he should make it known, that they might take him.

<sup>12.</sup> Then Jesus, six days before the Passover, came to Bethany, <sup>13</sup> where Lazarus was who had been dead, whom he raised from the dead. <sup>14</sup> So there <sup>15</sup> they made him a supper; and Martha served, but Lazarus was one of them that sat at the table* with him.

<sup>23</sup> Then said Jesus: Let her alone: against the day of my burying hath she kept this. <sup>24</sup> For <sup>25</sup> the poor ye have always with you, but me ye have not always.

<sup>26</sup> A great multitude of the Jews therefore knew that he was there; and they came, not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, <sup>27</sup> whom he had raised from the dead. <sup>28</sup> But <sup>29</sup> the chief priests consulted that they might put Lazarus also to death, <sup>30</sup> because <sup>31</sup> by reason of him many of the Jews were going away and believing on Jesus.

<sup>32</sup> On <sup>33</sup> the next day a great multitude that were come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming into Jerusalem, <sup>34</sup> took branches of the palm trees, and went forth to meet him; and they cried:

Hosanna! Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord!
Even the King of Israel.

these things were written of him, and that they had done these things unto him.

<sup>20</sup> AND there were certain Greeks among them: <sup>a</sup> that came up to worship at the feast: <sup>21</sup> the same came therefore to Philip, <sup>b</sup> who was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and asked him saying: Sir, we would see Jesus. <sup>22</sup> Philip cometh and telleth Andrew, and again Andrew and Philip come and tell Jesus.

Then <sup>h</sup> came there a voice from heaven, saying, I both have glorified it and <sup>i</sup> will glorify it again. <sup>29</sup> The multitude therefore, that stood by and heard it, said that it thundered: others said: An angel hath spoken to him. <sup>30</sup> Jesus answered and said: <sup>k</sup> This voice hath come not for my sake, but for your sakes. <sup>31</sup> Now is <sup>l</sup> the judgment of this world; now shall <sup>m</sup> the prince of this world be cast out. <sup>32</sup> And I, <sup>n</sup> if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw <sup>o</sup> all men unto me. <sup>33</sup> This <sup>p</sup> he said, signifying by what manner of death he was to die.

<sup>34</sup> The multitude answered him: We have heard out of the Law that <sup>q</sup> the Christ abideth for ever; and how sayest thou, The Son of man must be lifted up? Who is this Son of man? <sup>35</sup> Then Jesus said unto them: <sup>r</sup> Yet a little while is the light with you, <sup>s</sup> Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you; and <sup>t</sup> he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth. <sup>36</sup> While ye have the light believe in the light, that ye may become <sup>u</sup> children of light.

These things spake Jesus; and he departed, and <sup>x</sup> hid himself from them.

Reflections on the unbelief of the Jews—(44) Our Lord's own declarations respecting his Divine mission and the consequences of faith in him.

<sup>37</sup> BUT though he had done so many miracles* before them, yet they believed not on him; <sup>38</sup> that the saying of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled which he spake: 'Lord, who hath believed our report? And to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?' [Isa. liii. 1.] <sup>39</sup> Therefore they could not believe, because Isaiah said again: <sup>40</sup> 'He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; lest they should see with their eyes, and understand with their heart, and should return, and I should heal them' [Isa. vi. 10]. <sup>41</sup> These things said Isaiah, <sup>a</sup> when he saw his glory, and spake of him. <sup>42</sup> Nevertheless even among the rulers many believed on him; but <sup>b</sup> because of the Pharisees they did not confess it, lest they should be put out of the synagogue; <sup>43</sup> for they loved the glory that is of men more than the glory that is of God.

<sup>44</sup> Jesus cried aloud and said: <sup>c</sup> He that believeth on me, believeth not on me but on him that sent me; <sup>d</sup> and <sup>e</sup> he that seeth me seeth him that sent me. <sup>46</sup> I <sup>f</sup> am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me may not abide in darkness. <sup>47</sup> And if any man hear my words and keep them not, <sup>g</sup> I judge him not; for <sup>h</sup> I came not to judge the world, but to save the world: <sup>48</sup> he <sup>i</sup> that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him; <sup>j</sup> the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day. <sup>49</sup> For <sup>k</sup> I have not spoken of myself; but the Father who sent me, he hath given me a commandment what I should say and what I should speak; <sup>50</sup> and I know that <sup>l</sup> his commandment is life everlasting. Whatsoever I speak therefore, even as the Father hath said unto me, so I speak.

come <sup>b</sup> that he should depart out of this world unto the Father, <sup>c</sup> having loved his own who were in the world, <sup>d</sup> he loved them unto the end. <sup>2</sup> And at supper time*, <sup>e</sup> the devil having now put it into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him—<sup>3</sup> Jesus knowing that <sup>f</sup> the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he was come from God and was going to God, <sup>4</sup> he <sup>g</sup> riseth from supper, and laid aside his garments; and took a towel and <sup>h</sup> girded himself. <sup>5</sup> After that he poureth water into a basin, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded.

<sup>6</sup> Then cometh he to Simon Peter; and Peter saith unto him: Lord, dost thou wash my feet? <sup>7</sup> Jesus answered and said unto him: What I do thou knowest not now, but thou shalt know hereafter. <sup>8</sup> Peter saith unto him: Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him: If I wash thee not thou hast no part with me. <sup>9</sup> Simon Peter saith unto him: Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head. <sup>10</sup> Jesus saith to him: He that hath bathed needeth not save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit; and <sup>i</sup> ye are clean, but not all. <sup>11</sup> For <sup>k</sup> he knew him that was betraying him; therefore said he: Ye are not all clean.

<sup>12</sup> So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and had sat down again, he said unto them: Know ye what I have done to you? <sup>13</sup> Ye call me Master, and Lord; and ye say well; for so I am. <sup>14</sup> If I then, the Lord and Master, have washed your feet, <sup>l</sup> ye also ought to wash one another's feet. <sup>15</sup> For <sup>m</sup> I have given you an example, that ye also should do as I have done to you. <sup>16</sup> Verily verily, I say unto you, <sup>n</sup> the servant is not greater than his lord, neither he that is sent <sup>o</sup> greater than he that sent him. <sup>17</sup> If <sup>p</sup> ye know these things happy are ye if ye do them.

<sup>18</sup> I speak not of you all; I know whom I have chosen: but that the Scripture may be fulfilled, <sup>q</sup> 'He that eateth bread with me hath lifted up his heel against me' [Psa. xli. 9]. <sup>19</sup> I <sup>r</sup> tell you now before it come to pass, that when it is come to pass, ye may believe that I am he.

<sup>20</sup> Verily <sup>s</sup> verily, I say unto you, he that receiveth whomsoever I send receiveth me; and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me.

<sup>21</sup> When Jesus had thus said, he was troubled in spirit; and he testified and said, <sup>t</sup> Verily verily I say unto you that one of you will betray me. <sup>22</sup> The disciples then looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake. <sup>23</sup> Now there was at the table, leaning on Jesus' bosom, one of his disciples, <sup>u</sup> whom Jesus loved. <sup>24</sup> Simon Peter therefore beckoneth to him, that he should ask who it should be of whom he spake. <sup>25</sup> He then, leaning on Jesus' breast, saith unto him: Lord, who is it? <sup>26</sup> Jesus answered: He it is to whom I shall give a sop when I have dipped it. And when he had dipped the sop, he gave it to Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon. <sup>27</sup> And <sup>v</sup> after the sop then Satan entered into him. Then said Jesus unto him: What thou doest, do quickly.

<sup>28</sup> Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him. <sup>29</sup> For some thought, because <sup>w</sup> Judas had the purse, that Jesus had said unto him: Buy the things that we have need of for the feast; or, that he should give something to the poor. <sup>30</sup> He then having received the sop went immediately out. And it was night.

<sup>31</sup> When therefore he was gone out, Jesus said: <sup>y</sup> Now is the Son of man glorified, and <sup>z</sup> God is glorified in him. <sup>32</sup> If <sup>a</sup> God is glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself, and will straightway glorify him. <sup>33</sup> Little children, yet a little while I am with you. Ye will seek me; and <sup>b</sup> as I said unto the Jews, Whither I go ye cannot come; so now I say to you.

<sup>34</sup> A <sup>c</sup> new commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another; even as I have loved you, that ye also love one another. <sup>35</sup> By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another.

<sup>36</sup> Simon <sup>d</sup> Peter said unto him: Lord, whither goest thou? Jesus answered him: Whither I go thou canst not follow me now, but <sup>e</sup> thou shalt follow me afterwards. <sup>37</sup> Peter said unto him: Lord, why cannot I follow thee now? I will lay down my life for thee. <sup>38</sup> Jesus answered him: Wilt thou lay down thy life for me? Verily verily, I say unto thee, The cock will not crow till thou hast denied me thrice.

The valedictory discourse—In the prospect of his departure, Jesus consoles his disciples by the assurance of (1) their future reunion with himself in the Father's home, and (2) his own more immediate indwelling in them by the Holy Spirit.

14. LET not your heart be troubled; believe in God, believe also in me. <sup>2</sup> In my Father's house are many mansions*; if it were not so, I would have told you: <sup>a</sup> I go to prepare a place for you. <sup>3</sup> And if I go and prepare a place for you, <sup>b</sup> I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that <sup>e</sup> where I am, there ye may be also. <sup>4</sup> And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know*.

<sup>8</sup> Philip saith unto him: Lord, show us the Father, and it sufficeth us. <sup>9</sup> Jesus saith unto him: Have I been so long a time with you, and yet thou hast not known me, Philip? <sup>4</sup> He that hath seen me hath seen the Father: and how sayest thou, Show us the Father? <sup>10</sup> Believest thou not that <sup>k</sup> I am in the Father, and the Father in me? The words that I speak unto you <sup>i</sup> I speak not from myself; but the Father who dwelleth in me, <sup>m</sup> he doeth the works. <sup>11</sup> Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me; or else <sup>n</sup> believe me for the very works' sake.

<sup>18</sup> I will not leave you comfortless‡; <sup>u</sup> I will come to you. <sup>19</sup> Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more; but ye see me; because I live, ye shall live also. <sup>20</sup> At that day ye shall know that I am in my Father, and <sup>x</sup> ye in me, and I in you. <sup>21</sup> He <sup>v</sup> that hath my commandments and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me; and he that loveth me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him.

<sup>22</sup> Judas <sup>z</sup> saith unto him (not Iscariot): Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world? <sup>23</sup> Jesus answered and said unto him: If a man love me he will keep my words; and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him. <sup>24</sup> He that loveth me not, keepeth not my words: and the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's who sent me.

<sup>25</sup> These things have I spoken unto you while still remaining with you. <sup>26</sup> But <sup>a</sup> the Comforter, even the Holy Spirit, which the Father will send in my name, <sup>b</sup> he will teach you all things, and will <sup>c</sup> bring to your remembrance all things which I have said unto you.

<sup>27</sup> Peace <sup>d</sup> I leave with you, my peace I give unto you; not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid. <sup>28</sup> Ye have heard how I said unto you, I go away, and come again unto you. If ye loved me ye would have rejoiced because I said, <sup>e</sup> I go unto the Father; for <sup>f</sup> my Father is greater than I. <sup>29</sup> And <sup>g</sup> now I have told you before it come to pass, that when it is come to pass ye may believe. <sup>30</sup> Henceforth I will not talk much with you: for <sup>h</sup> the prince of this world cometh, and hath nothing in me: <sup>31</sup> but that the world may know that I love the Father; and <sup>i</sup> as the Father gave me commandment, even so I do. <sup>k</sup> Arise, let us go hence.

The valedictory discourse continued—(1) The union between Jesus and his disciples, and its fruits—(18) The consequent hatred of the world; and (ch. 16. 8) the victory which the Holy Spirit will achieve over the world by their ministry.

15. I AM the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman. <sup>2</sup> Every <sup>a</sup> branch in me that beareth not fruit, he taketh it away; and <sup>b</sup> every branch that beareth fruit, he cleanseth it, that it may bring forth more fruit. <sup>3</sup> Already <sup>c</sup> ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you. <sup>4</sup> Abide <sup>d</sup> in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine, so neither can ye, except ye abide in me. <sup>5</sup> I am the vine, ye are the branches: he that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much <sup>e</sup> fruit; for without me‡ ye can do nothing. <sup>6</sup> If any one abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch; and it is withered; and <sup>f</sup> men <sup>g</sup> gather them and cast them into the fire, and they are burned. <sup>7</sup> If ye abide in me and my words abide in you, <sup>h</sup> ye shall ask whatsoever ye will and it shall be done unto you. <sup>8</sup> Herein <sup>i</sup> is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples.

<sup>9</sup> As <sup>j</sup> the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: abide ye in my love. <sup>10</sup> If <sup>k</sup> ye keep my commandments, ye will abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love. <sup>11</sup> These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy may be in you, and <sup>12</sup> that your joy may be made full.

<sup>15</sup> Ye <sup>15</sup> are my friends if ye do the things that I command you. <sup>16</sup> Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth; but I have called you friends; for <sup>17</sup> all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you.

<sup>18</sup> Ye <sup>18</sup> did not choose me, but I chose you, and <sup>19</sup> appointed you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain; that whatsoever ye ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you. <sup>20</sup> These things I command you, that ye love one another.

<sup>25</sup> Remember the word that I said unto you, <sup>26</sup> The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you: if they have kept my word, they will keep yours also. <sup>27</sup> But <sup>28</sup> all these things will they do unto you for my name's sake, <sup>29</sup> because they know not him that sent me. <sup>30</sup> If <sup>31</sup> I had not come and spoken unto them, they would not have sin; but <sup>32</sup> now they have no excuse for their sin.

<sup>33</sup> He that hateth me hateth my Father also. <sup>34</sup> If I had not done among them the works which no other man did, they would not have sin; but now have they both seen and hated both me and my Father. <sup>35</sup> But <sup>36</sup> this cometh to pass that the word may be fulfilled that is written in their law, 'They hated me without a cause' [Psa. lxxix. 4].

<sup>37</sup> But when the Comforter* is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, <sup>38</sup> he will bear witness of me; <sup>39</sup> and <sup>40</sup> ye also bear witness, because ye have been with me from the beginning.

because <sup>47</sup> they have not known the Father, nor me. <sup>48</sup> But <sup>49</sup> these things have I spoken unto you, that when the hour is come, ye may remember that I told you of them. And these things I told you not at the beginning, because I was with you.

<sup>50</sup> But now I go my way to him that sent me, and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou? <sup>51</sup> But because I have spoken these things unto you, sorrow hath filled your heart. <sup>52</sup> Nevertheless I tell you the truth; it is expedient for you that I go away. For if I go not away <sup>53</sup> the Comforter will not come unto you; but <sup>54</sup> if I go I will send him unto you. <sup>55</sup> And when he is come, <sup>56</sup> he will convince <sup>57</sup> the world concerning sin, and righteousness, and judgment: <sup>58</sup> concerning <sup>59</sup> sin, because they believe not on me; <sup>60</sup> concerning <sup>61</sup> righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more; <sup>62</sup> concerning <sup>63</sup> judgment, because <sup>64</sup> the prince of this world hath been judged.

<sup>16</sup> A LITTLE while and ye will no longer behold me; <sup>17</sup> and again a little while and ye will see me, because I go to the Father.

<sup>18</sup> Then said some of his disciples among themselves: What is this that he saith unto us, A little while and ye will no longer behold me, and again a little while and ye will see me? and, Because I go to the Father? <sup>19</sup> They said therefore: What is this that he saith, This little while? We know not of what he speaketh.

<sup>20</sup> Jesus <sup>21</sup> knew that they were desirous to ask him; and he said unto them: Is it of this that ye inquire among yourselves, that I said, A little while and ye will no longer behold me, and again a little while and ye will see me? <sup>22</sup> Verily verily, I say unto you, that ye will weep and lament, but <sup>23</sup> the world will rejoice; and ye will be sorrowful, but <sup>24</sup> your sorrow will be turned into joy. <sup>21</sup> A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come; but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for the joy that a man is born into the world. <sup>22</sup> And ye now therefore have sorrow; but I will see you again, and <sup>23</sup> your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no one taketh from you. <sup>24</sup> And in that day ye will ask me nothing. <sup>25</sup> Verily verily, I say unto you, whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he will give it you. <sup>26</sup> Hitherto have ye asked for nothing in my name; ask, and ye shall receive, <sup>27</sup> that your joy may be made full.

<sup>28</sup> These things have I spoken unto you in parables; but the hour cometh <sup>29</sup> when I shall no more speak unto you in parables, but I shall tell you plainly of the Father. <sup>30</sup> In that day ye will ask in my name; and I say not unto you, that I will pray the Father for you; <sup>31</sup> for the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and <sup>32</sup> have believed that I came forth from God. <sup>33</sup> I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world; again, <sup>34</sup> I leave the world, and go to the Father.

<sup>35</sup> His disciples said unto him: Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no parable. <sup>36</sup> Now know we that <sup>37</sup> thou knowest all things, and needest not that any one should ask thee; by this we believe that thou camest forth from God.

Christ's intercessory prayer (1) for the manifestation of the Divine glory by his work on earth; (6) for his apostles, and (20) the whole church.

17. THESE words spake Jesus: and he lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said: Father, <sup>1</sup> the hour is come; glorify thy Son, that thy Son also may glorify thee, <sup>2</sup> even as thou hast given him authority over all flesh, <sup>3</sup> that he should give everlasting life to all that thou hast given him. <sup>4</sup> And <sup>5</sup> this is the life everlasting, that they may know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent. <sup>6</sup> I have glorified thee on the earth, <sup>7</sup> having finished the work which thou gavest me to do. <sup>8</sup> And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self, with the glory <sup>9</sup> which I had with thee before the world was.

<sup>10</sup> I have manifested thy name unto the men <sup>11</sup> whom thou hast given me out of the world; thine they were, and thou hast given them unto me; and they have kept thy word. <sup>12</sup> Now they have known that all things whatsoever thou hast given me are from thee. <sup>13</sup> For I have given unto them the words which thou gavest unto me; and they have received them, and <sup>14</sup> have known of a truth that I came forth from thee; and they have believed that thou hast sent me. <sup>15</sup> I pray for them: I pray not for the world, but for them whom thou hast given me; for they are thine; <sup>16</sup> and all things that are mine are thine, and <sup>17</sup> thine are mine; and <sup>18</sup> I am glorified in them. <sup>19</sup> And I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, <sup>20</sup> keep those in thy name whom thou hast given me, <sup>21</sup> that they may be one, as we are. <sup>22</sup> While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy name; those whom thou hast given me I have guarded, and <sup>23</sup> no one of them is lost but <sup>24</sup> the son of perdition; <sup>25</sup> that the Scripture might be fulfilled. <sup>26</sup> And now come I to thee; and these things I speak in the world, <sup>27</sup> that they may have my joy fulfilled in themselves.

<sup>40</sup> And I pray not for these alone, but for them also who shall believe on me through their word; <sup>41</sup> that <sup>42</sup> they all may be one; as thou Father art in me and I in thee, that they also may be one in us; that the world may believe that thou hast sent me. <sup>43</sup> And the glory which thou hast given me I have given them; <sup>44</sup> that they may be one, even as we are one; <sup>45</sup> that <sup>46</sup> in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them as thou hast loved me.

<sup>47</sup> Father, <sup>48</sup> I will that those also whom thou hast given me be with me where I am; that they <sup>49</sup> may behold my glory which thou hast given me; for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world. <sup>25</sup> O righteous Father, <sup>o</sup> the world hath not known thee; but <sup>h</sup> I have known thee, and these have known that thou hast sent me: <sup>26</sup> and <sup>i</sup> I have made known unto them thy name, and will make it known; that the love wherewith thou hast loved me may be in them, and <sup>k</sup> I in them.

Arrest of Jesus, and (11) his examination by the High Priest—(25) Peter's denial.

18. WHEN Jesus had spoken these words, <sup>a</sup> he went forth with his disciples over <sup>b</sup> the brook Kedron, where was a garden, into which he entered, and his disciples. <sup>2</sup> And Judas also, who was about to betray him*, knew the place; for <sup>c</sup> Jesus oftentimes resorted thither with his disciples. <sup>3</sup> Judas <sup>d</sup> then, having received a band of men and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, cometh thither, with lanterns and torches and weapons.

<sup>4</sup> Then Jesus, <sup>e</sup> knowing all things that were coming upon him, went forth, and said unto them: Whom seek ye? <sup>5</sup> They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith unto them: I am he. And Judas also, who betrayed him†, was standing with them. <sup>6</sup> As soon then as he had said unto them, I am he, they went backward and fell to the ground. <sup>7</sup> Then asked he them again: Whom seek ye? And they said, Jesus of Nazareth. <sup>8</sup> Jesus answered: I told you that I am he; if therefore ye seek me, let these go their way: <sup>9</sup> that the saying might be fulfilled which he spake, <sup>f</sup> Of them that thou hast given me have I lost none.

<sup>12</sup> Then the <sup>h</sup> band and the captain, and the officers of the Jews, took Jesus and bound him, <sup>13</sup> and led him to <sup>i</sup> Annas first; for he was father-in-law to Caiaphas, who was the high priest that year. <sup>14</sup> Now <sup>k</sup> Caiaphas was he who gave counsel to the Jews that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

<sup>15</sup> And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple. That disciple was known unto the high priest, and went in with Jesus into the palace‡ of the high priest. <sup>16</sup> But Peter stood at the door without: then went out that other disciple who was known unto the high priest, and spake unto her that kept the door, and brought in Peter. <sup>17</sup> Then saith the damsel that kept the door unto Peter: Art thou also one of this man's disciples? He saith: I am not. <sup>18</sup> And the servants and the officers were standing there, having made a fire of coals, for it was cold, and they were warming themselves; and Peter was standing with them, and warming himself.

<sup>25</sup> And <sup>p</sup> Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. They said therefore unto him: Art thou also one of his disciples? He denied it and said, I am not. <sup>26</sup> One of the servants of the high priest, being a kinsman of him whose ear Peter cut off, saith: Did not I see thee in the garden with him? <sup>27</sup> Peter then denied again: and immediately the cock crew.

Jesus before the Roman Governor; who (38) pronounces him innocent; (40) the Jews demand the release of Barabbas, and crucifixion of Jesus; (ch. 19. 7) they charge him with claiming to be the Son of God, and (12) making himself a king; and (16) obtain a sentence of death.

<sup>28</sup> THEN <sup>a</sup> led they Jesus from Caiaphas unto the Prætorium†. And it was early; and <sup>b</sup> they themselves went not into the Prætorium, lest they should be defiled, but that they might eat the Passover.

<sup>29</sup> Pilate <sup>c</sup> then went out unto them, and said: What accusation bring ye against this man? <sup>30</sup> They answered and said unto him: If he were not a malefactor we would not have delivered him up unto thee. <sup>31</sup> Then said Pilate unto them: Take ye him and judge him according to your law. The Jews therefore said unto him: It is not lawful for us to put any man to death: <sup>32</sup> that <sup>d</sup> the saying of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying by what manner of death he was about to die.

<sup>33</sup> Then Pilate entered into the Prætorium again; and he called Jesus, and said unto him: <sup>e</sup> Art thou the King of the Jews? <sup>34</sup> Jesus answered him: Sayest thou this thing of thyself, or did others tell it thee of me? <sup>35</sup> Pilate answered: Am I a Jew? <sup>f</sup> Thine own nation and the chief priests have delivered thee unto me. What hast thou done?

<sup>36</sup> Jesus answered: <sup>g</sup> My kingdom is not of this world; if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I might not be delivered to the Jews; but now is my kingdom not from hence. <sup>37</sup> Pilate therefore said unto him: Art thou a king then? Jesus answered: Thou sayest that I am a king. For this end was I born, and for this end am I come into the world, <sup>h</sup> that I may bear witness unto the truth. <sup>i</sup> Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice. <sup>38</sup> Pilate saith unto him: What is truth?

And when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jews, and saith unto them: I find no fault in him: <sup>39</sup> but <sup>k</sup> ye have a custom that I should release unto you one at the Passover; will ye therefore that I release unto you the King of the Jews? <sup>40</sup> Then <sup>l</sup> cried they all again, saying, Not this man, but Barabbas. Now Barabbas was a robber.

<sup>4</sup> Then Pilate went out again, and saith unto them: Behold, I bring him forth to you that ye may know that I find no fault in him. <sup>5</sup> Then came Jesus forth, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. And <sup>6</sup> Pilate saith unto them: Behold the man!

<sup>8</sup> When Pilate therefore heard this saying, he was the more afraid; <sup>9</sup> and he went into the Pretorium again, and saith unto Jesus: Whence art thou? But <sup>r</sup> Jesus gave him no answer. <sup>10</sup> Then saith Pilate unto him: Speakest thou not unto me? Knowest thou not that I have power to release thee, and have power to crucify thee? <sup>11</sup> Jesus answered: <sup>s</sup> Thou wouldst have no power at all against me if <sup>t</sup> it had not been given thee from above; therefore he that delivered me up unto thee hath the greater sin.

<sup>12</sup> And from thenceforth Pilate sought to release him; but the Jews cried out, saying: If thou let this man go thou art not Cæsar's friend; <sup>u</sup> whosoever maketh himself a king speaketh against Cæsar. <sup>13</sup> When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jesus forth, and sat down upon the judgment seat, in a place that is called the Pavement, but in the Hebrew, Gabbatha. <sup>14</sup> And <sup>v</sup> it was the Preparation of the Passover, and about the sixth hour. And he saith unto the Jews: Behold your King? <sup>15</sup> But they cried out: Away with him! Away with him! Crucify him! Pilate saith unto them: Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered: We have no king but Cæsar. <sup>16</sup> Then delivered he him therefore unto them to be crucified.

The crucifixion; (19) the inscription on the cross; (23) partition of the garments; (28) last words of Jesus; (34) the piercing of his side; (38) his burial by two secret disciples.

AND they took Jesus and led him away. <sup>17</sup> And <sup>a</sup> he, bearing his cross, <sup>b</sup> went forth unto the place called The place of a skull, which is called in the Hebrew, Golgotha; <sup>18</sup> where <sup>c</sup> they crucified him, and two others with him, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst.

<sup>19</sup> And Pilate wrote a title, and put it on the cross. And the writing was: JESUS OF NAZARETH* THE KING OF THE JEWS. <sup>20</sup> This title then read many of the Jews; for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city; and it was written in Hebrew and Greek and Latin. <sup>21</sup> Then said the chief priests of the Jews to Pilate: Write not, The King of the Jews; but that he said, I am the King of the Jews. <sup>22</sup> Pilate answered: What I have written, I have written.

Mary the wife of <sup>f</sup> Clopas, and <sup>g</sup> Mary of Magdala. <sup>26</sup> When Jesus therefore saw his mother, and <sup>h</sup> the disciple standing by whom he loved, he saith unto his mother: <sup>i</sup> Woman, behold thy son! <sup>27</sup> Then saith he to the disciple: Behold thy mother! And from that hour that disciple took her unto his own home.

<sup>29</sup> Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar; and <sup>m</sup> they filled a sponge with vinegar, and put it upon a stalk of hyssop, and raised it to his mouth. <sup>30</sup> When therefore Jesus had received the vinegar, he said: <sup>n</sup> It is finished; and he bowed his head and yielded up his spirit.

<sup>35</sup> And <sup>r</sup> he that saw it hath borne witness, and his testimony is true, and he knoweth that he saith the truth, <sup>s</sup> that ye also may believe. <sup>36</sup> For these things came to pass that the Scripture might be fulfilled: 'A bone of him shall not be broken, [Exod. xii. 46]. <sup>37</sup> And again another Scripture saith: 'They shall look on him <sup>t</sup> whom they pierced' [Zech. xii. 10].

<sup>38</sup> And <sup>u</sup> after these things Joseph of Arimathea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly <sup>x</sup> for fear of the Jews, besought Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus; and Pilate gave him leave. He came therefore and took the body of Jesus. <sup>39</sup> And there came also <sup>y</sup> Nicodemus, (who at the first came to Jesus by night), bringing <sup>z</sup> a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred pound weight. <sup>40</sup> Then took they the body of Jesus, and <sup>a</sup> bound it in linen cloths with the spices, as the manner of the Jews is to bury.

<sup>41</sup> Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a new sepulchre, in which no one had ever yet been laid. <sup>42</sup> There <sup>b</sup> laid they Jesus therefore, because of the Jews' Preparation day; for the sepulchre was nigh at hand.

Appearances to the disciples after the resurrection.

20. NOW on the <sup>a</sup> first day of the week cometh Mary of Magdala early, when it was still dark, unto the sepulchre; and she seeth <sup>b</sup> the stone taken away from the sepulchre. <sup>2</sup> Then she runneth and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the <sup>c</sup> other disciple whom Jesus loved; and she saith unto them: They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we know not where they have laid him.

<sup>3</sup> Peter <sup>d</sup> therefore went forth, and that other disciple; and they went to the sepulchre. <sup>4</sup> So they ran both together; and the other disciple outran Peter, and came first to the sepulchre; <sup>5</sup> and he stooping down and looking in seeth <sup>e</sup> the linen cloths lying; yet went he not in. <sup>6</sup> Then cometh Simon Peter following him; and he went into the sepulchre, and beholdeth the linen cloths, <sup>7</sup> and <sup>f</sup> the napkin that had been upon his head, not lying with the linen cloths, but wrapped together in a place by itself. <sup>8</sup> Then went in also that other disciple who came first to the sepulchre, and he saw and believed. <sup>9</sup> For as yet <sup>g</sup> they knew not the Scripture, <sup>h</sup> that he must rise again from the dead. <sup>10</sup> Then the disciples went away again unto their own home.

<sup>11</sup> But Mary stood without at the sepulchre weeping. And as she wept, she stooped down and looked into the sepulchre; <sup>12</sup> and she beholdeth two angels in white, sitting the one at the head and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain. <sup>13</sup> And they say unto her: Woman, why weepest thou? She saith unto them: Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him. <sup>14</sup> And when she had thus said, she turned herself back, and beheld Jesus standing; and <sup>k</sup> she knew not that it was Jesus. <sup>15</sup> Jesus saith unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? Whom seekest thou? She, supposing him to be the gardener, saith unto him: Sir, if thou hast borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him; and I will take him away. <sup>16</sup> Jesus saith unto her, Mary! She turned herself, and saith unto him, Rabboni! which is to say, Master! <sup>17</sup> Jesus saith unto her: Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended to my Father: but <sup>l</sup> go to my brethren, and say unto them: <sup>m</sup> I ascend unto my Father and your Father, and <sup>n</sup> my God and your God.

p Mk. 16. 14-18; Lk. 24. 36 -49; 1 Cor. 15. 5.	being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled, for fear of the Jews, came Jesus and stood in the midst; and he saith unto them: Peace be unto you. <sup>20</sup> And when he had so said, he showed unto them his hands and his side. Then were the disciples glad when they saw the Lord.	entered into the ship; and that night they caught nothing. <sup>4</sup> But when the morning was now come, Jesus stood on the shore; but the disciples <sup>d</sup> knew not that it was Jesus. <sup>5</sup> Then <sup>e</sup> Jesus saith unto them: Children, have ye anything to eat? They answered him, No. <sup>6</sup> And he said unto them: Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and ye will find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of the fishes. <sup>7</sup> Therefore <sup>f</sup> that disciple whom Jesus loved saith unto Peter: It is the Lord. Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his fisher's coat about him, (for he was naked), and cast himself into the sea. <sup>8</sup> And the other disciples came in the boat (for they were not far from land, but about two hundred cubits off), dragging the net with the fishes.	d ch. 20. 14; Lk. 24. 16. e Lk. 24. 41. f Lk. 5. 4, 6, 7.
q ch. 14. 27. r ch. 17. 18; Mt. 28. 18, 19.	<sup>21</sup> Then said Jesus to them again: <sup>q</sup> Peace be unto you: <sup>r</sup> as the Father hath sent me even so send I you. <sup>22</sup> And when he had said this, he breathed on them , and saith unto them: Receive ye the Holy Spirit: <sup>23</sup> whosoever <sup>s</sup> sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whosoever sins ye retain, they are retained.	<sup>9</sup> As soon then as they were come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid thereon and bread. <sup>10</sup> Jesus saith unto them: Bring of the fish which ye have now caught. <sup>11</sup> Simon Peter went on board and drew the net to land, full of great fishes, a hundred and fifty and three; and although there were so many, yet was not the net broken.	g ch. 13. 23.
s Mt. 16. 19.	<sup>24</sup> But Thomas, one of the twelve, <sup>t</sup> called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came. <sup>25</sup> The other disciples therefore said unto him: We have seen the Lord. But he said unto them: Except I see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and put my hand into his side, I will not believe. <sup>26</sup> And after eight days, again his disciples were within and Thomas with them: then cometh Jesus, the doors being shut; and he stood in the midst, and said: Peace be unto you. <sup>27</sup> Then saith he to Thomas: Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands; and reach hither thy hand, and put it into my side, and be not faithless, but believing. <sup>28</sup> And Thomas answered and said unto him: My Lord and my God! <sup>29</sup> Jesus saith unto him: Thomas, because thou hast seen me thou hast believed; <sup>u</sup> blessed are they that have not seen and yet have believed.	<sup>12</sup> Jesus saith unto them: <sup>v</sup> Come and dine. And none of the disciples durst ask him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord. <sup>13</sup> Jesus then cometh and taketh the bread and giveth unto them, and the fish likewise.	h see Ac. 10. 41.
t ch. 11. 16.	<sup>30</sup> And <sup>x</sup> many other signs truly did Jesus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book; <sup>31</sup> but these are written that ye may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; <sup>y</sup> and that believing ye may have life in his name.	<sup>14</sup> This is now <sup>i</sup> the third time that Jesus showed himself to his disciples after he was risen from the dead.	i ch. 20. 19, 26.
u l Pet. 1. 8.	Jesus appears to his disciples in Galilee; and after (6) a miraculous draught of fishes, (15) restores Peter to the apostolic ministry, and (18) foretells his martyrdom.	<sup>15</sup> So when they had dined, Jesus saith to Simon Peter: Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me <sup>k</sup> more than these? He saith unto him: Yea, Lord, thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him: Feed my lambs. <sup>16</sup> He saith to him again the second time: Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? He saith unto him: Yea, Lord, thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him: Feed <sup>m</sup> my sheep. <sup>17</sup> He saith unto him <sup>n</sup> the third time: Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me; and he said unto him: Lord, <sup>o</sup> thou knowest all things, thou knowest that I love thee. Jesus saith unto him: Feed my sheep. <sup>18</sup> Verily <sup>p</sup> verily, I say unto thee, when thou wast young thou girdest thyself, and walkedst whither thou wouldest; but when thou shalt be old thou wilt stretch forth thy hands, and another will gird thee, and carry thee	k compare Mt. 26. 33; Mk. 14. 29.
x ch. 21. 25.	<sup>21.</sup> AFTER these things <sup>a</sup> Jesus showed himself again to the disciples at the Sea of Tiberias; and in this manner showed he himself . <sup>2</sup> There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas called Didymus, and <sup>b</sup> Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and <sup>c</sup> the sons of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples. <sup>3</sup> Simon Peter saith unto them: I go a fishing. 69.	He returns through Decapolis to the mountain region near the Sea of Galilee; great multitudes follow him; he heals many, and feeds four thousand .....	15.	29-38	7.	31 to 8, 9

(2) It is here assumed that the "feast of the Jews," mentioned in John v. 1, was the Passover. The third Passover is the one mentioned in John vi. 4, which our Lord appears not to have celebrated at Jerusalem, probably because the rulers were seeking to kill him: see John vii. 1.

(3) Robinson places Luke ch. 4, 16-30 in Section 27; assuming two different visits to Nazareth; but as Luke's narrative, in ver. 23, implies that Jesus had lived for some time in Capernaum, and had wrought many miracles there, before this visit to Nazareth, it appears more probable that the three narratives all refer to the same event.

(4) Robinson places Luke ch. vii. 1-3 between Sections 45 and 46; but there appears to be no sufficient reason for supposing the circuit in Galilee related by Luke to be different from the second one mentioned by Matthew and Mark.

PART VI.—THE LAST PASSOVER WEEK.

TIME: Seven days.

113.	First day of the week. Jesus enters Jerusalem, attended by a great multitude; at night he returns to Bethany	21.	1-11, 14-17	11.	1-11	19.	29-41	12.	12-19
114.	Second day of the week. He goes into Jerusalem; on his way, curses the barren fig-tree; expels the traders from the temple; and in the evening again returns to Bethany	21.	12, 13, 18, 19	11.	12-19	19.	45, 46

(5) Some would place the passages in the Gospel of John from ch. vii. 2 to ch. xli. 54 between sections 70 and 71. They think that the events there related occurred before Jesus' departure to Ephraim and that, probably, after the raising of Lazarus, and the retreat to Ephraim near the desert, he led his disciples northwards, and in the quiet retirement of Casarea

Philippi gave them the first intimations of his approaching death. From thence the three synoptic Gospels represent him as taking them privately, through Galilee, straight to Jerusalem. If this was the true order of events, only a few weeks would intervene between the transfiguration on mount Hermon and the crucifixion at Jerusalem.

THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES.

Introduction—(6) Our Lord's last instructions to his disciples, and (9) his ascension—(12) The apostles wait at Jerusalem, and (14) meet daily for prayer—(15) Appointment of a new apostle in the place of Judas.

1. THE former treatise have I made, O <sup>a</sup> Theophilus, concerning all that Jesus began both to do and teach, <sup>2</sup> until <sup>b</sup> the day in which he was taken up, after he, <sup>c</sup> through the Holy Spirit, <sup>d</sup> had given commandment unto the apostles whom he had chosen. <sup>3</sup> To whom also <sup>e</sup> he showed himself alive, after he had suffered, by many infallible proofs, being seen by them during forty days, and <sup>f</sup> speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God.

<sup>12</sup> Then <sup>x</sup> returned they unto Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is nigh unto Jerusalem, being a sabbath day's journey. <sup>13</sup> And when they were come in, they went up into <sup>y</sup> the upper room where they abode; namely <sup>z</sup> Peter, and James, and John, and Andrew, Philip, and Thomas, Bartholomew, and Matthew, James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon Zelotes, and Judas the brother of James. <sup>14</sup> These <sup>aa</sup> all continued with one accord in prayer <sup>ab</sup>, with <sup>ac</sup> the women and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with <sup>ad</sup> his brethren.

<sup>15</sup> And in those days Peter stood up in the midst of the brethren, and said—the number of the names together was about a hundred and twenty:

<sup>21</sup> Wherefore of these men who companied with us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, <sup>22</sup> beginning from the baptism of John, unto the day that he was taken up from us, <sup>23</sup> must one be made a witness with us of his resurrection.

<sup>23</sup> And they appointed two, Joseph called Barsabas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias. <sup>24</sup> And they prayed and said: Thou, Lord, <sup>25</sup> who knowest the hearts of all men, show which of these two thou hast chosen, <sup>26</sup> that he may take the office of this ministry and apostleship, from which Judas by transgression fell, <sup>27</sup> that he might go to his own place. <sup>28</sup> And <sup>29</sup> they cast lots for them, and the lot fell upon Matthias; and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

The gift of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost, (2) outwardly manifested by the miraculous gift of tongues; (14) Peter's address, showing this to be (16) the fulfilment of prophecy, and (32) the fruit of Christ's resurrection; (37) conversion of a great multitude; (42) their love, devotion, and holy joy.

2. AND when <sup>a</sup> the day of Pentecost was fully come, <sup>b</sup> they were all with one accord in one place. <sup>2</sup> And suddenly there came a sound from heaven <sup>c</sup> as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. <sup>3</sup> And there appeared unto them tongues, <sup>d</sup> as of fire, dividing themselves, and it sat upon each of them. <sup>4</sup> And <sup>e</sup> they were all filled with the Holy Spirit; and they began <sup>f</sup> to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

<sup>5</sup> Now there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven. <sup>6</sup> And when this was noised abroad*, the multitude came together; and they were confounded, because every man heard them speaking in his own language. <sup>7</sup> And they were all amazed and marvelled, saying: Behold, are not all these who speak <sup>g</sup> Galileans? <sup>8</sup> And how hear we every man in our own tongue, wherein we were born, — <sup>9</sup> Parthians, and <sup>h</sup> Medes, and <sup>i</sup> Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, and in Judæa, and <sup>k</sup> Cappadocia, in Pontus, and Asia†, <sup>10</sup> Phrygia, and Pamphylia, in Egypt, and in the parts of Libya about <sup>l</sup> Cyrene, and the <sup>m</sup> sojourners from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, <sup>11</sup> Cretans and Arabians — how hear we them speaking in our own tongues the wonderful works of God? <sup>12</sup> And they were all amazed, and were in doubt, saying one to another: What meaneth this? <sup>13</sup> But others mocking said: They are full of new wine.

Ye men of Judæa, and all <sup>ye</sup> that dwell at Jerusalem‡, Be this known unto you, and hearken to my words. <sup>15</sup> For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, <sup>n</sup> seeing it is but the third hour of the day. <sup>16</sup> But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel: <sup>17</sup> *And it shall come to pass <sup>o</sup> in the last days, saith God, <sup>p</sup> that I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and <sup>q</sup> your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams: <sup>18</sup> yea and on my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; and <sup>r</sup> they shall prophesy. <sup>19</sup> And I will show wonders in heaven above, and signs in the earth beneath; blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke. <sup>20</sup> The <sup>s</sup> sun shall be turned into darkness and the moon into blood, before the great and notable day of the Lord come. <sup>21</sup> And it shall come to pass, that <sup>t</sup> whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved [Joel ii. 28—32].

<sup>22</sup> Ye men of Israel, hear these words; Jesus of Nazareth*, a man approved by God unto you <sup>u</sup> by miracles and wonders and signs, which God did by him in the midst of you, as ye yourselves also know, <sup>23</sup> him, <sup>v</sup> being delivered up, according to the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, ye have taken and by the hand of wicked† men have crucified and slain: <sup>24</sup> whom <sup>w</sup> God raised up, having loosed the pains of death, because <sup>x</sup> it was not possible that he should be holden by it. <sup>25</sup> For David speaketh concerning him: *I saw the Lord always before my face, for he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved. <sup>26</sup> Therefore my heart rejoiced, and my tongue was glad; moreover also my flesh shall rest in hope: <sup>27</sup> because thou wilt not leave my soul in Hades‡, neither wilt thou suffer thy Holy One to see corruption. <sup>28</sup> Thou hast made known to me the ways of life; thou wilt make me full of joy with thy countenance† [Psa. xvi. 8—11, Sept.].

<sup>29</sup> Men and brethren, I may freely speak unto you of the patriarch David; that he both died and was buried, and his sepulchre is with us unto this day. <sup>30</sup> Therefore having a prophet, and <sup>a</sup> knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would set one upon <sup>b</sup> his throne; <sup>31</sup> he foresaw and spake of the resurrection of the Christ, that his soul was not left in Hades‡, nor did his flesh see corruption.

<sup>37</sup> Now when they heard this <sup>g</sup> they were pierced to the heart; and they said to Peter and to the rest of the apostles: Men and brethren, <sup>h</sup> what shall we do? <sup>38</sup> Then

Miraculous healing of a lame man, which (12) Peter, addressing the people, ascribes to the power of the crucified and risen Saviour; (ch. 4. 1) arrest of Peter and John by the Jewish rulers.

well, that it was he that sat for alms at the Beautiful Gate of the temple; and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened unto him. <sup>11</sup> And as he* held Peter and John, all the people ran together unto them at <sup>e</sup> the porch that is called Solomon's, greatly wondering.

Ye men of Israel, Why marvel ye at this man? or why look ye earnestly on us, as though by our own power or godliness we had made him to walk? <sup>13</sup> The God of Abraham and of Isaac and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, <sup>f</sup> hath glorified his Son† Jesus; <sup>g</sup> whom ye delivered up, and denied him in the presence of Pilate, when he had determined to let him go: <sup>14</sup> but <sup>h</sup> ye denied the Holy and Righteous One; and desired a murderer to be granted unto you; <sup>15</sup> and ye killed the <sup>i</sup> Author of life; whom God hath raised from the dead; whereof we are witnesses. <sup>16</sup> And his name, <sup>j</sup> through faith in his name, hath made this man strong, whom ye see and know; yea, the faith which is by him hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.

<sup>17</sup> And now, brethren, I know that <sup>k</sup> in ignorance ye did it, as did also your rulers; <sup>18</sup> but those things which God before declared, <sup>m</sup> by the mouth of all his prophets, that the Christ would suffer, he hath so fulfilled. <sup>19</sup> Repent ye therefore, and turn to Him, <sup>n</sup> for the blotting out of your sins, that the <sup>o</sup> times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord; <sup>20</sup> and that he may send forth the Christ, who was foreordained for you, even Jesus; <sup>21</sup> whom the heaven must receive until the times of <sup>p</sup> the restoration of all things; of which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets since the world began.

<sup>22</sup> For Moses truly said unto the fathers: 'A Prophet will the Lord your God raise up unto you from among your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear in all things whatsoever he shall say unto you: <sup>23</sup> and it shall come to pass that every soul that heareth not that Prophet shall be destroyed from among the people' [Deut. xviii. 15, 19]. <sup>24</sup> Yea, and all the prophets, from Samuel and those that follow after, as many as have spoken, have likewise foretold of these days.

that was in want; for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold <sup>35</sup> and <sup>d</sup> laid them down at the apostles' feet; and <sup>e</sup> distribution was made to every one according as he had need.

<sup>7</sup> And it came to pass about the space of three hours after, that his wife, not knowing what had happened, came in. <sup>8</sup> And Peter answered unto her: Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much. And she said: Yea, for so much. <sup>9</sup> Then Peter said unto her: How is it that ye agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? Behold, the feet of them that have buried thy husband are at the door and shall carry thee out. <sup>10</sup> Then fell she down straightway at his feet and died. And the young men came in and found her dead, and carrying her forth buried her by her husband. <sup>11</sup> And <sup>i</sup> great fear came upon all the church, and upon all that heard these things.

also out of the cities round about came together to Jerusalem, bringing sick persons and those that were vexed with unclean spirits; and they were healed every one.

Second arrest of the apostles—After (10) a miraculous deliverance from prison, (26) they are brought before the Sanhedrin, (33) who desire to put them to death, but (34) are prevented by Gamaliel's counsel.

<sup>19</sup> But <sup>d</sup> an angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doors, and brought them forth, and said: <sup>20</sup> Go, stand, and speak in the temple to the people <sup>e</sup> all the words of this life. <sup>21</sup> And when they heard that, they entered into the temple early in the morning, and taught.

And the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called the council together, and all the senate<sup>f</sup> of the children of Israel; and they sent to the prison to have them brought. <sup>22</sup> But the officers who went found them not in the prison; and they returned and told, <sup>23</sup> saying: The prison truly found we shut with all safety, and the keepers standing before the doors; but when we had opened we found no man within.

<sup>24</sup> Now when <sup>f</sup> the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these things, they were perplexed about them, whereunto this would grow. <sup>25</sup> Then came one and told them: Behold, the men whom ye put in the prison are standing in the temple and teaching the people.

<sup>26</sup> Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them, without violence; for they feared the people, lest they should be stoned. <sup>27</sup> And when they had brought them, <sup>g</sup> they set them before the council. And behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and <sup>i</sup> ye desire to bring this man's <sup>k</sup> blood upon us.

Ye men of Israel, take heed to yourselves as to what ye are about to do as touching these men. <sup>36</sup> For before these days rose up Theudas, boasting himself to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered and came to nought. <sup>37</sup> After this man rose up Judas of Galilee in the days of <sup>a</sup> the registration, and drew away much<sup>t</sup> people after him: he also perished; and all, even as many as obeyed him, were dispersed. <sup>38</sup> And now I say unto you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: for <sup>v</sup> if this counsel or this work be of men it will be overthrown;

<sup>5</sup> And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, and <sup>a</sup> Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas a proselyte of Antioch; <sup>b</sup> whom they set before the apostles; and <sup>c</sup> when they had prayed, they laid their hands on them.

<sup>8</sup> And Stephen, full of grace<sup>2</sup> and power, did great wonders and miracles among the people. <sup>9</sup> But there arose certain of the Synagogue which is called the Synagogue of the Libertines and Cyrenians and Alexandrians, and of them of Cilicia and of Asia, disputing with Stephen: <sup>10</sup> and <sup>h</sup> they were not able to resist the wisdom and <sup>i</sup> the spirit by which he spake. <sup>11</sup> Then <sup>k</sup> they suborned men, who said: We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses and against God. <sup>12</sup> And they stirred up the people and the elders and the scribes, and they came upon him and seized him, and brought him to the council. <sup>13</sup> And they set up false witnesses, who said: This man ceaseth not to speak words<sup>j</sup> against this holy place, and the law; <sup>14</sup> for we have heard him say, that this Jesus of Nazareth<sup>l</sup> will destroy this place, and will change the customs which Moses delivered to us. <sup>15</sup> And all that sat in the council, looking stedfastly on him, saw his face as the face of an angel.

Stephen's defence—(2) He refutes the charges against him of blaspheming Moses, and speaking against the people of God, and their law and temple, and shews that (51) the Jews, by rejecting Christ and persecuting his followers, were imitating the unbelief and rebellion of their fathers; (54) Stephen's death.

7. THEN said the high priest, Are these things so?

<sup>2</sup> And he said: Men, brethren and fathers<sup>ll</sup>, hearken; The God of glory appeared unto our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt <sup>a</sup> in Haran; <sup>3</sup> and said unto him: 'Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and go into the land which I will show thee' [Gen. xii. 1]. <sup>4</sup> Then <sup>b</sup> came he out of the land of the Chaldeans, and dwelt in Haran: and from thence, when his father was dead, He removed him into this land wherein ye now dwell. <sup>5</sup> And <sup>c</sup> he gave him no inheritance in it, no, <sup>d</sup> not so much as to set his foot on; yet <sup>e</sup> he promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, when as yet he had no child. <sup>6</sup> And God spake in this manner, 'That his seed would sojourn in a foreign land; and that they would bring them into bondage and illtreat them / four hundred years. <sup>7</sup> And <sup>8</sup> the nation to whom they shall be in bondage will I judge, said God; and after that shall they come forth' [Gen. xv. 13, 14], and 'serve me in this place' [Exod. iii. 12]. <sup>8</sup> And <sup>9</sup> he gave him the covenant of circumcision: and <sup>10</sup> so Abraham begat Isaac and circumcised him the eighth day, and <sup>11</sup> Isaac begat Jacob, and <sup>12</sup> Jacob begat the twelve patriarchs.

his hand was giving them deliverance; but they understood not. <sup>49</sup> And the next day he showed himself unto them as they strove, and would have set them at one again, saying: 'Sirs, ye are brethren; why do ye wrong one to another?' <sup>50</sup> But he that was doing his neighbour wrong thrust him away, saying: 'Who made thee a ruler and a judge over us?' <sup>51</sup> Wouldst thou kill me, as thou didst the Egyptian yesterday? <sup>52</sup> Then <sup>53</sup> fled Moses at this saying, and became a sojourner in the land of Midian, where he begat two sons.

written in the book of the Prophets : ' O ye house of Israel, did ye offer to me slain beasts and sacrifices forty years in the wilderness ? <sup>43</sup> Yea, ye took up the tabernacle of Moloch, and the star of your god * Rephan, the figures which ye made to worship them : and I will carry you away beyond Babylon' [Amos v. 25—27, Sept.].

Persecution and scattering of the disciples ; (5) preaching of the gospel in Samaria by Philip, (14) followed by the apostles Peter and John—(15) Bestowal of the miraculous gifts of the Holy Spirit.

AND at that time there arose a great persecution against the church which was at Jerusalem ; and <sup>a</sup> they were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judæa and Samaria, except the apostles.

<sup>4</sup> They therefore that were scattered abroad went every where preaching the word. <sup>5</sup> And <sup>c</sup> Philip went down to the city† of Samaria, and preached Christ unto them. <sup>6</sup> And the multitudes with one accord gave heed unto the things which Philip spake, when they heard him, and saw the miracles which he did. <sup>7</sup> For <sup>d</sup> unclean spirits, crying with a loud voice, came out of many that were possessed with them ; and many that were palsied and that were lame were healed. <sup>8</sup> And there was great joy in that city.

<sup>9</sup> But there was before in the city a certain man called Simon, who <sup>e</sup> used magic arts, and amazed the people of Samaria, giving out that himself was some great one : <sup>10</sup> to whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying : This man is the great power of God†. <sup>11</sup> And to him they had regard, because they had for a long time been bewitched by his magic arts. <sup>12</sup> But when they believed Philip preaching <sup>f</sup> the glad tidings concerning the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women. <sup>13</sup> Then Simon himself believed also : and when he was baptized, he attended on Philip, and was amazed, beholding the signs and great miracles which were done.

<sup>18</sup> And when Simon saw that through the laying on of the apostles' hands the Holy Spirit was given, he offered them money, 19 saying: Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay my hands, he may receive the Holy Spirit. <sup>20</sup> But Peter said unto him: Thy money perish with thee, because <sup>1</sup> thou thoughtest to obtain the gift of God with money. <sup>21</sup> Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter; for thy heart is not right in the sight of God. <sup>22</sup> Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray the Lord * if perhaps the thought of thy heart may be forgiven thee. <sup>23</sup> For I perceive that thou art in the gall of bitterness and in the bond of iniquity. <sup>24</sup> Then answered Simon, and said: <sup>m</sup> Pray ye to the Lord for me, that none of the things which ye have spoken may come upon me.

<sup>25</sup> And they, when they had testified and spoken the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem; and they preached the gospel in many villages of the Samaritans.

<sup>29</sup> Then <sup>d</sup> the Spirit said unto Philip: Go near and join thyself to this chariot. <sup>30</sup> And Philip ran thither to him, and heard him reading the prophet Isaiah. And he said: Understandest thou what thou readest? <sup>31</sup> And he said: How can I except some one guide me? And he desired Philip to come up and sit with him.

<sup>32</sup> Now the place of the Scripture which he was reading was this: 'He was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and like a lamb dumb before his shearer, so openeth he not his mouth. <sup>33</sup> In his humiliation his judgment was taken away: and who shall declare his generation? For his life is taken from the earth.' [Isa. liii. 7, 8, Sept.] <sup>34</sup> And the eunuch answered Philip and said: I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this; of himself, or of some other man? <sup>35</sup> Then Philip opened his mouth and began at the same Scripture, and preached unto him Jesus.

<sup>36</sup> And as they went along the way, they came unto a certain water; and the eunuch said: See, here is water; * what doth hinder me from being baptized? <sup>37</sup> [And * Philip said, / If thou believest with all thy heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, <sup>9</sup> I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.] <sup>38</sup> And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they went down both into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him.

Conversion of Saul; his (15) call to the apostleship, and first preaching (20) at Damascus and (29) at Jerusalem. (31) Rest and prosperity of the church.

<sup>9</sup>. AND <sup>a</sup> Saul, still breathing out threatening and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest, <sup>2</sup> and asked from him letters to Damascus, to the synagogues, that if he found any of this Way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound unto Jerusalem.

<sup>7</sup> And <sup>f</sup> the men who journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing the voice, but seeing no man. <sup>8</sup> And Saul arose from the earth; and when his eyes were opened, he saw no man; but they led him by the hand and brought him into Damascus. <sup>9</sup> And he was three days without sight, and neither ate nor drank.

<sup>10</sup> And there was a certain disciple at Damascus, <sup>9</sup> named Ananias; and to him said the Lord in a vision, Ananias. And he said: Behold, I am here, Lord. <sup>11</sup> And the Lord said unto him: Arise and go into the street which is called Straight, and inquire in the house of Judas for one called Saul, <sup>a</sup> of Tarsus; for behold, he prayeth; <sup>12</sup> and he hath seen in a vision a man named Ananias coming in and putting his hand on him, that he may receive his <sup>17</sup> And Ananias went his way and entered into the house; and putting his hands on him he said: Brother Saul, the Lord, even Jesus, who appeared unto thee in the way that thou camest, hath sent me that thou mayest receive thy sight, and <sup>p</sup> be filled with the Holy Spirit. <sup>18</sup> And immediately there fell from his eyes as it were scales; and he received his sight, and arose and was baptized: <sup>19</sup> and when he had received food he was strengthened.

Then <sup>q</sup> was Saul certain days with the disciples who were at Damascus. <sup>20</sup> And <sup>r</sup> straightway he preached the Christ* in the synagogues, that he is the Son of God. <sup>21</sup> But all that heard him were amazed, and said: <sup>s</sup> Is not this he who destroyed them that called on this name in Jerusalem, and came hither for that intent, that he might bring them bound unto the chief priests? <sup>22</sup> But Saul increased the more in strength, and <sup>t</sup> confounded the Jews who dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is the Christ.

<sup>26</sup> And <sup>w</sup> when Saul was come to Jerusalem, he endeavoured to join himself to the disciples; but they were all afraid of him, not believing that he was a disciple. <sup>27</sup> But <sup>x</sup> Barnabas took him and brought him to the apostles, and declared unto them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how he had preached boldly at Damascus in the name of Jesus.

<sup>28</sup> And he was with them coming in and going out at Jerusalem; <sup>29</sup> and he preached boldly in the name of the Lord; and he spake and disputed against the Grecian Jews: <sup>a</sup> but they went about to slay him. <sup>30</sup> But the brethren, having knowledge of it, brought him down to Cæsarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus. <sup>31</sup> So then the church†

throughout all Judæa and Galilee and Samaria had peace, being built up and walking in the fear of the Lord; and <sup>b</sup> by the exhortation* of the Holy Spirit, it was multiplied.

Peter at Lydda and Joppa; (33) miraculous healing of a paralytic, and (36) raising of Dorcas to life; leading to the conversion of many throughout that region.

<sup>32</sup> AND it came to pass, as Peter passed <sup>a</sup> throughout all quarters, he came down also to the saints who dwelt at Lydda. <sup>33</sup> And there he found a certain man named Aeneas, who had kept his bed eight years, and was palsied. <sup>34</sup> And Peter said unto him: Aeneas, <sup>b</sup> Jesus the Christ maketh thee whole; <sup>c</sup> arise, and make thy bed; and he arose immediately. <sup>35</sup> And all that dwelt at Lydda and <sup>d</sup> Sharon saw him; and <sup>e</sup> they turned to the Lord.

<sup>36</sup> Now there was at Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, (which by interpretation is called Dorcas†): this woman was full of good works and alms-deeds which she did. <sup>37</sup> And it came to pass in those days, that she fell sick and died; and when they had washed her, they laid her in an upper chamber. <sup>38</sup> And as Lydda was nigh to Joppa, the disciples, hearing that Peter was there, sent unto him two men desiring him that he would not delay to come to them.

<sup>39</sup> Then Peter arose and went with them. And when he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber: and all the widows stood by him weeping, and showing the coats and cloaks which Dorcas made while she was with them. <sup>40</sup> But Peter <sup>q</sup> put them all forth, and kneeled down and prayed; and turning to the body he <sup>k</sup> said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter she sat up: <sup>41</sup> and he gave her his hand and lifted her up; and calling the saints and widows, he presented her alive. <sup>42</sup> And it became known throughout all Joppa; and <sup>i</sup> many believed in the Lord. <sup>43</sup> And it came to pass that he tarried many days in Joppa, with one Simon a tanner.

Peter, by Divine direction, preaches to devout Gentiles; who (44) receive the miraculous gifts of the Holy Spirit, and (47) are baptized.

10. NOW there was a certain man in Cæsarea called Cornelius, a centurion of the band† called the Italian band, <sup>2</sup> a devout man, and one that feared God with all his house; who gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God always. <sup>3</sup> He <sup>a</sup> saw in a vision plainly, about the ninth hour of the day, an angel of God coming in to him, and saying unto him, Cornelius!

4 And looking stedfastly at him he was afraid, and said, What is it, Lord? And he said unto him: Thy prayers and thine alms <sup>b</sup> are come up for a memorial before God. <sup>5</sup> And now send men to Joppa, and call for one Simon, whose surname is Peter: <sup>6</sup> he lodgeth with one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side*.

7 And when the angel who spake unto him had departed, he called two of his household servants, and a devout soldier of those that waited on him continually, <sup>8</sup> and when he had declared all these things unto them, he sent them to Joppa.

9 On the morrow, as they went on their journey and drew nigh unto the city, Peter went up upon the housetop to pray, about the sixth hour. <sup>10</sup> And he became very hungry, and desired to eat: but while they made ready he <sup>c</sup> fell into a trance, <sup>11</sup> and <sup>d</sup> saw the heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending, as it had been a great sheet tied with four ropes, and let down to the earth; <sup>12</sup> wherein were all the fourfooted beasts and creeping things of the earth, and birds of the air. <sup>13</sup> And there came a voice to him: Arise, Peter; kill and eat: <sup>14</sup> but Peter said: Not so, Lord; for <sup>e</sup> I have never eaten anything common or unclean. <sup>15</sup> And the voice spake unto him again the second time: <sup>f</sup> What God hath cleansed that call not thou common. <sup>16</sup> This was done thrice; and the vessel was taken up again into heaven.

17 Now while Peter was doubting in himself what the vision which he had seen might mean, behold, the men who had been sent from Cornelius had made inquiry for Simon's house, and stood before the gate; <sup>18</sup> and they called and asked whether Simon who was surnamed Peter lodged there.

19 While Peter thought on the vision, <sup>g</sup> the Spirit said unto him: Behold, three men are seeking thee: <sup>20</sup> arise therefore and get thee down, and go with them, doubting nothing; for I have sent them. <sup>21</sup> Then Peter went down to the men; and said: Behold, I am he whom ye seek: what is the cause wherefore ye are come? <sup>22</sup> And they said: Cornelius a centurion, a righteous man, and one that feareth God, and of good report among all the nation of the Jews, was commanded from God by a holy angel to send for thee into his house, and to hear words from thee. <sup>23</sup> Then called he them in and lodged them.

And on the morrow Peter went away with them, and certain of the brethren from Joppa accompanied him; <sup>24</sup> and the morrow after they entered into Caesarea. And Cornelius was waiting for them, having called together his kinsmen and near friends. <sup>25</sup> And as Peter was coming in, Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet and worshipped him: <sup>26</sup> but Peter raised him up, saying: <sup>h</sup> Stand up, I myself also am a man. <sup>27</sup> And as he talked with him he went in, and found many that were come together.

28 And he said unto them: Ye know that <sup>i</sup> it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew to keep company with, or come unto one of another nation, but <sup>k</sup> God hath showed me that I should not call any man common or unclean: <sup>29</sup> therefore came I without gainsaying, as soon as I was sent for: I ask therefore for what cause ye have sent for me?

30 And Cornelius said: Four days ago I was fasting until this hour; and at the ninth hour I was praying in my house, and behold, <sup>l</sup> a man stood before me in bright clothing, <sup>31</sup> and said: Cornelius, <sup>m</sup> thy prayer is heard, and <sup>n</sup> thine alms are had in remembrance in the sight of God. <sup>32</sup> Send therefore to Joppa, and call hither Simon whose surname is Peter; he is lodged in the house of Simon, a tanner, by the sea side*: who, when he cometh, will speak unto thee. <sup>33</sup> Immediately therefore I sent to thee; and thou hast well done that thou art come. Now therefore we are all here present before God, to hear all things that are commanded thee by God.

34 Then Peter opened his mouth and said: <sup>o</sup> Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons; <sup>35</sup> but <sup>p</sup> in every nation he that feareth him and worketh righteousness is accepted with him. <sup>36</sup> The word which He sent unto the children of Israel, <sup>q</sup> preaching peace through Jesus Christ — <sup>r</sup> he is Lord of all — <sup>37</sup> that word, I say, ye <sup>s</sup> know, which was published throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee, after the baptism which John preached; <sup>38</sup> how God <sup>t</sup> anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed by the devil; <sup>u</sup> because God was with him. <sup>39</sup> And <sup>v</sup> we are witnesses of all things which he did, both in the land of the Jews and in Jerusalem: <sup>40</sup> whom they slew by hanging him on a cross. <sup>41</sup> Him God raised up on the third day, and showed him openly, <sup>42</sup> not <sup>w</sup> to all the people, but to witnesses chosen before by God, even to us <sup>x</sup> who ate and drank with him after there stood up one of them named <sup>1</sup> Agabus, and signified by the Spirit that there would be a great famine throughout all the world <sup>2</sup>: which came to pass in the reign of Claudius Cæsar. <sup>29</sup> Then the disciples, <sup>30</sup> every one according to his ability, determined to send <sup>31</sup> relief unto the brethren who dwelt in Judea: <sup>32</sup> which also they did, and sent it to <sup>33</sup> the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

<sup>12</sup> Now about that time Herod the king laid his hands on certain of the church to ill-treat them: <sup>2</sup> and he killed <sup>3</sup> James the brother of John with the sword. <sup>4</sup> And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter also, (then were <sup>5</sup> the days of unleavened bread), <sup>6</sup> and he seized him, and put him in prison, and delivered him to four quaternions<sup>t</sup> of soldiers to keep him; intending after the Passover to bring him forth to the people. <sup>5</sup> Peter therefore was kept in the prison: but <sup>7</sup> prayer was made fervently by the church unto God for him.

<sup>6</sup> And when Herod was about to bring him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains; and keepers<sup>t</sup> before the door were guarding the prison. <sup>7</sup> And behold, <sup>8</sup> an angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shone in the cell: and he smote Peter on the side and awoke him, saying: Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands. <sup>8</sup> And the angel said unto him: Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals: and so he did. And he saith unto him: Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me. <sup>9</sup> And he went out and followed him; and he knew not that it was true which was done by the angel, but thought <sup>10</sup> he saw a vision. <sup>10</sup> And when they had passed the first and the second ward, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth unto the city, <sup>11</sup> which opened to them of its own accord; and they went out, and passed on through one street; and forthwith the angel departed from him.

<sup>11</sup> And when Peter was come to himself, he said: Now I know of a surety that <sup>12</sup> the Lord hath sent his angel, and <sup>13</sup> hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews. <sup>12</sup> And when he understood it, he came to the house of Mary, the mother of <sup>13</sup> John, whose surname was Mark, where many were gathered together, and were praying. <sup>13</sup> And as Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a damsel came to hearken, named Rhoda. <sup>14</sup> And she, knowing Peter's voice, opened not the gate for gladness, but ran in and told them that Peter was standing before the gate. <sup>15</sup> And they said unto her: Thou art mad; but she confidently affirmed that it was even so. Then said they: It is his <sup>16</sup> angel. <sup>16</sup> But Peter continued knocking; and when they had opened the door they saw him, and were astonished. <sup>17</sup> But he, <sup>18</sup> beckoning unto them with the hand to hold their peace, declared unto them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said: Go and tell these things to <sup>19</sup> James and to the brethren. And he departed and went into another place.

<sup>18</sup> Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers as to what was become of Peter. <sup>19</sup> And when Herod had sought for him and found him not, he examined the keepers, and commanded that they should be put to death.

And he went down from Judea to Cæsarea, and there abode. <sup>20</sup> And Herod was highly displeased with the Tyrians and Sidonians: but they came with one accord to him, and having made Blastus the king's chamberlain their friend, desired peace, because <sup>21</sup> their country was nourished by the king's country. <sup>21</sup> And upon a set day Herod, arrayed in royal apparel, sat upon his throne, and made an oration unto them. <sup>22</sup> And the people gave a shout, saying: It is the voice of a god and not of a man. <sup>23</sup> And immediately an angel of the Lord <sup>24</sup> smote him, because he gave not God the glory; and he was eaten by worms, and died.

<sup>4</sup> So they, being sent forth by the Holy Spirit, went down to Seleucia; and from thence they sailed to Cyprus: <sup>5</sup> and having

† i. e. Gentile proselytes, who had renounced idolatry and worshipped God in the synagogues. ‡ Some texts have, he nurtured them. Men of Israel, and ye that fear God†, give audience. <sup>17</sup> The God of this people of Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they dwelt as strangers in the land of Egypt, and with a high arm brought he them out of it. <sup>18</sup> And for about forty years suffered he their manners‡ in the wilderness. <sup>19</sup> And when he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, he gave them their land as an inheritance. <sup>20</sup> And after that he

<sup>32</sup> And we declare unto you the glad tidings, that <sup>u</sup> the promise which was made unto the fathers, <sup>33</sup> God hath fulfilled the same unto us their children, in that he hath raised up Jesus again; as it is also written in the second Psalm, <sup>x</sup> 'Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee' [Psa. ii. 7]. <sup>34</sup> And as concerning that he raised him up from the dead, <sup>y</sup> no more to return to corruption, he hath spoken thus: 'I will give you the sure mercies of David' [Isa. lv. 3]. <sup>35</sup> Wherefore he saith also in another Psalm, 'Thou shalt not suffer thy Holy One to see corruption' [Psa. xvi. 10]. <sup>36</sup> For David, after he had served his own generation by the will of God, <sup>a</sup> fell asleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption; <sup>37</sup> but he whom God raised again saw not corruption.

<sup>40</sup> Beware therefore, lest that come upon you which is spoken of in the Prophets; <sup>41</sup> 'Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and perish! For I work a work in your days, a work which ye will in no wise believe, though one declare it unto you' [Hab. i. 5].

<sup>42</sup> And as they were going out of the synagogue, they besought* that these words might be preached to them on the next sabbath. <sup>43</sup> And when the congregation was broken up, many of the Jews and devout proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas; who, speaking to them, <sup>c</sup> persuaded them to continue in the grace of God.

<sup>48</sup> And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of the Lord: and as many as were ordained <sup>j</sup> to everlasting life believed.

Paul and Barnabas at (1) Iconium, (6) and in Lycaonia, (24) Pisidia, and Pamphylia—(26) Their return to Antioch.

14. AND it came to pass in Iconium that they went both together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake that a great multitude both of Jews and also of Greeks believed. <sup>2</sup> But the unbelieving Jews stirred up and embittered the minds of the Gentiles against the brethren. <sup>3</sup> A long time therefore abode they speaking boldly in the Lord, <sup>a</sup> who gave testimony unto the word of his grace, by granting signs and wonders to be done by their hands.

<sup>4</sup> But the multitude of the city was divided; and part held with the Jews, and part with the apostles. <sup>5</sup> And when there was an onset made both of the Gentiles and also of the Jews, with their rulers, <sup>b</sup> to use them despitefully and to stone them, <sup>c</sup> they were aware of it, and <sup>e</sup> escaped to Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and to the region that lieth round about: <sup>7</sup> and there they preached the gospel.

<sup>19</sup> But <sup>q</sup> there came thither Jews from Antioch and Iconium, who persuaded the multitudes, and, <sup>r</sup> having stoned Paul, they drew him out of the city, supposing him to be dead; <sup>20</sup> but, as the disciples stood round about him, he rose up and came into the city.

And the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe. <sup>21</sup> And when they had preached the gospel to that city, and had made many disciples, they returned to Lystra, and to Iconium, and to Antioch *; <sup>22</sup> confirming <sup>h</sup> the souls of the disciples, and <sup>i</sup> exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that <sup>j</sup> we must through many tribulations enter into the kingdom of God. <sup>23</sup> And when they had <sup>k</sup> appointed for them <sup>l</sup> elders in every church, they <sup>m</sup> prayed with fasting, and commended them to the Lord, on whom they had believed.

<sup>24</sup> And after they had passed throughout Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia. <sup>25</sup> And when they had preached the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia; <sup>26</sup> and from thence they sailed to Antioch, <sup>a</sup> from whence they had been recommended to the grace of God for the work which they had fulfilled.

<sup>27</sup> And when they were come, and had gathered the church together, they reported all that God had done with them, and how he had <sup>b</sup> opened the door of faith unto the Gentiles. <sup>28</sup> And there they abode no little time with the disciples.

Controversy in the church at Antioch respecting the subjection of Gentile converts to circumcision and the Mosaic institutions; (2) mission of Paul and Barnabas to Jerusalem; (22) decision of the church at Jerusalem.

<sup>4</sup> And when they were come to Jerusalem, they were received by the church and by the apostles and the elders, and they reported all things that God had done with them. <sup>5</sup> But there rose up certain of the sect of the Pharisees who believed, saying: It is needful to circumcise them and to command <sup>g</sup> them to keep the law of Moses.

<sup>6</sup> And the apostles and the elders came together to consider this matter. <sup>7</sup> And when there had been much disputation, Peter rose up and said unto them:

Men and brethren <sup>h</sup>, ye know that a good while ago <sup>i</sup> God made choice among you *, that the Gentiles by my mouth should hear the word of the gospel and believe.

<sup>12</sup> Then all the multitude kept silence and gave audience to Barnabas and Paul, as they declared what signs and wonders God had wrought among the Gentiles by them.

Men and brethren, hearken unto me; <sup>14</sup> Simeon <sup>p</sup> hath declared how God first visited the Gentiles to take out of them a people for his name. <sup>15</sup> And to this agree the words of the prophets, as it is written: <sup>16</sup> 'After this I will return and will build again the tabernacle of David, which is fallen down, and I will build again the ruins thereof, and I will set it up; <sup>17</sup> that the residue of men may seek after the Lord, and all the Gentiles, upon whom my name is called, saith the Lord, who doeth all these things' [Amos ix. 11, 12]: <sup>18</sup> known unto God are all his works; from the beginning of the world. <sup>19</sup> Wherefore my judgment is, that we trouble not those who from among the Gentiles are turning unto God; <sup>20</sup> but that we write unto them, to abstain <sup>q</sup> from pollutions of idols, and <sup>r</sup> from fornication, and from things strangled, and <sup>s</sup> from blood. <sup>21</sup> For Moses from old times hath in every city those who preach him, <sup>t</sup> being read in the synagogues every sabbath day.

<sup>22</sup> Then it seemed good to the apostles and elders, with the whole church, to choose out men of their own company, and send them to Antioch, with Paul and Barnabas; <sup>u</sup> namely, Judas surnamed Barsabas, and Silas, chief men among the brethren. <sup>23</sup> And they wrote a letter by them after this manner:

The apostles and elders and brethren <sup>v</sup> unto the brethren who are of the Gentiles in Antioch and Syria and Cilicia, greeting. <sup>24</sup> Forasmuch as we have heard that "certain who went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying: Ye must be circumcised and keep the law; to whom we gave no such commandment; <sup>25</sup> it seemed good unto us, being assembled with one accord *, to choose out and send men unto you, with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, <sup>26</sup> men <sup>2</sup> that have hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>27</sup> We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who will also themselves tell you the same things by word of mouth. <sup>28</sup> For it seemed good to the Holy Spirit and to us, to lay upon you no further burden than these necessary things; <sup>29</sup> that <sup>3</sup> ye abstain from meats offered to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication; from which things if ye keep yourselves, ye will do well. Fare ye well.

<sup>30</sup> So when they were dismissed, they went down to Antioch. And when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the letter; <sup>31</sup> and when they had read it, they rejoiced for the consolation. <sup>32</sup> And Judas and Silas, being prophets; also themselves, exhorted the brethren with many words, and confirmed them. <sup>33</sup> And after they had tarried there a space, they were let go in peace from the brethren unto those who had sent them forth. <sup>35</sup> But Paul and Barnabas continued in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

Paul's second missionary journey (40) accompanied by Silas. He visits the churches in (41) Syria, Cilicia, and Lycaonia; (ch. 16. 1) chooses Timothy to attend him; and (6) after passing through Phrygia and Galatia, is led by Divine intimations, (8) to Troas, and (9) across the Ægean Sea to Macedonia.

<sup>16</sup>. Then came he to Derbe and Lystra. And behold, a certain disciple was there, <sup>g</sup> named Timothy—<sup>A</sup> the son of a certain Jewish woman who believed, but his father was a Greek—<sup>2</sup> who was well reported of by the brethren at Lystra and Iconium. <sup>3</sup> Him Paul desired to go forth with him; and he <sup>1</sup> took and circumcised him, because of the Jews who were in those quarters; for they all knew that his father was a Greek.

<sup>4</sup> And as they went through the cities, they delivered to them the decrees to keep, <sup>k</sup> that were ordained by the apostles and elders who were at Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup> And so the churches were established in the faith, and increased in number daily.

<sup>9</sup> And a vision appeared to Paul in the night; there stood a man of Macedonia, beseeching him and saying: Come over into Macedonia and help us. <sup>10</sup> And after he had seen the vision, immediately we sought to go forth <sup>m</sup> to Macedonia, assuredly gathering that the Lord had called us to preach the gospel unto them. <sup>11</sup> Therefore putting to sea from Troas, we went with a straight course to Samothracia, and the next day to Neapolis; <sup>12</sup> and from thence to Philippi, which is the first city: of the district of Macedonia, and a colony. And we were in this city abiding certain days.

Paul and Silas at Philippi; (13) they gather a Christian congregation; but (16) the casting out of an evil spirit from a woman who brought her owners much gain brings upon them (23) scourging, imprisonment, and banishment from the city.

<sup>13</sup> AND on the sabbath we went out of the city by a river side, where prayer was wont to be made; and we sat down and spake unto the women who were assembled there. <sup>14</sup> And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of <sup>a</sup> Thyatira, who worshipped God, heard us; whose <sup>b</sup> heart the Lord opened to attend unto the things which were spoken by Paul. <sup>15</sup> And when she was baptized, and her household, she besought us, saying: If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house and abide there; and <sup>c</sup> she constrained us.

And the magistrates rent off their clothes, and <sup>i</sup> commanded to beat them: <sup>23</sup> and when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging the jailor to keep them safely: <sup>24</sup> who, having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in the stocks.

Nay verily, but let them come themselves and fetch us out. <sup>38</sup> And the serjeants told these words unto the magistrates. Paul and Silas at (1) Thessalonica and (10) Berea; their successful ministry at both places, among both Jews and Gentiles, until driven away by Jewish persecution.

<sup>5</sup> But the Jews who believed not, moved with envy, took unto them certain bad men of the idlers in the market-place, and gathered a crowd and set the city in an uproar; and assaulting the house of <sup>f</sup> Jason, they sought to bring them out to the people. <sup>6</sup> And when they found them not, they dragged Jason and certain brethren unto the rulers of the city <sup>g</sup>, crying: These men <sup>h</sup> who have turned the world upside down are come hither also; <sup>7</sup> whom Jason hath received: and all these are doing contrary to the decrees of Caesar, <sup>8</sup> saying that there is another king, one Jesus. <sup>9</sup> And they troubled the people and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things: <sup>9</sup> and when they had taken security of Jason, and of the others, they let them go.

<sup>10</sup> And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea; who on coming thither went into the synagogue of the Jews. <sup>11</sup> These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and <sup>h</sup> searched the Scriptures daily, whether those things were so. <sup>12</sup> Therefore many of them believed; also of honourable Grecian women, and of men, not a few.

<sup>13</sup> But when the Jews of Thessalonica knew that the word of God was preached by Paul at Berea, they came, and there also troubled and stirred up the people.

<sup>14</sup> And then immediately the brethren sent away Paul to go towards the sea; but Silas and Timothy abode there still.

Paul at Athens; his disputations with (17) the Jews and (18) the Greek philosophers.

<sup>16</sup> NOW while Paul was waiting for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred within him, when he saw the city full of idols. <sup>17</sup> He disputed therefore in the synagogue with the Jews and <sup>18</sup> those who worshipped God, and in the market* daily with those who met with him.

<sup>18</sup> And certain also of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers encountered him. And some said: What would this babbler say? And others: He seemeth to be a setter forth of foreign gods; because he preached unto them Jesus and the resurrection. <sup>19</sup> And they took him and brought him unto the Areopagus†, saying: May we know what this new doctrine whereof thou speakest is? <sup>20</sup> For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears: we would know therefore what these things mean. <sup>21</sup> Now all the Athenians and the strangers who sojourned there spent their time in nothing else but either to tell or to hear some new thing.

Ye men of Athens, I perceive that in all things ye are very religious. <sup>23</sup> For as I passed by, and beheld your objects of worship‡, I found an altar with this inscription, TO AN UNKNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye <sup>24</sup> worship without knowing him, him declare I unto you. <sup>25</sup> God <sup>26</sup> who made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is <sup>27</sup> Lord of heaven and earth, <sup>28</sup> dwelleth not in temples made with hands; <sup>29</sup> neither is he served by men's hands, as though he needed any thing, seeing that <sup>30</sup> he giveth to all life and breath and all things; <sup>31</sup> and he <sup>32</sup> made of one blood all nations of men to dwell on all the face of the earth, and <sup>33</sup> determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation; <sup>34</sup> that they should seek God||, if haply they might feel after him and find him, <sup>35</sup> though he is not far from every one of us. <sup>36</sup> For

<sup>37</sup> in him we live and move and have our being; <sup>38</sup> as certain also of your own poets have said, 'For we are also his offspring.'

<sup>39</sup> Forasmuch then as we are the offspring of God, <sup>40</sup> we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold or silver or stone graven by art and man's device. <sup>41</sup> And <sup>42</sup> the times of this ignorance God overlooked, but <sup>43</sup> now he commandeth all men every where to repent; <sup>44</sup> because he hath appointed a day in which <sup>45</sup> he will judge the world in righteousness by the Man whom he hath ordained; <sup>46</sup> whereof he hath given assurance unto all men <sup>47</sup> by raising him from the dead.

<sup>48</sup> And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead some mocked, and others said: We will hear thee again concerning this matter. <sup>49</sup> So Paul departed from among them. <sup>50</sup> Howbeit certain men joined themselves unto him and believed; among whom was Dionysius the Areopagite*, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

Paul at Corinth; (2) his long and fruitful ministry there, amidst fierce Jewish opposition; his return by (19) Ephesus, (22) Cesarea, and (23) Jerusalem, to Antioch.

them and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.

<sup>17</sup> And this became known to all, both Jews and Greeks, who dwelt at Ephesus; and <sup>18</sup> fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified. <sup>19</sup> And many of those who believed came and confessed and made known their deeds. <sup>20</sup> Many of also of those that practised magic brought their books together, and burned them before all men: and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver*. <sup>21</sup> So <sup>22</sup> mightily grew the word of God and prevailed.

<sup>22</sup> And after these things were ended, Paul <sup>23</sup> purposed in the spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying: After I have been there <sup>24</sup> I must also see Rome. <sup>25</sup> So he sent into Macedonia two of those who ministered unto him, Timothy and <sup>26</sup> Erastus; but he himself stayed in Asia for a season.

greater part knew not wherefore they were come together. <sup>39</sup> And they drew Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward: and <sup>40</sup> Alexander beckoned with the hand, and wished to make his defence unto the people. <sup>41</sup> But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice, for about the space of two hours, cried out: Great <sup>42</sup> is Diana of the Ephesians!

<sup>43</sup> And when the townclerk had quieted the people, he said: Ye men of Ephesus, what man is there that knoweth not that the city of the Ephesians is the Temple-keeper<sup>e</sup> of the great goddess Diana, and of the <sup>44</sup> image which fell down from Jupiter? <sup>45</sup> Seeing then that these things cannot be denied, ye ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rashly. <sup>46</sup> For ye have brought hither these men who are neither robbers of temples nor yet blasphemers of your goddess. <sup>47</sup> Wherefore if Demetrius and the craftsmen who are with him have a matter against any man, the courts are open<sup>f</sup>, and there are proconsuls: let them implead one another. <sup>48</sup> But if ye inquire anything concerning other matters, it shall be determined in the lawful assembly. <sup>49</sup> For we are in danger of being called in question for this day's uproar, there being no cause whereby we may give an account of this concourse. <sup>50</sup> And when he had thus spoken he dismissed the assembly.

Paul, leaving Ephesus, (2) re-visits Greece; and returns through Macedonia to (6) Troas and (15) Miletus, on his way to Syria.

And <sup>26</sup> when the Jews laid wait for him, as he was about to sail to Syria, he purposed to return through Macedonia. <sup>27</sup> And there accompanied him as far as Asia <sup>28</sup> Sopater the son of Pyrrhus, a Berean; and of the Thessalonians, <sup>29</sup> Aristarchus and Secundus; and Gaius of Derbe, and <sup>30</sup> Timothy; and of Asia, <sup>31</sup> Tychicus and <sup>32</sup> Trophimus; <sup>33</sup> these going before waited for us at Troas. <sup>34</sup> And we sailed away from Philippi after <sup>35</sup> the days of unleavened bread; and we came unto them, <sup>36</sup> to Troas, in five days; where we tarried seven days.

to depart on the morrow, and continued his speech until midnight. <sup>8</sup> And there were many lights in the upper chamber where they were gathered together. <sup>9</sup> And there sat at the window a certain young man named Eutychus, who fell into a deep sleep; and as Paul was long preaching, he sank down in his sleep, and fell down from the third story, and was taken up dead. <sup>10</sup> And Paul went down and <sup>a</sup> fell on him, and embracing him said: <sup>o</sup> Trouble not yourselves, for his life is in him. <sup>11</sup> Then when he had come up again, and had broken bread and eaten, he talked a long while, even till break of day, and so departed. <sup>12</sup> And they brought the young man alive, and were not a little comforted.

<sup>13</sup> And we went forward to the ship, and put to sea for Assos, there intending to take in him; for so had he appointed, intending himself to go by land. <sup>14</sup> And when he met with us at Assos, we took him in, and came to Mitylene. <sup>15</sup> And sailing from thence, we came on the morrow over against Chios; and the next day we put in to Samos; and having tarried at Trogyllium, on the following day we came to Miletus. <sup>16</sup> For Paul had determined to sail past Ephesus, because he would not spend the time in Asia; for <sup>p</sup> he was hastening, if it were possible for him, to be at Jerusalem <sup>q</sup> on the day of Pentecost.

<sup>17</sup> AND from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called <sup>a</sup> the elders of the church; <sup>18</sup> and when they came to him, he said unto them: Ye know, <sup>b</sup> from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I was with you at all seasons, <sup>19</sup> serving the Lord <sup>c</sup> with all humility, and with tears, and <sup>d</sup> temptations which befell me by the lying in wait of the Jews; <sup>20</sup> and how I kept back nothing that was profitable for you, but declared to you, and taught you publicly, and in the several houses*, <sup>21</sup> testifying both to Jews and Greeks, <sup>e</sup> repentance towards God and faith towards our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>25</sup> And now, behold, I know that ye all, among whom I went about preaching the kingdom of God, will see my face no more. <sup>26</sup> Wherefore I take you to witness this day, that I am <sup>l</sup> pure from the blood of all men, <sup>27</sup> for I shunned not to declare unto you all the counsel of God. <sup>28</sup> Take <sup>m</sup> heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, in which the Holy Spirit hath made you bishops, to feed <sup>n</sup> the church of God, <sup>29</sup> which he purchased with his own blood. <sup>30</sup> For I know this, that after my departing <sup>o</sup> grievous wolves will enter in among you, not sparing the flock. <sup>31</sup> Also <sup>p</sup> from among yourselves will men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away the disciples after them. <sup>32</sup> Therefore watch, and remember that <sup>q</sup> for three years I ceased not <sup>r</sup> to warn every one night and day with tears.

<sup>37</sup> And when he had thus spoken, he kneeled down, and prayed with them all. <sup>38</sup> And they all wept sore, and fell on Paul's neck and kissed him, <sup>39</sup> sorrowing most of all for the words which he spake, that they would see his face no more. And they accompanied him unto the ship.

Paul's onward voyage to Syria; visits to (3) Tyre, (7) Ptolemais, and (8) Cæsarea; and (15) journey thence to Jerusalem.

<sup>21</sup>. AND it came to pass that after we had torn ourselves away from them, and had put to sea, we went with a straight course unto Cos, and on the day following unto Rhodes, and from thence unto Patara. <sup>2</sup> And finding a ship sailing over unto Phenicia, we went aboard, and put to sea. <sup>3</sup> And having discovered Cyprus, and passed it on our left hand, we sailed to Syria; and we landed at Tyre, for there the ship was to unlade her cargo. <sup>4</sup> And having found out the disciples, we tarried there seven days; <sup>a</sup> and they said to Paul through the Spirit that he should not go up to Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup> And when we had completed those days, we departed and went our way; and h 1 Sam. 3. 18; Lk. 22. 42. What do ye, weeping and breaking my heart? For <sup>g</sup> I am ready not to be bound only but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus. <sup>14</sup> And when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying:

+ i. e. one of old standing. <sup>15</sup> And after those days we <sup>i</sup> made ready our baggage, and went up to Jerusalem.

Paul's reception by the church at Jerusalem; (26) his attempt to conciliate the Hebrew Christians; (27) his seizure by the populace, and (32) rescue by the Roman commander.

<sup>16</sup> And there went with us certain of the disciples of Cæsarea, and brought us to one Mnason of Cyprus, an old disciple <sup>t</sup>, with whom we were to lodge.

<sup>17</sup> AND when we came to Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly. <sup>18</sup> And on the day following Paul went in with us unto James; and <sup>a</sup> all the elders were present: <sup>19</sup> and when he had saluted them, <sup>b</sup> he declared particularly what things God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministry. <sup>20</sup> And when they heard it, they glorified the Lord: and they said unto him: Thou seest, brother, how many thousands <sup>t</sup> of Jews there are that have believed, and they are all <sup>c</sup> zealous for the law; <sup>21</sup> and they have been informed concerning thee, that <sup>d</sup> thou teachest all the Jews who are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, <sup>e</sup> telling them not to circumcise their children, nor to walk after the customs. <sup>22</sup> What is it therefore? A multitude must needs come together; for they will hear that thou art come. <sup>23</sup> Do therefore this that we say to thee: We have four men who <sup>f</sup> have a vow on them; <sup>24</sup> them take, and purify thyself with them, and pay their charges for them, that they may shave their heads. And all will know that those things whereof they have been informed concerning thee, are nothing, but that thou thyself also walkest in observance of the law. <sup>25</sup> As touching the Gentiles who have believed, <sup>g</sup> we have written to them and determined that they observe no such thing, save only that they keep themselves from things offered to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication.

<sup>26</sup> Then Paul took the men, and the next day, purifying himself with them, he entered into the temple, and gave notice of their fulfilment of the days of purification, until the offering <sup>h</sup> should be offered for each one of them. <sup>27</sup> And when the seven days were almost ended, <sup>i</sup> the Jews from Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people; and they <sup>k</sup> laid hands on him, <sup>28</sup> crying out: Men of Israel, help! This is the man <sup>l</sup> that teacheth all men every where against the people and the law and this place, and further also he brought Greeks into the temple*, and hath polluted this holy place. <sup>29</sup> For they had seen before with him in the city Trophimus the Ephesian, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.

<sup>30</sup> And all the city was moved, and the people ran together: and <sup>m</sup> they laid hold on Paul, and dragged him out of the temple; and forthwith the doors were shut. <sup>31</sup> And <sup>n</sup> as they were seeking to kill him, tidings came unto the chief captain of the band <sup>t</sup>, that all Jerusalem was in an uproar; <sup>32</sup> who <sup>o</sup> immediately took soldiers and centurions, and ran down unto them. And when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, they left off beating Paul. <sup>33</sup> Then the chief captain came near, and laid hold on him, and commanded him to be bound with two chains; and inquired who he was, and what he had done. <sup>34</sup> And some cried one thing, some another, among the multitude. And when he could not know the certainty for the tumult, he commanded him to be taken into the castle <sup>t</sup>. <sup>35</sup> And when he came upon the stairs, so it was that he was carried by the soldiers, for the violence of the people; <sup>36</sup> for the multitude of the people followed after, crying out, <sup>p</sup> Away with him!

Paul addresses the people, until (ch. 22. 21) the recital of his mission to the Gentiles causes a fresh out-burst of rage; (24) the Roman officer, not understanding his language, and wishing to ascertain his offence, proposes to extort confession by torture, but (25) Paul obtains exemption as a Roman citizen.

<sup>37</sup> AND as Paul was about to be taken into the castle, he saith unto the chief captain: May I speak unto thee? Who said: Canst thou speak Greek? <sup>38</sup> Art <sup>a</sup> thou not then that Egyptian who before these days made an uproar, and led out into the wilderness those four thousand men that were murderers*? <sup>39</sup> But Paul said: <sup>b</sup> I am a Jew of Tarsus, in Cilicia, <sup>c</sup> a citizen of no mean city: and, I beseech thee, suffer me to speak unto the people. <sup>40</sup> And when he had given him leave, Paul stood on the stairs, and <sup>d</sup> beckoned with the hand unto the people. And when there was made a great silence, he spake unto them in the Hebrew tongue, saying:

<sup>22</sup> Men, brethren, and fathers <sup>t</sup>, hear ye my defence which I now make unto you—<sup>2</sup> And when they heard that he spake in the Hebrew tongue to them, they kept the more silence: and he saith—<sup>3</sup> I <sup>e</sup> am a Jew, born at Tarsus, in Cilicia, yet brought up in this city, <sup>f</sup> at the feet of <sup>g</sup> Gamaliel, and taught according to the strictness of the law of the fathers, and <sup>h</sup> was zealous for God, as ye all are this day. <sup>4</sup> And <sup>i</sup> I persecuted this Way unto death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women; <sup>5</sup> as also the high priest doth bear me witness, and all the council of the elders; <sup>k</sup> from whom also I received letters unto the brethren, and went to Damascus, to bring them also that were there bound, unto Jerusalem, to be punished.

<sup>6</sup> And <sup>l</sup> it came to pass, that, as I made my journey, and was coming nigh unto Damascus, about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me. <sup>7</sup> And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice saying unto me: Saul, Saul! Why persecutest thou me? <sup>8</sup> And I answered: Who art thou, Lord? And he said unto me: I am Jesus of Nazareth <sup>t</sup>, whom thou persecutest. <sup>9</sup> And <sup>m</sup> they that were with me saw indeed the light, and were afraid, but they heard not the voice of him that spake to me. <sup>10</sup> And I said: What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me: Arise and go into Damascus, and there it shall be told thee of all things which are appointed for thee to do. <sup>11</sup> And when I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand by them that were with me, I came into Damascus. <sup>12</sup> And one Ananias, a devout man according to the law, <sup>n</sup> having a good report of all the Jews who dwell there, <sup>13</sup> came unto me, and stood and said unto me: Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And the same hour I looked up upon him. <sup>14</sup> And he said: <sup>o</sup> The God of our fathers hath chosen thee, that thou shouldest know his will, and <sup>p</sup> see the <sup>q</sup> Righteous One, and <sup>r</sup> shouldest hear a voice from his mouth: <sup>15</sup> for <sup>s</sup> thou shalt be a witness for him unto all men of what thou hast seen and heard. <sup>16</sup> And now why tarriest thou? Arise, and be baptized and wash away thy sins, <sup>t</sup> calling on his name*.

<sup>17</sup> And it came to pass, that <sup>z</sup> when I was come again to Jerusalem, even while I was praying in the temple, I was in a trance; <sup>18</sup> and I saw him saying unto me: Make haste and get thee quickly out of Jerusalem; for they will not receive thy testimony concerning me. <sup>19</sup> And I said: Lord, <sup>y</sup> they know that I imprisoned and <sup>2</sup> beat in every synagogue those that believe on thee; <sup>20</sup> and <sup>a</sup> when the blood of thy martyr <sup>t</sup> Stephen was shed, I also was standing by and <sup>b</sup> consenting unto his death, and kept the raiment of them that slew him. <sup>21</sup> And he said unto me: Depart, for <sup>c</sup> I will send thee far hence unto the Gentiles.

<sup>22</sup> And they gave him audience unto this word, and then lifted up their voices and said, <sup>d</sup> Away with such a fellow from the earth! For it is not fit that he should live. <sup>23</sup> And as they cried out, and shook their clothes, and threw dust into the air, <sup>24</sup> the chief captain commanded him to be brought into the castle; and bade that he should be examined by scourging, that he might know for what cause they cried so against him.

<sup>25</sup> And as they bound him with the thongs, Paul said unto the centurion that stood by: <sup>e</sup> Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a Roman, and uncondemned? <sup>26</sup> When the centurion heard that, he went and told the chief captain, saying: Take heed what thou doest, for this man is a Roman. <sup>27</sup> Then the chief captain came, and said unto him: Tell me, art thou a Roman? He said, Yea. <sup>28</sup> And the chief captain answered: With a great sum obtained I this citizenship: and Paul said: But I was free born. <sup>29</sup> Then straightway they that were about to examine him departed from him; and the chief captain also was afraid, <sup>f</sup> when he knew that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him.

Paul is brought before the Jewish Sanhedrim, (ch. 23. 7) amongst whom a fierce contention arises, and (10) he is again rescued by the Roman officer.

<sup>30</sup> ON the morrow, desiring to know with certainty wherefore he was accused by the Jews, he loosed him, and commanded the chief priests and all their council to assemble*; and he brought Paul down, and set him before them.

<sup>23.</sup> And Paul, earnestly beholding the council, said: Men and brethren,<sup>a</sup> I have lived in all good conscience before God unto this day. <sup>24</sup> And the high priest Ananias commanded those that stood by him<sup>b</sup> to smite him on the mouth. <sup>25</sup> Then said Paul unto him: God will smite thee, thou whited wall! For sittest thou to judge me after the law, and<sup>c</sup> commandest me to be smitten contrary to the law? <sup>26</sup> And they that stood by said: Revilest thou God's high priest? <sup>27</sup> Then said Paul: I knew not, brethren, that he was the high priest; for it is written, 'Thou shalt not speak evil of the ruler of thy people' [Exod. xxii. 28].

<sup>28</sup> And when Paul perceived that the one part were Sadducees and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council: Men and brethren,<sup>d</sup> I am a Pharisee, the son of Pharisees; <sup>29</sup> concerning the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question. <sup>30</sup> And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and the Sadducees, and the multitude was divided; <sup>31</sup> for<sup>e</sup> of the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, nor angel nor spirit, but the Pharisees acknowledge both. <sup>32</sup> And there arose a great cry; and the scribes that were of the Pharisees' part arose and strove, saying: We find no evil in this man; what if a spirit or an angel hath spoken to him?

<sup>10</sup> And when there arose a great dissension, the chief captain, fearing lest Paul would be torn in pieces by them, commanded the soldiers to go down and to take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the castle.

<sup>12</sup> AND when it was day, <sup>13</sup> certain of the Jews banded together, and bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed

Paul. <sup>13</sup> And they were more than forty who made this conspiracy. <sup>14</sup> And they came to the chief priests and elders, and said: We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have slain Paul; <sup>15</sup> now therefore do ye with the council signify to the chief captain that he bring him down unto you to-morrow, as though ye would inquire something more perfectly concerning him; and we, before he come near, are ready to kill him.

<sup>16</sup> And when Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, he went and entered into the castle, and told Paul. <sup>17</sup> Then Paul called one of the centurions unto him, and said: Bring this young man unto the chief captain; for he hath something to tell him. <sup>18</sup> So he took him and brought him to the chief captain, and said: Paul the prisoner called me unto him, and asked me to bring this young man unto thee, as he hath something to say unto thee. <sup>19</sup> Then the chief captain took him by the hand, and went aside privately, and asked him: What is it that thou hast to tell me? <sup>20</sup> And he said: The Jews have agreed to ask thee that thou wouldest bring down Paul to-morrow into the council, as though they would* inquire something concerning him more perfectly. <sup>21</sup> But do not thou yield unto them; for there lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, who have bound themselves with an oath that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him; and now are they ready, looking for the promise from thee. <sup>22</sup> So the chief captain let the young man depart, and charged him: See thou tell no man that thou hast showed these things to me.

<sup>23</sup> And he called unto him two centurions, saying: Make ready two hundred soldiers to go to Caesarea, and horsemen threescore and ten, and spearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the night; <sup>24</sup> and provide beasts, that they may set Paul thereon, and bring him safe unto Felix the governor.

<sup>25</sup> And he wrote a letter after this manner: <sup>26</sup> Claudius Lysias unto the most excellent governor Felix sendeth greeting. <sup>27</sup> This<sup>b</sup> man was taken by the Jews, and would have been killed by them; but I came upon them with the soldiery, and rescued him, having learnt that he was a Roman. <sup>28</sup> And<sup>c</sup> desiring to know the cause wherefore they accused him, I took him down into their council; <sup>29</sup> but I found him to be accused of<sup>d</sup> questions of their law, but<sup>e</sup> to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death or of bonds. <sup>30</sup> And when it was told me that the Jews laid wait for the man, I sent him straightway to thee, and gave commandment to his accusers also to say before thee what they had against him. Farewell.

<sup>31</sup> So then the soldiers, as it was commanded them, took Paul and brought him by night to Antipatris. <sup>32</sup> And on the morrow they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the castle: <sup>33</sup> and, when they came to Cæsarea, and delivered the letter to the governor, they presented Paul also before him. <sup>34</sup> And when the governor had read the letter, he asked of what province he was; and when he understood that he was of f Cilicia, <sup>35</sup> I o will hear thee, said he, when thine accusers also are come: and he commanded him to be kept in Herod's Prætorium*.

<sup>24</sup> AND after five days a Ananias the high priest came down* with certain elders and an orator named Tertullus; and they informed the governor against Paul. <sup>2</sup> And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying: Seeing that by thee we enjoy much peace, and that many things have been set right in this nation by thy providence, <sup>3</sup> we acknowledge it always and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thankfulness. <sup>4</sup> But that I be not further tedious unto thee, I pray thee to hear us in thy clemency a few words. <sup>5</sup> For b we found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes; <sup>6</sup> who even attempted to profane the temple: whom also we took, [and t we desired to judge him according to our law. <sup>7</sup> But the chief captain Lysias came upon us, and with great violence took him away out of our hands, <sup>8</sup> commanding c his accusers to come unto thee]; and by examining him thou canst thyself take knowledge of all these things whereof we accuse him.

<sup>9</sup> And the Jews also joined in the charge against him, saying that these things were so.

<sup>10</sup> Then Paul, after the governor had beckoned to him to speak, answered: Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been for many years a judge unto this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself; <sup>11</sup> because thou mayest know that there are not more than twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem d to worship. <sup>12</sup> And e they neither found me in the temple disputing with any one or stirring up the people, nor in the synagogues, nor in the city; <sup>13</sup> neither can they prove the things whereof they now accuse me. <sup>14</sup> But this I confess unto thee, that according to f the way which they call a sect*, so worship I the God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in g the Law and in the Prophets; <sup>15</sup> having h hope towards God, for which they themselves also look, t that there will be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and the unjust. <sup>16</sup> And k here-in do I exercise myself to have always a conscience void of offence towards God and towards men. <sup>17</sup> Now after many years l I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings: <sup>18</sup> whereupon m certain Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, neither with a multitude nor with tumult: <sup>19</sup> who n ought to have been here before thee, and to have accused me, if they had aught against me. <sup>20</sup> Or else let these same here say, if they found any evil doing in me, while I stood before the council, <sup>21</sup> except it were for this one voice that I cried standing among them: o Touching the resurrection of the dead I am called in question by you this day.

<sup>22</sup> And when Felix heard these things, having a more perfect knowledge of the Way, he deferred them, and said: When Lysias the chief captain cometh down, I will inquire fully into your cause. <sup>23</sup> And he commanded the centurion to keep Paul, and to let him have liberty, and to p forbid none of his friends to minister unto him.

<sup>24</sup> And after some days, Felix came with his wife Drusilla, who was a Jewess; and he sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ. <sup>25</sup> And as he reasoned of righteousness, temperance t, and the judgment to come, Felix trembled, and answered: Go thy way for this time; when I have a convenient season, I will call for thee. <sup>26</sup> At the same time also he hoped that money would be given him by Paul, that he might release him; wherefore he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him. <sup>27</sup> But after two years Porcius Festus came into Felix' room; and Felix, q wishing to gain favour with the Jews, left Paul bound.

<sup>25</sup> NOW when Festus was come into the province, after three days he went up from Cæsarea to Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup> And a the high priest: and the chief men of the Jews informed him against Paul, and besought him, <sup>3</sup> asking favour against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem; <sup>b</sup> laying wait in the way to kill him. <sup>4</sup> But Festus answered that Paul was in custody at Cæsarea, and that he himself would depart shortly thither. <sup>5</sup> Let those therefore, said he, that are in power among you, go down with me, and accuse this man, if there is any wickedness in him.

<sup>6</sup> And when he had tarried among them not more than eight or ten days *, he went down to Cæsarea; and the next day sitting on the judgment seat he commanded Paul to be brought forth. <sup>7</sup> And when he was come, the Jews who came down from Jerusalem stood round about, and <sup>c</sup> brought against him many grievous charges, which they could not prove: <sup>8</sup> while Paul answered for himself: Neither against the law of the Jews, nor against the temple, nor yet against Cæsar, have I offended in anything at all.

<sup>9</sup> But Festus, wishing to gain favour with the Jews, answered Paul and said: Art thou willing to go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged concerning these things before me?

<sup>10</sup> Then said Paul: I stand at Cæsar's judgment seat, where I ought to be judged. To the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou very well knowest. <sup>11</sup> For if I be an offender and have committed anything worthy of death, I ask not that I may not die; but if there be nothing in the things whereof these accuse me no man may give me up unto them. <sup>d</sup> I appeal unto Cæsar. <sup>12</sup> Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered: Thou hast appealed unto Cæsar; unto Cæsar shalt thou go.

<sup>16</sup> To <sup>b</sup> whom I answered: It is not the manner of the Romans to give up any man to die, before the accused hath the accusers face to face, and hath opportunity to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him. <sup>17</sup> When therefore they were come together here, without any delay, on the morrow, I sat on the judgment seat, and commanded the man to be brought forth: <sup>18</sup> against whom, when the accusers stood up, they brought no accusation of such things as I had supposed; <sup>19</sup> but they <sup>c</sup> had certain questions against him about their own religion, and about one Jesus who was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive. <sup>20</sup> And being perplexed about such questions, I asked him whether he was willing to go to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these matters. <sup>21</sup> But Paul having appealed to be reserved unto the decision of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept till I might send him to Cæsar. <sup>22</sup> Then <sup>d</sup> Agrippa said unto Festus, I would also hear the man myself. To-morrow, said he, thou shalt hear him.

<sup>23</sup> Accordingly on the morrow, when Agrippa was come, and Bernice, with great pomp, and they had entered into the place of hearing, with the chief captains and the principal men of the city, at Festus' commandment Paul was brought forth. <sup>24</sup> And Festus saith: King Agrippa, and all men who are here present with us, ye see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Jews have dealt with me, both at Jerusalem and also here, crying out that <sup>e</sup> he ought not to live any longer. <sup>25</sup> But I found that <sup>f</sup> he had committed nothing worthy of death; and when he himself appealed to Augustus, I determined to send him. <sup>26</sup> Of whom I have nothing certain to write unto my lord. Wherefore I have brought him forth before you, and specially before thee, O king Agrippa, that, after examination had, I may have something to write. <sup>27</sup> For it seemeth to me unreasonable to send a prisoner and not withal to signify the crimes laid against him.

and night, hope to come : for which hope's sake, O king Agrippa, I am now accused by the Jews. <sup>8</sup> Why <sup>i</sup> is it judged a thing incredible with you if God raiseth the dead ?

<sup>24</sup> And as he thus spake for himself, Festus said with a loud voice : Paul, <sup>g</sup> thou art beside thyself ; thy much learning doth make thee mad. <sup>25</sup> But he said : I am not mad, <sup>h</sup> most noble Festus, but speak forth words of truth and soberness. <sup>26</sup> For the king knoweth of these things, before whom also I speak freely ; for I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him ; for <sup>i</sup> this thing was not done in a corner. <sup>27</sup> King Agrippa, believest thou the prophets ? I know that thou believest. <sup>28</sup> Then Agrippa said unto Paul : Almost thou persuadest me <sup>j</sup> to become a Christian. <sup>29</sup> And Paul said : I would to God, that not only thou, but also all that hear me this day, were both almost and altogether <sup>k</sup> such as I am, except these bonds.

<sup>30</sup> And when he had thus spoken, the king rose up, and the governor, and Bernice, and they that sat with them ; <sup>31</sup> and when they were gone aside, they talked between themselves, saying : This man doeth nothing worthy of death or of bonds. <sup>32</sup> Then said Agrippa unto Festus : This man might have been set at liberty, if he had not appealed unto Cæsar.

<sup>27</sup> AND when <sup>a</sup> it was determined that we should sail to Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners unto a centurion named Julius, of the Augustan band <sup>t</sup>. <sup>2</sup> And going on board a ship of Adrametium, bound for the coasts of Asia <sup>u</sup>, we put to sea ; <sup>b</sup> Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us. <sup>3</sup> And the next day we touched at Sidon ; and Julius <sup>c</sup> treated Paul kindly, and gave him liberty to go unto his friends and receive their care. <sup>4</sup> And putting to sea from thence, we sailed under Cyprus <sup>s</sup>, because the winds were contrary. <sup>5</sup> And when we had sailed over the sea of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia. <sup>6</sup> And there the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing to Italy, and he put us therein.

<sup>7</sup> And after sailing slowly for many days, and having with difficulty come over against Chidus, the wind not suffering us, we sailed under Crete, over against Salmone ; <sup>8</sup> and, coasting along it with difficulty, we came unto a place called the Fair Havens ; nigh whereunto was the city of Lasea.

<sup>9</sup> And when much time had been spent, and the voyage was now dangerous, because the Fast* was already past, Paul admonished them <sup>10</sup> and said: Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with hurt and much damage, not only to the lading and ship, but also to our lives. <sup>11</sup> But the centurion believed the master† and the owner of the ship more than the things which were spoken by Paul. <sup>12</sup> And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the greater number advised to sail from thence also, if by any means they might reach to Phenix, and winter there; which is a haven of Crete, looking towards the south-west and north-west‡.

<sup>13</sup> And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, they weighed anchor and coasted along close by Crete. <sup>14</sup> But not long after there beat down from it § a tempestuous wind, called Euroclydon §. <sup>15</sup> And the ship being caught, and unable to bear up against the wind, we let her drive. <sup>16</sup> And running under a certain small island called Claudia, we had much work to lay hold of the boat; <sup>17</sup> and when they had taken it up, they used helps, undergirding the ship; and, fearing lest they should fall into the Syrtis*, they lowered the sails and so were driven. <sup>18</sup> And we being exceedingly tossed with tempest, the next day they lightened the ship; <sup>19</sup> and on the third day<sup>d</sup> we cast out with our own hands the tackling of the ship. <sup>20</sup> And when neither sun nor stars for many days appeared, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved was then taken away.

<sup>21</sup> But after long abstinence Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said: Sirs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have put to sea from Crete; and so have escaped this harm and loss. <sup>22</sup> And now I exhort you to be of good cheer; for there will be no loss of life among you, but only of the ship. <sup>23</sup> For<sup>e</sup> there stood by me this night an angel of God, saying: O Fear not, Paul, thou must be brought before Cæsar; and lo, God hath given thee all them that sail with thee. <sup>24</sup> Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheer, for I believe God, that it shall be even as it hath been told me. <sup>26</sup> Howbeit<sup>h</sup> we must be cast upon a certain island.

<sup>27</sup> And when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven about in the Adriatic Sea, about midnight the seamen deemed that they drew near to some country; <sup>28</sup> and they sounded, and found it twenty fathoms; and when they had gone a little further, they sounded again, and found it fifteen fathoms. <sup>29</sup> Then fearing lest we should fall upon rocks, they cast four anchors out of the stern, and wished for the day.

<sup>30</sup> And as the seamen were seeking to flee out of the ship, and had let down the boat into the sea, under pretence as though they would carry out anchors from the foreship, <sup>31</sup> Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers: Except these abide in the ship ye cannot be saved. <sup>32</sup> Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let it fall off.

<sup>33</sup> And while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take food, saying: This day is the fourteenth day that ye have waited and continued fasting, having taken nothing; <sup>34</sup> wherefore I pray you to take some food; for this is for your safety; for there shall not a hair perish from the head of any one of you. <sup>35</sup> And when he had thus spoken, he took bread, and gave thanks to God in the presence of them all: and having broken it, he began to eat. <sup>36</sup> Then were they all of good cheer, and they also took some food. <sup>37</sup> And we were in all in the ship two hundred and seventy six souls. <sup>38</sup> And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship by casting out the wheat into the sea.

<sup>39</sup> And when it was day, they knew not the land; but they perceived a certain creek with a shore, on which they determined, if it were possible, to run the ship aground. <sup>40</sup> And having cut away the anchors, they left them in the sea; and they loosened the rudder bands, and hoisted up the foresail to the wind, and made towards the shore. <sup>41</sup> And falling into a place where two seas met,<sup>k</sup> they ran the ship aground; and the forepart stuck fast, and remained immoveable, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waves.

<sup>42</sup> And the soldiers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out and escape; <sup>43</sup> but the centurion, desiring to save Paul, kept them from their purpose; and commanded that those who could swim should cast themselves first into the sea and get to land; <sup>44</sup> and the rest, some on boards and others on some of the things from the ship. And so it came to pass that they escaped all safe to land.

<sup>28</sup>. And when we were escaped, then we learned that the island was called Melita. <sup>2</sup> And the Barbarians<sup>g</sup> showed us no little kindness; for they kindled a fire, and received us every one, because of the present

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE

TO THE

ROMANS.

Salutation, and introduction, describing (1) the writer, (2) his Divine commission, and (3) the persons addressed.

Paul's (8) deep interest in the Roman Christians; his (10) long-cherished desire to preach at Rome the gospel of Christ, (16) which is divinely efficacious for the salvation of men of all nations.

8 FIRST, <sup>a</sup> I thank my God, through Jesus Christ, for you all, that <sup>b</sup> your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world. <sup>9</sup> For <sup>c</sup> God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, how <sup>d</sup> unceasingly I make mention of you always in my prayers; <sup>10</sup> making <sup>e</sup> request if by any means now at length I may have a way opened, by the will of God, to come unto you. <sup>11</sup> For I long to see you, that <sup>f</sup> I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end that ye may be established; <sup>12</sup> that is, that I with you may be comforted among you by the mutual faith both of you and me.

for <sup>m</sup> it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek*. <sup>17</sup> For <sup>n</sup> therein is revealed the righteousness of God <sup>o</sup> by faith unto faith; as it is written, 'The just shall live by faith' [Hab. ii. 4].

The need of the Gospel shown first (18) from the inexcusable impiety and immorality of the Gentiles; and their consequent guilt and condemnation.

29 being filled with all unrighteousness, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, malignity; whisperers*, 30 slanderers, haters of God, despotic, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, 31 without understanding, covenant-breakers, without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful; 32 men who <sup>m</sup> knowing the righteous judgment of God, that they that commit such things <sup>n</sup> are worthy of death, not only do the same, but <sup>o</sup> have pleasure in those that do them.

The aggravated guilt of the Jews—(8) The impartiality of God's judgment—(17) Exposition with Jews who, while glorying in their religious privileges, lived in the practice of sin.

2. THEREFORE thou art inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art, that judgest; for <sup>a</sup> wherein thou judgest another thou condemnest thyself, for thou that judgest dost the same things. <sup>2</sup> But we know that the judgment of God is according to truth against them that do such things. <sup>3</sup> And thinkest thou this, O man, who judgest them that do such things and dost the same, that thou wilt escape the judgment of God? <sup>4</sup> Or <sup>b</sup> despisest thou <sup>c</sup> the riches of his goodness and forbearance and longsuffering, not knowing that <sup>d</sup> the goodness of God is leading thee to repentance? <sup>5</sup> And according to thy hardness and impenitent heart <sup>e</sup> thou art treasuring up unto thyself wrath in the day of wrath and of the revelation of the righteous judgment of God. <sup>6</sup> Who <sup>f</sup> will render to every man according to his works; <sup>7</sup> to them that by patient continuance in well doing seek for glory and honour and immortality, eternal life; <sup>8</sup> but unto them that are contentious, and <sup>g</sup> do not obey the truth but obey unrighteousness, there will be indignation and wrath, <sup>9</sup> tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doeth evil, of the Jew <sup>h</sup> first, and also of the Greek; <sup>10</sup> but glory, honour and peace, to every man that worketh good, to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. <sup>11</sup> For <sup>i</sup> there is no respect of persons with God.

<sup>12</sup> For as many as have sinned without the law will also perish without the law, and as many as have <sup>k</sup> sinned under the law will be judged by the law—<sup>13</sup> For <sup>l</sup> not the hearers of the law are just before God, but <sup>m</sup> the doers of the law shall be justified. <sup>14</sup> For when Gentiles who have no law do by nature the things of the law, these though they have no law are a law unto themselves; <sup>15</sup> since they show the work of the law <sup>n</sup> written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness to it, <sup>o</sup> and their thoughts one with another, accusing or else excusing them—<sup>16</sup> in <sup>p</sup> the day when God will judge the secrets of men <sup>q</sup> by Jesus Christ, according to my gospel.

Replies to Jewish objections; and (10) proofs from the Old Testament of the universal corruption of Jews as well as Gentiles; (19) establishing the impossibility of attaining to righteousness by the law.

3. WHAT then is the advantage of the Jew? Or what is the benefit of circumcision? <sup>2</sup> Much every way; chiefly that <sup>a</sup> they were entrusted with the oracles of God. <sup>3</sup> For what if some were unfaithful, <sup>b</sup> will their unfaithfulness make void the faithfulness of God? <sup>4</sup> God forbid: yea, let <sup>c</sup> God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, 'That thou mayest be justified in thy sayings, and mayest overcome when thou art judged.' <sup>9</sup> What then, are we better than others? No, in no wise: for <sup>i</sup> we have before charged both Jews and Greeks, that they are all under sin; <sup>10</sup> as it is written, 'there is none righteous, no not one; <sup>11</sup> there is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God; <sup>12</sup> they are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable, there is none that doeth good, no not one' [Psa. xiv. 1—3]; <sup>13</sup> 'their throat is an open sepulchre; with their tongues they have used deceit' [Psa. v. 9, Sept.]; 'the poison of asps is under their lips' [Psa. cxl. 3]; <sup>14</sup> 'whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness' [Psa. x. 7]; <sup>15</sup> 'their <sup>k</sup> feet are swift to shed blood, <sup>16</sup> destruction and misery are in their ways, <sup>17</sup> and the way of peace have they not known' [Isa. lix. 7, 8], <sup>18</sup> 'there is no fear of God before their eyes' [Psa. xxxvi. 1].

<sup>27</sup> Where <sup>m</sup> is our boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? Of works? Historical confirmation of the doctrine—(ch. 4. 1) Abraham's justification was by faith, wholly irrespectively of works, and was before (10) circumcision and (13) the law; (16) he was therefore the father of all believers, both Jews and Gentiles.

are not only of the circumcision, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham which he had while yet uncircumcised.

<sup>23</sup> Now <sup>z</sup> as it was not written for his sake alone, that it was accounted unto him, <sup>24</sup> but for our sakes also, to whom it will be accounted, even to us who believe on him who raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead; <sup>25</sup> who <sup>b</sup> was delivered up because of our offences, and <sup>c</sup> was raised again because of our justification.

The fruits of justification by faith—(ch. 5. 1) Peace with God, hope of future glory, and union with Christ, (12) bringing, in place of condemnation and death derived through Adam, righteousness and everlasting life, through Jesus Christ.

5. BEING then justified by faith, we have † peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ; <sup>2</sup> through whom also we have had our access by faith; into this grace wherein we stand, and we rejoice in hope of the glory of God. <sup>3</sup> And not only so, but we even rejoice in our tribulations; knowing that tribulation worketh patience; <sup>4</sup> and patience, experience §, and experience, hope; <sup>5</sup> and hope maketh not ashamed, because the love of God hath been shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Spirit which was given unto us.

<sup>18</sup> Therefore, as through one offence it came unto all men to condemnation, even so through one act of righteousness it hath come unto <sup>u</sup> all men to justification of life.

<sup>19</sup> For as through the one man's disobedience the many were made sinners, <sup>v</sup> so also through the obedience of the one will the many be made righteous. <sup>20</sup> But meanwhile <sup>w</sup> the law came in that the offence might abound; but <sup>x</sup> where sin abounded, grace did exceedingly abound: <sup>21</sup> that as sin reigned in death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto everlasting life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

6. WHAT shall we say then? <sup>a</sup> Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?

<sup>2</sup> God forbid! How shall we <sup>b</sup> who died unto sin live any longer therein? <sup>3</sup> Or know ye not, that <sup>c</sup> all we who <sup>d</sup> were baptized unto Jesus Christ were baptized into his death? <sup>4</sup> We were <sup>e</sup> buried therefore with him through our baptism into his death; that <sup>f</sup> as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, <sup>g</sup> even so we also should walk in newness of life. <sup>5</sup> For <sup>h</sup> if we have become united to the likeness of his death, we shall be also to the likeness of his resurrection; <sup>6</sup> knowing this, that <sup>i</sup> our old man was crucified with him, that <sup>k</sup> the body of sin might be destroyed, that we might no longer be in bondage to sin. <sup>7</sup> For he that hath died hath been set free from sin.

<sup>8</sup> Now <sup>l</sup> if we died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him; <sup>9</sup> knowing that <sup>m</sup> Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more; death hath no longer dominion over him. <sup>10</sup> For in that he died, <sup>n</sup> he died unto sin once for all; but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God. <sup>11</sup> Even so reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but <sup>o</sup> alive unto God in Jesus Christ our Lord. <sup>12</sup> Let <sup>p</sup> not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, <sup>q</sup> that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof; <sup>13</sup> neither yield ye your <sup>r</sup> members as instruments of unrighteousness unto sin; but <sup>s</sup> yield yourselves unto God, as being alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God.

<sup>14</sup> For sin shall not have dominion over you; <sup>t</sup> for ye are not under law, but under grace. <sup>15</sup> What then? Shall we sin, because we are not under law but under grace? God forbid! <sup>16</sup> Know ye not, <sup>u</sup> that to whomsoever ye yield yourselves as servants to obey, his servants ye are whom ye obey: whether it be of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness. <sup>17</sup> But God be thanked, that whereas ye were the servants of sin, ye obeyed from the heart <sup>v</sup> that form of doctrine whereunto ye were delivered, <sup>18</sup> and being <sup>w</sup> made free from sin, ye became servants of righteousness. <sup>19</sup> I speak after the manner of men, because of the infirmity of your flesh; for as ye once yielded your members servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity, even so now yield your members as servants to righteousness unto sanctification.

<sup>20</sup> For when ye were the servants of sin, ye were free with respect to righteousness. <sup>21</sup> What <sup>x</sup> fruit then had ye at that time in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? For <sup>a</sup> the end of those things is death; <sup>22</sup> but now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto sanctification, and the end everlasting life. <sup>23</sup> For <sup>b</sup> the wages of sin is death; but <sup>c</sup> the free gift of God is everlasting life in Jesus Christ our Lord.

7. KNOW ye not, brethren, (for I speak <sup>a</sup> to them that know the law), that the law hath dominion over a man as long as he liveth? <sup>2</sup> For <sup>b</sup> the married woman is bound by the law to her husband so long as he liveth; but if the husband die, she is released from the law of the husband. <sup>3</sup> Therefore <sup>c</sup> if while the husband is living, she be married to another man; she will be called an adulteress, but if her husband die she is free from the law, so that she is no adulteress though she be married to another man. <sup>4</sup> So then, my brethren, ye also were made <sup>d</sup> dead to the law through the body of Christ; <sup>e</sup> that ye might be married to another, even to him who was raised from the dead, that we might <sup>f</sup> bring forth fruit unto God.

<sup>6</sup> For when we were <sup>g</sup> in the flesh, the passions of sins, which were through the law, wrought in our members <sup>h</sup> to bring forth fruit unto death; <sup>6</sup> but now we have been released from the law, <sup>i</sup> having died to that wherein we were held fast; so that we serve in the newness of the spirit, and not <sup>j</sup> in the oldness of <sup>k</sup> the letter.

commandment holy, and just, and good.
 13 Did then that which is good become death unto me? God forbid. But sin became so, that it might appear as sin, working death for me by that which is good; that sin by means of the commandment might prove itself exceeding sinful.

14 For we know that the law is spiritual; but I am carnal, <sup>a</sup>enslaved under sin.
 15 For what I perform I allow* not; for <sup>c</sup>it is not what I desire, that I do, but what I hate, that do I. 16 But if I do that which I desire not, I consent unto the law that it is good. 17 So now it is no more I that perform it, but sin that dwelleth in me. 18 For I know that <sup>u</sup>in me, that is, in my flesh, dwelleth no good thing; for to desire is present with me, but to perform that which is good is not: 19 for the good that I desire I do not; but the evil that I desire not, that I do. 20 But if I do what I desire not, it is no more I that perform it, but sin that dwelleth in me. 21 I find then this law, that when I desire to do good, evil is present with me: 22 for I <sup>x</sup>delight in the law of God after <sup>y</sup>the inward man; 23 but <sup>z</sup>I see a different law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members. 24 O wretched man that I am! Who will deliver me from <sup>a</sup>this body of death? 25 I <sup>b</sup>thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then with the mind I myself serve the law of God, but with the flesh the law of sin.

 (ch. 8. 1) Freedom from condemnation, and
 (2) by the indwelling of the Spirit of Christ, progressive sanctification, and (14) sonship, with all its blessings; and (17) through present suffering, with and for Christ, future perfection and glory; (31) all needful help and grace, and final victory being assured.

8. THERE is therefore now <sup>a</sup>no condemnation to them that are in Christ Jesus, [who †balk not after the flesh but after the Spirit]. 2 For <sup>c</sup>the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus set me free from the law of sin and death. 3 For <sup>d</sup>what the law could not do, in that <sup>e</sup>it was weak through the flesh—God sending his own Son <sup>f</sup>in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh; 4 that the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us who walk not after the flesh but after the Spirit.

5 For <sup>g</sup>they that are after the flesh mind the things of the flesh, but they that are after the Spirit <sup>h</sup>the things of the Spirit.

6 For the mind of the flesh is death, but the mind of the Spirit is life and peace; 7 because <sup>i</sup>the mind of the flesh is enmity against God; for it is not subject to the law of God, <sup>k</sup>neither indeed can be; 8 and they that are in the flesh cannot please God.

9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in <sup>l</sup>the Spirit, if indeed the Spirit of God dwelleth in you. But if any one hath not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his. 10 But if Christ is <sup>m</sup>in you, the body is dead because of sin, but the spirit is life because of righteousness. 11 And if the Spirit of him who raised up Jesus from the dead dwelleth in you, <sup>n</sup>he who raised up Christ from the dead will give life also to your mortal bodies because of his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

12 Therefore, <sup>o</sup>brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh; 13 for <sup>p</sup>if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die; but if through the Spirit <sup>q</sup>ye put to death the deeds of the body, ye shall live.

14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, <sup>r</sup>they are sons of God; 15 for ye received not a spirit of bondage again <sup>s</sup>unto fear; but <sup>t</sup>ye received a spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, <sup>u</sup>Abba, Father! 16 The <sup>v</sup>Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit that we are children of God; 17 and if children, then <sup>w</sup>heirs, heirs of God, and joint heirs with Christ, <sup>x</sup>if indeed we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together.

18 For I reckon that <sup>a</sup>the sufferings of this present time are of no account compared with the glory which is to be revealed on us. 19 For the earnest expectation of the creation <sup>b</sup>is waiting for the <sup>c</sup>revelation of the sons of God. 20 For <sup>d</sup>the creation was made subject to vanity, not of its own will, but by reason of him who made it subject, in hope, 21 because <sup>e</sup>the creation itself also will be set free from the bondage of corruption into the liberty of the glory of the children of God. 22 For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now; 23 and not only they, but even we who have <sup>f</sup>the firstfruits of the Spirit, <sup>g</sup>even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, <sup>h</sup>to wit, the <sup>i</sup>redemption of our body. 24 For <sup>j</sup>we were saved in hope; but hope that is seen is not hope; for what a man seeth, why doth he also hope for? 25 But if we hope for what we see not, we then with patience wait for it.

26 Likewise also the Spirit helpeth our infirmities; for <sup>k</sup>we know not what we should pray for as we ought, but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered; <sup>27</sup> and <sup>k</sup> he who searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, because he maketh intercession for the saints according to the will of God.

<sup>31</sup> What shall we then say to these things? <sup>v</sup> If God be for us, who can be against us? <sup>32</sup> He <sup>w</sup> that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how will he not with him also freely <sup>x</sup> give us all things? <sup>33</sup> Who will bring any charge against God's elect? <sup>y</sup> It is <sup>z</sup> God who justifieth. <sup>34</sup> Who is he that condemneth? <sup>aa</sup> It is Christ who died, yea rather who is risen again, <sup>ab</sup> who is also at the right hand of God, <sup>ac</sup> who also maketh intercession for us. <sup>35</sup> Who <sup>ad</sup> shall separate us from the love of Christ? <sup>ae</sup> Shall <sup>af</sup> tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? <sup>36</sup> As it is written: <sup>ag</sup> 'For thy sake we are killed all the day long, we were accounted as sheep for the slaughter' [Psa. xlv. 22, Sept.] <sup>37</sup> Nay, <sup>ah</sup> in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us. <sup>38</sup> For I am persuaded that neither death nor life, nor angels nor <sup>ai</sup> principalities nor powers, nor things present nor things to come, <sup>39</sup> nor height nor depth, nor any other created thing <sup>aj</sup> shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Concerning the relative positions of Jews and Gentiles under the gospel—(ch. 9. 1) Vindication of God's faithfulness while excluding unbelieving Jews from his blessings; (6) which were of old promised, not to all Abraham's descendants, but to the true Israel; and (14) God's determination was always declared to bestow his special mercies according to his sovereign will.

9. I SAY the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience bearing me witness in the Holy Spirit, <sup>2</sup> that I have great heaviness and continual sorrow in my heart; <sup>3</sup> for <sup>a</sup> I could have wished that I myself were accursed from Christ for my brethren, my kinsmen according to the flesh; <sup>4</sup> seeing

<sup>10</sup> And not only so, but also when Rebekah had conceived by one, even by our father Isaac, <sup>11</sup> for the children being not yet born, nor having done any good or evil, <sup>12</sup> that the purpose of God according to election might stand, <sup>13</sup> not of works but of him who calleth, <sup>14</sup> it was said unto her, 'The elder shall serve the younger' [Gen. xxv. 23]; <sup>15</sup> even as it is written, 'Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated' [Mal. i. 2, 3.]

<sup>14</sup> What shall we say then? <sup>15</sup> Is there unrighteousness with God? God forbid! <sup>16</sup> For he saith to Moses: 'I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion.' [Exod. xxxiii. 19, Sept.] <sup>17</sup> Therefore <sup>18</sup> it is not of him that willeth or of him that runneth, but of God who showeth mercy. <sup>19</sup> For the Scripture saith unto Pharaoh: 'For this very purpose did I raise thee up, that I might show forth my power in thee, and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth' [Exod. ix. 16.] <sup>20</sup> Therefore hath he mercy on whom he will, and whom he will <sup>21</sup> he hardeneth.

' [Isa. x. 22, 23, Sept.] <sup>29</sup> And as Isaiah said before : ' Except the Lord of Sabaoth † had left us a seed, we should have become as Sodom, and been made like unto Gomorrhah. ' [Isa. i. 9, Sept.]	' Say not in thy heart, Who shall ascend into heaven ? '—that is, to bring Christ down— <sup>7</sup> or, ' Who shall descend into the deep ? '—that is, to bring up Christ from the dead— <sup>8</sup> But what saith it ? ' The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart ' [Deut. xxx. 12—14] ; that is, the word of faith, which we preach ; <sup>9</sup> because <sup>g</sup> if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thy heart that God raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. <sup>10</sup> For with the heart man <sup>h</sup> believeth unto righteousness, and with the mouth he confesseth unto salvation. <sup>11</sup> For the Scripture saith : ' Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed ' [Isa. xxviii. 16]. <sup>12</sup> For <sup>i</sup> there is no distinction between the Jew and the Greek, for the same Lord over all <sup>k</sup> is rich unto all them that call upon him ; <sup>13</sup> for ' whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved ' [Joel ii. 32]. <sup>14</sup> How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed ? As it is written : ' How beautiful are the feet of them that bring glad tidings of peace, that bring glad tidings of good things ' [Isa. lii. 7] ! <sup>16</sup> But <sup>m</sup> they did not all hearken to the glad tidings. For Isaiah saith : ' Lord, who hath believed our report ? Yes verily, <sup>n</sup> Their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world. ' [Psa. xix. 4, Sept.] <sup>19</sup> But I say, Did Israel not know ? First Moses saith : ' I will provoke you to jealousy by that which is not a nation, and by a nation without understanding I will anger you. That <sup>k</sup> the Gentiles, who followed not after righteousness, have taken hold of righteousness, <sup>l</sup> even the righteousness which is of faith ; <sup>23</sup> but Israel <sup>m</sup> though following after the law of righteousness, hath not attained to that law. <sup>24</sup> Wherefore ? Because they followed after it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law ; for <sup>n</sup> they stumbled at the stumbling-stone ; <sup>25</sup> as it is written : ' Behold, I lay in Sion a stumbling-stone and a rock of offence ; and he that believeth on him shall not be ashamed ' [Isa. viii. 14 ; xxviii. 16]. The argument continued—(ch. 10. 1) proving from the Old Testament that the way of salvation has always been through faith in God's righteousness ; and (11) that the dispensation of the law was preparatory to the universal gospel for all nations.	Conclusion of the argument—(ch. 14. 1) The rejection of the gospel by the Jews though general is not universal ; (11) it is overruled for the salvation of the Gentiles ; and (25) ultimately both Jews and Gentiles shall be brought in.

BRETHREN, <sup>a</sup> my heart's desire and my prayer to God for them is, that they may be saved. <sup>2</sup> For I bear them witness <sup>b</sup> that they have a zeal for God, but not according to knowledge. <sup>3</sup> For they being ignorant of <sup>c</sup> God's righteousness, and seeking to establish <sup>d</sup> their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God. <sup>4</sup> For <sup>e</sup> Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth. <sup>5</sup> For Moses describeth the righteousness which is of the law, ' that <sup>f</sup> the man who doeth these things shall live in it ' [Lev. xviii. 5]. <sup>6</sup> But the righteousness which is of faith speaketh on this wise :	11. I SAY then, <sup>a</sup> Hath God cast off his people ? God forbid. For <sup>b</sup> I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin. <sup>2</sup> God hath not cast off his people whom he foreknew. Know ye not what the Scripture saith in the history of Elijah, how he pleadeth with God against Israel, saying: <sup>3</sup> 'Lord, they have killed thy prophets, and digged down thine altars; and I only am left, and they seek my life?' <sup>4</sup> Nevertheless what saith the answer of God unto him? 'I have reserved to myself seven thousand men who have not bowed the knee to Baal' [1 Kings xix. 14, 18]. <sup>5</sup> Even so then at this present time also <sup>6</sup> there is a remnant according to <sup>d</sup> the election of grace. <sup>6</sup> Now <sup>e</sup> if it is by grace, then is it no more of works; otherwise grace is no more grace: but if it is of works, then is it no more grace; otherwise work is no more work.

<sup>7</sup> What then? Israel hath not obtained that which he seeketh for. But the election hath obtained it, and the rest were <sup>g</sup> hardened; <sup>8</sup> according as it is written: 'God hath given them a spirit of slumber, <sup>h</sup> eyes that they might not see, and ears that they might not hear' [Isa. xxix. 10; Deut. xxix. 4, Sept.], <sup>i</sup> unto this day. <sup>9</sup> And David saith: 'Let their table become a snare and a trap and a stumbling-block and a recompence unto them; <sup>j</sup> let their eyes be darkened that they may not see; and bow down their back always.' [Psa. lxxix. 22, 23, Sept.]

<sup>16</sup> Now <sup>n</sup> if the firstfruit be holy, the lump is also holy; and if the root be holy, so are the branches. <sup>17</sup> And if some of the branches were broken off, <sup>o</sup> and thou, being a wild olive tree, wast grafted in among them, and with them partakest of the root and fatness of the olive tree, <sup>18</sup> boast not against the branches. But if thou boastest against them, it is not thou that bearest the root, but the root thee. <sup>19</sup> Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in. <sup>20</sup> Well, <sup>p</sup> by their unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest by thy faith. Be not highminded, but fear; <sup>21</sup> for if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest he also spare not thee.

<sup>22</sup> Behold therefore the goodness and severity of God; towards them that fell, severity; but towards thee, goodness, <sup>q</sup> if thou continue in his goodness; otherwise <sup>r</sup> thou also shalt be cut off. <sup>23</sup> And they also, if they continue not in their unbelief, shall be grafted in; for God is able to graft them in again. <sup>24</sup> For if thou wast cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and wast grafted, contrary to nature, into a good olive tree, how much more shall these which are the natural branches be grafted into their own olive tree.

<sup>25</sup> For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery*, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits, that <sup>s</sup> hardness in part hath come upon Israel, <sup>t</sup> until the fulness of the Gentiles come in; <sup>26</sup> and so "all Israel shall be saved; as it is written: 'There shall come out of Zion the Deliverer, and he will turn away ungodliness from Jacob; <sup>27</sup> and this is <sup>u</sup> my covenant unto them,' [Isa. lix. 20, 21, Sept.] <sup>v</sup> 'when I take away their sins.' [Isa. xxvii. 9, Sept.] <sup>28</sup> As touching the gospel, they are enemies for your sakes; but as touching the election, they are <sup>z</sup> beloved for the fathers' sakes; <sup>29</sup> for the gifts and the calling of God <sup>a</sup> are not to be repented of. <sup>30</sup> For as ye <sup>b</sup> in times past were disobedient to God, yet have now obtained mercy through their disobedience, <sup>31</sup> even so have they also now been disobedient, that through your mercy they also may obtain mercy. <sup>32</sup> For <sup>c</sup> God hath shut up all in disobedience, that he may have mercy upon all.

Practical exhortations continued—(ch. 13. 1) to the faithful discharge of civil and social duties, and (8) all the obligations of Christian love, involving the observance of the whole Law; (11) enforced by the nearness of complete salvation.

13. LET every soul <sup>a</sup> submit himself unto the authorities over him, for <sup>b</sup> there is no authority but from God; and the authorities that are have been ordained by God. <sup>2</sup> Whosoever therefore resisteth the authority, resisteth the ordinance of God; and they that resist will receive to themselves condemnation. <sup>3</sup> For <sup>c</sup> rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Dost thou desire then not to be afraid of the authority? Do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise from the same; <sup>4</sup> for <sup>d</sup> he is a minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain; for he is a minister of God, an avenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil. <sup>5</sup> Wherefore ye must needs submit yourselves, not only because of the wrath but also for conscience' sake.

Concerning conscientious differences of opinion and practice—(3) The duty of mutual forbearance—(4) The individual responsibility of every one to God—(13) Exhortations to charitableness, and self-denying care for others; (ch. 15. 1) enforced by the example of Christ, and (8) by the union of Jews and Gentiles on terms of equality in the Christian church, (4) according to ancient promises.

14. H<sup>m</sup> that <sup>c</sup>is weak in the faith receive ye, but not to sit in judgment on his doubts*. <sup>2</sup> For one believeth that he may eat all things†, but he that is weak eateth herbs. <sup>3</sup> Let not him that eateth despise him that eateth not; and <sup>b</sup> let not him that eateth not judge him that eateth, for God hath received him. <sup>4</sup> Who art thou that judgest another's servant? To his own master he standeth or falleth; yea, <sup>c</sup> he shall be made to stand, for the Lord is able to make him stand.

God is not eating and drinking, but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit. <sup>18</sup> For he that in these things serveth Christ is well-pleasing to God, and approved by men.

15. We <sup>a</sup> then that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves. <sup>2</sup> Let <sup>b</sup> every one of us please his neighbour for his good unto edification. <sup>3</sup> For even Christ pleased not himself; but as it is written: 'The reproaches of them that reproached thee fell on me' [Psa. lxi. 9]. <sup>4</sup> For whatsoever things were written beforetime were written for our instruction, that we through patience <sup>c</sup> and the consolation of the Scriptures might have hope.

The apostle, (14) while commending the church at Rome, (15) affirms his own right and duty, by virtue of his office, to instruct and admonish them; (17) describes the extent and results of his labours; (22) notices intended journeys; and (30) asks the prayers of the Roman Christians on his behalf.

<sup>14</sup> AND I myself also am persuaded of you, my brethren, that ye also yourselves are <sup>a</sup> full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another; <sup>15</sup> nevertheless, brethren, I have written the more boldly unto you in some measure, <sup>b</sup> as putting you in mind, <sup>c</sup> because of the grace given to me by God, <sup>16</sup> that I should be a minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering* the gospel of God; that the <sup>d</sup> offering up of the Gentiles may be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. <sup>17</sup> I <sup>e</sup> have therefore my glorying in Jesus Christ in the things which pertain to God. <sup>18</sup> For <sup>f</sup> I will not venture to speak of any of those things which Christ hath not wrought by me, <sup>g</sup> to make the Gentiles obedient, by word and deed, <sup>19</sup> by <sup>h</sup> the power of signs and wonders, even by the power of the Spirit of God; so that from Jerusalem, and round about, as far as Illyricum, <sup>i</sup> I have fully preached the gospel of Christ; <sup>20</sup> yet even thus I have made it my ambition so to preach the gospel, not where Christ was already named, <sup>k</sup> that I might not build upon another man's foundation; <sup>21</sup> but as it is written: 'They to whom he was not spoken of shall see; and they that have not heard shall understand.' [Isa. lii. 15, Sept.]

treasurer of the city saluteth you, and Quartus our brother.

Written by the Romans from Corinth, and sent by Phœbe, a deaconess of the church at Cenchrea.

<sup>10</sup> NOW I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>a</sup> that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment. <sup>11</sup> For it hath been declared unto me concerning you, my brethren, by those of the house of Chloe, that there are contentions among you. <sup>12</sup> Now I mean this, <sup>b</sup> that every one of you saith, I am of Paul; and I of <sup>c</sup> Apollos; and I of <sup>d</sup> Cephas; and I of Christ.

any man buildeth upon this foundation, gold, silver, costly stones, wood, hay, stubble, <sup>13</sup> every man's work will be made manifest; for the day <sup>a</sup> will declare it; because it is to be revealed in fire, and <sup>t</sup> the fire itself will prove every man's work of what sort it is. <sup>14</sup> If "any man's work shall abide which he hath built thereupon, he will receive a reward: <sup>15</sup> if any man's work shall be burned, he will suffer loss; but he himself will be saved, <sup>z</sup> yet so as through fire.

<sup>16</sup> Know ye not that <sup>y</sup> ye are the temple of God, <sup>a</sup> and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you? <sup>17</sup> If <sup>a</sup> any man destroyeth the temple of God, him will God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, and such ye are.

<sup>6</sup> And these things, brethren, I have in a figure transferred to myself and to Apollos, for your sakes; that in us ye may learn <sup>n</sup> not to go beyond that which is written, that ye be not puffed up, each for one against another. <sup>7</sup> For who maketh thee to differ from another? And <sup>o</sup> what hast thou that thou didst not receive? But if thou didst receive it, why dost thou boast as if thou hadst not received it?

The argument continued—(8) The vain-glory and self-exaltation of the party-leaders and their followers, (9) contrasted with the persecuted and despised condition of the apostles.

<sup>8</sup> ALREADY ye are full, <sup>a</sup> already ye are rich, ye have reigned as kings without us; and I would indeed that ye did reign, that we also might reign with you. <sup>9</sup> For <sup>b</sup> I think that God hath set forth us the apostles last, as men appointed to death; for <sup>c</sup> we are made a spectacle unto the world, both to angels and to men. <sup>10</sup> We are <sup>d</sup> fools for Christ's sake, but ye are wise in Christ; we are weak, but ye are strong; ye are honourable, but we are despised. <sup>11</sup> Even <sup>e</sup> unto this present hour we both hunger and thirst, and are naked, and <sup>f</sup> are buffeted, and have no certain dwelling-place; <sup>12</sup> and <sup>g</sup> we labour, working with our own hands; <sup>h</sup> being reviled, we bless; <sup>i</sup> being persecuted, we suffer it; <sup>13</sup> being defamed, we intreat; <sup>k</sup> we are made as the filth of the world, the offscouring of all things, unto this day.

<sup>14</sup> I write not these things to shame you; but <sup>l</sup> as my beloved children I admonish you; <sup>15</sup> for though ye may have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers; for <sup>m</sup> in Christ Jesus I begat you through the gospel. <sup>16</sup> Wherefore I beseech you, <sup>n</sup> be ye followers of me. <sup>17</sup> For this cause have I sent unto you <sup>o</sup> Timothy, who is my child, beloved and faithful in the Lord, who <sup>p</sup> will bring to your remembrance my ways in Christ, as I teach every where in every church.

<sup>18</sup> Now some have been puffed up, as though I were not coming to you; <sup>19</sup> but <sup>q</sup> I shall come to you shortly, if the Lord will; and I will know, not the speech of them that are puffed up, but the power. <sup>20</sup> For <sup>r</sup> the kingdom of God is not in word but in power. <sup>21</sup> What will ye? <sup>s</sup> Shall I come unto you with a rod, or in love and the spirit of meekness?

Concerning a case of gross immorality, and (8) the exclusion from the church of the openly profane and vicious.

5. IT is actually reported that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not even among the Gentiles, <sup>a</sup> that one hath his father's wife. <sup>2</sup> And ye have been puffed up, and have not rather <sup>b</sup> mourned; that he that hath done this deed might be taken away from among you.

<sup>3</sup> For <sup>c</sup> I verily, being absent in body but present in spirit, have judged already as though I were present, concerning him that hath so done this deed, <sup>d</sup> in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when ye are gathered together, and my spirit, <sup>d</sup> with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>5</sup> to <sup>e</sup> deliver such a one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, <sup>f</sup> that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.

Concerning Christian brethren going to law with one another before heathen tribunals—(9) Sins which exclude from the kingdom of God.

6. DARETH any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unrighteous, and not before the saints? <sup>2</sup> Do ye not know that <sup>a</sup> the saints will judge the world? And if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters? <sup>3</sup> Know ye not that we shall <sup>b</sup> judge angels? How much more then things that pertain to this life! <sup>4</sup> If then ye have judgments about things pertaining to this life, set those to judge who are least esteemed in the church. <sup>5</sup> I speak this to your shame*. Is it so that there is not one wise man among you, who will be able to judge between his brethren? <sup>6</sup> But brother goeth to law with brother, and that before the unbelievers. <sup>7</sup> Now therefore it is utterly a fault among you, that ye go to law one with another. <sup>8</sup> Why do ye not rather endure wrong? Why do ye not rather suffer yourselves to be defrauded? <sup>9</sup> Nay ye do wrong and defraud, and that your brethren.

not deceived; <sup>d</sup> neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind, <sup>10</sup> nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God. <sup>11</sup> And such were <sup>e</sup> some of you; <sup>f</sup> but ye were washed, but ye were <sup>g</sup> sanctified, but ye were <sup>h</sup> justified, in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.

Replies to questions respecting (1) marriage, and (17) other social relations.

permission, <sup>e</sup> and not by way of commandment. <sup>7</sup> Yet I would that all men were / even as I myself; but <sup>9</sup> every one hath his own gift from God, one after this manner and another after that.

<sup>8</sup> Now I say to the unmarried and the widows : It is good for them if they abide even as I ; <sup>9</sup> but <sup>h</sup> if they have not continency, let them marry ; for it is better to marry than to burn. <sup>10</sup> But unto the married I command, yet not I, but the Lord : <sup>i</sup> Let not the wife separate herself from her husband ; <sup>11</sup> but if she have separated herself, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband ; <sup>k</sup> and let not the husband put away his wife. <sup>12</sup> But to the rest speak I, not the Lord : If any brother hath a wife that believeth not, and she is pleased to dwell with him, let him not put her away* : <sup>13</sup> and any woman who hath a husband that believeth not, and he is pleased to dwell with her, let her not put away her husband. <sup>14</sup> For the unbelieving husband is sanctified in the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified in the husband : else were your children unclean ; <sup>l</sup> but now are they holy. <sup>15</sup> But if the unbelieving one separateth himself, let him be separated : a brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases : but God hath called us <sup>m</sup> in peace. <sup>16</sup> For how knowest thou, O wife, whether thou <sup>n</sup> shalt save thy husband ? Or how knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt save thy wife ?

therefore <sup>a</sup> that this is good on account of the present distress*, I say, that it is good for a man so to be. <sup>27</sup> Art thou bound unto a wife ? Seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife ? Seek not a wife. <sup>28</sup> But if thou marry, <sup>b</sup> thou hast not sinned ; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Nevertheless such will have trouble in the flesh, and I would spare you.

<sup>29</sup> But this I say, brethren, <sup>c</sup> the time is short ; it remaineth that both they that have wives be as though they had none, <sup>30</sup> and they that weep as though they wept not, and they that rejoice as though they rejoiced not, and they that buy as though they possessed not, <sup>31</sup> and <sup>d</sup> they that use this world as not using it to the full ; for <sup>e</sup> the fashion of this world is passing away. <sup>32</sup> And <sup>f</sup> I would have you to be without anxiety. <sup>g</sup> He that is unmarried is anxious about the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord ; <sup>33</sup> but he that is married is anxious about the things of the world, how he may please his wife. <sup>34</sup> There is a difference also between the married woman and the virgin : the unmarried woman is anxious about <sup>h</sup> the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit ; but she that is married is anxious about the things of the world, how she may please her husband. <sup>35</sup> And this I speak for your own profit ; not that I may cast a snare upon you, but for that which is seemly, and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction.

<sup>39</sup> A <sup>j</sup> wife is bound by the law<sup>t</sup> as long as her husband liveth ; but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will ; only <sup>k</sup> in the Lord : <sup>40</sup> but she is happier if she so abide, according to my judgment ; and <sup>l</sup> I think also that I have the Spirit of God.

9. AM <sup>a</sup> I not free? Am I not an apostle? <sup>a</sup> Have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? Are <sup>b</sup> not ye my work in the Lord? <sup>2</sup> If I am not an apostle unto others, yet doubtless I am to you; for <sup>c</sup> the seal of mine apostleship are ye in the Lord.
<sup>7</sup> Who ever serveth as a soldier at his own charges? Who <sup>h</sup> planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of its fruit? Or who feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock? <sup>8</sup> Say I these things as a man? Or saith not the law the same also? <sup>9</sup> For it is written in the law of Moses: <sup>i</sup> 'Thou shalt not muzzle an ox while treading out corn' [Deut. xxv. 4]. Is it for <sup>k</sup> the oxen that God careth? <sup>10</sup> Or saith he it altogether for our sakes? For <sup>l</sup> our sakes, no doubt, it was written; because <sup>m</sup> he that plougheth ought to plough in hope, and he that thresheth, to thresh in hope of partaking*. <sup>11</sup> If we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your <sup>n</sup> carnal things? <sup>12</sup> If others partake of this right over you, do not we still more? <sup>13</sup> Nevertheless we have not used this right; <sup>14</sup> but we bear all things, that we may not hinder the gospel of Christ.

<sup>15</sup> Do ye not know that <sup>q</sup> they that minister about the holy things eat of the things of the temple; and they that wait at the altar are partakers with the altar? <sup>16</sup> Even so <sup>r</sup> hath the Lord appointed for them that preach the gospel to live of the gospel.
<sup>17</sup> But <sup>s</sup> I have used none of these things; neither have I written these things that it should be so done unto me; for it were better for me to die than that any one should make my glorying void. <sup>18</sup> For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of; for <sup>t</sup> necessity is laid upon me, yea woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel! <sup>19</sup> For <sup>u</sup> if I do this thing willingly, I have a reward; but if against my will, <sup>v</sup> a stewardship of the gospel hath been entrusted to me. <sup>20</sup> What then is my reward? Verily that, <sup>v</sup> when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel of Christ without charge, that I use not to the full my right in the gospel.
<sup>21</sup> For though I am free from all men, yet I made myself servant unto all, that I might gain the more. <sup>22</sup> And <sup>w</sup> unto the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the law, (though not myself under the law), that I might gain them that are under the law; <sup>23</sup> to <sup>x</sup> them that are without law, as without law, (though not without law to God, but under the law to Christ), that I might gain them that are without law; <sup>24</sup> to <sup>y</sup> the weak I became as weak, that I might gain the weak; I am become all things to all men, <sup>25</sup> that I may by all means save some. <sup>26</sup> And I do all things for the gospel's sake, that I may be a partaker thereof with them.
<sup>27</sup> Know ye not that they who run in a race run all, but one receiveth the prize? So <sup>z</sup> run that ye may obtain. <sup>28</sup> And every man who contendeth for the prize* is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown, but we <sup>f</sup>an incorruptible. <sup>g</sup>I therefore so run, as not uncertainly; <sup>h</sup>so fight I, as not beating the air; <sup>i</sup>but <sup>j</sup>I keep under my body and bring it into subjection; lest by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be rejected <sup>k</sup>t.

10. MOREOVER, I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant, that all our fathers were under <sup>a</sup>the cloud, and all passed through <sup>b</sup>the sea, <sup>c</sup>and were all baptized unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea, <sup>d</sup>and all ate the same <sup>e</sup>spiritual meat, <sup>f</sup>and all drank the same <sup>g</sup>spiritual drink; for they drank of a spiritual rock that <sup>h</sup>followed them, and that rock was Christ: <sup>i</sup>but with the greater part of them God was not well pleased; for they <sup>j</sup>were overthrown in the wilderness.

<sup>k</sup>Now <sup>l</sup>these things came to pass as examples; for us; to the intent that we should not lust after evil things, as <sup>m</sup>they also lusted. <sup>n</sup>Neither be ye idolaters, as <sup>o</sup>were some of them; as it is written: 'The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play' [Exod. xxxii. 6]. <sup>p</sup>Neither <sup>q</sup>let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and there fell in one day three and twenty thousand. <sup>r</sup>Neither let us tempt Christ <sup>s</sup>ll, as <sup>t</sup>some of them also tempted, and were destroyed by the serpents. <sup>u</sup>Neither murmur ye, as <sup>v</sup>some of them also murmured, and <sup>w</sup>were destroyed by <sup>x</sup>the destroyer. <sup>y</sup>Now all these things happened unto them by way of example; and <sup>z</sup>they were written for our admonition, <sup>aa</sup>upon whom the ends of the world are come. <sup>ab</sup>Wherefore <sup>ac</sup>let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall.

<sup>ad</sup>There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man; but God is faithful, <sup>ae</sup>who will not suffer you to be tempted above what ye are able, but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it.

Cautions (14) against fellowship with idolatry, (21) which is a virtual abjuration of Christ, and (23) against such a use of liberty as may ensnare the consciences of others.

14. WHEREFORE, my beloved, <sup>a</sup>flee from idolatry. <sup>b</sup>I speak as to wise men; <sup>c</sup>judge ye what I say. <sup>d</sup>The <sup>e</sup>cup of blessing which we bless, is it not a <sup>f</sup>participation in the blood of Christ? The <sup>g</sup>bread which we break, is it not a participation in the body of Christ? <sup>h</sup>17 Because <sup>i</sup>we being many are one bread, and one body; for we are all partakers of the one bread. <sup>j</sup>Behold <sup>k</sup>Israel after the flesh; <sup>l</sup>are not they that eat of the sacrifices partakers with the altar?

<sup>a</sup>2 NOW I praise you, brethren, that ye remember me in all things, and hold fast the traditions <sup>b</sup>as I delivered them to you. <sup>c</sup>3 But I would have you know <sup>d</sup>that the head of every man is Christ, and <sup>e</sup>the head of the woman is the man, and <sup>f</sup>the head of Christ is God. <sup>g</sup>4 Every man praying or <sup>h</sup>prophesying <sup>i</sup>having his head covered dishonoureth his head; <sup>j</sup>but every woman that prayeth or prophesieth with her head uncovered dishonoureth her head; for it is one and the same thing as if she were shaven. <sup>6</sup> For if the woman be not covered, let her also be shorn; but if it be a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered. <sup>7</sup> For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, forasmuch as <sup>e</sup> he is the image and glory of God; but the woman is the glory of the man. <sup>8</sup> For <sup>f</sup> the man is not from the woman, but the woman from the man; <sup>9</sup> neither <sup>g</sup> was the man created for the sake of the woman, but the woman for the sake of the man. <sup>10</sup> For this cause ought the woman to have a token of authority* on her head <sup>h</sup> because of the angels. <sup>11</sup> Nevertheless neither is the man without the woman, <sup>i</sup> nor the woman without the man, in the Lord; <sup>j</sup> for as the woman is from the man, even so also the man is by the woman; <sup>k</sup> but all things from God. <sup>13</sup> Judge <sup>l</sup> in yourselves; is it seemly that a woman should pray unto God uncovered? <sup>14</sup> Doth not even nature itself teach you that if a man have long hair it is a shame unto him, <sup>15</sup> but if a woman have long hair it is a glory to her? For her hair is given her for a covering.

<sup>17</sup> BUT in giving you this charge I praise you not, that ye come together not for the better, but for the worse. <sup>18</sup> For first of all, when ye come together as a church, <sup>a</sup> I hear that there are divisions among you; and I partly believe it; <sup>19</sup> for there must also be <sup>b</sup> sects among you, <sup>c</sup> that they that are approved may be made manifest among you.

<sup>23</sup> For <sup>h</sup> I received from the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, <sup>i</sup> that the Lord Jesus, on the night in which he was betrayed, took bread, <sup>24</sup> and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said: Take, eat; this is my body which is broken for you; this do in remembrance of me. <sup>25</sup> After the same manner also he took the cup, after they had supped, saying: This cup is the New Covenant in my <sup>k</sup> blood; this do, as often as ye drink it, in remembrance of me. <sup>26</sup> For as often as ye eat this bread and drink the cup, ye show forth the Lord's death, <sup>27</sup> till he come.

12. NOW <sup>a</sup> concerning the spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have you ignorant. <sup>2</sup> Ye know <sup>b</sup> that ye were Gentiles, carried away unto the dumb idols, even as ye were led. <sup>3</sup> Wherefore I give you to understand <sup>c</sup> that no one speaking by the Spirit of God saith, Accursed be Jesus; and <sup>d</sup> no one can say, Jesus is Lord, but by the Holy Spirit. <sup>4</sup> Now <sup>e</sup> there are diversities of gifts, but <sup>f</sup> the same Spirit; <sup>5</sup> and <sup>g</sup> there are diversities of ministrations, but the same Lord; <sup>6</sup> and there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God <sup>h</sup> who worketh all in all.

so also is Christ. <sup>13</sup> For <sup>a</sup> in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, <sup>a</sup> whether Jews or Greeks, whether bond or free; and we <sup>b</sup> were all made to drink of one Spirit.

<sup>14</sup> For the body is not one member, but many. <sup>15</sup> If the foot should say, Because I am not a hand I am not of the body, is it therefore not of the body? <sup>16</sup> And if the ear should say, Because I am not an eye I am not of the body, is it therefore not of the body? <sup>17</sup> If the whole body were an eye, where would be the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where would be the smelling? <sup>18</sup> But now hath <sup>c</sup> God set the members every one of them in the body, <sup>d</sup> as it hath pleased him. <sup>19</sup> And if they were all one member, where would be the body? <sup>20</sup> But now are there many members, yet but one body. <sup>21</sup> And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee; nor again the head to the feet, I have no need of you. <sup>22</sup> Nay, much more those members of the body which seem to be more feeble are necessary; <sup>23</sup> and those which we think to be less honourable parts of the body, upon these we bestow more abundant honour; and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness; <sup>24</sup> for our comely parts have no need. But God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honour to the part which lacked; <sup>25</sup> that there may be no schism in the body, but that the members may have the same care one for another; <sup>26</sup> and <sup>e</sup> if one member suffereth all the members suffer with it, or one member is honoured, all the members rejoice with it.

Praise of love—(ch. 13. 1) without which all spiritual gifts, and even self-sacrifices, are worthless—(4) Its excellent attributes; and its pre-eminence not only (8) over the spiritual gifts which pass away, but also (13) among the Christian virtues which will endure for ever.

<sup>31</sup> NOW <sup>a</sup> desire earnestly the best gifts; and yet show I unto you a more excellent way. <sup>13</sup> Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, <sup>b</sup> and have not love, I am become as sounding brass or a tinkling cymbal. <sup>2</sup> And though I have the gift of

<sup>c</sup> prophecy, and understand all mysteries* and all knowledge, and though I have all faith <sup>d</sup> so as to remove mountains, and have not love, I am nothing. <sup>3</sup> And <sup>e</sup> though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give up my body to be burned, and have not love, it profiteth me nothing.

<sup>8</sup> Love never faileth; but whether there be prophecies, they will come to an end; whether there be tongues, they will cease; whether there be knowledge, it will vanish away. <sup>9</sup> For <sup>p</sup> we know in part, and we prophesy in part; <sup>10</sup> but when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part will come to an end. <sup>11</sup> When I was a child, I spake as a child, I felt as a child, I thought as a child; but since I have become a man, I have put away childish things. <sup>12</sup> For <sup>q</sup> now we see through a glass† obscurely, but then <sup>r</sup> face to face; now I know in part, but then shall I fully know, even as also I am known. <sup>13</sup> And now abideth faith, hope, love, these three; but <sup>s</sup> the greatest of these is love.

The superiority of the gift of prophecy over that of speaking with tongues—(23) Directions respecting the exercise of the spiritual gifts in the public assemblies.

14. FOLLOW <sup>a</sup> after love, and earnestly desire the spiritual gifts, but chiefly that ye may prophesy†. <sup>2</sup> For he that speaketh in an unknown tongue speaketh not unto men but unto God, for no man understandeth him, howbeit in the spirit he speaketh mysteries‡: <sup>3</sup> but he that prophesieth speaketh unto men to edification and exhortation and comfort. <sup>4</sup> He <sup>b</sup> that speaketh in an unknown tongue edifieth himself, but he that prophesieth <sup>c</sup> edifieth the church. <sup>5</sup> I would that ye all spake with tongues, but rather that ye prophesied; for greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues, <sup>d</sup> except he interpret, that the church may receive edification. <sup>6</sup> And now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, except I speak to you either by <sup>e</sup> revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by teaching?

<sup>7</sup> And even things without life giving sound, whether pipe or harp, except they give a distinction in the sounds how shall it be known what is piped or harped? <sup>8</sup> For if the trumpet give an uncertain sound, who will prepare himself for battle? <sup>9</sup> So likewise ye, except ye utter by the tongue words easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? For ye will be speaking into the air. <sup>10</sup> There are, it may be, so many kinds of languages* in the world, and no one of them is without signification: <sup>11</sup> if then I know not the meaning of the language†, I shall be unto him that speaketh a foreigner, and he that speaketh will be a foreigner unto me.

<sup>12</sup> Even so ye, forasmuch as ye are earnestly desirous of spiritual gifts, seek that ye may <sup>o</sup> abound in them to the edification of the church. <sup>13</sup> Wherefore let him that speaketh in an unknown tongue <sup>h</sup> pray that he may interpret. <sup>14</sup> For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth but my understanding is unfruitful. <sup>15</sup> What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray † with the understanding also; <sup>h</sup> I will sing with the spirit, and † I will sing with the understanding also. <sup>16</sup> Else when thou shalt bless with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the place of the unlearned say <sup>m</sup> the Amen at thy giving of thanks, seeing he understandeth not what thou sayest? <sup>17</sup> For thou indeed givest thanks well, but the other is not edified. <sup>18</sup> I thank God, I speak with tongues more than ye all; <sup>19</sup> yet in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that I may teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue. <sup>20</sup> Brethren, <sup>n</sup> be not children in your understanding: howbeit in malice be ye children, but in your understanding be men.

<sup>21</sup> In <sup>o</sup> the Law it is written: 'With men of other tongues and with others' lips will I speak unto this people, and yet for all that will they not hear me' [Isa. xxviii. 11, 12], saith the Lord. <sup>22</sup> So that the tongues are <sup>p</sup> for a sign, not to them that believe, but to unbelievers; but the prophesying <sup>q</sup> serveth not for unbelievers, <sup>q</sup> but for them that believe.

<sup>23</sup> If therefore the whole church be come together, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those that are unlearned or unbelievers, <sup>r</sup> will they not say that ye are mad? <sup>24</sup> But if all prophesy, and there come in one that is an unbeliever or unlearned, <sup>s</sup> he is convicted by all, he is judged by all: <sup>25</sup> the 'secrets of his heart are made manifest; and so, falling down on his face, he will worship God, and report <sup>t</sup> that God is among you of a truth.

<sup>26</sup> How is it then, brethren? When ye come together, each one of you hath a psalm, <sup>z</sup> hath a teaching, hath a tongue, hath a revelation, hath an interpretation. Let <sup>v</sup> all things be done unto edification. <sup>27</sup> If any one speaketh in an unknown tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that in turn, and let one interpret; <sup>28</sup> but if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church, and let him speak to himself and to God. <sup>29</sup> Of the prophets let two or three speak, and <sup>z</sup> let the rest judge. <sup>30</sup> If any thing <sup>a</sup> be revealed to another that sitteth by, let the first hold his peace; <sup>31</sup> for ye can all prophesy one by one; that all may learn, and all may be comforted <sup>z</sup>. <sup>32</sup> And the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets; <sup>33</sup> for God is not a God of confusion, but <sup>b</sup> of peace, as in all the churches of the saints.

The Christian doctrine of the resurrection of the dead—(1) Introductory statement of the gospel, (12) which is based upon the fact of Christ's resurrection—(20) His resurrection and universal dominion secure the resurrection of his people, and (24) the destruction of death—(29) The denial of a future life makes all suffering and sacrifice for Christ's sake irrational, and takes away the chief motive to holy living.

to Cephas, then <sup>m</sup> to the twelve. <sup>6</sup> After that, he appeared to above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep. <sup>7</sup> After that, he appeared to James, then <sup>n</sup> to all the apostles. <sup>8</sup> And <sup>o</sup> last of all he appeared to me also, as one born out of due time—<sup>9</sup> For I am <sup>p</sup> the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because <sup>q</sup> I persecuted the church of God. <sup>10</sup> But <sup>r</sup> by the grace of God I am what I am; and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but <sup>s</sup> I laboured more abundantly than they all; <sup>t</sup> yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me. <sup>11</sup> Whether then it were I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.

<sup>12</sup> Now if Christ is preached that he is risen from the dead, <sup>u</sup> how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead? <sup>13</sup> But if there be no resurrection of the dead, <sup>x</sup> then is Christ not risen.

<sup>14</sup> And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith also is vain. <sup>15</sup> Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because <sup>y</sup> we testified of God that he raised up Christ; whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead rise not. <sup>16</sup> For if the dead rise not, then neither is Christ risen; <sup>17</sup> and if Christ is not risen, your faith is vain, <sup>z</sup> ye are still in your sins. <sup>18</sup> Then they also that are <sup>a</sup> fallen asleep in Christ have perished. <sup>19</sup> If <sup>b</sup> in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men the most miserable.

<sup>29</sup> Else what will they do who are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? Why are they then baptized for the dead? <sup>30</sup> And why stand we in jeopardy every hour? <sup>31</sup> I protest, by <sup>r</sup> my rejoicing in you which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, <sup>s</sup> I die daily. <sup>32</sup> If after the manner of men <sup>t</sup> I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantageth it me if the dead rise not? 'Let us eat and drink; for to-morrow we die.' [Isa. xxii. 13, Sept.] <sup>33</sup> Be not deceived; <sup>u</sup> evil communications corrupt good manners. <sup>34</sup> Awake <sup>x</sup> to righteousness, and sin not; <sup>y</sup> for some have not the knowledge of God. <sup>z</sup> I speak this to your shame.

Objections answered—(35) Resurrection to life after death, and (37) the change in form of the raised body, illustrated by analogies from nature—(42) The natural will be changed into a spiritual body resembling the glorified body of Christ—(50) a change necessary to fit it for the celestial kingdom—(54) Triumphant thanksgiving, and (58) exhortation.

<sup>49</sup> such are they also that are earthy; <sup>50</sup> and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly. <sup>49</sup> And <sup>50</sup> as we have borne the image of the earthy, <sup>51</sup> we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

<sup>50</sup> Now this I say, brethren, that <sup>51</sup> flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit in-corruption. <sup>51</sup> Behold, I tell you a mystery*; <sup>52</sup> we shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, <sup>53</sup> in <sup>54</sup> a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet; <sup>54</sup> for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. <sup>55</sup> For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and <sup>56</sup> this mortal must put on immortality.

<sup>54</sup> So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then will be brought to pass the saying that is written:
<sup>55</sup> 'Death is swallowed up in victory' [Isa.
xxv. 8]. <sup>55</sup> 'O death, where is thy sting?
O grave, where is thy victory?' [Hos. xiii.
14, Sept.] <sup>56</sup> The <sup>57</sup> sting of death is sin, and <sup>58</sup> the strength of sin is the law. <sup>57</sup> But thanks be to God who giveth us <sup>59</sup> the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>58</sup> Therefore, <sup>59</sup> my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmoveable, always <sup>60</sup> abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that <sup>61</sup> your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

Directions respecting a collection about to be made among the Gentile churches for the relief of suffering Christians in Judea—(5) Personal notices, (13) exhortations, salutations, and (21) autograph conclusion.

<sup>16</sup> NOW concerning <sup>17</sup> the collection for the saints, as I gave order to <sup>18</sup> the churches of Galatia, so also do ye. <sup>19</sup> Upon <sup>20</sup> the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, <sup>21</sup> as he may be prospered; that there be no collections when I come.
<sup>22</sup> And when I am come, whomsoever ye shall approve, them will I send with letters, to carry your liberality unto Jerusalem; <sup>23</sup> and <sup>24</sup> if it be meet that I go also, they shall go with me.

<sup>25</sup> Now I will come unto you <sup>26</sup> when I shall have passed through Macedonia; (for I do pass through Macedonia); <sup>27</sup> and it may be that I shall abide, or even <sup>28</sup> winter, with you, that ye may <sup>29</sup> bring me on my journey whithersoever I may go. <sup>30</sup> For I do not desire to see you now by the way; but I hope to tarry a while with you, <sup>31</sup> if the Lord permit. <sup>32</sup> But I shall tarry at Ephesus until Pentecost; <sup>33</sup> for <sup>34</sup> a great and effectual door is opened unto me, and <sup>35</sup> there are many adversaries.

<sup>36</sup> Now <sup>37</sup> if Timothy come, see that he may be with you without fear; for <sup>38</sup> he doeth the work of the Lord, as I also do.
<sup>39</sup> Let <sup>40</sup> no man therefore despise him; but conduct him forth in peace, that he may come unto me; for I look for him, with <sup>41</sup> the brethren.

greatly desired him to come unto you with the brethren; but his will was not at all to come at this time; but he will come when he hath a convenient opportunity.

<sup>50</sup> all you do be done with love.

<sup>52</sup> the house of Stephanas, that it is <sup>53</sup> the firstfruits of Achaia, and that they have set themselves to minister unto the saints <sup>54</sup>—that <sup>55</sup> ye submit yourselves to such, and to every one that helpeth in the work and labour.

<sup>56</sup> I am glad of the coming of Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus; <sup>57</sup> for that which was lacking on your part they supplied; <sup>58</sup> for they refreshed my spirit and yours. Acknowledge <sup>59</sup> therefore them that are such.

<sup>60</sup> The churches of Asia* salute you.
Aquila <sup>61</sup> and Priscilla salute you much in the Lord, <sup>62</sup> with the church that is in their house. <sup>63</sup> All the brethren salute you. Salute <sup>64</sup> ye one another with a holy kiss.

<sup>65</sup> The <sup>66</sup> salutation of me Paul with mine own hand. <sup>67</sup> If any man loveth not the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be Anathema-Maran atha*.

<sup>68</sup> The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. <sup>69</sup> My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.

<sup>3</sup>Blessed <sup>f</sup>be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and God of all comfort, <sup>4</sup>who <sup>g</sup>comforteth us in all our tribulation, <sup>h</sup>that we may be able to comfort them that are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted by God. <sup>5</sup>For as <sup>i</sup>the sufferings of Christ abound in us, even so our comfort also aboundeth through Christ. <sup>6</sup>And whether we are afflicted, <sup>j</sup>it is for your comfort and salvation, which is effectual in your endurance of the same sufferings, which we also suffer, <sup>7</sup>or whether we are comforted, <sup>k</sup>it is for your comfort and salvation; and our hope is stedfast on your behalf; knowing, that <sup>l</sup>as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so will <sup>m</sup>ye be also of the comfort.

<sup>8</sup>For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant concerning <sup>n</sup>our tribulation which came to us in Asia; that we were oppressed out of measure, beyond our strength, inasmuch that we despaired even of life; <sup>9</sup>yea, we had the sentence of death within ourselves; that we might <sup>o</sup>not trust in ourselves, <sup>p</sup>but in God who raiseth the dead; <sup>10</sup>who <sup>q</sup>delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver; in whom we trust that he will still deliver us; <sup>11</sup>ye also <sup>r</sup>helping together on our behalf by your prayer; that <sup>s</sup>for the mercy bestowed upon us by the means of many persons thanks may be given by many on our behalf.

The divine credentials of the apostle's ministry—
(<sup>7</sup>) The excellency and glory of the gospel, and its superiority to the Law—(ch. 4. 1) The truthfulness and openness of the gospel ministry.

letter, but of the spirit; for <sup>l</sup> the letter killeth, <sup>m</sup> but the spirit giveth life.

<sup>12</sup> Seeing then that we have such hope, we use great plainness; of speech; <sup>13</sup> and we do not as Moses, who <sup>s</sup> put a vail over his face, that the children of Israel might not look stedfastly upon the end of that which was to be done away. <sup>14</sup> But their minds were blinded; for unto this day remaineth the same vail untaken away upon the reading of the Old Testament; which vail is done away in Christ; <sup>15</sup> but even unto this day, when Moses is read, a vail is upon their heart. <sup>16</sup> But <sup>t</sup> when it turneth to the Lord, <sup>u</sup> the vail is taken away. <sup>17</sup> Now <sup>x</sup> the Lord is the Spirit; <sup>y</sup> and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty. <sup>18</sup> And we all with unveiled face beholding, <sup>z</sup> as in a mirror, <sup>a</sup> the glory of the Lord, <sup>b</sup> are being changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Lord, the Spirit.

4. Therefore seeing we have this ministry, <sup>c</sup> even as we received mercy, <sup>d</sup> we are not faint-hearted; <sup>2</sup> but we have renounced the hidden things of shame; not walking in craftiness, <sup>e</sup> nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but <sup>f</sup> by the manifestation of the truth <sup>g</sup> commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. <sup>3</sup> And even if our gospel is veiled, <sup>h</sup> it is veiled to them that are perishing; <sup>4</sup> in whom <sup>i</sup> the god of this world <sup>k</sup> hath blinded the minds of the unbelieving, that the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, <sup>l</sup> who is the image of God, might not shine forth unto them. <sup>5</sup> For <sup>m</sup> we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus, the Lord, and <sup>o</sup> ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake. <sup>6</sup> For it is God, <sup>p</sup> who commanded light to shine out of darkness, who shone in our hearts, to give <sup>q</sup> the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

The apostolic ministry, weak in itself, is sustained and made efficacious by Divine power and grace; and (16) triumphs in the assurance of a glorious immortality.

<sup>12</sup> So then death worketh in us, but life in you. <sup>13</sup> But we having <sup>h</sup> the same spirit of faith, according to that which is written, 'I believed and therefore have I spoken' [Psa. cxvi. 10], we also believe and therefore speak; <sup>14</sup> knowing that <sup>i</sup> he who raised up the Lord Jesus will raise up us also with <sup>j</sup> Jesus, <sup>k</sup> and will present us with you. <sup>15</sup> For <sup>l</sup> all things are for your sakes, that <sup>m</sup> the grace abounding by means of many may cause thanksgiving to abound unto the glory of God.

faith, not by sight), <sup>8</sup> we are confident, <sup>1</sup> I say, and <sup>2</sup> willing rather to be absent from the body and to be at home with the Lord. <sup>9</sup> Wherefore also we earnestly strive that <sup>g</sup> whether at home or absent we may be well-pleasing unto him. <sup>10</sup> For <sup>h</sup> we must all be made manifest before the judgment seat of Christ; <sup>i</sup> that every one may receive the things <sup>j</sup> done in the body, according to what he hath done, whether <sup>k</sup> it be good or bad.

The responsibilities, trials, and motives of the gospel ministry—(ch. 6. 1) Exhortations, admonitions, warnings, and (11) appeal for sympathy—(ch. 7. 5) Concerning the happy effects of his former epistle.

day of salvation I succoured thee' [Isa. xlix. 8]; <sup>2</sup> behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation—<sup>3</sup> Giving <sup>c</sup> no cause of offence* in any thing, that the ministry may not be blamed; <sup>4</sup> but in every thing recommending ourselves <sup>d</sup> as ministers of God, <sup>e</sup> in much patience, in tribulations, <sup>f</sup> in necessities, in distresses, <sup>5</sup> in <sup>g</sup> stripes, in imprisonments, <sup>h</sup> in tumults, in labours, in watchings, in fastings; <sup>6</sup> in <sup>i</sup> pureness, <sup>k</sup> in knowledge, in long-suffering, in kindness, <sup>l</sup> in the Holy Spirit, <sup>m</sup> in love unfeigned, <sup>7</sup> in <sup>n</sup> the word of truth, <sup>o</sup> in the power of God; by <sup>p</sup> the weapons of righteousness on the right hand and on the left; <sup>8</sup> through honour and dishonour, <sup>9</sup> through evil report and good report; as deceivers and yet true, <sup>9</sup> as unknown and yet well known, <sup>r</sup> as dying and behold we live, as chastened and not killed, <sup>10</sup> as sorrowful <sup>s</sup> yet always rejoicing, as poor yet making many rich, as having nothing and yet possessing all things.

<sup>11</sup> O ye Corinthians, our mouth is open unto you, our heart is enlarged. <sup>12</sup> Ye are not straitened in us, but ye are straitened in your own hearts; <sup>13</sup> now as a recompence in the same kind—I speak as unto my children—let your hearts also be enlarged.

am exceedingly joyful in all our tribulation.

<sup>11</sup> For behold this very thing, that ye were made sorrowful after a godly sort; what earnestness it wrought in you, yea what clearing of yourselves, yea what indignation, yea what fear, yea what vehement desire, yea what zeal, yea what <sup>p</sup> inflicting of punishment! In all things ye have proved yourselves to be clear in this matter. <sup>12</sup> Wherefore though I wrote unto you, I did it not <sup>q</sup> for his cause who had done the wrong, nor for his cause who suffered the wrong, but <sup>r</sup> that your earnest care for us* might be made manifest unto you in the sight of God.

<sup>13</sup> Therefore we have been comforted; and in our comfort we rejoiced; the more exceedingly for the joy of Titus, because his spirit hath been refreshed by you all. <sup>14</sup> For if I boasted any thing to him, concerning you, I was not put to shame, but as we spake all things to you in truth, so also our boasting which <sup>s</sup> I made before Titus was found to be truth. <sup>15</sup> And his affection is more abundant towards you, whilst he remembereth <sup>t</sup> the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling ye received him. <sup>16</sup> I rejoice therefore that <sup>u</sup> I have good courage concerning you in everything.

hath been bestowed on <sup>a</sup> the churches of Macedonia, <sup>2</sup> how that <sup>b</sup> in a great trial of affliction <sup>c</sup> the abundance of their joy and their <sup>d</sup> deep poverty abounded unto the riches of their liberality. <sup>3</sup> For according to their power, I hear witness, yea and beyond their power, they were willing of themselves, <sup>4</sup> begging of us with much intreaty <sup>e</sup>, the <sup>f</sup> favour of sharing in the ministration to the saints. <sup>5</sup> And this not only as we expected, but they first gave themselves to the Lord, <sup>6</sup> and unto us by the will of God; <sup>7</sup> so that <sup>g</sup> we desired Titus, that as he had already begun, so he would also finish among you this grace also.

<sup>13</sup> For it is not that others may be eased and ye burdened, <sup>14</sup> but by an equality; that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for their want, in order that their abundance also may be a supply for your want; that there may be equality; <sup>15</sup> as it is written: 'He that had gathered much had nothing over, and he that had gathered little had no lack' [Exod. xvi. 18].

<sup>16</sup> But thanks be to God who put the same earnest care into the heart of Titus for you; <sup>17</sup> for indeed he accepted <sup>q</sup> the exhortation; but being more zealous he went of his own accord unto you. <sup>18</sup> And we have sent with him <sup>r</sup> the brother whose praise in the gospel is throughout all the churches; <sup>19</sup> and not only so, but who was also <sup>s</sup> chosen by the churches to be our fellow-traveller, with this <sup>t</sup> gift, which is administered by us, <sup>u</sup> to the glory of the Lord himself, and for the declaration of our entire ready mind; <sup>20</sup> taking care, that no man should blame us in the matter of this abundance which is administered by us; <sup>21</sup> providing <sup>x</sup> for what is honourable not only in the sight of the Lord but also in the sight of men. <sup>22</sup> And we have sent with them our brother whom we have oftentimes proved to be zealous in many things, but now much more zealous from the great confidence which he hath in you.

<sup>9</sup> For as touching <sup>a</sup> the ministering to the saints it is superfluous for me to write to you. <sup>2</sup> For I know your readiness of mind; <sup>b</sup> for which I boast of you to them of Macedonia, that <sup>c</sup> Achaia was ready a year ago; and your zeal hath stirred up very many <sup>t</sup>. <sup>3</sup> Yet <sup>d</sup> have I sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this behalf, that, as I said, <sup>e</sup> ye may be ready; <sup>4</sup> lest haply if <sup>f</sup> any Macedonians come with me, and find you unprepared, we, (that we say not ye), should be put to shame in this confident boasting <sup>g</sup>. <sup>5</sup> I thought it necessary therefore to exhort the brethren to go before unto you, and to make up beforehand your bounty, whereof ye had notice before<sup>h</sup>, that the same may be ready, as a matter of bounty and not as of covetousness.

<sup>6</sup> But this I say, <sup>g</sup> He that soweth sparingly will reap also sparingly, and he that soweth bountifully will reap also bountifully. <sup>7</sup> Every one according as he hath purposed in his heart so let him give, <sup>h</sup> not grudgingly or of necessity; <sup>i</sup> for 'God loveth a cheerful giver.' [Prov. xxii. 8, Sept.] <sup>8</sup> And <sup>j</sup> God is able to make all grace abound towards you; that ye always having all sufficiency in every thing, may abound to every good work; <sup>9</sup> as it is written: 'He hath dispersed abroad, he hath given to the poor; his righteousness remaineth for ever' [Psa. cxii. 9].

glorify God for your professed subjection* unto the gospel of Christ, and for the liberality of your<sup>o</sup> contribution unto them and unto all men; <sup>14</sup> while they themselves also, with prayer for you, are longing after you, by reason of the exceeding<sup>u</sup> grace of God in you. <sup>15</sup> Thanks be unto God<sup>q</sup> for his unspeakable gift.

Vindication of Paul's apostolic authority, and (8) its exercise over churches founded by his ministry.

10. NOW <sup>a</sup> I Paul myself beseech you, <sup>b</sup> by the meekness and gentleness of Christ, who in presence am lowly among you, but when absent <sup>c</sup> am bold towards you; <sup>2</sup> but I entreat you<sup>d</sup> that I may not be bold when I am present, with the confidence wherewith I think to be bold against some who think of us<sup>e</sup> as if we walked according to the flesh.

you also in the gospel of Christ; <sup>15</sup> not boasting without our measure, <sup>a</sup> in other men's labours; but having hope, as your faith increaseth, to be enlarged among you, according to our rule, abundantly, <sup>16</sup> so as to preach the gospel in the regions beyond you, and not in another man's rule to boast of things made ready to our hand. <sup>17</sup> But <sup>b</sup> 'he that glorieth let him glory in the Lord' [Jer. ix. 24]. <sup>18</sup> For <sup>c</sup> not he that commendeth himself is approved, but he <sup>d</sup> whom the Lord commendeth.

Apology for self commendation, necessitated by the charges and pretensions of false teachers —(13) His labours and sufferings in the service of the gospel.

11. WOULD that ye could bear with me in a little <sup>a</sup> folly; and indeed ye do bear with me. <sup>2</sup> For I am <sup>b</sup> jealous over you with a godly jealousy; for <sup>c</sup> I betrothed you to one husband, <sup>d</sup> to present you as a chaste virgin to Christ. <sup>3</sup> But I fear lest by any means, as <sup>e</sup> the serpent beguiled Eve by his subtilty, so your minds <sup>f</sup> should be corrupted from your singleness of heart towards Christ. <sup>4</sup> For if indeed he that cometh preacheth <sup>g</sup> another Jesus whom we preached not, or if ye receive a different spirit which ye received not, or <sup>h</sup> a different gospel which ye accepted not, ye with reason bear with him. <sup>5</sup> For I reckon that <sup>i</sup> I am not a whit behind those very greatest apostles; <sup>6</sup> but though <sup>k</sup> I am unlearned* in speech, yet am I not <sup>l</sup> in knowledge; but <sup>m</sup> we have in everything <sup>n</sup> been made manifest to you before all men.

<sup>7</sup> Or did I commit an offence<sup>a</sup> in abasing myself that ye might be exalted, because I preached to you the gospel of God without charge? <sup>8</sup> I robbed other churches, taking wages of them, for my ministry to you; <sup>9</sup> and when I was present with you and wanted, <sup>o</sup> I was a burden to no man; for that which was lacking to me <sup>p</sup> the brethren coming from Macedonia supplied. And in everything I kept myself <sup>q</sup> from being burdensome unto you, and so will I keep myself. <sup>10</sup> As <sup>r</sup> the truth of Christ is in me, <sup>s</sup> no man shall stop me from this boasting in the regions of Achaia. <sup>11</sup> Wherefore? Because <sup>t</sup> I love you not? God knoweth. <sup>12</sup> But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off the occasion from them that desire an occasion; that wherein they boast, they may be found even as we are. <sup>13</sup> For such <sup>u</sup> are false apostles, <sup>v</sup> deceitful workmen, transforming themselves into apostles of Christ. <sup>14</sup> And no marvel; for even <sup>w</sup> Satan transformeth himself into an angel of light; <sup>15</sup> it is so no great thing therefore if his ministers also unto you? <sup>18</sup> I desired Titus to go to you, and with him I sent our <sup>m</sup> brother. Did Titus take advantage of you? Walked we not in the same spirit; walked we not in the same steps?

<sup>19</sup> Have ye for some time* been thinking <sup>n</sup> that we are defending ourselves to you? We are speaking <sup>o</sup> before God in Christ; <sup>p</sup> but we do all things, dearly beloved, for your edification. <sup>20</sup> For I fear lest when I come I may not find you such as I would, and that <sup>q</sup> I may be found by you such as ye would not; lest there be contentions, envyings, wraths, factions, slanderings, whisperings, swellings, tumults; <sup>21</sup> and lest when I come again, my God <sup>r</sup> will humble me among you, and I shall bewail many of those <sup>s</sup> who have sinned before, and have not repented of the uncleanness and <sup>t</sup> fornication and lasciviousness which they committed.

<sup>13</sup>. This third time I am coming to you. <sup>u</sup> In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every matter|| be established' [Deut. xix. 15]. <sup>2</sup> I have said already, and now say beforehand, as if I were present <sup>v</sup> the second time, and now in my absence I write, to those who have sinned before, and to all the rest, that if I come again I will not spare; <sup>3</sup> since ye seek a proof of Christ <sup>w</sup> speaking in me, who towards you is not weak, but is <sup>x</sup> mighty in you. <sup>4</sup> For <sup>y</sup> though he was crucified through weakness, yet <sup>a</sup> he liveth through the power of God. For <sup>b</sup> we also are weak in him, <sup>c</sup> but we shall live with him by the power of God towards you.

The second Epistle to the Corinthians was written from Philippi, a city of Macedonia, by Titus and Luke.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE

TO THE

GALATIANS.

Salutation and ascription of praise to God—(6) Reproof of the Galatians for falling away from the gospel—(8) Denunciation of false teachers.

<sup>h</sup> from him who called you in the grace of Christ unto a different gospel; <sup>7</sup> which is not another, but there are some <sup>i</sup> that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

<sup>8</sup> But even if <sup>k</sup> we, or an angel from heaven, should preach any other gospel unto you than that which we preached unto you, let him be accursed. <sup>9</sup> As we have said before, so say I now again, If any one preacheth any other gospel unto you <sup>l</sup> than that which ye received, let him be accursed.

<sup>10</sup> For <sup>m</sup> am I now seeking the favour of men, or of God? Or do I seek to please men? For <sup>n</sup> if I were still pleasing men, I should not be a servant of Christ.

The Gospel preached by Paul, (11) was received by Divine revelation; (13) not from his own early education, which was entirely opposed to it; (15) nor from the other apostles, (ch. 2. 7) towards whom he always maintained independence and equality; and (11) he even rebuked Peter for making concessions to the Judaizers (15) opposed to the principles of the gospel.

11 BUT I make known unto you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached by me is not according to man; 12 for it was not from man that <sup>a</sup> I received it or was taught it, but by revelation of Jesus Christ.

13 For ye heard of my manner of life in time past in the Jews' religion*, how that <sup>b</sup> beyond measure I persecuted the church of God, and was destroying it; 14 and I was going forward in the Jews' religion beyond many of my own age among my countrymen, <sup>c</sup> being more exceedingly zealous <sup>d</sup> for the traditions of my fathers. 15 But when it pleased God, <sup>e</sup> who set me apart from my very birth and called me by his grace, 16 to <sup>f</sup> reveal his Son in me, that <sup>g</sup> I might preach him among the Gentiles, immediately <sup>h</sup> I conferred not with flesh and blood, 17 nor <sup>i</sup> did I go up to Jerusalem to those that were apostles before me; but I went away into Arabia, and I returned again unto Damascus.

18 Then after three years <sup>k</sup> I went up to Jerusalem to visit Peter, and abode with him fifteen days; 19 but no other of the apostles did I see, save <sup>l</sup> James <sup>m</sup> the Lord's brother. 20 Now as to the things which I am writing to you, <sup>n</sup> behold before God I lie not. 21 Afterwards <sup>o</sup> I went into the regions of Syria and Cilicia. 22 But I was unknown by face unto the churches of Judaea which were in Christ: 23 but they heard only, that <sup>p</sup> he who persecuted us in times past now preacheth the faith which once he was destroying; 24 and <sup>q</sup> they glorified God in me.

2. Then <sup>r</sup> after fourteen years I went up again to Jerusalem with <sup>s</sup> Barnabas, taking Titus also with me. 2 And I went up by <sup>t</sup> revelation, and <sup>u</sup> communicated unto them the gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but privately to those that were of reputation, lest by any means I might be running or had run in vain. 3 But not even Titus who was with me, though he was a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised: 4 and that because of <sup>v</sup> the false brethren <sup>w</sup> stealthily brought in, who came in secretly to spy out our <sup>x</sup> liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, <sup>y</sup> that they might bring us into bondage: 5 to whom we did not yield submission, even for an hour; that the truth of the gospel might continue with you. 6 But of those who were reputed to be something—whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me; <sup>a</sup> God accepteth no man's person—they, I say, who were in reputation imparted nothing to me. But contrariwise, when they saw that <sup>b</sup> the gospel of the Uncircumcision had been committed unto me, <sup>c</sup> as the gospel of the Circumcision had been unto Peter; 8 (for he who wrought for Peter unto the apostleship of the Circumcision, <sup>d</sup> the same wrought for me also unto the Gentiles); 9 and when James, <sup>e</sup> Cephas and John, who were reputed to be <sup>f</sup> pillars, perceived the grace that was given unto me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship; 10 that we <sup>g</sup> should go unto the Gentiles, and they unto the Circumcision. 10 Only they would that we should remember the poor; <sup>h</sup> which very thing I also was forward to do.

11 But when Peter came to Antioch, I withstood him to the face, because he was evidently to blame*. 12 For before certain <sup>i</sup> men came from James, <sup>k</sup> he ate with the Gentiles; but when they came, he withdrew and separated himself, <sup>l</sup> fearing those that were of the Circumcision. 13 And the other Jews also dissembled likewise with him: insomuch that even Barnabas was carried away with their dissimulation. 14 But when I saw that they walked not uprightly, according to the truth of the gospel, I said unto Peter before them all: If thou being a Jew livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, <sup>m</sup> why compellest thou the Gentiles to keep the customs of the Jews?

15 We who are Jews by nature, and not sinners of the Gentiles, 16 knowing nevertheless that a man <sup>n</sup> is not justified by the works of the law, but <sup>o</sup> only through faith in Jesus Christ, we ourselves believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by faith in Christ, and not by the works of the law; for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified. 17 But <sup>p</sup> if, while we seek to be justified in Christ, we ourselves also were found to be sinners, is therefore Christ a minister of sin? God forbid. 18 For if I build up again the things which I pulled down, I prove myself a transgressor. 19 For I through the law <sup>q</sup> died to the law, that I might <sup>r</sup> live unto God. 20 I have been <sup>s</sup> crucified with Christ, <sup>t</sup> nevertheless I live; yet no longer I, but <sup>u</sup> Christ liveth in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh <sup>x</sup> I live in the faith of the Son of God,† who loved me, and gave himself for me. <sup>21</sup> I do not make void the grace of God; for <sup>a</sup> if righteousness be by the law, then Christ died without a cause*.

Remonstrance, founded on the Galatians' own experience—(6) Abraham was justified by faith; and so must all his true children be—(10) The law only condemns; but (13) from this condemnation Christ has delivered us—(15) The gospel is the fulfilment of God's covenant with Abraham.

<sup>10</sup> For as many as are of the works of the law are under a curse; for it is written: 'Cursed <sup>j</sup> is every one that continueth not in all the things which are written in the book of the law to do them' [Deut. xxvii. 26, Sept.]. <sup>11</sup> But <sup>k</sup> that in the law no one is justified before God, is evident; for 'The just <sup>l</sup> shall live by faith' [Hab. ii. 4]. <sup>12</sup> And <sup>m</sup> the law is not of faith; but 'he that <sup>n</sup> doeth them shall live in them' [Lev. xviii. 5]. <sup>13</sup> Christ <sup>o</sup> hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us; for it is written: 'Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree' [Deut. xxi. 23, Sept.]; <sup>14</sup> that the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles in Christ Jesus; that we might receive <sup>p</sup> the promise of the Spirit† through faith.

<sup>15</sup> Brethren—I speak after the manner of men—though it be but a man's covenant, yet when it hath been ratified, no man disannulleth it, or addeth thereto. <sup>16</sup> Now <sup>q</sup> to Abraham were the promises spoken, and to his seed. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to 'thy Seed' [Gen. xxii. 18] which is <sup>r</sup> Christ. <sup>17</sup> And this I say, that the covenant ratified before by God‡, the law, <sup>s</sup> which was four hundred and thirty years after, doth not disannul, so as to make the promise of no effect. <sup>18</sup> For if the inheritance is of the law it is no more of promise; but <sup>t</sup> God freely gave it to Abraham by promise.

The design and use of the law—(19) in witnessing against sin, and (26) by its course of pupilage and bondage, preparing for the freedom and sonship of the gospel—(ch. 4. 8) Yet the Galatians after escaping from the bondage of idolatry are returning to that of Judaism.

<sup>19</sup> WHEREFORE then serveth the law?

<sup>21</sup> Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid! For if there had been a law given which was able to give life, verily righteousness would have been by the law. <sup>22</sup> But the Scripture shut up <sup>d</sup> all under sin, <sup>e</sup> that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe. <sup>23</sup> But before the faith came we were <sup>f</sup> kept in ward under the law, shut up unto the faith which was afterwards to be revealed. <sup>24</sup> So that <sup>g</sup> the law hath become our schoolmaster† to bring us unto Christ, <sup>h</sup> that we may be justified by faith. <sup>25</sup> But now that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster; <sup>26</sup> for ye <sup>i</sup> are all the children of God through faith in Christ Jesus. <sup>27</sup> For <sup>k</sup> as many of you as were baptized into Christ <sup>l</sup> put on Christ. <sup>28</sup> There <sup>m</sup> is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is not male and female; for ye are all <sup>n</sup> one in Christ Jesus. <sup>29</sup> And <sup>o</sup> if ye are Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and <sup>p</sup> heirs according to the promise.

4. Now I say that the heir as long as he is a child differeth nothing from a servant‡, though he be lord of all; <sup>2</sup> but he is under guardians and stewards until the time appointed by the father. <sup>3</sup> Even so we, when we were children, were kept in bondage under the <sup>q</sup> rudiments of the world. <sup>4</sup> But <sup>r</sup> when the fulness of the time was come, <sup>s</sup> God sent forth his Son, <sup>t</sup> born of a woman, <sup>u</sup> born under the law, <sup>v</sup> to <sup>w</sup> redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons. <sup>6</sup> And because ye are sons, God sent forth <sup>y</sup> the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba! Father! <sup>7</sup> So then thou art no more a servant, but a son; and if a son then an heir of God through Christ.

<sup>8</sup> Howbeit at that time when ye knew not God, <sup>9</sup> ye did service unto them that by nature are no gods. <sup>10</sup> But now after ye have known God, or rather have been known by God, how turn ye back again to the weak and beggarly <sup>a</sup> rudiments, to which ye desire again to be in bondage? <sup>10</sup> Ye <sup>b</sup> observe days and months and times and years. <sup>11</sup> I am afraid of you, lest haply I have bestowed upon you labour in vain.

Appeal founded on the apostle's personal relations with the churches in Galatia—(17) Reprobation of the Judaizing teachers—(21) The Law itself teaches that the Old Covenant must give place to the New.

<sup>12</sup> BRETHREN, I beseech you, become as I am; <sup>a</sup> for I also became as ye were. Ye did me no wrong; <sup>13</sup> but ye know that it was on account of an infirmity <sup>b</sup> of my flesh that I preached the gospel unto you at the first; <sup>14</sup> and your * trial which was in my flesh ye despised not nor rejected; but ye received me <sup>c</sup> as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus. <sup>15</sup> Where then is the blessedness ye spake of? For I bear you witness that if it had been possible, ye would have plucked out your own eyes and have given them to me. <sup>16</sup> Am <sup>d</sup> I then become your enemy by dealing truly with you?

many more children than she that hath a husband.' [Isa. liv. 1, Sept.]

<sup>28</sup> Now we*, brethren, as Isaac was, are <sup>m</sup> the children of promise. <sup>29</sup> But as then <sup>n</sup> he that was born after the flesh persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, <sup>o</sup> even so it is now. <sup>30</sup> But what saith the Scripture? Cast out the bondwoman and her son; for the son of the bondwoman shall not be heir with the son of the freewoman [Gen. xxi. 10, Sept.]. <sup>31</sup> So then, brethren, we are not children of a bondwoman, but of the free. <sup>5</sup> Stand fast therefore in <sup>p</sup> the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free; and be not entangled again <sup>q</sup> with a yoke of bondage.

Practical application—Cautions (2) against yielding to false teachers, and (13) against abusing Christian liberty—(14) The Law is fulfilled in love, and in (16) living by the rule of the Spirit—(19) The manifest works of the flesh, contrasted with (23) the fruit of the Spirit—Exhortations to (ch. 6. 1) forbearance, (2) brotherly sympathy, (6) liberality, and (9) perseverance in all well-doing.

17 For <sup>t</sup>the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; and <sup>u</sup> these are contrary the one to the other, that ye may not do the things that ye would. <sup>18</sup> But <sup>x</sup> if ye are led by the Spirit, ye are not under the law.

<sup>19</sup> Now <sup>y</sup> the works of the flesh are manifest; such as, adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, <sup>20</sup> idolatry, sorcery, hatred, strife, jealousies, wrath, self-seeking, dissensions, <sup>21</sup> sects, <sup>21</sup> envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: concerning which I forewarn you now, as I also forewarned you before, that <sup>a</sup> they who do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

<sup>22</sup> But <sup>b</sup> the fruit of the Spirit is <sup>c</sup> love, joy, peace, longsuffering, <sup>d</sup> kindness, goodness, faithfulness, <sup>33</sup> meekness, temperance*: against such things there is no law. <sup>24</sup> And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with its passions and lusts. <sup>25</sup> If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit. <sup>26</sup> Let <sup>e</sup> us not be desirous of vain glory, provoking one another, envying one another.

<sup>6</sup> Brethren, if a man be even caught in any transgression, ye <sup>f</sup> that are spiritual <sup>g</sup> restore such a one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, <sup>h</sup> lest thou also be tempted. <sup>2</sup> Bear <sup>i</sup> ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil <sup>k</sup> the law of Christ.

<sup>3</sup> For <sup>l</sup> if any one thinketh himself to be something when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself. <sup>4</sup> But <sup>m</sup> let each one prove his own work, and then will he have his glorying in himself alone and not in another.
<sup>5</sup> For <sup>n</sup> each one shall bear his own burden.

communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things. <sup>7</sup> Be not deceived; God is not mocked; for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap; <sup>8</sup> for <sup>p</sup> he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption, but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap everlasting life.

<sup>9</sup> And <sup>q</sup> let us not be weary in well doing;
for <sup>r</sup> in due season we shall reap if we faint not. <sup>10</sup> As therefore we have <sup>s</sup> opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them that are of <sup>t</sup> the household of faith.

Conclusion—(12) Further warning against the Judaizers, whose objects are selfish and worldly. (14) The new spiritual creation is everything—(16) Benediction and farewell.

<sup>11</sup> SEE in what large letters I have written unto you <sup>a</sup> with mine own hand.

<sup>12</sup> As many as desire to make a fair show in the flesh, <sup>b</sup> they constrain you to be circumcised, only lest they should suffer persecution for the cross of Christ. <sup>13</sup> For <sup>c</sup> even they who are circumcised do not themselves keep the law; but they desire to have you circumcised that they may glory in your flesh. <sup>14</sup> But <sup>d</sup> God forbid that I should glory save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom* the world is <sup>e</sup> crucified unto me, and I unto the world.
<sup>15</sup> For <sup>f</sup> in Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth anything nor uncircumcision, but <sup>g</sup> a new creature. <sup>16</sup> And as many as walk according to this rule, peace be on them, and mercy, and upon <sup>h</sup> the Israel of God.

<sup>17</sup> From henceforth let no man trouble me; for <sup>i</sup> I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus.

Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

wherein he hath made us accepted<sup>2</sup> in the<sup>m</sup> beloved One.

In<sup>n</sup> whom we have redemption, through his blood, the forgiveness of our sins, according to<sup>o</sup> the riches of his grace; <sup>8</sup> which he made to abound towards us in all wisdom and prudence; <sup>9</sup> having made known unto us the<sup>p</sup> mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which<sup>q</sup> he purposed in himself, <sup>10</sup> unto the dispensation of<sup>r</sup> the fulness of the times<sup>s</sup> to gather together in one all things in Christ, both those which are in the heavens, and those which are upon the earth; even in him, <sup>11</sup> in<sup>t</sup> whom we have been also made his inheritance, being foreordained according to<sup>u</sup> the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his will; <sup>12</sup> that we should be unto the praise of his glory, even we who before had hoped in Christ; <sup>13</sup> in whom<sup>x</sup> ye also, having heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, in whom ye also having believed,<sup>y</sup> were sealed with<sup>z</sup> the Holy Spirit of promise, <sup>14</sup> which<sup>a</sup> is the earnest of our inheritance, for the redemption of<sup>b</sup> the purchased possession, <sup>c</sup> unto the praise of his glory.

Thanksgiving for the Ephesian Christians; and (17) prayer that they may fully know all that God has revealed and promised—(19) The Divine power manifested in their spiritual renovation, by virtue of the resurrection and glorification of Christ.

<sup>15</sup> WHEREFORE I also, having heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus, and your love to all the saints, <sup>16</sup> cease<sup>a</sup> not to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers; <sup>17</sup> that<sup>b</sup> the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, <sup>c</sup> may give unto you the spirit of wisdom and<sup>d</sup> revelation in the knowledge of him: <sup>18</sup> the eyes of your mind<sup>e</sup> being enlightened; that ye may know what is<sup>f</sup> the hope of his calling, and what<sup>g</sup> the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints, <sup>19</sup> and what<sup>h</sup> is the exceeding greatness of his power towards us who believe; according to the working of his mighty power <sup>20</sup> which<sup>i</sup> he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and<sup>j</sup> set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places, <sup>21</sup> far<sup>k</sup> above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world but also in that which is to come; <sup>22</sup> and<sup>l</sup> put all things in subjection under his feet, and gave him<sup>m</sup> to be the head over all things to the church, <sup>23</sup> which<sup>n</sup> is his body, the fulness of him<sup>n</sup> who filleth all in all.

Contrast between the former and present state of the Gentile Christians in their relations to God and to his church; (14) Jews and Gentiles being reconciled to each other, and both to God in Christ.

<sup>11</sup> WHEREFORE<sup>a</sup> remember that ye being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, who are called the Uncircumcision by that which is called<sup>b</sup> the Circumcision in the flesh made by hands, <sup>12</sup> that ye were at that time without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers to<sup>c</sup> the covenants of the promise, having no hope, and<sup>d</sup> without God in the world; <sup>13</sup> but now in Christ Jesus ye who once were<sup>e</sup> far off have been brought nigh by<sup>f</sup> the blood of Christ.

3. FOR this cause I Paul, the <sup>a</sup>prisoner of Jesus Christ <sup>b</sup>for you Gentiles—2 if indeed ye heard of <sup>c</sup>the dispensation of the grace of God which was given to me for you; <sup>3</sup>that <sup>d</sup>by revelation there was made* known to me the mystery†, (as I wrote before in few words, <sup>4</sup>whereby when ye read ye can understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ), <sup>5</sup>which <sup>e</sup>in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it hath now been revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets <sup>f</sup>by the Spirit; <sup>6</sup>that the Gentiles are fellowheirs, and <sup>g</sup>of the same body, and <sup>h</sup>joint partakers of his promise in Christ through the gospel: <sup>7</sup>whereof <sup>i</sup>I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God which was given to me, according to <sup>k</sup>the effectual working of his power. <sup>8</sup>Unto me <sup>l</sup>who am less than the least of all saints was this grace given, <sup>m</sup>to preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ, <sup>9</sup>and to make all <sup>n</sup>men see what is the dispensation† of <sup>o</sup>the mystery which from the beginning of the world <sup>p</sup>hath been hidden in God, who created all things<sup>q</sup>; <sup>10</sup>to the intent that now <sup>r</sup>unto the principalities and powers in the heavenly places may be made known through the church the manifold wisdom of God, <sup>11</sup>according to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord; <sup>12</sup>in whom we have boldness and access with confidence through our faith in him. <sup>13</sup>Wherefore I beseech you that ye <sup>s</sup>faint not at my tribulations for you, <sup>t</sup>which are your glory.

14 For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father*, <sup>15</sup>from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named, <sup>16</sup>that he would grant you, according <sup>u</sup>to the riches of his glory, <sup>v</sup>to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in <sup>w</sup>the inner man; <sup>17</sup>that <sup>x</sup>Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; <sup>y</sup>ye being rooted and grounded in love; <sup>18</sup>that ye may be fully able to comprehend with all the saints what <sup>z</sup>is the breadth and length and depth and height, <sup>19</sup>and <sup>aa</sup>to know the love of Christ which passeth knowledge, that ye may be filled <sup>ab</sup>even unto all <sup>ac</sup>the fulness of God.

Exhortations to (1) holy living, and especially to (2) humility, forbearance, and unity; that the church (7) with all its diversity of individual graces and gifts (13) may grow up into a perfect body of Christ.

4. I THEREFORE, <sup>a</sup>the prisoner of the Lord—beseech you that ye <sup>b</sup>walk worthy of the calling wherewith ye were called, <sup>2</sup>with all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, <sup>c</sup>forbearing one another in love, <sup>3</sup>endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit <sup>d</sup>in the bond of peace. <sup>4</sup>There <sup>e</sup>is <sup>f</sup>one body and one Spirit, even as ye were called in one hope of your calling; <sup>5</sup>one <sup>g</sup>Lord, <sup>h</sup>one faith, <sup>i</sup>one baptism; <sup>6</sup>one God and Father of all, <sup>k</sup>who is over all and through all and <sup>l</sup>in you all†.

things <sup>a</sup> unto him who is the head, even Christ; <sup>16</sup> from <sup>a</sup> whom the whole body, <sup>b</sup> fitly framed and knit together, by means of that which every joint supplieth, according to the working in the measure of each several part, maketh increase of the body unto the building up of itself <sup>c</sup> in love.

Further exhortations to entire renovation of mind and conduct, according to the teaching of Christ; (25) especially avoiding falsehood, dishonesty, irascible passions, and all sensual lusts, and cultivating kindness and forbearance, purity in thought and action, (ch. 5. 8) wise carefulness, and diligent improvement of time.

Christ also loved us, and <sup>e</sup> gave himself up for us an offering and a sacrifice to God <sup>f</sup> for a sweet-smelling savour.

himself for it; <sup>26</sup> that f he might sanctify it, cleansing it <sup>o</sup> with the washing of the water <sup>h</sup> by the word; <sup>27</sup> that i he might present it to himself <sup>k</sup> a glorious church, not having spot or wrinkle or any such thing, but that it might be holy and without blemish. <sup>28</sup> So ought husbands to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself; <sup>29</sup> for no one ever yet hated his own flesh, but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as Christ* also doth the church. <sup>30</sup> For l we are members of his body, being of his flesh and of his bones. <sup>31</sup> For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother and shall be joined unto his wife, and the two shall be one flesh.' [Gen. ii. 24, Sept.] <sup>32</sup> This is a great mystery, but I speak m concerning Christ and the church. <sup>33</sup> Nevertheless let every one of you in particular so love his wife even as himself; and let the wife see that she <sup>n</sup> reverence her husband.

<sup>21</sup> But that ye also may know my affairs, and how I do, <sup>t</sup> Tychicus, our beloved brother and a faithful minister in the Lord, will make known to you all things: <sup>22</sup> whom I have sent unto you for this very purpose, that ye may know our affairs, and that he may comfort your hearts.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE PHILIPPIANS.

Introductory salutation—(8) Thanksgiving for the Philippian Christians, and (9) prayer for their growth in knowledge and holiness.

1. PAUL and Timothy, servants of Jesus Christ, to all <sup>a</sup> the saints in Christ Jesus who are at <sup>b</sup> Philippi, with the <sup>c</sup> bishops and <sup>d</sup> deacons: <sup>e</sup> Grace <sup>f</sup> be unto you and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

Progress of the gospel in Rome during the apostle's captivity—(19) His own personal experience and prospects.

<sup>12</sup> BUT I would have you know, brethren, that the things which have happened unto me have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the gospel; <sup>13</sup> so that <sup>a</sup> my bonds in Christ have become manifest <sup>b</sup> in all the Prætorium† and to all the rest; <sup>14</sup> and most of the brethren in the Lord waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word of God; without fear.

<sup>15</sup> Some indeed preach Christ even of envy and strife, but some also of good will; <sup>16</sup> the one preach Christ from love, knowing that I am set for the defence of the gospel; <sup>17</sup> but the others from party-spirit*, not sincerely, but thinking to add affliction to my bonds †. <sup>18</sup> What then? Notwithstanding, in every way, whether in pretence or in truth, Christ is preached; and <sup>c</sup> I therein do rejoice, yea and will rejoice.

<sup>19</sup> For I know that this will turn to my salvation, <sup>d</sup> through your prayer, and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ; <sup>20</sup> according to my earnest expectation and my hope, that <sup>e</sup> in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that <sup>f</sup> with all boldness, as always <sup>g</sup> now also, Christ will be magnified in my body, <sup>h</sup> whether it be by life or by death. <sup>21</sup> For to me <sup>i</sup> to live is Christ, and <sup>j</sup> to die is gain. <sup>22</sup> But if to live in the flesh, if this, <sup>k</sup> I say is the fruit of my labour, then what I shall choose I know not; <sup>23</sup> for I am in a strait betwixt the two, <sup>l</sup> having a desire to depart and <sup>m</sup> to be with Christ, <sup>n</sup> which is very far better; <sup>24</sup> nevertheless to abide in the flesh <sup>o</sup> is more needful for your sakes. <sup>25</sup> And having this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all, for your furtherance and joy in your faith; <sup>26</sup> that <sup>p</sup> in me your glorying may be more abundant in Jesus Christ by my coming to you again.

Exhortations to unity, steadfastness, and self-sacrificing love after the example of Christ.

<sup>2</sup>. If then there be any consolation* in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship in the Spirit, if any <sup>h</sup> tenderness and compassions, <sup>2</sup> fulfil ye my joy, that ye may be likeminded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind; <sup>3</sup> doing <sup>4</sup> nothing through party-spirit* or vainglory, but <sup>5</sup> in lowliness of mind esteeming each other better than yourselves; <sup>6</sup> look <sup>7</sup> not each one of you to his own things, but each one also to the things of others.

<sup>5</sup> Let <sup>m</sup> this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus; <sup>6</sup> who <sup>n</sup> being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God†; <sup>7</sup> but he <sup>o</sup> emptied himself of his glory, and took upon him the form of a servant, and <sup>p</sup> was made in the likeness of men; <sup>8</sup> and being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself and <sup>q</sup> became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. <sup>9</sup> Wherefore God also <sup>r</sup> hath highly exalted him, and <sup>s</sup> given to him a name which is above every name; <sup>10</sup> that in the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things‡ in heaven and things‡ in earth and things‡ under the earth, <sup>11</sup> and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

<sup>12</sup> Wherefore, my beloved, even as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, <sup>13</sup> work out your own salvation with fear and trembling. <sup>13</sup> For <sup>t</sup> it is God who worketh in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure. <sup>14</sup> Do all things without murmurings and <sup>x</sup> disputings; <sup>15</sup> that ye may be blameless and <sup>y</sup> harmless, 'children of God without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation' [Deut. xxxii. 5, Sept.]; among whom <sup>z</sup> ye shine as lights in the world, <sup>16</sup> holding forth the word of life; that <sup>a</sup> I may glory in the day of Christ that I have not run in vain or laboured in vain. <sup>17</sup> Yea, and even if I am poured out<sup>ll</sup> upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, <sup>b</sup> I joy and rejoice with you all. <sup>18</sup> In the same way also do ye joy and rejoice with me.

<sup>19</sup> BUT I hope in the Lord Jesus to send <sup>a</sup> Timothy shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort when I know your state. <sup>20</sup> For I have no one likeminded, who will naturally care for your state. <sup>21</sup> For they all seek their own things, not the things which are Jesus Christ. <sup>22</sup> But ye know the proof of him, that <sup>b</sup> as a son with a father, he hath served with me unto the gospel. <sup>23</sup> Him therefore I hope to send presently, so soon as I see how it will go with me. <sup>24</sup> But I trust<sup>s</sup> in the Lord that I also myself shall come shortly.

<sup>25</sup> Yet I thought it necessary to send to you <sup>c</sup> Epaphroditus, my brother and companion in labour and <sup>d</sup> fellowsoldier, but your messenger, and <sup>e</sup> minister to my needs. <sup>26</sup> For he was longing after you all, and was full of heaviness, because ye had heard that he was sick. <sup>27</sup> For indeed he was sick nigh unto death; but God had mercy on him, and not on him only but on me also, that I might not have sorrow upon sorrow. <sup>28</sup> I have sent him therefore the more speedily, that when ye see him again ye may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful. <sup>29</sup> Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness; and <sup>f</sup> hold such in reputation; <sup>30</sup> because for the work of Christ he was nigh unto death, having hazarded his life <sup>g</sup> to supply your lack of service towards me.

Warnings against Judaizing teachers, and against the immoral and sensual; and (15) exhortations to strive after perfection of Christian character—(18) The opposite destinies of false and worldly professors of religion and of true followers of Christ.

If any other man thinketh that he hath ground for confidence in the flesh, I more; <sup>5</sup> circumcised <sup>i</sup> the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, <sup>k</sup> of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews; as touching the law, <sup>l</sup> a Pharisee; <sup>6</sup> concerning zeal, <sup>m</sup> persecuting the church; <sup>n</sup> as touching the righteousness which is in the law, blameless. <sup>7</sup> But whatsoever things were gain to me, those I have counted loss for Christ. <sup>8</sup> Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss <sup>o</sup> for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord; <sup>p</sup> for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and count them but dross, that I may gain Christ, <sup>9</sup> and may be found in him, <sup>q</sup> not having my own righteousness which is of the law, but <sup>r</sup> that which is through faith in Christ, the righteousness which is from God upon faith; <sup>10</sup> that I may know him, and <sup>s</sup> the power of his resurrection, and <sup>t</sup> the fellowship of his sufferings, being conformed to the likeness of his death; <sup>11</sup> if by any means I may attain unto <sup>u</sup> the resurrection of the dead.

12 Not that <sup>a</sup>I have already attained or am already made perfect; but I press on if so be that <sup>b</sup>I may lay hold on that for which I have been laid hold on by Christ Jesus. <sup>13</sup>Brethren, I account not myself to have laid hold of <sup>c</sup>it, but this one thing I do, forgetting the things which are behind, and <sup>d</sup>reaching forth unto the things which are before, <sup>14</sup>I <sup>e</sup>press towards the mark, unto the prize of <sup>f</sup>the heavenly calling of God in Christ Jesus.

<sup>15</sup>Let us therefore as many as are perfect* be thus minded; and if in anything ye are otherwise minded, <sup>g</sup>God will reveal this also unto you. <sup>16</sup>Nevertheless as far as we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule, let us mind the same thing†.

<sup>17</sup>Brethren, <sup>d</sup>be followers together of me, and mark those who walk so as ye have us for an example. <sup>18</sup>For many walk of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even <sup>e</sup>weeping, that they are <sup>f</sup>the enemies of the cross of Christ; <sup>19</sup>whose <sup>g</sup>end is perdition, <sup>h</sup>whose God is their belly, and <sup>i</sup>whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things. <sup>20</sup>For <sup>j</sup>our citizenship is in heaven; <sup>k</sup>from whence also we <sup>l</sup>look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ; <sup>21</sup>who <sup>m</sup>will change the body of our humiliation, that it may be fashioned like the body of his glory, <sup>n</sup>according to the working whereby he is able <sup>o</sup>even to subdue all things unto himself. <sup>22</sup>Therefore, my brethren beloved and longed for, <sup>p</sup>my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, <sup>q</sup>my beloved.

Exhortations to (2) unity, (4) Christian joyfulness, prayer and thanksgiving, and (8) the practice of all that is good and praiseworthy, (9) according to the apostle's teaching and example.

<sup>23</sup>I BESEECH Euodia, and I beseech Syntyche, to be of the same mind in the Lord. <sup>24</sup>And I entreat thee also, true yokefellow, help them, inasmuch as they laboured with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and my other fellow-labourers, whose names are in <sup>a</sup>the book of life.

<sup>27</sup>Be anxious about nothing, but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. <sup>28</sup>And the peace of God which passeth all understanding shall keep your hearts and minds*, through Christ Jesus.

<sup>9</sup>Those things which ye both learned and received, and heard, and saw in me, do; and <sup>f</sup>the God of peace will be with you.

*Grateful acknowledgments of affectionate care—
(21) Concluding salutations.*

<sup>10</sup>BUT I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at length <sup>a</sup>ye have made your care for me to flourish again; wherein ye were also careful, but ye lacked opportunity. <sup>11</sup>Not that I speak in respect of want; for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, <sup>b</sup>therewith to be content. <sup>12</sup>I <sup>c</sup>know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound; every where and in all things I have been instructed, both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need. <sup>13</sup>I can do all things <sup>d</sup>in Christ; who strengtheneth me. <sup>14</sup>Notwithstanding ye did well in communicating with my affliction.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE

COLOSSIANS.

Apostolic salutation—(3) Thanksgiving for the faith and love of the Colossian Christians—(9) Prayer for their spiritual growth and fruitfulness, through the knowledge of Christ, (14) the divine Redeemer of men, (15) the Head of the natural creation, and of (18) the new moral creation, the church, and (20) the Reconciler of the whole creation unto God.

1. PAUL<sup>a</sup>, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and <sup>b</sup> Timothy our brother, <sup>2</sup> to <sup>c</sup> the saints and faithful brethren in Christ at Colosse: <sup>d</sup> Grace be unto you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>3</sup> We <sup>e</sup> give thanks to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you, <sup>4</sup> having heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which ye have to all the saints, <sup>5</sup> for <sup>f</sup> the hope which is laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel; <sup>6</sup> which is come unto you, <sup>g</sup> as it is in all the world, and is bringing forth fruit, and increasing* even as it doth also among you, since ye heard it and knew the grace of God in truth; <sup>7</sup> even as ye learned from <sup>h</sup> Epaphras our beloved fellow-servant, who is for you a faithful minister of Christ, <sup>8</sup> who also declared unto us your <sup>i</sup> love in the Spirit.

<sup>9</sup> For <sup>k</sup> this cause we also, since the day we heard <sup>l</sup> it, have not ceased to pray for you and to ask <sup>m</sup> that ye may be filled with the knowledge of his will <sup>n</sup> in all wisdom and spiritual understanding; <sup>10</sup> that <sup>o</sup> ye may walk worthily of the Lord <sup>p</sup> unto all pleasing, <sup>q</sup> being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God; <sup>11</sup> being <sup>r</sup> strengthened with all might, according to his glorious power <sup>s</sup> unto all patience and longsuffering with joyfulness; <sup>12</sup> giving <sup>t</sup> thanks unto the Father, who hath made us meet to be partakers of <sup>u</sup> the inheritance of the saints in light; <sup>13</sup> who delivered us from <sup>v</sup> the power of darkness, and translated us into the kingdom of <sup>w</sup> the Son of his love; <sup>14</sup> in whom we have our redemption<sup>t</sup>, even the forgiveness of our sins:

things in the heavens, and things upon the earth, the visible and the invisible, whether thrones or <sup>z</sup> dominions or principalities or powers: <sup>a</sup> all things have been created by him and for him; <sup>17</sup> and he is before all things, and in him all things subsist. <sup>18</sup> And <sup>b</sup> he is the head of the body, the church; who is <sup>c</sup> the beginning, <sup>d</sup> the first-born from the dead; <sup>e</sup> that in all things he may have the pre-eminence. <sup>19</sup> For it pleased the Father that <sup>f</sup> in him should all the fullness dwell*; <sup>20</sup> and <sup>g</sup> having made peace through the blood of his cross, <sup>h</sup> through him to reconcile all things unto himself—through him, I say, whether they are things in earth or things in the heavens.

The apostle's ministry in the work of reconciliation—(24) His sufferings and labours for the church's sake, (28) that it may grove in knowledge, and holiness, and (ch. 2. 4) be steadfast in the faith.

<sup>24</sup> NOW <sup>a</sup> I rejoice in my sufferings on your behalf, and fill up that which remaineth behind of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh, for <sup>b</sup> his body's sake which is the church; <sup>25</sup> whereof I was made a minister, according to <sup>c</sup> the stewardship of God which was given to me for you, to preach fully the word of God; <sup>26</sup> even <sup>d</sup> the mystery which had been hidden from the ages and from the generations, <sup>e</sup> but now is made manifest to his saints; <sup>27</sup> to <sup>f</sup> whom God was pleased to make known what are the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is <sup>g</sup> Christ in you, the hope of glory; <sup>28</sup> whom we preach, <sup>h</sup> admonishing every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom, <sup>i</sup> that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus;

<sup>20</sup>whereunto I also labour, striving <sup>k</sup>according to his working which worketh in me mightily.

<sup>6</sup>As therefore ye received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him; <sup>7</sup>rooted, <sup>u</sup>and being built up in him, and established in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving.

Warnings (8) against false philosophy, leading away from Christ; also (16) against carnal legal services, and superstitious angel-worship—(ch. 3. 1) Exhortations to heavenly-mindedness.

another and forgiving one another, if any one have a complaint against any; even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye. <sup>14</sup> And over all these things put on <sup>q</sup> love, which is the <sup>r</sup> bond of perfectness. <sup>15</sup> And let <sup>s</sup> the peace of Christ* rule in your hearts, <sup>t</sup> to which also ye were called <sup>u</sup> in one body; and be ye thankful.

<sup>16</sup> Let the word of Christ <sup>x</sup> dwell in you richly, in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another <sup>y</sup> in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to God†. <sup>17</sup> And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God; the Father through him.

Concluding exhortations—(2) to constancy in prayer and thanksgiving, and to (5) consistent conduct in the world—(7) Personal notices, salutations, and messages—(18) Autograph salutation, exhortation, and benediction.

<sup>2</sup> BE <sup>a</sup> constant in prayer, and <sup>b</sup> watch in the same <sup>c</sup> with thanksgiving; <sup>3</sup> withal <sup>d</sup> praying also for us, that God may <sup>e</sup> open unto us a door for the word, to speak <sup>f</sup> the mystery of Christ, for which also I am in bonds; <sup>4</sup> that I may make it manifest, as I ought to speak.

<sup>7</sup> All <sup>k</sup> my state will Tychicus make known unto you, <sup>l</sup> who is a beloved brother, and a faithful minister and fellowservant in the Lord; <sup>8</sup> whom I have sent unto you for this very purpose, that ye may know our state, and that he may comfort your hearts; <sup>9</sup> with <sup>m</sup> Onesimus, our faithful and beloved brother, who is <sup>n</sup> one of you. They will make known unto you all the things here.

<sup>18</sup> The <sup>c</sup> salutation by the hand of me Paul. <sup>d</sup> Remember my bonds. Grace <sup>e</sup> be with you. Amen.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE THESSALONIANS.

Introductory salutation to the Thessalonian Christians—(2) Thanksgiving for their obedience to the gospel, and constancy under persecution, (ch. 2. 13) which attest the truth and power of God's word.

1. PAUL and <sup>a</sup> Silas and <sup>b</sup> Timothy unto the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ; <sup>c</sup> Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you unceasingly in our prayers, <sup>3</sup> remembering the work of your faith and <sup>d</sup> the labour of your love and <sup>e</sup> the patience of your hope, in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of our God and Father; <sup>4</sup> knowing, brethren beloved <sup>f</sup> by God, your election. <sup>5</sup> For <sup>g</sup> our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power and <sup>h</sup> in the Holy Spirit and <sup>i</sup> in much assurance; even as <sup>k</sup> ye know what manner of men we were among you for your sakes. <sup>6</sup> And ye became followers of us and <sup>l</sup> of the Lord, <sup>m</sup> having received the word, in much affliction, <sup>n</sup> with joy of the Holy Spirit; <sup>7</sup> so that ye were examples to all that believe in Macedonia and Achaia.

8 For from you hath sounded out the word of the Lord, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also <sup>o</sup> in every place your faith towards God is spread abroad; so that we need not to speak any thing; <sup>9</sup> for they themselves report concerning us what manner of entering in we had unto you, and how <sup>p</sup> ye turned to God from idols, to serve the living and true God, <sup>10</sup> and <sup>q</sup> to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus, who delivereth us from <sup>r</sup> the wrath to come.

2. For yourselves, brethren, know our entering in unto you, that it hath not been in vain. <sup>2</sup> But even after we had suffered before and had been shamefully treated, as ye know, at <sup>s</sup> Philippi, we were bold in our God <sup>t</sup> to speak unto you the gospel of God amidst much conflict. <sup>3</sup> For <sup>u</sup> our exhortation is not from deceit, nor from uncleanness, nor in guile; <sup>4</sup> but as we have been approved by God <sup>x</sup> to be entrusted with the gospel, even so we speak; <sup>y</sup> not as pleasing men, but God, <sup>z</sup> who trieth our hearts. <sup>5</sup> For neither at any time used we flattering words, (as ye know), nor a cloak of covetousness, (<sup>a</sup> God is witness), <sup>6</sup> nor <sup>b</sup> of men sought we glory, either from you or from others, when <sup>c</sup> we might have been burdensome, as apostles of Christ. <sup>7</sup> But <sup>d</sup> we were gentle among you, even as when a nursing mother cherisheth her children. <sup>8</sup> Thus being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing to impart unto you, not only the gospel of God, but also our own <sup>e</sup> lives, because ye became very dear unto us. <sup>9</sup> For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail; for <sup>f</sup> working night and day, that we might not burden any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God. <sup>10</sup> Ye are witnesses, and God also, <sup>g</sup> how holily and justly and unblameably we behaved ourselves towards you that believe; <sup>11</sup> even as ye know how we exhorted and comforted and charged every one of you, as a father doth his children, <sup>12</sup> that <sup>h</sup> ye would walk worthily of God, <sup>i</sup> who hath called you unto his own kingdom and glory.

13 For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, that when ye received the word of God which ye heard from us, ye received <sup>j</sup> it <sup>k</sup> not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe. <sup>14</sup> For ye, brethren, became followers of the churches of God which in Judaea are in Christ Jesus; for <sup>l</sup> ye also have suffered like things from your own countrymen, <sup>m</sup> even as they did from the Jews; <sup>15</sup> who <sup>n</sup> both killed the Lord Jesus and <sup>o</sup> their own prophets, and <sup>p</sup> persecuted us; and they please not God, and are contrary to all men; <sup>16</sup> forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they may be saved; <sup>q</sup> to the filling up of their sins always. But the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

His earnest longing to revisit the Thessalonians; (ch. 3. 6) joy on hearing of their steadfastness; and (11) constant prayer for their growth in love and holiness.

17 BUT we, brethren, being separated from you for a short time, <sup>a</sup> in presence, not in heart, endeavoured the more abundantly to see your face with great desire.

18 Wherefore we desired to come unto you, even I Paul, once and again; but <sup>b</sup> Satan hindered us. 19 For what <sup>c</sup> is our hope or joy or crown of glorying? Is it not even ye, in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ <sup>d</sup> at his coming? 20 For ye are our glory and joy.

3. Wherefore when we could no longer forbear, <sup>e</sup> we thought it good to be left at Athens alone; <sup>2</sup> and we sent <sup>f</sup> Timothy, our brother, and minister of God, and our fellowlabourer in the gospel of Christ, to establish you and to exhort you concerning your faith; <sup>3</sup> that <sup>g</sup> no one should be moved by these afflictions; for ye yourselves know that <sup>h</sup> we are appointed thereunto. <sup>4</sup> For even when we were with you we told you before that we should suffer tribulation; even as it came to pass, and ye know. <sup>5</sup> For this cause, when I could no longer forbear, I sent to know your faith, <sup>i</sup> lest haply the tempter might have tempted you, and so <sup>k</sup> our labour should be in vain.

<sup>6</sup> But <sup>l</sup> Timothy having just now come unto us from you, and having brought us good tidings of your faith and love, and that ye have good remembrance of us always, desiring greatly to see us, <sup>m</sup> as we also to see you, <sup>7</sup> therefore, brethren, <sup>n</sup> we were comforted over you, in all our affliction and distress, by your faith. <sup>8</sup> For now we live if ye <sup>o</sup> stand fast in the Lord. <sup>9</sup> For what thanks can we render to God again for you, for <sup>p</sup> all the joy wherewith we rejoice for your sakes before our God; <sup>10</sup> night and day <sup>q</sup> praying exceedingly that we may see your face, and <sup>r</sup> may perfect that which is lacking in your faith?

<sup>11</sup> But may our God and Father himself and our Lord Jesus Christ <sup>s</sup> direct our way unto you. <sup>12</sup> And may the Lord <sup>t</sup> make you to increase and abound in your love one towards another, and towards all men, even <sup>u</sup> as we also do towards you; <sup>13</sup> to the end that he may <sup>v</sup> establish your hearts unblameable in holiness before our God and Father, <sup>w</sup> at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ <sup>x</sup> with all his saints.

Exhortations to a life worthy of the gospel, and particularly to (3) purity, (3) brotherly love, and (11) patient industry.

4. FURTHERMORE then we beseech you, brethren, and exhort you in the Lord Jesus, that <sup>a</sup> as ye received from us how ye ought to walk and to please God, even <sup>b</sup> as also ye are walking, so ye would abound more and more. <sup>2</sup> For ye know what commandments we gave you by the Lord Jesus. <sup>3</sup> For this is the will of God, even <sup>b</sup> your sanctification, <sup>c</sup> that ye should abstain from fornication; <sup>4</sup> that <sup>d</sup> every one of you should know how to get for himself <sup>e</sup> his own vessel * in sanctification and honour; <sup>5</sup> not <sup>f</sup> in the lust of concupiscence, <sup>7</sup> even as the Gentiles who know not God; <sup>6</sup> that no one should go beyond or overreach his brother in this matter, because <sup>h</sup> the Lord is the avenger of all such things; as we also forewarned you and testified. <sup>7</sup> For God did not call us unto uncleanness, <sup>i</sup> but in holiness. <sup>8</sup> He <sup>k</sup> therefore that despiseth, despiseth not man but God, <sup>l</sup> who gave unto us his Holy Spirit.

Consolation with regard to those who die in the Lord, (15) who will have the foremost place in the glories and joys of His coming—(ch. 5. 1) Exhortations to constant watchfulness, and preparedness for the day of the Lord.

13 BUT we would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them <sup>a</sup> that are asleep, that ye sorrow not <sup>b</sup> even as the others <sup>c</sup> who have no hope. <sup>14</sup> For <sup>d</sup> if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so <sup>e</sup> them also that sleep in Jesus will <sup>f</sup> God bring with him. <sup>15</sup> For this we say unto you, by the word of the Lord, that <sup>g</sup> we who are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not go before them that are asleep. <sup>16</sup> For <sup>h</sup> the Lord himself will descend from heaven, with a shout, with the voice of <sup>i</sup> an archangel, and with <sup>k</sup> the trumpet of God; and the dead in Christ will rise first: <sup>17</sup> then we who are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them, <sup>l</sup> in clouds, to meet the Lord, in the air; and <sup>m</sup> so shall we ever be with the Lord. <sup>18</sup> Wherefore <sup>n</sup> comfort one another with these words.

5. But of <sup>o</sup> the times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that I write unto you. <sup>2</sup> For ye yourselves know perfectly that <sup>p</sup> the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night. <sup>3</sup> For when they are saying, Peace and safety, then <sup>q</sup> sudden destruction cometh upon them, <sup>r</sup> even as travail upon a woman with child, and they will not escape.

<sup>4</sup> But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that the day should overtake you as a thief; <sup>5</sup> for ye are all <sup>a</sup> children of light, and children of the day. We are not of the night nor of darkness. <sup>6</sup> Therefore <sup>t</sup> let us not sleep as do the others, but <sup>u</sup> let us watch and <sup>x</sup> be sober. <sup>7</sup> For they that sleep sleep in the night, and they that are drunken are drunken <sup>y</sup> in the night; <sup>8</sup> but let us who are of the day be sober, <sup>z</sup> putting on the breastplate of faith and love, and for a helmet the hope of salvation. <sup>9</sup> For <sup>a</sup> God appointed us, not unto wrath, but <sup>b</sup> to the obtaining of salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ; <sup>10</sup> who died for us that <sup>c</sup> whether we wake or sleep we might live together with him. <sup>11</sup> Wherefore comfort one another, and edify one another, even as also ye do.

<sup>12</sup> NOW we beseech you, brethren, <sup>a</sup> to know* them that labour among you and are over you in the Lord and admonish you, <sup>13</sup> and to esteem them very highly in love for their work's sake. And <sup>b</sup> be at peace among yourselves.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE

THESSALONIANS.

Address and salutation—(3) Thanksgiving for the growth of the disciples in faith and love, and (4) their patient endurance of persecution; (5) which shall be recompensed with rest and glory at the Lord's coming—(11) Prayer for their perfection.

<sup>1</sup> PAUL <sup>a</sup> and Silas and Timothy unto the church of the Thessalonians <sup>b</sup> in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: <sup>2</sup> Grace <sup>c</sup> unto you and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>3</sup> We <sup>d</sup> are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet, because your faith groweth exceedingly, and the love of every one of you all towards each other aboundeth. <sup>4</sup> So that <sup>e</sup> we ourselves glory in you in the churches of God, for your patience and faith <sup>f</sup> in all your persecutions and the tribulations that ye endure; <sup>5</sup> which <sup>g</sup> is <sup>h</sup> a manifest token of the righteous judgment of God, <sup>i</sup> that ye may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which ye also suffer: <sup>6</sup> seeing <sup>j</sup> that it is a righteous thing with God to repay tribulation to them that trouble you, <sup>7</sup> and <sup>k</sup> to you who are troubled rest with us, when <sup>l</sup> the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with the angels of his power, <sup>8</sup> in <sup>m</sup> flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and on them <sup>n</sup> that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ; <sup>9</sup> who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and <sup>o</sup> from the glory of his power, <sup>10</sup> when <sup>p</sup> he shall come to be glorified in his saints, and to be admired in all them that believed; (because <sup>q</sup> our testimony among you was believed), <sup>r</sup> in that day.

<sup>11</sup> Wherefore also we pray always for you, that our God may count you worthy <sup>s</sup> of your calling, and may fulfil in you every desire of goodness and the work of faith with power; <sup>12</sup> that <sup>t</sup> the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and "ye in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Correction of erroneous expectations respecting the time of the Lord's coming; (3) which will not be until after a great apostasy, the appearance and working of the Man of sin; (8) whom the Lord will destroy at his coming.

a Mk. 13.
26, 27; 1
Thes. 4.
17.

2. NOW we beseech you, brethren, <sup>a</sup> concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our gathering together unto him, <sup>2</sup> that <sup>b</sup> ye be not quickly shaken in mind, nor troubled, either by spirit, or by word, or by letter as from us, as if the day of Christ were close at hand. <sup>3</sup> Let no one deceive you by any means. For that day will not come <sup>c</sup> except there shall have come the apostasy first, and <sup>d</sup> the Man of sin shall have been revealed, <sup>e</sup> the son of perdition, <sup>f</sup> who opposeth and <sup>g</sup> exalteth himself against every one that is called God or that is worshipped, so that he <sup>h</sup> sitteth in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God.

b Mt. 24, 4.
John 4.1.

<sup>5</sup> Remember ye not that when I was yet with you I told you these things? <sup>6</sup> And now ye know what restraineth <sup>h</sup> him, that he may be revealed in his own time. <sup>7</sup> For <sup>i</sup> the mystery of lawlessness is already working, only <sup>j</sup> there is one who now restraineth until he be taken out of the way. <sup>8</sup> And then will the lawless one be revealed, whom the Lord <sup>k</sup> will consume with the breath of <sup>l</sup> his mouth, and will destroy <sup>m</sup> with the manifestation of his coming; <sup>n</sup> even <sup>o</sup> him whose coming is <sup>p</sup> after the working of Satan, with all power and <sup>q</sup> signs and lying wonders, <sup>10</sup> and with all deceitfulness of unrighteousness for <sup>r</sup> them that are perishing, because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved. <sup>11</sup> And for this cause doth <sup>s</sup> God send to them a working of delusion, <sup>t</sup> that they may believe the lie; <sup>12</sup> that they all may be condemned who believed not the truth, but <sup>u</sup> had pleasure in unrighteousness.

Exhortations to perseverance in faith, obedience, patience and prayerfulness; and (ch. 3. 6) the maintenance of discipline with regard to the idle and disorderly—(17) Autograph salutation and benediction.

hold the traditions* which ye have been taught, whether by word or our epistle.

<sup>16</sup> And may our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God, our Father, who hath loved us, and hath given us <sup>g</sup> everlasting consolation and <sup>h</sup> good hope through grace, <sup>17</sup> comfort your hearts, and <sup>i</sup> establish you in every good word and work.

3. Finally, brethren, <sup>k</sup> pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course and be glorified, even as it is with you; <sup>2</sup> and <sup>l</sup> that we may be delivered from perverse and wicked men; for all <sup>m</sup> men have not faith. <sup>3</sup> But <sup>n</sup> the Lord is faithful, who will establish you and <sup>o</sup> keep you from evil. <sup>4</sup> And <sup>p</sup> we have confidence in the Lord touching you, that ye both are doing and will do the things which we command you. <sup>5</sup> And may <sup>q</sup> the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patient waiting for Christ.

<sup>17</sup> The <sup>ae</sup> salutation of me Paul with my own hand; which is the token in every epistle: so I write.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE

TIMOTHY.

Apostolic salutation—(3) Instructions to oppose false teachers—(5) The true meaning and use of the law—(12) Thanksgiving for the grace displayed in Paul's conversion and calling to the apostleship—(13) Exhortation to Timothy.

1. PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the commandment of <sup>a</sup> God our Saviour, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who is our hope, <sup>2</sup> unto <sup>b</sup> Timothy <sup>c</sup> my true son in the faith: <sup>d</sup> grace, mercy, peace, from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord.

tion, that <sup>x</sup> Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners, <sup>y</sup> of whom I am chief. <sup>16</sup> Howbeit for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first* Jesus Christ might show forth all his longsuffering, for a pattern to them that should hereafter believe on him unto life everlasting.

2. I EXHORT therefore, first of all, that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men, <sup>2</sup> for <sup>a</sup> kings and for all that are in authority, that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life, in all godliness and gravity. <sup>3</sup> For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour; <sup>4</sup> who <sup>b</sup> willet<sup>h</sup> all men to be saved and <sup>c</sup> to come unto the knowledge of the truth. <sup>5</sup> For <sup>d</sup> there is one God, and <sup>e</sup> one mediator between God and men, <sup>f</sup> the man Christ Jesus; <sup>6</sup> who <sup>g</sup> gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified <sup>h</sup> in due time. <sup>7</sup> Whereunto I was appointed a preacher: and an apostle, (<sup>i</sup> I speak the truth in Christ, I lie not), <sup>k</sup> a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and verity. <sup>8</sup> I will therefore that men pray <sup>l</sup> every where, <sup>m</sup> lifting up holy hands, <sup>n</sup> without wrath and disputing.

man, but to be in silence. <sup>13</sup> For <sup>r</sup> Adam was first formed, then Eve; <sup>14</sup> and <sup>s</sup> Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived hath fallen into transgression. <sup>15</sup> But <sup>t</sup> she will be saved through the child-bearing, if they continue in faith and love and holiness with sobriety.

3. THIS is a faithful saying: If a man desireth the office of a bishop, he desireth a good work. <sup>2</sup> A bishop then <sup>a</sup> must be blameless, the husband of one wife, temperate, sober-minded, orderly, <sup>b</sup> hospitable, <sup>c</sup> apt to teach, <sup>3</sup> not <sup>d</sup> given to wine, no striker*, but gentle, not quarrelsome, not a lover of money, <sup>4</sup> one <sup>e</sup> that ruleth well his own house, <sup>f</sup> having his children in subjection with all gravity—<sup>5</sup> for if a man know not how to rule his own house how shall he take care of the church of God?—<sup>6</sup> not a novice, lest being puffed up with pride <sup>g</sup> he fall into the condemnation of the devil. <sup>7</sup> Moreover he must also have a good report <sup>h</sup> from them that are without, lest he fall into reproach and <sup>i</sup> the snare of the devil.

<sup>14</sup> These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly; <sup>15</sup> but if I should tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself <sup>o</sup> in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth. <sup>16</sup> And without controversy great is <sup>p</sup> the mystery of godliness: <sup>q</sup> even He who <sup>r</sup> was manifested in the flesh, <sup>s</sup> justified in the Spirit, <sup>t</sup> seen by angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up in glory.

Prediction of apostasy in after times; (7) warning against false doctrine, and (11) exhortations to fidelity and diligence.

4. BUT the Spirit speaketh expressly, that <sup>a</sup> in after times some will depart from the faith, giving heed to <sup>b</sup> seducing spirits and doctrines of demons, <sup>2</sup> through the hypocrisy of those who speak lies, <sup>c</sup> having their own conscience seared, <sup>3</sup> forbidding to marry, <sup>d</sup> and commanding to abstain from meats, which God created <sup>e</sup> to be received <sup>f</sup> with thanksgiving by them that believe and know the truth. <sup>4</sup> For <sup>g</sup> every creature of God is good, and nothing is to be refused if it be received with thanksgiving; <sup>5</sup> for <sup>h</sup> it is sanctified by the word of God and prayers.

5. AN elder† rebuke <sup>a</sup> not sharply, but in-<sup>b</sup> treat <sup>c</sup> him as a father, and the younger men as brethren, <sup>2</sup> the elder women as mothers, the younger as sisters, with all purity.

<sup>3</sup> Honour widows that are widows indeed; <sup>4</sup> but if any widow hath children or grandchildren, let them learn first to show piety to their own family, and <sup>b</sup> to requite their parents; for that is acceptable before God. <sup>5</sup> Now <sup>c</sup> she that is a widow indeed and desolate, hath set her hope on God, and <sup>d</sup> continueth in her supplications and prayers night and day: <sup>6</sup> but <sup>e</sup> she that is given to pleasure f is dead while she liveth.

7 And these things command, that they may be blameless. 8 But if any one provide not for his own and specially for those of his own house, he hath o denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever.

9 Let not a widow be taken h into the number* under threescore years old, having been the wife of one man, 10 well reported of for good works; if she hath brought up children, if she hath i lodged strangers, if she hath k washed the feet of saints, if she hath relieved the afflicted, if she hath diligently followed every good work. 11 But younger widows refuse; for when they wax wanton against Christ, they desire to marry; 12 having l condemnation, because they have made void their former promise; 13 and m withal they learn to be idle, as they go round to the houses, and not only idle, but tattlers also and busybodies, speaking things which they ought not. 14 I n will therefore that younger widows marry, bear children, o guide the house, give p no occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully. 15 For some have already turned aside after Satan. 16 If any man or woman that believeth hath widows, let them relieve them, and let not the church be burdened; that it may relieve those that are widows indeed.

Concerning elders—(19) Counsels to Timothy respecting his conduct in various conditions and circumstances—(ch. 6. 1) The duties of Christian bondservants.

17 LET a the elders that rule well be counted worthy of a double honour, especially those that labour in the word and teaching. 18 For the Scripture saith: ‘Thou shalt not muzzle an ox while treading out the corn’ [Deut. xxv. 4]; and, ‘The labourer is worthy of his hire’ [Matt. x.
10; Luke x. 7].

19 Against an elder receive not an accusation except on the word of b two or three witnesses. 20 Them that sin rebuke before all, that the rest also may fear.

21 I c charge thee before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, and the elect angels, that thou observe these things without d prejudice, doing nothing by partiality. 22 Lay e hands hastily on no man; f neither be partaker of other men’s sins: keep thyself pure.
23 Drink no longer water, but use a little wine for thy stomach’s sake and thy frequent infirmities.

24 Some o men’s sins are openly manifest, going before them to judgment, and some men they follow after; 25 in like manner also h the good works of some are openly manifest; and those which are otherwise i cannot be hidden.

6. Let as many k servants* as are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honour, that the name of God and his doctrine may not be evil spoken of. 2 And they that have believing masters, let them not despise them because they are brethren, but serve them the more because those who receive their good service are faithful and beloved.

Exhortations and counsels, with special reference to the opponents of sound teaching—(17) Admonitions to the rich—(20) Concluding exhortations.

THESE things teach and exhort. 3 If any man teacheth otherwise, and c consenteth not to sound words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, d and to the teaching which is according to godliness, e he is puffed up with pride, f knowing nothing, but doting about questions and strifes of words; whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmisings, g perverse disputings of d men corrupted in their minds, and destitute of the truth, h supposing that godliness is gain t. From such withdraw thyself. 6 But f godliness with contentment is great gain. 7 For o we brought nothing into the world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out; 8 and having food and raiment we will be therewith content. 9 But h they that desire to be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, i which drown men in destruction and perdition. 10 For k the love of money is a root of all evils; through coveting which, some have wandered from the faith, and l pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

11 But m thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness.
12 Fight the good fight of faith, n lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou wast also called, and didst confess the good confession before many witnesses. 13 I o give thee charge in the sight of God, who giveth life to all things, and before Christ Jesus, p who before Pontius Pilate testified the good confession, 14 that thou keep the commandment without spot, unrebukeable,
q until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ; 15 which in its own times he will show who is the blessed and only Potentate, r the King of kings and Lord of lords, 16 who only hath immortality, d dwell-

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE

TIMOTHY.

Apostolic salutation—(3) Affectionate remembrance of Timothy; (6) exhortations to faithful and courageous service in the ministry of the gospel, and to patient endurance of suffering, after the apostle's example.

1. PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, according to <sup>a</sup> the promise of life which is in Christ Jesus, <sup>2</sup> to <sup>b</sup> Timothy, my beloved son: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

<sup>3</sup> I thank God, <sup>c</sup> whom I have served from my forefathers with a pure conscience, as <sup>d</sup> without ceasing I have remembrance of thee in my prayers, night and day—<sup>4</sup> greatly desiring to see thee, being mindful of thy tears, that I may be filled with joy—<sup>5</sup> calling to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in thee; which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois and <sup>e</sup> thy mother Eunice, and I am persuaded that in thee also.

<sup>11</sup> whereunto I was appointed a preacher† and an apostle and a teacher of the Gentiles. <sup>12</sup> For which cause I also suffer these things. But <sup>u</sup> I am not ashamed; <sup>v</sup> for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is <sup>w</sup> able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day.

2. Thou therefore, my son, <sup>e</sup> be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus. <sup>2</sup> And the things that thou heardest from me among <sup>f</sup> many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, such as will be <sup>g</sup> able to teach others also. <sup>3</sup> Suffer affliction with me, <sup>h</sup> as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. <sup>4</sup> No <sup>i</sup> man serving as a soldier entangleth himself with the affairs of life; that he may please him who chose him to be a soldier. <sup>5</sup> And if also a man <sup>k</sup> strive in the games, yet is he not crowned except he strive according to rule. <sup>6</sup> The husbandman that laboreth ought to be the first partaker of the fruits. <sup>7</sup> Consider what I say; and may the Lord give thee understanding in all things.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE

TO

TITUS.

Apostolic address and salutation—(5) Concerning the appointment of elders, and their proper qualifications and duties—(10) The character of the teachers of error.

—(ch. 3. 1) General exhortations to the whole church—(4) A summary of the gospel, with special reference to its sanctifying purpose and effects—(12) Personal notices, and (15) salutations.

3. Put them in mind <sup>x</sup> to be subject to governments and powers†, to obey magistrates, <sup>y</sup> to be ready for every good work, <sup>2</sup> to <sup>z</sup> speak evil of no one, <sup>a</sup> to be not quarrelsome but gentle, showing all meekness unto all men.

3 For <sup>b</sup> we ourselves also were once foolish, disobedient, led astray, <sup>c</sup> serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful and hating one another.

<sup>15</sup> All that are with me salute thee. Salute them that love us in the faith. Grace be with you all. Amen.

PHILEMON.

Address and salutation—(4) Expressions of Christian recognition and sympathy—(8) Intercession for Onesimus, and commendation of him—(22) Personal request and salutations.

<sup>4</sup> I thank my God, making mention of thee always in my prayers, <sup>5</sup> hearing <sup>o</sup> of thy love and faith, which thou hast towards the Lord Jesus and towards all the saints; <sup>6</sup> that the communication of thy faith may become† effectual unto Christ Jesus, <sup>h</sup> by the knowledge of every good thing which is <sup>i</sup> in you. <sup>7</sup> For we have great joy and consolation in thy love, because the hearts of the saints <sup>k</sup> have been refreshed by thee, brother.

<sup>8</sup> Wherefore, <sup>l</sup> though I might have much boldness in Christ to enjoin thee that which is befitting, <sup>9</sup> yet <sup>m</sup> for love's sake I rather beseech thee; being such an one as Paul the aged, and now also a prisoner of Jesus Christ. <sup>10</sup> I beseech thee for my son <sup>n</sup> Onesimus†, <sup>o</sup> whom I have begotten in my bonds; <sup>11</sup> who in time past was to thee unprofitable, but now is profitable to thee and to me; <sup>12</sup> whom I have sent back to thee; and do thou <sup>p</sup> receive him, that is, my own heart; <sup>13</sup> whom I would have retained with me, <sup>q</sup> that in thy stead he might minister unto me in the bonds of the gospel; <sup>14</sup> but without thy mind would I do nothing, <sup>r</sup> that thy kindness might not be as it were of necessity, but willingly. <sup>15</sup> For <sup>s</sup> perhaps he on this account departed for a season, that thou mightest have him as thine own for ever; <sup>16</sup> no longer as a servant*, but above a servant, <sup>t</sup> a brother beloved, specially to me, but how much more to thee, both in the flesh and in the Lord. <sup>17</sup> If therefore thou countest me <sup>u</sup> a partner, receive him as myself. <sup>18</sup> If he wronged thee, or oweth thee anything, put that to my account. <sup>19</sup> I Paul have written <sup>v</sup> it with my own hand, I will repay <sup>w</sup> it; albeit I do not say to thee how thou owest unto me even thy own self besides. <sup>20</sup> Yea, brother, let me have joy of thee in the Lord; refresh my heart in the Lord. <sup>21</sup> Having <sup>x</sup> confidence in thy obedience I have written unto thee, knowing that thou wilt also do even more than I say.

thou <sup>b</sup> visitest him! <sup>7</sup> Thou madest him a little lower than the angels, thou crownedst him with glory and honour, and didst set him over the works of thy hands, <sup>8</sup> thou <sup>c</sup> didst put all things in subjection under his feet' [Psa. viii. 4—6]. For in that he put all things in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not put under him. But now <sup>d</sup> we see not yet all things put under him; <sup>9</sup> but we see Jesus, <sup>e</sup> who was made a little lower than the angels, on account of his suffering of death <sup>f</sup> crowned with glory and honour, that he <sup>g</sup> by the grace of God should taste death <sup>h</sup> for every man.

Digression—(11) Expostulation with the Hebrew Christians for their dull apprehension of spiritual truth, and low attainments in the divine life—(ch. 6. 1) Exhortations to steadfastness, progress, and (13) firm reliance on God's promise, after the example of Abraham.

<sup>8</sup> but <sup>y</sup> if it beareth thorns and briers it is rejected, and is nigh unto cursing, whose end is to be burned.

<sup>13</sup> For when God made a promise to Abraham, because he could swear by no greater, he swore by himself, <sup>14</sup> saying: 'Surely blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee' [Gen. xxii. 16, 17]. <sup>15</sup> And <sup>h</sup> so after he had patiently endured he obtained the promise.

The perfection of Christ's priesthood, continued—(ch. 7. 1) Melchizedek being greater than Abraham, (11) the promise of a future priesthood of which his was the type, implied the abrogation of the Levitical priesthood and of the old covenant, and (20) the introduction of a new covenant, with an everlasting Mediator, Priest, and King.

<sup>7</sup>. FOR this <sup>a</sup> Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of the most high God, who met Abraham returning from the smiting of the kings, and blessed him, <sup>2</sup> to whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all; being first by interpretation <sup>b</sup> King of righteousness, and after that also King of Salem, which is, King of peace; <sup>3</sup> without father, without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but made like unto the Son of God, abideth a priest continually. <sup>4</sup> Now consider how great this man was, <sup>c</sup> unto whom even the patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the spoils. <sup>5</sup> And verily <sup>d</sup> those of the sons of Levi who receive the priesthood have a commandment to take tithes from the people, according to the law, that is, from their brethren, though they have come out of the loins of Abraham; <sup>6</sup> but he whose genealogy is not counted from them, received tithes from Abraham, <sup>e</sup> and blessed <sup>f</sup> him that had the promises. <sup>7</sup> Now beyond all contradiction the less is blessed by the greater. <sup>8</sup> And here men that die receive tithes, but there one received them <sup>g</sup> of whom it is testified that he liveth. <sup>9</sup> And as I may so say, even Levi who receiveth tithes paid tithes through Abraham; <sup>10</sup> for he was yet in the loins of his father when Melchizedek met him.

<sup>11</sup> If <sup>h</sup> then perfection were through the Levitical priesthood, (for under it the people received the law), what further need was there that a different priest should arise after the order of Melchizedek, and not be called after the order of Aaron? <sup>12</sup> For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law. <sup>13</sup> For he of whom these things are spoken belongeth to another tribe, <sup>i</sup> of which no one hath ever given attendance at the altar. <sup>14</sup> For it is evident that <sup>k</sup> our Lord hath arisen out of Judah, of which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning the priesthood; <sup>15</sup> and it is yet far more evident, seeing that after the similitude of Melchizedek there ariseth a different Priest, <sup>16</sup> who hath been made, not after <sup>l</sup> the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an endless life. <sup>17</sup> For of him it is testified*: 'Thou art a Priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek.'

<sup>20</sup> And inasmuch as it was not without an oath that he was made a Priest, <sup>21</sup> (for they indeed have been made priests without an oath, but He with an oath, by him who said unto him, 'The Lord sware and will not repent, Thou art a Priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek'), <sup>22</sup> it is of <sup>s</sup> a so much better covenant that Jesus hath become surety.

The argument continued—Christ's pre-eminence over the Aaronic high priests, he ministering, not on earth, but in heaven, and (7) being the Mediator, not of a temporary, but of an everlasting covenant.

8. NOW of the things which we are speaking of this is the chief; we have such a High Priest, <sup>g</sup> who sat down on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens, <sup>2</sup> a minister of <sup>h</sup> the sanctuary and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched and not man.

<sup>3</sup> For <sup>i</sup> every high priest is appointed to offer gifts and sacrifices; wherefore <sup>j</sup> it is of necessity that this one also should have something to offer. <sup>4</sup> If however he were on earth, he would not be a priest, seeing that there are priests that offer gifts according to the law, <sup>5</sup> who minister to a copy and <sup>k</sup> shadow of the heavenly things; even as Moses was admonished by God when he was about to make the tabernacle; for, 'See,' saith he, 'that thou make all things according to the pattern showed to thee on the mountain' [Exod. xxv. 40]. <sup>6</sup> But now <sup>l</sup> hath He obtained so much more excellent a ministry, as he is also <sup>o</sup> the Mediator of a better covenant, which hath been established upon better promises.

<sup>7</sup> For <sup>h</sup> if that first covenant were faultless, then would no place be sought for the second. <sup>8</sup> For finding fault with it, he saith: 'Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make <sup>a</sup> a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah; <sup>9</sup> not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers, in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord. <sup>10</sup> For <sup>k</sup> this is the covenant that I will establish for the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord; I will put my laws into their mind, and write them on their hearts; and <sup>1</sup> I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people. <sup>11</sup> And <sup>m</sup> they shall not teach every one his neighbour* and every one his brother, saying, Know the Lord; for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest. <sup>12</sup> For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, <sup>n</sup> and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more. [Jer. xxxi. 31-34, Sept.]

<sup>13</sup> In that he saith, A new covenant, he hath made the first old. But that which decayeth and waxeth old is <sup>o</sup> ready to vanish away.

The argument continued—(1) The ministrations and services of the old covenant could not give peace of conscience or access to God; but (11) Christ by his perfect mediation, and his sacrificial death, making once for all complete expiation for sin, ratified the new covenant, and opened the way to heaven.

of goats and calves, but <sup>y</sup> through his own blood, he entered in <sup>z</sup> once for all into the holy place, <sup>a</sup> having obtained* everlasting redemption for us. <sup>13</sup> For if <sup>b</sup> the blood of bulls and of goats, and <sup>c</sup> the ashes of a heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh, <sup>14</sup> how much more <sup>d</sup> will the blood of Christ, <sup>e</sup> who through the eternal Spirit <sup>f</sup> offered himself <sup>g</sup> without spot to God, <sup>h</sup> purify your conscience from <sup>i</sup> dead works <sup>k</sup> to serve the living God?

10. FOR the law, having <sup>a</sup> a shadow of the good things to come, and not the very image* of the things, <sup>b</sup> can never with the same sacrifices which they offer year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect. <sup>2</sup> For then would they not have ceased to be offered? Because the worshippers once purified would have had no more consciousness of sins. <sup>3</sup> But <sup>c</sup> in these sacrifices there is a remembrance made of sins year by year. <sup>4</sup> For <sup>d</sup> it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins.

<sup>5</sup> Wherefore <sup>e</sup> when he cometh into the world, he saith: 'Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body hast thou prepared for me; <sup>f</sup> in whole burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hadst no pleasure. <sup>7</sup> Then said I, Lo, I come, (in the volume of the book it is written of me), to do thy will, O God.' [Psa. xl. 6—8, Sept.] <sup>8</sup> Above when he said, Sacrifice and offering and whole burnt offerings and offerings for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein, (which are offered according to the law), <sup>9</sup> then saith he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God. <sup>f</sup> He taketh away the first that he may establish the second. <sup>10</sup> By <sup>g</sup> which will we have been sanctified, <sup>h</sup> through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

<sup>11</sup> And indeed every priest standeth <sup>i</sup> daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins; <sup>12</sup> but he, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down† on the right hand of God; <sup>13</sup> from henceforth waiting <sup>k</sup> till his enemies be made his footstool. <sup>14</sup> For by one offering <sup>l</sup> he hath perfected for ever them that are being sanctified. <sup>15</sup> And the Holy Spirit also is a witness to us; for after he had said; <sup>16</sup> 'This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the Lord, I will put my laws into their hearts, and upon their minds will I write them,' <sup>17</sup> he saith 'and their sins and iniquities will I remember no more' [Jer. xxxi. 33, 34]. <sup>18</sup> Now where remission of these is there is no more an offering for sin.

Practical application—Exhortations to (19) true and trustful worship, (23) courageous confession, and (24) mutual edification; (26) enforced by the fearful consequences of apostasy, and (32) the remembrance of former steadfastness under persecutions.

by the blood of Jesus, <sup>20</sup> by <sup>c</sup> a new and living way, which he consecrated for us <sup>d</sup> through the veil, that is to say his flesh, <sup>21</sup> and having <sup>e</sup> a great Priest over <sup>f</sup> the house of God, <sup>22</sup> let <sup>g</sup> us draw near with a true heart, in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled <sup>h</sup> from an evil conscience, and <sup>i</sup> our bodies washed with pure water. <sup>23</sup> Let <sup>k</sup> us hold fast the profession of our hope, without wavering, for <sup>l</sup> he is faithful who promised. <sup>24</sup> And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works; <sup>25</sup> not <sup>m</sup> forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is, <sup>n</sup> but exhorting one another, and <sup>o</sup> so much the more as ye see the day approaching.

but of them that believe to the saving of the soul.

The nature of faith, and its conflicts and reward; illustrated by examples from the beginning of the world to the close of the Old Testament dispensation.

11. NOW faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction <sup>a</sup> of things not seen.

<sup>3</sup> By faith we understand that <sup>b</sup> the world was framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which appeared.

<sup>4</sup> By faith <sup>c</sup> Abel offered unto God <sup>d</sup> a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, through which <sup>e</sup> he obtained testimony that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts; and through it he though dead <sup>f</sup> still speaketh.

<sup>5</sup> By faith <sup>g</sup> Enoch was translated that he might not see death, and was not found, because God had translated him; for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God. <sup>6</sup> But without faith it is <sup>h</sup> impossible to please him; for he that cometh to God must believe that he is,

and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

<sup>7</sup> By faith <sup>i</sup> Noah, being warned by God of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, <sup>j</sup> prepared an ark for the saving of his house; by which <sup>k</sup> he condemned the world, and became heir of <sup>l</sup> the righteousness which is according to faith.

<sup>8</sup> By faith <sup>m</sup> Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to a place which he was afterwards to receive for an inheritance; and he went out not knowing whither he was going. <sup>9</sup> By faith he sojourned in the land of the promise, as in a foreign country, <sup>n</sup> dwelling in tents, with Isaac and Jacob, <sup>o</sup> the heirs with him of the same promise. <sup>10</sup> For he looked for <sup>p</sup> the city which hath foundations, <sup>q</sup> whose builder and maker is God.

sojourners on the earth. <sup>14</sup> For they that say such things <sup>a</sup> declare plainly that they are seeking a country*. <sup>15</sup> And truly, if they had been mindful of that from whence they came out they would have had opportunity to return; <sup>16</sup> but now they desire a better, that is, a heavenly country. Wherefore God is not ashamed <sup>b</sup> to be called their God, because <sup>c</sup> he prepared for them a city.

Exhortations to perseverance, (1) after the example of the whole company of the faithful, and (2) above all of Jesus himself; also to (4) patient endurance of suffering, and (14) peace and holiness.

12. WHEREFORE seeing that we are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, <sup>a</sup> let us also lay aside every weight and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and <sup>b</sup> let us run <sup>c</sup> with patience the race that is set before us, <sup>2</sup> looking <sup>d</sup> unto Jesus, the Author and Finisher* of the faith, <sup>e</sup> who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, <sup>f</sup> despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God. <sup>3</sup> For <sup>g</sup> consider him who endured such contradiction from the sinners against himself, lest ye become weary, fainting in your souls.

chastisement, <sup>m</sup> whereof all have been made partakers, then are ye bastards and not sons. <sup>9</sup> Furthermore we have had fathers of our flesh who corrected us, and we gave them reverence; <sup>n</sup> shall we not much rather submit ourselves unto <sup>o</sup> the Father of our spirits, and live? <sup>10</sup> For they indeed for a few days chastened us as it seemed good to them; but he <sup>p</sup> for our profit, <sup>q</sup> that we may be partakers of his holiness. <sup>11</sup> Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous; but afterwards it yieldeth <sup>r</sup> the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them that have been exercised thereby.

13. LET <sup>a</sup> brotherly love continue. <sup>2</sup> Be not forgetful to entertain strangers, for thereby <sup>c</sup> some have entertained angels unaware.

<sup>3</sup> Remember <sup>d</sup> them that are in bonds, as if bound with them; and them that suffer adversity, as being yourselves also in the body.

<sup>4</sup> Marriage <sup>e</sup> is honourable among all, and the bed undefiled; <sup>f</sup> but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge.

<sup>5</sup> Let your manner of life be <sup>g</sup> without covetousness, and <sup>h</sup> be content with such things as ye have. For he hath said, 'I will never <sup>i</sup> leave thee nor forsake thee' [Josh. i. 5]. <sup>6</sup> So that we may boldly say:
'The Lord <sup>j</sup> is my helper, and I will not fear; what shall man do unto me?' [Psa.

<sup>7</sup> Remember <sup>k</sup> those who had the rule over you<sup>a</sup>, who spake unto you the word of God; and <sup>l</sup> considering the end of their course, imitate their faith. <sup>8</sup> Jesus Christ is <sup>m</sup> the same yesterday and today and for ever. <sup>9</sup> Be <sup>n</sup> not carried away with divers and strange doctrines. For it is a good thing that the heart be estab- lished with grace; <sup>o</sup> not with meats, which did not profit those who walked therein.

<sup>10</sup> We <sup>p</sup> have an altar whereof they have no right to eat who serve the tabernacle.
<sup>11</sup> For <sup>q</sup> the bodies of those beasts whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sin are burned outside the camp. <sup>12</sup> Wherefore Jesus also, <sup>r</sup> that he might sanctify the people through his own blood, <sup>s</sup> suffered outside the gate. <sup>13</sup> Let us therefore go forth unto him outside the camp, bearing <sup>t</sup> his reproach. <sup>14</sup> For <sup>u</sup> here we have no continuing city, but we are seeking the one to come. <sup>15</sup> Through <sup>v</sup> him therefore let us offer <sup>w</sup> a sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, <sup>x</sup> the fruit of our lips, giving thanks to his name.
<sup>16</sup> And <sup>y</sup> to do good and to communicate forget not, for <sup>z</sup> with such sacrifices God is well pleased.

<sup>17</sup> Obey those who have the rule over you, and submit yourselves; <sup>a</sup> for they watch for your souls as they that must give account; that they may do this <sup>b</sup> with joy, and not with grief, for that is unprofitable for you.

<sup>18</sup> Pray <sup>c</sup> for us, for we trust we have <sup>d</sup> a good conscience, in all things desiring to behave ourselves honourably; <sup>19</sup> and I the more earnestly beseech you <sup>e</sup> to do this,
that I may be restored to you the sooner.

<sup>20</sup> Now <sup>f</sup> the God of peace, who <sup>g</sup> brought back from the dead our Lord <sup>h</sup> Jesus, the great Shepherd of the sheep, <sup>i</sup> through the blood of <sup>m</sup> the everlasting covenant, <sup>21</sup> make <sup>n</sup> you perfect in every good work to do his will, <sup>o</sup> working in you that which is well-pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ; <sup>p</sup> to whom be glory for ever and ever.
Amen.

<sup>22</sup> And I beseech you, brethren, bear with the word of exhortation; for I have written to you in few words.

<sup>23</sup> Know ye that <sup>q</sup> our brother Timothy hath been set at liberty; with whom, if he come shortly, I will see you.

<sup>24</sup> Salute all those who have the rule over you, and all the saints. They from Italy salute you.

<sup>25</sup> Grace <sup>r</sup> be with you all. Amen.

THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF JAMES.

Exhortations concerning (1) patient endurance of trials, (5) prayer to God for wisdom, (9) right estimation of differences in outward circumstances, (13) making excuses for sin, (16) right views of God, as the Author of all good, (19) proper reception of his word, and (22) practical obedience thereto.

1. JAMES<sup>a</sup>, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to <sup>b</sup> the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad*, greeting.

5 But if any one of you lack wisdom let him ask of God, who giveth to all men liberally, and <sup>f</sup> upbraideth not; and <sup>g</sup> it will be given to him. <sup>6</sup> But <sup>h</sup> let him ask in faith, nothing doubting; for he that doubteth is like a wave of the sea driven by the wind and tossed. <sup>7</sup> For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing from the Lord; <sup>8</sup> he is <sup>i</sup> a doubleminded man, unstable in all his ways.

9 Let the brother of low degree glory <sup>k</sup> in that he is exalted; <sup>10</sup> but the rich <sup>l</sup> in that he is made low; because <sup>m</sup> as the flower of the grass he will pass away. <sup>11</sup> For the sun ariseth with its burning heat, and withereth the grass, and its flower falleth, and the beauty of its form perisheth; <sup>12</sup> so also will the rich man fade away in his ways.

12 Blessed <sup>o</sup> is the man that endureth temptation; <sup>p</sup> for when he hath been proved, he will receive <sup>q</sup> the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.

13 Let <sup>r</sup> no one say when he is tempted, I am tempted by God; for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man. <sup>14</sup> But every one is tempted when he is drawn away by his own lust and enticed. <sup>15</sup> Then <sup>s</sup> when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin; and sin, when it is finished, <sup>t</sup> bringeth forth death.

16 Be not deceived, my beloved brethren. <sup>17</sup> Every <sup>u</sup> good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from <sup>v</sup> the Father of lights, <sup>w</sup> with whom is no variableness or shadow of turning. <sup>18</sup> Of <sup>x</sup> his own will begat he us by the word of truth,

22 But <sup>h</sup> be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves. <sup>23</sup> For if any one is a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass†; <sup>24</sup> for he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was. <sup>25</sup> But he that looketh into the perfect <sup>i</sup> law of liberty and continueth therein, being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, <sup>j</sup> this man will be blessed in his doing.

26 If any man among you seemeth to be religious, and he <sup>k</sup> bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion <sup>l</sup> is vain. <sup>27</sup> Pure religion† and undefiled, before God and the Father, is this, <sup>i</sup> to visit orphans and widows in their affliction, and to <sup>m</sup> keep himself unspotted from the world.

The duty of impartial Christian love, without regard to outward condition and circumstances.

2. MY brethren, hold not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>a</sup> the Lord of glory, with <sup>b</sup> respect of persons. <sup>2</sup> For if there come unto your assembly <sup>c</sup> a man with a gold ring, in bright apparel, and there come in also a poor man in vile raiment, <sup>3</sup> and ye have respect to him that weareth the bright apparel, and say unto him, Sit thou here in a good place, and say to the poor man, Stand thou there, or, Sit here under my footstool, <sup>4</sup> are ye not then partial§ in yourselves, and become <sup>e</sup> judges with evil thoughts?

5 Hearken, my beloved brethren, <sup>d</sup> Hath not God chosen out the poor of this world to be <sup>e</sup> rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom <sup>f</sup> which he hath promised to them that love him? <sup>6</sup> But <sup>g</sup> ye have despised the poor. Do <sup>h</sup> not the rich oppress you, and is it not they that drag you before the judgment-seats? <sup>7</sup> Is it not they that blaspheme that worthy name by which ye are called?

<sup>8</sup> If ye fulfil the royal law according to the Scripture, 'Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself' [Lev. xix. 18] ye do well; <sup>9</sup> but if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, being convicted by the law as transgressors. <sup>10</sup> For whosoever hath kept the whole law and yet hath offended in one point, <sup>11</sup> he hath become guilty of all. <sup>12</sup> For he who said, 'Do not commit adultery,' said also, 'Do not kill' [Exod. xx. 14, 13]; now if thou commit not adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law.

<sup>12</sup> So speak ye and so do as they that shall be judged by <sup>k</sup> the law of liberty. <sup>13</sup> For <sup>l</sup> he shall have judgment without mercy that hath showed no mercy; and <sup>m</sup> mercy rejoiceth against judgment.

Concerning pretensions to faith without corresponding conduct; (21) examples showing that the faith approved by God has always been accompanied by works.

<sup>14</sup> WHAT <sup>a</sup> doth it profit, my brethren, if any one say that he hath faith, but have not works? <sup>b</sup> Can his faith save him? <sup>15</sup> If a brother or sister be naked and destitute of daily food, <sup>16</sup> and <sup>c</sup> one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body, what doth it profit? <sup>17</sup> So also faith, if it have not works, is dead, by itself. <sup>18</sup> Yea, some one will say, Thou hast faith, and I have works; show me thy faith without thy works, and I will show thee my faith by my works. <sup>19</sup> Thou believest <sup>d</sup> that there is one God; thou doest well: <sup>e</sup> the devils also believe and tremble. <sup>20</sup> But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead?

<sup>25</sup> And in like manner also <sup>i</sup> was not Rahab the harlot justified by works, when she received the messengers and sent them out another way? <sup>26</sup> For as the body without the spirit is dead, so also faith without works is dead.

The dangers of eagerness to teach, and of an unbridled tongue—(13) Angry disputations inconsistent with heavenly wisdom.

<sup>3</sup> MY brethren, <sup>a</sup> be not many teachers, <sup>b</sup> knowing that we shall receive the greater condemnation. <sup>2</sup> For <sup>c</sup> in many things we all offend. If <sup>d</sup> any man offend not in word, the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body. <sup>3</sup> Behold <sup>e</sup> we put bits into the horses' mouths that they may obey us, and we turn about their whole body. <sup>4</sup> Behold also the ships, which though they are so great and are driven by fierce winds, yet are turned about with a very small rudder, whithersoever the steersman may desire. <sup>5</sup> So also the tongue is a little member, and it <sup>f</sup> boasteth great things. Behold how great a forest a little fire kindleth! <sup>6</sup> And <sup>g</sup> the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity. So is the tongue among our members, that <sup>h</sup> it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature*; and <sup>i</sup> it is set on fire by hell. <sup>7</sup> For every kind of beasts and of birds and of creeping things and of things in the sea is tamed, and hath been tamed, by mankind; <sup>8</sup> but the tongue can no man tame; <sup>j</sup> it is a restless evil, <sup>k</sup> full of deadly poison. <sup>9</sup> Therewith <sup>l</sup> bless we the Lord; and Father; and therewith curse we men, <sup>m</sup> who are made after the likeness of God; <sup>10</sup> out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing.

My brethren, these things ought not so to be. <sup>11</sup> Doth a fountain send forth from the same opening sweet water and bitter? <sup>12</sup> Can <sup>n</sup> a fig tree, my brethren, bear olive berries; or a vine, figs? So neither can salt water yield that which is fresh <sup>o</sup>.

<sup>13</sup> Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? Let <sup>p</sup> him show out of a good course of life his works <sup>q</sup> with meekness of wisdom. <sup>14</sup> But if ye have bitter envying and rivalry in your hearts, <sup>r</sup> boast not and lie not against the truth. <sup>15</sup> This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is <sup>s</sup> earthly, <sup>t</sup> sensual, <sup>u</sup> devilish; <sup>16</sup> for <sup>v</sup> where envying and rivalry are, there is confusion and every evil work. <sup>17</sup> But <sup>w</sup> the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then <sup>x</sup> peaceable, gentle, and easy to be intreated, full of mercy and good fruits, <sup>y</sup> without partiality <sup>z</sup> and without hypocrisy. <sup>18</sup> And <sup>aa</sup> the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace by them that make peace.

even from your pleasures <sup>a</sup> that war in your members? <sup>2</sup> Ye desire, and ye have not; ye kill, and ye eagerly covet, and ye cannot obtain; ye fight and war. Ye have not, because ye ask not; <sup>3</sup> ye <sup>b</sup> ask, and ye receive not, <sup>c</sup> because ye ask amiss, that ye may consume <sup>d</sup> upon your pleasures.

<sup>4</sup> Ye <sup>d</sup> adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is <sup>e</sup> enmity against God? <sup>f</sup> Whosoever therefore wisheth to be a friend of the world becometh an enemy of God. <sup>5</sup> Or do ye think that the Scripture saith in vain, The spirit that he made to dwell in us jealously desireth us? <sup>6</sup> But he giveth more grace; wherefore he saith: 'God resisteth the proud, but he giveth grace unto the humble.' [Prov. iii. 34, Sept.]

<sup>13</sup> GO <sup>a</sup> to now, ye that say, To-day or to-morrow we will go to such a city, and continue there a year, and we will buy and sell and get gain; <sup>14</sup> whereas ye know not what will be on the morrow. For what is your life? It <sup>b</sup> is even a vapour that appeareth for a little time and then vanisheth away. <sup>15</sup> Whereas ye ought to say, <sup>c</sup> If the Lord will, we shall both live and do this or that. <sup>16</sup> But now ye glory in your boastings; all such glorying is evil. <sup>17</sup> Therefore <sup>d</sup> to him that knoweth to do good and doeth it not, to him it is sin.

<sup>5.</sup> Go to now, ye rich men, <sup>e</sup> weep and howl for your miseries that are coming upon you. <sup>2</sup> Your riches are corrupted, and <sup>f</sup> your garments are moth-eaten; <sup>3</sup> your gold and silver is rusted, and the rust of them will be a witness against you, and will eat your flesh like fire. <sup>4</sup> Ye have heaped up treasure in the last days. <sup>4</sup> Behold, <sup>h</sup> the hire of the labourers who reaped your fields, which is by you kept back by fraud, crieth out; and <sup>i</sup> the cries of them that reaped have entered into the ears of <sup>k</sup> the Lord of sabaoth*. <sup>5</sup> Ye <sup>l</sup> have been luxurious on the earth, and have lived in pleasure; ye have nourished your hearts, <sup>m</sup> as in a day of slaughter; <sup>6</sup> ye <sup>n</sup> have condemned and killed the just, and he doth not resist you.

THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL OF PETER.

Apostolic salutation—(3) Praise to God for the hope of heavenly blessedness and glory; (6) which raises its possessors above temporal suffering—(10) This salvation was a subject of deepest interest to the prophets who foretold it, and even to angels.

1. PETER<sup>a</sup>, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the sojourners scattered abroad* throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, <sup>b</sup> Asia, and Bithynia, <sup>2</sup> elect <sup>c</sup> according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, <sup>d</sup> in sanctification of the Spirit, <sup>e</sup> unto obedience and <sup>f</sup> sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ. Grace unto you and peace be multiplied.

<sup>10</sup> Concerning which salvation <sup>a</sup> the prophets inquired and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come unto you; <sup>11</sup> searching what or what manner of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them did signify, when it testified beforehand <sup>b</sup> the sufferings of Christ, and <sup>c</sup> the glories that should follow them. <sup>12</sup> To <sup>d</sup> whom it was revealed, that not unto themselves but unto us they ministered the things which have been now reported unto you by those who preached the gospel unto you, <sup>e</sup> with the Holy Spirit sent down from heaven; <sup>f</sup> which things the angels desire to look into.

Exhortations to (13) perfect hope, (14) holy living, (17) filial godly fear, (22) perseverance in brotherly love, and (ch. 2. 1) growth in the new life—(4) The glorious spiritual temple into which all God's chosen people are being built.

<sup>7</sup> Unto you therefore who believe is the honour; but if any are disobedient, 'the stone which the builders rejected, the same is become unto them <sup>k</sup> the head of the corner' [Psa. cxviii. 22, 23] <sup>8</sup> and 'a <sup>l</sup> stone of stumbling and a rock of offence' [Isa. viii. 14], even to them that stumble from being disobedient to the word; <sup>m</sup> whereunto also they were appointed. <sup>9</sup> But ye are <sup>n</sup> a chosen generation, 'a <sup>o</sup> royal priesthood, a holy nation' [Exod. xix. 6], <sup>p</sup> a people for his possession; <sup>q</sup> that ye should show forth the virtues of him who called you <sup>r</sup> out of darkness into his marvellous light; <sup>10</sup> who in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God; who had 'not obtained mercy,' but now 'have obtained mercy' [Hos. ii. 23].

<sup>13</sup> Submit <sup>h</sup> yourselves to every ordinance of man, for the Lord's sake; whether it be to the king, as supreme, <sup>14</sup> or unto governors, as being sent by him for the punishment of evil doers and for the praise of them that do well. <sup>15</sup> For so is the will of God, that <sup>i</sup> by well doing ye put to silence the ignorance of foolish men: <sup>16</sup> as <sup>k</sup> free, yet not using your liberty for a cloak of maliciousness, but as <sup>l</sup> the servants of God.

this is <sup>a</sup> thankworthy, if a man for conscience towards God endure griefs, suffering wrongfully. <sup>20</sup> For <sup>r</sup> what glory is it if when ye do wrong and are buffeted for it ye take it patiently? But if when ye do well and suffer for it ye take it patiently, this is thankworthy with God. <sup>21</sup> For even <sup>s</sup> hereunto were ye called; because Christ also suffered for you*, leaving you* an example that ye should follow his steps; <sup>22</sup> 'who <sup>u</sup> did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth' [Isa. liii. 9]; <sup>23</sup> who <sup>v</sup> when he was reviled reviled not again, when he suffered he threatened not, but <sup>w</sup> committed it to him who judgeth righteously; <sup>24</sup> 'who himself <sup>x</sup> bare our sins' in his own body <sup>a</sup> on the cross, that we <sup>b</sup> having died to our sins might live unto righteousness; <sup>c</sup> 'by <sup>c</sup> whose stripes ye were healed.' <sup>25</sup> For ye were 'as <sup>d</sup> sheep going astray' [Isa. liii. 4, 5, 6, Sept.]; but are now returned unto <sup>e</sup> the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls.

<sup>3</sup> In like manner ye <sup>f</sup> wives, be subject to your own husbands; so that even if any obey not the word, <sup>g</sup> they may without the word be won by the behaviour of the wives, <sup>2</sup> having beheld your chaste behaviour coupled <sup>h</sup> with fear. <sup>3</sup> Whose <sup>i</sup> adorning let it not be that outward <sup>j</sup> adorning of plaiting the hair and of wearing of gold or of putting on of apparel, <sup>4</sup> but let it be <sup>k</sup> the hidden man of the heart, in the incorruptible ornament of a <sup>l</sup> meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price. <sup>5</sup> For after this manner in the old time the holy women also who hoped in God adorned themselves, being subject unto their own husbands; <sup>6</sup> even as Sarah obeyed Abraham, <sup>m</sup> calling him lord; whose daughters <sup>n</sup> ye have become, if ye do well, and are not afraid of any sudden alarm.

<sup>7</sup> Ye husbands, in like manner, dwell with <sup>o</sup> them according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife as the weaker vessel, as being also fellow-heirs of the grace of life; that your prayers be not hindered.

Exhortations to (8) brotherly love, gentleness, and forbearance; (14) patient endurance of persecution, after the example of Christ; and (ch. 4. 1) separation from all evil.

<sup>8</sup> FINALLY, <sup>a</sup> be ye all of one mind, <sup>b</sup> sympathizing one with another, <sup>c</sup> loving the brethren, <sup>d</sup> tender-hearted, humble-minded; <sup>9</sup> not <sup>e</sup> rendering evil for evil or railing for railing, but contrariwise blessing; because ye were thereunto called <sup>f</sup> that ye might inherit a blessing.

<sup>10</sup> For 'he that would love life and see good days, <sup>o</sup> let him refrain his tongue from evil and his lips that they speak no guile, <sup>11</sup> let <sup>h</sup> him turn away from evil and do good, <sup>12</sup> let him seek peace and pursue it.

<sup>12</sup> For the eyes of the Lord are upon the righteous, and his ears are open unto their prayer; but the face of the Lord is against them that do evil' [Psa. xxiv. 12—16]. <sup>13</sup> And <sup>k</sup> who is he that will harm you, if ye be zealous of that which is good?

<sup>18</sup> For Christ also <sup>q</sup> once suffered for sins, <sup>r</sup> a just one for the unjust, <sup>s</sup> that he might bring us to God; <sup>t</sup> being put to death indeed in the flesh, but <sup>u</sup> made alive in the spirit; <sup>19</sup> in which also he went and <sup>v</sup> preached unto the spirits in prison, <sup>20</sup> who once were disobedient, <sup>w</sup> when the long suffering of God was waiting in the days of Noah, while <sup>x</sup> the ark was being prepared, <sup>y</sup> wherein few, that is eight souls, were saved by water; <sup>21</sup> which in its antitype, <sup>z</sup> baptism, now saveth you also, (not the putting away of <sup>a</sup> the filth of the flesh, but the inquiry of a good conscience after God), <sup>d</sup> by the resurrection of Jesus Christ; <sup>22</sup> who is gone unto heaven, and is on the right hand of God; angels and authorities and powers being made subject unto him.

<sup>4</sup> Forasmuch then as Christ suffered for us; in the flesh, <sup>e</sup> arm yourselves likewise with the same mind; for <sup>f</sup> he that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased from sin, <sup>2</sup> that <sup>g</sup> ye should no longer live the rest of your time in the flesh after the lusts of men, but <sup>h</sup> after the will of God. <sup>3</sup> For <sup>i</sup> the time past of life may suffice us † to have <sup>k</sup> wrought out the will of the Gentiles, walking in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries; <sup>4</sup> wherein they think it strange that ye run not with <sup>them</sup> to the same excess of dissoluteness; <sup>1</sup> speaking evil of you; <sup>5</sup> who <sup>m</sup> shall give account to him who is ready <sup>n</sup> to judge the living and the dead. <sup>6</sup> For to this end <sup>o</sup> was the gospel preached also to the dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit.

<sup>14</sup> If ye <sup>a</sup> are reproached for the name of Christ happy are ye; for the spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you; [on* that part he is evil spoken of, but <sup>t</sup> on your part he is glorified.] <sup>15</sup> But let not any one of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evil-doer, or as <sup>u</sup> a busybody in other men's matters; <sup>16</sup> yet if any one suffereth as a Christian, <sup>v</sup> let him not be ashamed, but <sup>w</sup> let him glorify God on this behalf.

<sup>17</sup> For the time is come for <sup>x</sup> judgment to begin at the house of God; and if it begin first at us, <sup>y</sup> what will be the end of them that obey not the gospel of God? <sup>18</sup> And <sup>z</sup> 'if the righteous man scarcely is saved, <sup>b</sup> where will the ungodly and the sinner appear?' [Prov. xi. 31, Sept.] <sup>19</sup> Wherefore let them that suffer according to the will of God <sup>c</sup> commit their souls in well doing unto † a faithful Creator.

The elders are exhorted to fidelity, and (5) all to humility, (6) trustful submission to God's will, (8) sobriety and vigilance, (11) concluding with a promise of the completion of God's work of grace; (12) salutations and a benediction.

5. THE ELDERS who are among you I exhort, who am also an elder; <sup>a</sup> and <sup>b</sup> a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the glory that is to be revealed; <sup>2</sup> feed <sup>c</sup> the flock of God which is

<sup>5</sup> In like manner ye younger*, submit yourselves unto the elders; yea, all of you be clothed with humility one towards another; for 'God resisteth the proud, but he giveth grace to the humble.' [Prov. iii. 34, Sept.] <sup>6</sup> Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time; <sup>7</sup> casting <sup>h</sup> all your care upon him, for he careth for you. <sup>8</sup> Be <sup>i</sup> sober, be vigilant; because <sup>k</sup> your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour;

<sup>10</sup> But the God of all grace, <sup>n</sup> who called us unto his everlasting glory in Christ Jesus, <sup>o</sup> after ye have suffered a while, <sup>p</sup> will himself make you perfect*, establish, strengthen, settle you. <sup>11</sup> To him be glory and dominion† for ever and ever. Amen.

<sup>13</sup> The church that is at Babylon‡, chosen together with you, saluteth you; and so doth <sup>s</sup> Mark my son. <sup>14</sup> Salute ye one another with a kiss of love. Peace be with you all that are in Christ Jesus. Amen.

THE SECOND EPISTLE GENERAL OF PETER.

After a salutation, (3) the apostle describes the abundant grace given and promised to believers; exhorts to the earnest cultivation of all Christian excellence; and (16) shows the certainty of the gospel, as established by the testimony of apostolic eye-witnesses, and (19) Old Testament prophecy.

1. SIMON <sup>a</sup> PETER, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained <sup>b</sup> like precious faith with us, <sup>c</sup> in the righteousness of our God and our Saviour Jesus Christ: <sup>2</sup> Grace <sup>d</sup> and peace be multiplied unto you, in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord.

<sup>8</sup> For if these things are in you and abound, they make you to be neither idle <sup>9</sup> nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>9</sup> But he that lacketh these things is <sup>p</sup> blind and cannot see afar off, and hath forgotten the <sup>q</sup> purification of his former sins. <sup>10</sup> Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence <sup>r</sup> to make your calling and election sure; for if ye do these things <sup>s</sup> ye shall never fall; <sup>11</sup> for <sup>t</sup> so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

<sup>12</sup> Wherefore <sup>u</sup> I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, though ye know them, and are established in the truth that is present with you. <sup>13</sup> But I think it meet, <sup>x</sup> as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stir you up by putting you in remembrance; <sup>14</sup> knowing <sup>y</sup> that shortly I must put off my tabernacle, even as <sup>z</sup> our Lord Jesus Christ showed me. <sup>15</sup> Moreover I will endeavour that ye may be able after my departure to have these things always in remembrance.

<sup>16</sup> For <sup>a</sup> we did not follow cunningly devised fables when we made known unto you the power and <sup>b</sup> coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but <sup>c</sup> we were eye-witnesses of his majesty. <sup>17</sup> For he received from God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, 'This <sup>d</sup> is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased' [Matt. xvii. 5].

spoke from God.

18 And this voice which came from heaven we heard, when we were with him in <sup>e</sup> the holy mount. <sup>19</sup> And we have the word of <sup>f</sup> prophecy more sure; whereunto ye do well if ye take heed, as unto <sup>g</sup> a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawn and the morning star arise in your hearts; <sup>20</sup> knowing this first, that no prophecy of Scripture cometh from any private interpretation; <sup>21</sup> for <sup>h</sup> a prophecy came not at any time by the will of man; but <sup>i</sup> holy men of God spake* as they were moved by the Holy Spirit.

As there were false prophets under the old dispensation, so there will be false teachers under the new, subverting truth and holiness; but (3) both their punishment and the deliverance of the righteous is certain—(10) Further description of their extreme depravity, and pernicious influence upon others.

2. BUT <sup>a</sup> there were false prophets also among the people, as <sup>b</sup> there will be false teachers among you, who will stealthily bring in destructive heresies*, even <sup>c</sup> denying the Lord <sup>d</sup> who bought them, bringing upon themselves swift destruction. <sup>2</sup> And many will follow their licentious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth will be evil spoken of. <sup>3</sup> And <sup>e</sup> in covetousness will they with feigned words make merchandise of you; <sup>f</sup> whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their destruction slumbereth not.

against them before the Lord. <sup>12</sup> But these, <sup>v</sup> as brute beasts born naturally to be taken and destroyed, railing at things that they understand not, <sup>2</sup> shall utterly perish in their corruption, <sup>13</sup> receiving, <sup>a</sup> as they will, the reward of unrighteousness; counting as pleasure <sup>b</sup> that luxurious living which is but for a day; <sup>c</sup> spots and blemishes, luxuriating in their deceits, while <sup>d</sup> they feast with you; <sup>14</sup> having <sup>e</sup> eyes full of adultery, and that cannot be made to cease from sin; <sup>f</sup> alluring unstable souls; having a heart exercised in covetousness; <sup>g</sup> children of the curse; <sup>15</sup> who have forsaken the right way, and have gone astray, following the way of <sup>h</sup> Balaam the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness; <sup>16</sup> but he was rebuked for his iniquity; <sup>i</sup> the dumb ass speaking with man's voice forbad the madness of the prophet.

<sup>17</sup> These are <sup>k</sup> wells without water, <sup>1</sup> mists driven by a whirlwind; for whom the blackness of darkness is reserved for ever. <sup>18</sup> For <sup>m</sup> speaking great swelling words of vanity, they allure by licentiousness in the lusts of the flesh those who <sup>n</sup> are just escaping* from them that live in error; <sup>19</sup> promising them <sup>o</sup> liberty, while they themselves are <sup>p</sup> the slaves of corruption; for by whatsoever a man is overcome, by the same is he brought into bondage.

The certainty of the Lord's coming established against the denials of profane scoffers—(11) Exhortations to holy and watchful living, and growth in Divine knowledge.

3. THIS second epistle, beloved, I now write unto you; in both which <sup>a</sup> I stir up <sup>b</sup> your pure minds by way of remembrance; <sup>2</sup> that ye may be mindful of <sup>c</sup> the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and of <sup>d</sup> the commandment of the Lord and Saviour, given by your apostles; <sup>3</sup> knowing this first, that <sup>e</sup> they will come in the last days scoffers, <sup>f</sup> walking after their own lusts, <sup>4</sup> and saying, <sup>g</sup> Where is the promise of his coming? For since the fathers fell asleep all things have continued as they were from the beginning of the creation.

ought ye to be <sup>x</sup> in all holy behaviour and godliness, <sup>12</sup> looking <sup>y</sup> for and hastening the coming of the day of God; by reason of which the heavens being on fire will <sup>z</sup> be dissolved, and the elements will be melted with fervent heat. <sup>13</sup> But we, according to his promise, look for <sup>a</sup> new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness.

<sup>17</sup> Ye therefore, beloved, <sup>l</sup> seeing that ye know beforehand, <sup>m</sup> beware lest, <sup>n</sup> being led away with the error of the lawless ones, ye fall from your own steadfastness. <sup>18</sup> But <sup>o</sup> grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. <sup>p</sup> To him be glory both now and for ever. Amen.

THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL OF JOHN.

Communion with God, through the knowledge of Christ; (6) evidenced by walking in light, and keeping his commandments, especially that of love.

<sup>1</sup> THAT which <sup>a</sup> was from the beginning, which <sup>b</sup> we have heard, which <sup>c</sup> we have seen with our eyes, which we looked upon, and <sup>d</sup> our hands handled, concerning the Word of life—<sup>2</sup> for <sup>e</sup> the life was manifested, and we have seen it, and we <sup>f</sup> bear witness of it, and declare unto you that everlasting life <sup>g</sup> which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us—<sup>3</sup> that which <sup>h</sup> we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us; and truly <sup>i</sup> our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ. <sup>4</sup> And these things write we unto you, <sup>k</sup> that your joy may be full.

<sup>5</sup> And this is the message which we have heard from him, and declare unto you, that <sup>l</sup> God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. <sup>6</sup> If <sup>m</sup> we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in the darkness, we lie, and do not the truth; <sup>7</sup> but if we walk in the light, as He is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and <sup>n</sup> the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.

<sup>3</sup> And hereby we know that we know him, if we keep his commandments. <sup>4</sup> He <sup>b</sup> that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him; <sup>5</sup> but <sup>c</sup> whosoever keepeth his word, <sup>d</sup> in him verily is the love of God perfected. Hereby <sup>e</sup> know we that we are in him. <sup>6</sup> He that saith <sup>f</sup> he abideth in him <sup>g</sup> ought himself also so to walk even as he walked.

<sup>9</sup> He <sup>m</sup> that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in the darkness even until now. <sup>10</sup> He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and <sup>n</sup> there is no occasion of stumbling in him: <sup>11</sup> but <sup>o</sup> he that hateth his brother is in the darkness, and <sup>p</sup> walketh in the darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because the darkness hath blinded his eyes.

Addresses to various classes—Warnings against (15) the love of the world, and (18) antichristian falsehood—(20) Exhortations to abiding in the truth.

<sup>12</sup> I WRITE unto you, little children, because <sup>a</sup> your sins have been forgiven you for his name's sake. <sup>13</sup> I write unto you, fathers, because ye have known <sup>b</sup> him that is from the beginning. I write unto you, young men, because ye have overcome the wicked one.

I have written† unto you, children, because <sup>c</sup> ye have known the Father. <sup>14</sup> I have written unto you, fathers, because ye have known him <sup>d</sup> who is from the beginning. I have written unto you, young men, because <sup>e</sup> ye are strong, and <sup>f</sup> the word of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one.

<sup>15</sup> Love not <sup>g</sup> the world, nor the things that are in the world. If <sup>h</sup> any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. <sup>16</sup> For all that <sup>i</sup> is in the world, <sup>j</sup> the lust of the flesh, and <sup>k</sup> the lust of the eyes, and <sup>l</sup> the vain-glory of life, is not of the Father but is of the world. <sup>17</sup> And <sup>m</sup> the world is passing away and the lust thereof, <sup>n</sup> but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever.

<sup>18</sup> Children, <sup>o</sup> it is the last time; and as ye have heard that <sup>p</sup> antichrist is coming, <sup>q</sup> even now there have arisen many antichrists: <sup>r</sup> whereby we know that it is the last time. <sup>19</sup> They <sup>s</sup> went out from us, but they were not of us; for <sup>t</sup> if they had been of us, they would have continued with us; but they <sup>u</sup> went out <sup>v</sup> that they might be made manifest that they are not all of us.

<sup>20</sup> And <sup>w</sup> ye have an anointing from <sup>x</sup> the Holy One, and <sup>y</sup> ye know all things. <sup>21</sup> I have not written unto you because ye know not the truth, but <sup>z</sup> because ye know it, and because no lie is of the truth. <sup>22</sup> Who <sup>a</sup> is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is the antichrist that denieth the Father and the Son. <sup>23</sup> Whosoever <sup>b</sup> denieth the Son the same hath not the Father; but <sup>c</sup> he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also.

<sup>24</sup> As for you, let that abide in you <sup>d</sup> which ye heard from the beginning. If that which ye heard from the beginning shall abide in you, <sup>e</sup> ye also will abide in the Son and in the Father. <sup>25</sup> And <sup>f</sup> this is the promise that he himself promised us, <sup>g</sup> even the life everlasting.

<sup>26</sup> These things have I written unto you concerning <sup>h</sup> them that lead you astray. <sup>27</sup> And <sup>i</sup> the anointing which ye received from him abideth in you, and <sup>j</sup> ye need not that any man teach you; but as the same anointing teacheth you concerning all things, and is true and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, <sup>k</sup> abide ye in him.

Distinguishing marks of the children of God—holiness of life, and brotherly love; contrasted with the works of the devil, and the spirit of the world.

<sup>28</sup> AND now, little children, abide in him, that, <sup>a</sup> when he shall be manifested, we may have confidence, and <sup>b</sup> not be ashamed before him at his coming.

<sup>29</sup> If ye know that he is righteous, ye know that every one also that doeth righteousness is born of him.

<sup>4</sup> Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law; for <sup>k</sup> sin is the transgression of the law. <sup>5</sup> And ye know that he was manifested <sup>l</sup> to take away our sins; and in him is no sin. <sup>6</sup> Whosoever <sup>m</sup> abideth in him sinneth not; <sup>o</sup> whosoever sinneth hath not seen him, nor known him.

<sup>11</sup> For <sup>x</sup> this is the message that ye heard from the beginning, that <sup>y</sup> we should love one another. <sup>12</sup> Not as <sup>z</sup> Cain, who was of the wicked one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because <sup>a</sup> his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous. <sup>13</sup> Marvel not, my brethren, if <sup>b</sup> the world hate you. <sup>14</sup> We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brethren; <sup>c</sup> he that loveth not <sup>d</sup> abideth in death. <sup>15</sup> Whosoever <sup>e</sup> hateth his brother is a murderer; and ye know that <sup>f</sup> no murderer hath everlasting life abiding in him.

<sup>18</sup> Little children, <sup>m</sup> let us not love in word or in tongue, but in deed and in truth. <sup>19</sup> And hereby shall we know <sup>n</sup> that <sup>o</sup> we are of the truth, and <sup>p</sup> shall assure our hearts before him. <sup>20</sup> For <sup>q</sup> if our heart condemn us, God is greater; than our heart and knoweth all things. <sup>21</sup> Beloved, <sup>r</sup> if our heart condemn us not, <sup>s</sup> then we have confidence towards God. <sup>22</sup> And <sup>t</sup> whatsoever we ask we receive from him, because we keep his commandments and <sup>u</sup> do those things that are pleasing in his sight. <sup>23</sup> And <sup>v</sup> this is his commandment, that we should believe on the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and <sup>w</sup> love one another, as he gave us commandment. <sup>24</sup> And <sup>x</sup> he that keepeth his commandments abideth in him, and he in him. And <sup>y</sup> hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he gave us.

Warning against false teaching—(2) To deny that the Son of God became truly man is antichristian error—(9) Exhortations to love, founded upon the manifestation of God's love towards us—(ch. 5. 6.) The reasonableness of faith in God's testimony respecting his Son—(10) The believer's inward witness.

<sup>7</sup> Beloved, let us love one another; for <sup>n</sup> love is of God, and <sup>o</sup> every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God; <sup>8</sup> he that loveth not never knew God, for <sup>p</sup> God is love. <sup>9</sup> In this <sup>q</sup> was manifested the love of God towards us, that God hath sent his only begotten Son into the world, <sup>r</sup> that we might live through him. <sup>10</sup> Herein is love, <sup>s</sup> not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son <sup>t</sup> as a propitiation for our sins. <sup>11</sup> Beloved, <sup>u</sup> if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another.

<sup>17</sup> Herein hath love been perfected with us, that <sup>e</sup> we may have boldness in the day of judgment; because <sup>f</sup> as he is, so are we in this world. <sup>18</sup> There <sup>g</sup> is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear; because fear hath torment; he that feareth is not made perfect in love. <sup>19</sup> We <sup>i</sup> love him* because he first loved us.

<sup>6</sup> This is he who came <sup>r</sup> by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not by the water only but by the water and the blood. And <sup>s</sup> it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is the truth. <sup>7</sup> For there are three that bear witness <sup>t</sup>, <sup>8</sup> the Spirit and the water and the blood; and these three agree in one. <sup>9</sup> If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater; for this is the witness of God, which he hath testified of his Son.

<sup>10</sup> He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witness in himself. He that believeth not God hath made him a liar, because he hath not believed the witness that God hath given of his Son. <sup>11</sup> And this is the witness, that <sup>u</sup> God hath given to us everlasting life, and <sup>v</sup> this life is in his Son. <sup>12</sup> He <sup>x</sup> that hath the Son hath the life, and he that hath not the Son of God hath not the life.

Conclusion—Concerning (13) assurance of everlasting life, (14) confidence in prayer, (16) intercession for erring brethren, and (8) the distinction between the children of God and the wicked.

<sup>13</sup> THESE things <sup>a</sup> have I written unto you<sup>2</sup>, that ye may know that ye have everlasting life, even to you who believe on the name of the Son of God.

<sup>14</sup> And this is the confidence that we have towards him, that if we ask any thing <sup>b</sup> according to his will, he heareth us; <sup>15</sup> and if we know that he heareth us, whatsoever we ask, <sup>c</sup> we know that we have the petitions that we have asked of him.

<sup>16</sup> If any one see his brother sinning a sin not unto death, he shall ask, and <sup>d</sup> he will give him life for them that sin not unto death. There <sup>e</sup> is a sin unto death; <sup>f</sup> I do not say that he should pray concerning it. <sup>17</sup> All unrighteousness is sin, and there is a sin not unto death.

<sup>18</sup> We know that every one who is born of God sinneth not; but he that hath been born of God <sup>g</sup> keepeth himself, and the wicked one toucheth him not. <sup>19</sup> We <sup>h</sup> know that we are of God, and <sup>i</sup> the whole world lieth in the wicked one. <sup>20</sup> And we know that the Son of God is come; and he <sup>j</sup> hath given us an understanding, that we may know <sup>k</sup> him that is true; and <sup>m</sup> we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This <sup>n</sup> is the true God, and <sup>o</sup> everlasting life. <sup>21</sup> Little children, <sup>p</sup> keep yourselves from idols. Amen.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF JOHN.

Encouragements to steadfastness and perseverance, and (7) warnings against false teachers.

THE elder unto the elect lady! and her children, <sup>a</sup> whom I love in <sup>b</sup> the truth; and not I only, but also all that have known the truth; <sup>2</sup> for the truth's sake <sup>c</sup> which abideth in us and shall be with us for ever. <sup>3</sup> Grace <sup>d</sup> be with you, mercy, and peace, from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

<sup>4</sup> I rejoiced greatly that I have found of thy children <sup>e</sup> walking in truth, even as we received a commandment from the Father. <sup>5</sup> And now I beseech thee, lady, <sup>f</sup> not as though I wrote unto thee a new commandment, but that which we had from the beginning, <sup>g</sup> that we love one another. <sup>6</sup> And <sup>h</sup> this is love, that we walk after his commandments. This is the commandment, that <sup>i</sup> even as ye heard from the beginning ye should walk in it.

<sup>7</sup> For <sup>k</sup> many deceivers have gone forth into the world, who confess not Jesus Christ coming in the flesh. This is the deceiver and the antichrist. <sup>8</sup> Look to yourselves, that ye* lose not those things which ye* have wrought, but that ye* receive a full reward. <sup>9</sup> Whosoever goeth forward <sup>t</sup>, and abideth not <sup>l</sup> in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God; he that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son. <sup>10</sup> If any one cometh unto you and bringeth not this doctrine, receive him not into your house,<sup>m</sup> neither bid him good speed: <sup>11</sup> for <sup>n</sup> he that biddeth him good speed is a partaker of his evil deeds.

<sup>12</sup> Having <sup>o</sup> many things to write unto you, I would not write with paper and ink, but I hope to come unto you and to speak face to face,<sup>p</sup> that our joy may be full. <sup>13</sup> The <sup>q</sup> children of thy elect sister salute thee. Amen.

THE THIRD EPISTLE OF JOHN.

Affectionate commendations, especially for aiding missionary brethren; (9) notices of an ambitious and turbulent opponent; and (12) of a faithful fellow-labourer.

THE elder unto the beloved <sup>a</sup> Gaius whom <sup>b</sup> I love in the truth. <sup>2</sup> Beloved, I pray that in all things thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth. <sup>3</sup> For I rejoiced greatly when brethren came and testified of the truth that is in thee, even as <sup>c</sup> thou walkest in the truth. <sup>4</sup> I have no greater joy than to hear that <sup>d</sup> my children are walking in the truth.

<sup>5</sup> Beloved, thou doest faithfully whatsoever thou doest for the brethren, and that too for strangers, <sup>6</sup> who have borne witness of thy love before the church; whom if thou bring forward on their journey in a manner worthy of God, thou wilt do well; <sup>7</sup> because <sup>e</sup> for his name's sake they went forth, <sup>f</sup> taking nothing from the Gentiles. <sup>8</sup> We therefore ought to sustain such men, that we may be fellow-workers for the truth.

<sup>9</sup> I wrote unto the church, but Diotrephes, who loveth to have the preeminence among them, receiveth us not. <sup>10</sup> Wherefore, if I come I will bring to remembrance his deeds which he doeth, prating against us with malicious words. And not content therewith, both he himself receiveth not the brethren, and he hindereth them that would, and casteth them out of the church.

<sup>11</sup> Beloved, <sup>g</sup> follow not that which is evil, but that which is good. He <sup>h</sup> that doeth good is of God, but he that doeth evil hath not seen God.

<sup>12</sup> Demetrius <sup>i</sup> hath been well reported of by all, and by the truth itself; yea, and we also bear witness, and <sup>k</sup> ye know that our witness is true.

<sup>13</sup> I <sup>l</sup> had many things to write, but I do not desire with ink and pen to write unto thee; <sup>14</sup> but I hope shortly to see thee, and we shall speak face to face.

Peace be to thee. The friends salute thee. Salute the friends by name.

JUDE, a servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of <sup>a</sup> James, to them that are called, beloved: by God the Father, and preserved unto Jesus Christ: <sup>2</sup> Mercy unto you, and <sup>b</sup> peace and love, be multiplied.

<sup>3</sup> Beloved, in giving all diligence to write unto you of <sup>c</sup> the common salvation, I found it needful for me to write unto you and to exhort you <sup>d</sup> to contend earnestly for <sup>e</sup> the faith once for all delivered unto the saints. <sup>4</sup> For there are certain men crept in <sup>f</sup> unawares, who were before of old set down for this condemnation, ungodly men, <sup>i</sup> turning the grace of our God into licentiousness, and <sup>k</sup> denying our only Master and Lord <sup>o</sup> Jesus Christ.

<sup>5</sup> I desire therefore to put you in remembrance, knowing, as ye do, all these things once for all, that the Lord, <sup>l</sup> having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterwards <sup>m</sup> destroyed those that believed not. <sup>6</sup> And the angels who kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, <sup>n</sup> he hath kept in eternal chains unto darkness unto the judgment of the great day. <sup>7</sup> Even as <sup>o</sup> Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities about them, in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the punishment of eternal fire.

<sup>12</sup> These are <sup>a</sup> rocks in your <sup>b</sup> love-feasts, feasting with you without fear, feeding <sup>c</sup> only themselves; <sup>d</sup> clouds <sup>e</sup> they are without water, carried away by winds; autumn trees without fruit, <sup>f</sup> twice dead, plucked up by the roots; <sup>g</sup> raging <sup>h</sup> waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, for whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever.

THE REVELATION

OF

ST. JOHN THE DIVINE.

Introduction and salutation—(5) Ascription of praise to the Redeemer, and (7) announcement of his second coming—(10) John in the spirit—(12) Vision of Christ in his glory—introductory to the Epistles to the seven churches.

1. THE Revelation of Jesus Christ, <sup>a</sup> which God gave unto him, to show unto his servants things which must shortly come to pass. And <sup>b</sup> he sent and signified <sup>c</sup> it by his angel unto his servant John; <sup>d</sup> who <sup>e</sup> bare witness of the word of God, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, and of all things that he saw.

<sup>3</sup> Blessed is he that readeth*, and they that hear, the words of this prophecy, and keep <sup>d</sup> those things which are written therein; for <sup>e</sup> the time is at hand.

Even so, Amen.  <sup>u</sup> I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end, saith the Lord God <sup>v</sup>, who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty.  <sup>w</sup> I John, your brother, and <sup>x</sup> companion in the tribulation and <sup>y</sup> kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was in the isle that is called Patmos, <sup>z</sup> for the word of God and the testimony of Jesus Christ.  <sup>a</sup> I <sup>b</sup> was in the spirit on <sup>c</sup> the Lord's day; and I heard behind me <sup>d</sup> a great voice as of a trumpet, <sup>e</sup> saying: I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last; and, What thou seest, <sup>f</sup> write in a book, and send <sup>g</sup> it unto the seven churches which are in Asia; to Ephesus, and to Smyrna, and to Pergamos, and to Thyatira, and to Sardis, and to Philadelphia, and to <sup>h</sup> Laodicea.  <sup>i</sup> And I turned to see the voice that spake with me; and being turned, I saw <sup>j</sup> seven golden candlesticks; <sup>k</sup> and <sup>l</sup> in the midst of the seven candlesticks <sup>m</sup> I saw one like unto the Son of man, <sup>n</sup> clothed with a garment down to the feet, and girt about the breasts with a golden girdle. <sup>o</sup> His head and <sup>p</sup> his hairs were white, as white wool, even as snow; and <sup>q</sup> his eyes were as a flame of fire; <sup>r</sup> and <sup>s</sup> his feet like unto fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and <sup>t</sup> his voice as the sound of many waters. <sup>u</sup> And <sup>v</sup> he had in his right hand seven stars; and <sup>w</sup> out of his mouth went a sharp two-edged sword; and <sup>x</sup> his countenance was as the sun shineth in its strength.  <sup>y</sup> And <sup>z</sup> when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead; and <sup>a</sup> he laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me: Fear not, I am the first and the last, <sup>b</sup> and <sup>c</sup> the living One; and I was dead, and behold, I am alive for evermore; and I have the keys of death and of Hades. <sup>d</sup> Write therefore the things which thou hast seen, and the things which are, and the things which shall be hereafter: <sup>e</sup> the mystery of the seven stars which thou sawest in my right hand, and 	 the seven golden candlesticks. The seven stars are the angels* of the seven churches, and the seven candlesticks are the seven churches.  Epistles to the seven churches in Asia; with commendations, censures, admonitions, warnings, and promises.  <sup>2</sup> UNTO the angel of the church in Ephesus write: These things saith <sup>a</sup> he who holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, <sup>b</sup> he who walketh in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks.  <sup>c</sup> I <sup>d</sup> know thy works and thy labour and thy patience, and <sup>e</sup> that thou canst not bear them that are evil; and <sup>f</sup> thou hast tried them <sup>g</sup> that say they are apostles and are not, and hast found them liars; <sup>h</sup> and thou <sup>i</sup> hast patience, and hast borne for my name's sake, and hast <sup>j</sup> not been weary.  <sup>k</sup> Nevertheless I have this against thee, that <sup>l</sup> thou hast left thy first love. <sup>m</sup> Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and <sup>n</sup> repent and do the first works; or else <sup>o</sup> I will come unto thee quickly and will remove thy candlestick out of its place, except thou repent. <sup>p</sup> But this thou hast, that thou hatest the deeds of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate.  <sup>q</sup> He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches. <sup>r</sup> To him that overcometh will I give <sup>s</sup> to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of <sup>t</sup> the paradise of God.  <sup>u</sup> And unto the angel of the church in Smyrna write: These things saith <sup>v</sup> the first and the last, who was dead, and is alive.  <sup>w</sup> I know <sup>x</sup> thy tribulation and thy poverty, (but thou art <sup>y</sup> rich); and <sup>z</sup> I know the reviling of <sup>a</sup> them that say they are Jews, and are not, but are <sup>b</sup> the synagogue of Satan. <sup>c</sup> Fear <sup>d</sup> not the things which thou art about to suffer. Behold, the devil will cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye will have tribulation ten days. Be <sup>e</sup> thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee <sup>f</sup> the crown of life.  <sup>g</sup> He <sup>h</sup> that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches. He that overcometh shall not be hurt by <sup>i</sup> the second death.  <sup>j</sup> And unto the angel of the church in Pergamos write: These things saith <sup>k</sup> he who hath the sharp two-edged sword.  <sup>l</sup> I <sup>m</sup> know <sup>n</sup> where thou dwellest, even where Satan's throne is: and thou holdest fast my name, and didst not deny my faith, 	 <sup>* or, messengers; see Mt. 11. 10; Mk. 1. 2; Lk. 7. 24; 27. 12; &amp;c., &amp;c.</sup>  <sup>+ or, messenger; and in vers. 6, 13, &amp;c.</sup>  <sup>a</sup> ch. 1. 16.  <sup>b</sup> ch. 1. 13.  <sup>c</sup> Mt. 28. 20.  <sup>d</sup> Ps. 1. 6.  <sup>e</sup> 2 Tim. 2. 19.  <sup>f</sup> See Ac. 20. 28-30.  <sup>g</sup> 1 John 4. 1.  <sup>h</sup> 2 Cor. 11. 13; 2 Pet. 2. 1.  <sup>i</sup> Mt. 10. 22; Phil. 1. 29.  <sup>j</sup> Gal. 6. 9;  <sup>k</sup> Heb. 12. 3.  <sup>l</sup> Jer. 2. 2;  <sup>m</sup> Mt. 24. 12.  <sup>n</sup> Eze. 18. 30-32.  <sup>o</sup> Mt. 21. 41, 43.  <sup>p</sup> Jam. 1. 12; 1 John 5. 4.  <sup>q</sup> ch. 22. 2, 14.  <sup>r</sup> Ge. 2. 9.  <sup>s</sup> Pk. 23. 43.  <sup>t</sup> ch. 1. 8, 17, 18.  <sup>u</sup> Rec. text adds, thy works and.  <sup>v</sup> Jam. 2. 5.  <sup>w</sup> Is. 48. 1.  <sup>x</sup> Ro. 2. 28, 29.  <sup>y</sup> John 8. 44.  <sup>z</sup> Lk. 12. 4-7.  <sup>a</sup> Mt. 21. 13; Ac. 20. 24.  <sup>b</sup> 2 Tim. 4. 8; Jam. 1. 12.  <sup>c</sup> ch. 13. 9.  <sup>d</sup> ch. 20. 6, 14; 21. 8; Mt. 10. 28.  <sup>e</sup> ch. 1. 16;  <sup>f</sup> Heb. 4. 12.  <sup>g</sup> ch. 3. 1, 8, 19.  <sup>h</sup> Rec. text adds thy works and.  heaven from my God, and <sup>h</sup> my own new name. <sup>13</sup> He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

<sup>15</sup> I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot. <sup>m</sup> I would thou wert cold or hot. <sup>16</sup> So then because thou art lukewarm and neither cold nor hot, I shall spue thee out of my mouth. <sup>17</sup> Because thou sayest: † I am rich and increased with goods and have need of nothing, and <sup>g</sup> knowest not that thou art wretched and miserable and poor and <sup>p</sup> blind and naked, <sup>18</sup> I counsel thee <sup>q</sup> to buy of me gold refined in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness may not appear; and <sup>r</sup> eyesalve to anoint thine eyes †, that thou mayest see. <sup>19</sup> As <sup>s</sup> many as I love I rebuke and chasten; † be zealous therefore, and repent. <sup>20</sup> Behold, <sup>u</sup> I stand at the door and knock; if any one hear my voice and open the door, <sup>z</sup> I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

<sup>21</sup> To him that overcometh <sup>v</sup> will I give to sit with me on my throne, even as <sup>z</sup> I also overcame and <sup>a</sup> sat down with my Father on his throne. <sup>22</sup> He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

Vision of God's presence in heaven, and (4) the everlasting worship of the Creator; introductory to the sealed scroll.

<sup>4</sup>. AFTER this I saw, and behold, <sup>a</sup> a door was opened in heaven: and there was <sup>b</sup> the former voice which I heard, as it were of a trumpet, talking with me, saying: <sup>c</sup> Come up hither, and I will show thee things which must be hereafter.

<sup>2</sup> And immediately <sup>d</sup> I was in the spirit: and behold, <sup>e</sup> a throne was set in heaven, and <sup>One</sup> sat on the throne; <sup>3</sup> and he who sat was to look upon like a jasper and a sardine stone; and there was <sup>f</sup> a rainbow round about the throne, like unto the appearance of an emerald. <sup>4</sup> And <sup>g</sup> round about the throne were four and twenty thrones; and upon the thrones I saw four and twenty elders sitting, <sup>h</sup> clothed in white raiment; and they had on their heads crowns of gold. <sup>5</sup> And out of the throne came forth <sup>i</sup> lightnings and thunderings and voices. And <sup>k</sup> there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God: <sup>6</sup> and before the throne as it were <sup>l</sup> a sea of glass like unto crystal. And <sup>m</sup> in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne, were four living creatures full of eyes before and behind. <sup>7</sup> And <sup>n</sup> the first living creature was like a lion, and the second living creature like a calf, and the third living creature had a face as a man, and the fourth living creature was like a flying eagle. <sup>8</sup> And the four living creatures, having each of them <sup>o</sup> six wings, were <sup>p</sup> full of eyes about and within them †. And they rest not day and night, saying:

'Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty'

[Isa. vi. 3]!

Who was, and is, and to come.

<sup>9</sup> And whosoever these living creatures give glory and honour and thanks to him who sitteth on the throne, <sup>q</sup> who liveth for ever and ever, <sup>10</sup> the four and twenty elders fall down before him who sitteth on the throne, and worship him who liveth for ever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying:

<sup>11</sup> Thou <sup>r</sup> art worthy, O Lord †, to receive glory and honour and power;

For thou createdst all things,

And by reason of thy will they are, and were created.

The sealed scroll—(2) Lamentation, and (5) comfort, concerning the opening thereof—(8) Worship of the Redeemer.

<sup>5</sup>. AND I saw in the right hand of him who sat on the throne <sup>a</sup> a book written within and on the back, <sup>b</sup> sealed with seven seals. <sup>2</sup> And I saw a mighty angel proclaiming with a loud voice: Who is worthy to open the book and to loose its seals? <sup>3</sup> And <sup>c</sup> no one in heaven, nor on the earth, nor under the earth, was able to open the book or to look thereon. <sup>4</sup> And <sup>d</sup> I wept much because no one was found worthy to open || the book or to look thereon. <sup>5</sup> And one of the elders saith unto me: Weep not: behold, <sup>e</sup> the Lion of the tribe of Judah, <sup>f</sup> the Root of David, <sup>g</sup> hath prevailed to open the book and to loose its seven seals.

<sup>6</sup> And I beheld, and lo, in the midst of the throne and of the four living creatures, and in the midst of the elders, a Lamb standing, as it had been slain, having seven horns, and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth. <sup>7</sup> And he came and took the book out of the right hand of him who sat upon the throne. <sup>8</sup> And when he took the book, the four living creatures and the four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having each one <sup>h</sup> a harp, and golden vials;

For thou wast slain, and †thou redeemedst us* to God by thy blood,

Out ‡ of every kindred and tongue and people and nation;

<sup>10</sup> And †hast made us †unto our God a kingdom: †and priests,

And we †shall reign on the earth.

<sup>11</sup> And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne and the living creatures, and the elders; and the number of them was <sup>m</sup>myriads of myriads and thousands of thousands; <sup>12</sup>saying with a loud voice:

Worthy <sup>n</sup> is the Lamb that was slain,
To receive power and riches and wisdom,
And strength and honour and glory and blessing!

<sup>13</sup> And <sup>o</sup>every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and on the sea, and all the things that are in them, heard I saying:

Blessing <sup>p</sup> and honour and glory and power,
Be unto him <sup>q</sup>who sitteth upon the throne,
and unto the Lamb,
For ever and ever!

<sup>14</sup> And the four living creatures said, Amen; and the four and twenty elders fell down and worshipped!.

The sealed scroll—Opening of the first six seals—(2) Victory and conquest, (3) war, (5) famine, (7) great mortality, (9) martyrdom, (12) the great day of wrath.

6. AND I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seven seals, and I heard as if it were the voice of thunder, one of the four living creatures saying: Come! <sup>2</sup> And I saw, and behold, <sup>a</sup>a white horse; and <sup>b</sup>he that sat on it had a bow, and <sup>c</sup>a crown was given unto him, and he went forth conquering and to conquer.

<sup>3</sup> And when he opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature, saying, Come. <sup>4</sup> And there went out another horse that was red; and it was given to him that sat thereon <sup>d</sup>to take away peace from the earth, and that men should kill one another; and there was given unto him a great sword.

<sup>5</sup> And when he opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature, saying, Come. And I saw, and behold, a black horse; and he that sat on him had <sup>e</sup>a pair of scales in his hand. <sup>6</sup> And I heard as it were* a voice in the midst of the four living creatures, saying, A measure † of wheat for a penny ‡; and three measures § of barley for a penny; and §hurt thou not the oil and the wine.

<sup>7</sup> And when he opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature, saying, Come. <sup>8</sup> And I saw, and behold a pale horse; and his name that sat on it was Death, and Hades §followed with him. And power was given unto them over the fourth part of the earth, <sup>9</sup>to kill with sword and with famine and with death and by the beasts of the earth.

<sup>9</sup> And when he opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar <sup>h</sup>the souls of them that had been slain for the word of God and for †the testimony which they bore.

<sup>10</sup> And they cried with a loud voice, saying: How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not ‡judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth? <sup>11</sup> And there was given* unto every one of them a white robe; and it was said unto them, ‡that they should rest yet for a little season, <sup>m</sup>until their fellowservants also and their brethren who should be killed as they were should be fulfilled.

<sup>12</sup> And I beheld when he opened the sixth seal; and lo, there was a great earthquake; and <sup>n</sup>the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the full moon became as blood; <sup>13</sup> and <sup>o</sup>the stars of heaven fell to the earth, even as a fig-tree casteth its unripe figs when it is <sup>p</sup>shaken by a mighty wind; <sup>14</sup> and <sup>q</sup>the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled up; and <sup>r</sup>every mountain and island were moved out of their places. <sup>15</sup> And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every freeman, <sup>s</sup>hid themselves in the caves and in the rocks of the mountains. <sup>16</sup> And <sup>t</sup>they said to the mountains and the rocks: Fall on us, and hide us from the face of Him who sitteth on the throne and from <sup>u</sup>the wrath of the Lamb! <sup>17</sup> For <sup>x</sup>the great day of his wrath is come; and who is able to stand?

Two visions, representing (1) God's preservation of his people amidst judgments sweeping over the world, and (2) the perfect happiness of the redeemed in heaven.

7. AND after this I saw four angels standing on the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that the wind should not blow on the earth nor on the sea nor against any tree.

from the rising of the sun, having <sup>a</sup> the seal of the living God. And he cried with a loud voice to <sup>b</sup> the four angels to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea, <sup>3</sup> saying: Hurt <sup>c</sup> not the earth nor the sea nor the trees, till we have <sup>d</sup> sealed the servants of our God <sup>e</sup> upon their foreheads.

<sup>9</sup> After this I saw, and behold, <sup>h</sup> a great multitude which no one could number, <sup>i</sup> of all nations and tribes and peoples and tongues, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, <sup>k</sup> clothed with white robes, and <sup>l</sup> palms in their hands. <sup>10</sup> And they cried with a loud voice, saying:

Salvation <sup>m</sup> to our God, <sup>n</sup> who sitteth upon the throne,
And <sup>o</sup> to the Lamb!

<sup>11</sup> And all the angels stood round about the throne and about the elders and <sup>p</sup> the four living creatures; and they fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God, <sup>12</sup> saying:

Amen! <sup>q</sup> Blessing and glory and wisdom And thanksgiving and honour and power and might Be unto our God for ever and ever! Amen.

<sup>13</sup> And <sup>r</sup> one of the elders answered, saying unto me: Who are these who are arrayed in white robes, and whence came they? <sup>14</sup> And I said unto him: My Lord, thou knowest. And he said to me: <sup>s</sup> These are they that come out of the great tribulation; and <sup>t</sup> they washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

<sup>15</sup> Therefore <sup>u</sup> are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple; and he who sitteth on the throne will <sup>z</sup> dwell among them. <sup>16</sup> 'They shall hunger no more, nor thirst any more, neither shall the sun fall on them nor any heat' [Isa. xlix. 10]. <sup>17</sup> For the Lamb who is in the midst of the throne will feed <sup>y</sup> them, and <sup>z</sup> will lead them to living

Opening of the seventh seal—(2) Vision of seven angels with seven trumpets, and (3) another angel offering incense, with the prayers of the saints, and (5) casting altar-fire down upon the earth.

8. AND when he opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven, about the space of half an hour.

<sup>2</sup> And I saw <sup>a</sup> the seven angels who stand before God; and to them were given seven trumpets.

<sup>3</sup> And another angel came and <sup>b</sup> stood upon the altar, having <sup>c</sup> a golden censer; and there was given unto him much incense, that he should offer it, with <sup>d</sup> the prayers of all the saints, upon the golden altar which was before the throne. <sup>4</sup> And <sup>e</sup> the smoke of the incense, with the prayers of the saints, went up before God out of the angel's hand. <sup>5</sup> And the angel took the censer, and <sup>f</sup> filled it from the fire of the altar, and cast it unto the earth. And <sup>g</sup> there were voices and thunderings and lightnings, and an earthquake.

Sounding of the first four trumpets—Plagues affecting (7) the land and its productions, (8) the sea and its inhabitants, (10) the rivers and springs of water, and (12) the lights of heaven.

6 AND the seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound.

<sup>7</sup> And the first angel sounded; and there followed <sup>a</sup> hail and fire, mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth. And <sup>b</sup> the third part of the earth was burnt up, and the <sup>c</sup> third part of trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.

<sup>8</sup> And the second angel sounded; and as it were <sup>a</sup> a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea. And the third part of the sea <sup>d</sup> became blood; <sup>9</sup> and <sup>e</sup> the third part of the creatures which were in the sea and had life, died; and the third part of the ships were destroyed.

<sup>10</sup> And the third angel sounded; and <sup>f</sup> there fell a great star from heaven, burning as it were a torch; and <sup>g</sup> it fell upon a third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of waters. <sup>11</sup> And the name of the star is called <sup>h</sup> Wormwood: and the third part of the waters became wormwood; and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

<sup>12</sup> And <sup>i</sup> the fourth angel sounded; and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; that the third part of them might be darkened, and the day

Announcement of three woes; (ch. 9. 1) sounding of the fifth trumpet, or first woe; (3) issue of locusts from the pit of the abyss.

<sup>13</sup> AND I saw, and I heard an angel* flying in mid-heaven, saying with a loud voice: "Woe, woe, woe, to the inhabitants of the earth, by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels who are about to sound!"

Sounding of the sixth trumpet, or second woe; (14) Loosing of four angels of evil, prepared for an appointed time; (19) sending forth of countless agents of destruction—(20) Continued impotence of the wicked.

<sup>13</sup> AND the sixth angel sounded; and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before God, <sup>14</sup> saying to the sixth angel who had the trumpet: Loose the four angels who are bound <sup>a</sup> at the great river Euphrates. <sup>15</sup> And the four angels were loosed, who had been prepared for the hour and day and month and year, that they might slay the third part of men.

<sup>20</sup> And the rest of the men who were not killed by these plagues § yet repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship <sup>f</sup> demons, and <sup>g</sup> idols of gold and silver and brass and stone and wood, which can neither see nor hear nor walk; <sup>21</sup> neither repented they of their murders, nor <sup>h</sup> of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

The angel of the time of the end, with a little book (or, scroll) in his hand—(3) Seven thunders, and the sealing of their utterances—(8) The delivery of the little book to John, and (11) his commission to prophecy further.

<sup>8</sup> And the voice which I heard from heaven spake with me again, and said: Go and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel who standeth upon the sea and upon the land. <sup>9</sup> And I went unto the angel, and said unto him: Give me the little book. And he said unto me: <sup>m</sup> Take it and eat it up; and it will make thy belly bitter, but it will be in thy mouth sweet as honey. <sup>10</sup> And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey; and as soon as I had eaten it, <sup>n</sup> my belly was made bitter.

Measuring of the temple of God—The two witnesses—their (3) ministry, (7) death, (11) resurrection, and (12) ascension to heaven—(13) Great earthquake and its consequences.

<sup>11.</sup> AND there was given to me <sup>a</sup> a reed like unto a staff; and <sup>a</sup> voice said†: Arise and measure the temple of God and the altar, and them that worship therein; <sup>2</sup> but <sup>b</sup> the court which is outside of the temple leave out, and measure it not; for <sup>c</sup> it is given unto the Gentiles; and the holy city will they <sup>d</sup> tread under foot <sup>e</sup> forty two months.

<sup>7</sup> And when they shall have finished their testimony, <sup>n</sup> the beast that cometh up out of the abyss <sup>o</sup> will make war against them, and will overcome them and kill them. <sup>8</sup> And their dead bodies will lie in the street of the great city which spiritually is <sup>p</sup> called Sodom and Egypt, where also their* Lord was crucified. <sup>9</sup> And some from among the peoples and tribes and tongues and nations will look upon their dead bodies three days and a half; and <sup>q</sup> they will not suffer their dead bodies to be put into a tomb. <sup>10</sup> And they that dwell upon the earth will rejoice over them, and make merry, and <sup>r</sup> will send gifts one to another, because these two prophets tormented them that dwell on the earth.

<sup>11</sup> And after the three days and a half <sup>s</sup> the Spirit of life from God entered into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell upon those that saw them. <sup>12</sup> And they heard a loud voice from heaven, saying unto them, Come up hither. And they went up to heaven <sup>t</sup> in the clouds, and their enemies beheld them.

<sup>13</sup> And in the same hour there was a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were slain of men seven thousand†. And the remnant were affrighted, and <sup>u</sup> gave glory to the God of heaven.

temple <sup>m</sup> the ark of his covenant. And <sup>n</sup> there were lightnings and voices and thunderings, and an earthquake, <sup>o</sup> and a great hail.

Vision of the woman persecuted by the dragon; (7) war in heaven; (9) casting out of the dragon; (10) songs of joy and praise in heaven; (13) persecution of the saints on earth.

12. AND there was seen a great sign in heaven; a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars; <sup>2</sup> and she being with child crieth out, <sup>a</sup> travelling in birth and pained to be delivered.

<sup>3</sup> And there was seen another sign in heaven; and behold, <sup>b</sup> a great red dragon, <sup>c</sup> having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his heads <sup>d</sup> seven diadems: <sup>4</sup> and his tail dragged the third part of the stars of heaven, and <sup>e</sup> cast them to the earth. And the dragon stood before the woman who was ready to be delivered, <sup>f</sup> to devour her child as soon as it was born. <sup>5</sup> And <sup>g</sup> she brought forth a man-child, <sup>h</sup> who is to rule all the nations with a rod of iron; and her child was <sup>i</sup> caught up unto God, and to his throne. <sup>6</sup> And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared by God, that <sup>k</sup> they might nourish her there <sup>l</sup> a thousand two hundred and sixty days.

Now <sup>t</sup> is come the salvation, and the might, and the kingdom of our God, And <sup>u</sup> the authority of his Christ.

For the accuser of our brethren is cast down,

Who <sup>v</sup> accused them before our God, day and night.

<sup>11</sup> And <sup>w</sup> they overcame him, because of <sup>x</sup> the blood of the Lamb,

And because of the word of their testimony:

And <sup>y</sup> they loved not their lives unto death.

Woe <sup>a</sup> to the inhabitants of the earth and of the sea!

For <sup>d</sup> the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, Because he knoweth that <sup>e</sup> he hath but a short time.

<sup>13</sup> And when the dragon saw that he was cast unto the earth, he persecuted the woman who had brought forth the man child. <sup>14</sup> And <sup>f</sup> to the woman were given the two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into <sup>g</sup> the wilderness*, into her place, where she is nourished for <sup>h</sup> a time and times and half a time, from the face of the serpent. <sup>15</sup> And the serpent <sup>i</sup> cast out of his mouth water as a river after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away by the river. <sup>16</sup> And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed up the river which the dragon cast out of his mouth. <sup>17</sup> And the dragon was wroth with the woman; and <sup>k</sup> he went to make war with the remnant of her seed, who keep the commandments of God and hold the testimony of Jesus Christ.

13. AND he stood† upon the sand of the sea. And I saw <sup>a</sup> a beast coming up out of the sea, having <sup>b</sup> seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten diadems, and upon his heads names† of <sup>c</sup> blasphemy. <sup>2</sup> And the beast which I saw was <sup>d</sup> like a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion. And the dragon <sup>e</sup> gave him his power, and <sup>f</sup> his throne, and great authority. <sup>3</sup> And I saw one of his heads <sup>g</sup> as it were wounded to death: and his deadly wound was healed. And the <sup>h</sup> whole earth wondered after the beast. <sup>4</sup> And <sup>i</sup> they worshipped the dragon because he gave† his authority unto the beast. And they worshipped the beast, saying: Who is like unto the beast; and who is able to make war with him?

<sup>5</sup> And there was given unto him <sup>k</sup> a mouth speaking great things† and blasphemies; and power was given unto him to act† forty and two months. <sup>6</sup> And he opened his mouth in blasphemies against God, to blaspheme his name and <sup>l</sup> his tabernacle and <sup>m</sup> those who dwell in heaven. <sup>7</sup> And it was given unto him <sup>n</sup> to make war with the saints and to overcome them; and <sup>o</sup> power was given him over every tribe and tongue and nation and people. <sup>8</sup> And all that dwell upon the earth will worship him, <sup>p</sup> every one <sup>q</sup> whose name is † not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain, <sup>r</sup> from the foundation of the world.

<sup>9</sup> If any one hath an ear, let him hear. <sup>10</sup> If * any one is for captivity, into captivity he goeth; if any to be slain with the sword, with the sword must he be slain [Jer. xv. 2]. Here is the patience and the faith of the saints

<sup>11</sup> And I saw another beast coming up out of the earth; and <sup>7</sup> he had two horns like a lamb, and <sup>8</sup> he spake as a dragon. <sup>12</sup> And he exerciseth all the authority of the first beast in his presence; and he causeth the earth and them that dwell therein to worship the first beast whose deadly wound was healed. <sup>13</sup> And <sup>4</sup> he doeth great miracles, so that he even maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men; <sup>14</sup> and <sup>u</sup> he leadeth astray them that dwell on the earth, by reason of the miracles which it was given to him to do in the sight of the beast; bidding them that dwell on the earth to make <sup>z</sup> an image to the beast which had the wound by a sword and lived. <sup>15</sup> And it was given to him to give life to the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should even speak, and should cause that as many as <sup>y</sup> worshipped not the image of the beast should be killed. <sup>16</sup> And he caused all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, <sup>2</sup> to receive a mark on their right hand or on their forehead, <sup>17</sup> and that no one should be able to buy or sell save he that had the mark, or <sup>a</sup> the name of the beast, or <sup>b</sup> the number of his name.

<sup>18</sup> Here <sup>c</sup> is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast; for it is <sup>d</sup> the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred and sixty six.

<sup>4</sup> These are they who were not defiled with women; for <sup>e</sup> they are virgins. These are they † that follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These were redeemed from among men, as <sup>7</sup> firstfruits unto God and to the Lamb. <sup>5</sup> And in their mouth was found no falsehood, for they are blameless*.

Three angelic proclamations relating to the visions which follow; and (13) a voice declaring the blessedness of Christ's servants after death.

<sup>14</sup> AND I saw, and behold, <sup>a</sup> a white cloud, and upon the cloud <sup>one</sup> sitting like the Son of man, <sup>b</sup> having upon his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle. <sup>15</sup> And another angel <sup>c</sup> came forth out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him who sat on the cloud: <sup>d</sup> Put forth thy sickle and reap; for the time † to reap is come, for <sup>e</sup> the harvest of the earth is ripe. <sup>16</sup> And he who sat on the cloud thrust in his sickle upon the earth, and the earth was reaped.

17 And another angel came forth, out of the temple which was in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle. 18 And another angel came out from the altar, <sup>f</sup>who had power over fire; and he cried with a loud cry to him that had the sharp sickle, saying: <sup>g</sup>Put forth thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; for its grapes are fully ripe. 19 And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into <sup>h</sup>the great winepress of the wrath of God. 20 And <sup>i</sup>the winepress was trodden <sup>k</sup>outside the city, and <sup>l</sup>blood came forth out of the winepress, even unto the bridles of the horses, to the distance of a thousand and six hundred furlongs*.

The seven last plagues—introduced by (2) a vision of the saints victorious over the beast.

15. AND I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvellous, seven angels having the seven last plagues; for in them <sup>a</sup>is filled up the wrath of God.

2 And I saw as it were <sup>b</sup>a sea of glass mingled with fire; and those <sup>c</sup>who had gotten the victory over the beast, and <sup>d</sup>over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, standing on the sea of glass, <sup>e</sup>having harps of God. 3 And they sing <sup>f</sup>the song of Moses the servant of God, and <sup>g</sup>the song of the Lamb, saying:

Great <sup>h</sup>and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty!

Just <sup>i</sup>and true are thy ways, Thou King of the nations*!

4 Who <sup>k</sup>will not fear thee, O Lord, And glorify thy name?

For <sup>m</sup>all the nations shall come and worship before thee;

For <sup>n</sup>thy righteous acts are made manifest.

The seven vessels of plagues poured out—upon (ch. 16. 2) the land, (8) the sea, (4) the rivers and springs of water, (6) the sun, (10) the throne of the beast, (12) the river Euphrates, and (17) into the air, when the judgments of God are consummated.

5 AND after this I saw, and behold, <sup>a</sup>the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened; <sup>b</sup>and the seven angels came out of the temple having the seven plagues, <sup>c</sup>clothed in linen pure and bright, and girded about their breasts with <sup>d</sup>golden girdles. 7 And one of the four living creatures gave unto the seven angels <sup>e</sup>seven golden vials† full of the wrath of God, <sup>f</sup>who liveth for ever and ever. 8 And the temple was filled with smoke, from the glory of God and from his power: and no one was able to enter into the temple till the seven plagues of the seven angels should be finished.

16. And I heard a loud voice out of the temple, saying to the seven angels; Go and pour out the seven* vials of <sup>g</sup>the wrath of God upon the earth.

2 And the first departed and poured out his vial upon the earth; and <sup>h</sup>there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men <sup>i</sup>who had the mark of the beast, and upon those who worshipped his image.

3 And the second angel poured out his vial into the sea; and <sup>k</sup>it became blood, as of a dead man, and every living creature died in the sea.

4 And the third angel poured out his vial into the rivers and the fountains of waters; and <sup>l</sup>they became blood. 5 And I heard the angel of the waters say: <sup>m</sup>Thou art righteous, O Lord, <sup>n</sup>who art and who wast, the Holy One†, because thou hast judged thus. 6 For <sup>o</sup>they shed the blood of saints and prophets, and <sup>p</sup>thou hast given them blood to drink, and they are worthy of it.

7 And I heard another <sup>q</sup>out of the altar, saying: Even so, Lord God Almighty! 8 True and righteous are thy judgments.

9 And the fourth angel poured out his vial upon the sun; and it was given unto it to scorch men with fire; <sup>9</sup>and men were scorched with great heat. And they blasphemed the name of God, who hath power over these plagues; and <sup>a</sup>they repented not <sup>b</sup>to give him glory.

10 And the fifth angel poured out his vial <sup>c</sup>upon the throne of the beast; and <sup>d</sup>his kingdom became darkened. And <sup>e</sup>they gnawed their tongues for pain; <sup>f</sup>and they blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores; and they repented not of their deeds.

12 And the sixth angel poured out his vial <sup>g</sup>upon the great river Euphrates; <sup>h</sup>and the water thereof was dried up, <sup>i</sup>that the way of the kings who are from the rising of the sun might be prepared. 13 And I saw coming out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of <sup>j</sup>the false prophet, three <sup>k</sup>unclean spirits like frogs. 14 For they are <sup>l</sup>spirits of demons <sup>m</sup>working miracles, and they go forth unto the kings† of the whole world, to gather them to <sup>n</sup>the war of that great day of God, the Almighty.—

15 Behold, <sup>a</sup>I come as a thief. Blessed <sup>b</sup>is he that watcheth and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame.—<sup>16</sup> And <sup>k</sup> they gathered them together to the place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon*.

<sup>17</sup> And the seventh angel poured out his vial upon the air; and there came forth <sup>a</sup> a loud voice, out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, <sup>m</sup> It is done. <sup>18</sup> And there were voices and thunders and lightnings; and there was a great earthquake, <sup>n</sup> such as was not since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake and so great. <sup>19</sup> And <sup>o</sup> the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell. And Babylon the great was <sup>p</sup> remembered before God, <sup>q</sup> to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath. <sup>20</sup> And <sup>r</sup> every island fled away, and no mountains were found. <sup>21</sup> And there fell upon men <sup>s</sup> a great hail out of heaven, as of the weight of a talent. And men blasphemed God because of <sup>t</sup> the plague of the hail, for the plague thereof was exceeding great.

Vision of the mystical Babylon, as (3) a drunken harlot, richly attired, and seated on a wild beast, with seven heads and ten horns, (8) whose power supports her wickedness, and (14) carries on war with the Lord and his followers—(16) The destruction of the harlot by the ten horns and the beast.

<sup>17</sup> AND there came <sup>a</sup> one of the seven angels who had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying: Come hither, <sup>b</sup> I will show unto thee the judgment of <sup>c</sup> the great harlot <sup>d</sup> that sitteth upon the many waters, <sup>e</sup> with <sup>f</sup> whom the kings of the earth committed fornication, and the inhabitants of the earth <sup>g</sup> were made drunk with the wine of her fornication. <sup>3</sup> And he carried me away in the spirit <sup>h</sup> into a wilderness. And I saw a woman sitting upon <sup>i</sup> a scarlet beast full of <sup>j</sup> names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns. <sup>4</sup> And the woman <sup>k</sup> was arrayed in purple and scarlet, and <sup>l</sup> decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, <sup>m</sup> having a golden cup in her hand <sup>n</sup> full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication. <sup>5</sup> And <sup>o</sup> upon her forehead was a name written: <sup>p</sup> MYSTERY, <sup>q</sup> BABYLON THE GREAT, <sup>r</sup> THE MOTHER OF THE HARLOTS AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

<sup>6</sup> And I saw the woman drunken with <sup>s</sup> the blood of the saints and with the blood of <sup>t</sup> the witnesses † of Jesus; and when I saw her, <sup>u</sup> I wondered with great astonishment. <sup>7</sup> And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou wonder? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns. <sup>8</sup> The <sup>v</sup> beast that thou sawest was, and is not, and <sup>w</sup> he will come up out of the abyss, and <sup>x</sup> he goeth into perdition. And they that dwell on the earth <sup>y</sup> will wonder, <sup>z</sup> whose names are not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they see the beast, that he was, and is not, and will come again*.

<sup>9</sup> Here <sup>c</sup> is the mind which hath wisdom. The <sup>d</sup> seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth; <sup>10</sup> and they are seven kings; five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space. <sup>11</sup> And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and he <sup>e</sup> goeth into perdition.

<sup>15</sup> And he saith unto me: The waters which thou sawest, where the harlot sitteth, are peoples and multitudes and nations and tongues. <sup>16</sup> And the ten horns which thou sawest and the beast <sup>l</sup>, these will hate the harlot, and will make her desolate and <sup>m</sup> naked, and will eat her flesh, and will utterly <sup>n</sup> burn her with fire. <sup>17</sup> For <sup>o</sup> God put into their hearts to perform his will, and to be of one mind, and to give their kingdom unto the beast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled. <sup>18</sup> And the woman whom thou sawest is the great city which reigneth over the kings of the earth.

Destruction of Babylon—(4) Warnings to God's people to depart out of her—Lamentations over her fall by (9) the kings, and (11) merchants of the earth, who have shared in her glory and in her guilt.

<sup>18</sup> AND after this I saw another angel coming down from heaven, having great power; and <sup>a</sup> the earth was lighted up with his glory. <sup>2</sup> And he cried out with a strong voice, saying: Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great, and <sup>b</sup> is become a habitation of demons, and a hold of every unclean spirit, and <sup>c</sup> a hold of every unclean and hated bird. <sup>3</sup> For all the nations <sup>d</sup> have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication; and the kings of the earth committed fornication with her,

The going forth of the Lord and his saints to war and victory ; (17) defeat and destruction of the beast and the false prophet, and their followers.

11 AND <sup>a</sup> I saw the heaven opened, and behold, <sup>b</sup> a white horse, and he that sat upon him was called <sup>c</sup> Faithful and True ; and <sup>d</sup> in righteousness he judgeth and maketh war. 12 His <sup>e</sup> eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many diadems ; and <sup>f</sup> he had a name written that no one knoweth but he himself ; 13 and <sup>g</sup> he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood ; and his name is called, <sup>h</sup> The Word of God. 14 And <sup>i</sup> the armies in heaven followed him upon white horses, <sup>k</sup> clothed in fine linen, white and pure. 15 And <sup>l</sup> out of his mouth goeth forth a sharp sword, that with it he may smite the nations ; and <sup>m</sup> he will rule them with a rod of iron ; and <sup>n</sup> he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness of the wrath* of Almighty God. 16 And he hath on <sup>o</sup> his vesture and on his thigh a name written : ° KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS.

17 And I saw an angel standing in the sun ; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the birds that fly in mid-heaven : <sup>p</sup> Come and gather yourselves together unto the great supper of God ; 18 that ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains of thousands, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, <sup>q</sup> both free and bond, both small and great.

19 And <sup>r</sup> I saw the beast and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him who sat on the horse, and against his army. 20 And <sup>s</sup> the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought the miracles before him, with which he deceived them that received the mark of the beast, and <sup>t</sup> them that worshipped his image. These <sup>u</sup> two were cast alive into the lake of fire <sup>x</sup> that burneth with brimstone. 21 And the rest <sup>y</sup> were slain with the sword of him who sat upon the horse, which went forth out of his mouth ; and all the birds were filled with their flesh.

<sup>21</sup> AND <sup>a</sup> I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away; and there was no more sea.

<sup>3</sup> AND I heard a loud voice out of heaven, saying: Behold, <sup>d</sup> the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and <sup>e</sup> they shall be his people, and God himself will be with them, and be their God. <sup>4</sup> AND <sup>f</sup> God will wipe away every tear from their eyes' [Isa. xxv. 8]; and <sup>g</sup> there shall be no more death, <sup>h</sup> nor sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain; for <sup>i</sup> the former things are passed away.

<sup>5</sup> AND he who sat upon the throne said: <sup>k</sup> Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write; for these words are faithful and true.

<sup>6</sup> AND he said unto me: It is done. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. I <sup>l</sup> will give unto him that thirsteth of <sup>m</sup> the fountain of the water of life freely. <sup>7</sup> He that overcometh <sup>n</sup> shall inherit these things*; and <sup>o</sup> I will be his God, and he shall be my son. <sup>8</sup> But <sup>p</sup> the cowardly and unbelieving, and the polluted with abominations, and murderers and fornicators and sorcerers and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in <sup>q</sup> the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone, which is <sup>r</sup> the second death.

<sup>9</sup> AND there came one of <sup>s</sup> the seven angels who had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying: Come hither, I will show thee the bride, the Lamb's wife. <sup>10</sup> AND he carried me away <sup>t</sup> in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and showed me the* city, the holy Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, <sup>11</sup> having <sup>u</sup> the glory of God. Her brightness was like unto a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal; <sup>12</sup> having <sup>v</sup> a wall great and high; and having <sup>w</sup> twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel; <sup>13</sup> on the east three gates, on the north three gates, on the south three gates, and on the west three gates. <sup>14</sup> AND the wall of the city had twelve <sup>x</sup> foundation-stones, and upon them the names of <sup>y</sup> the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

<sup>15</sup> AND he that talked with me had <sup>b</sup> a golden reed to measure the city, and its gates, and its wall. <sup>16</sup> AND the city lieth <sup>c</sup> foursquare, and the length is as large as the breadth. And he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs†; the length and the breadth and the height of it are equal †. <sup>17</sup> AND he measured its wall, a hundred and forty four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel.

24 And <sup>k</sup> the nations* shall <sup>l</sup> walk by its light; <sup>m</sup> and the kings of the earth bring their glory and honour into it. 25 And <sup>n</sup> its gates shall never be shut by day, for <sup>o</sup> there will be no night there. 26 And they will bring the glory and honour of the nations into it. 27 And <sup>p</sup> there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, nor he that worketh abomination or falsehood, but only they who are written in the Lamb's <sup>q</sup> book of life.

22. And he showed me a† river of the water of life, clear as crystal, coming forth out of the throne of God and of the Lamb. 2 In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river||, was there the tree of life, bearing twelve fruits, and yielding its fruit every month; and the leaves of the tree are <sup>r</sup> for the healing of the nations.

3 And <sup>s</sup> there shall be no more curse' [Zech. xiv. 11]: but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it; and his servants shall serve him; <sup>t</sup> and <sup>u</sup> they shall see his face; and <sup>v</sup> his name shall be upon their foreheads. 5 And there shall be no night there; and they have no need of lamp, or of the light of the sun, because the Lord God giveth them light. And <sup>w</sup> they shall reign for ever and ever.

Concluding assurances, exhortations, warnings, invitations, and promises.

6 AND he said unto me: These sayings are faithful and true; and the Lord God of the spirits of the prophets* <sup>a</sup> sent his angel to show unto his servants the things which must shortly come to pass. 7 Behold, <sup>b</sup> I come quickly; <sup>c</sup> blessed is he that keepeth the sayings of the prophecy of this book.

8 And I John am he who heard and saw these things. And when I had heard and seen, <sup>d</sup> I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel who showed me these things. 9 Then saith he unto me: See thou do it not; for I am a fellow-servant of thee and of thy brethren the prophets, and of those who keep the sayings of this book; worship God.

10 And he saith unto me: <sup>e</sup> Seal not* the sayings of the prophecy of this book; for the time is at hand. 11 He <sup>f</sup> that is unjust, let him be unjust still; and he that is filthy, let him be filthy still: and <sup>g</sup> he that is righteous, let him be righteous still; and he that is holy, let him be holy still.

12 Behold, I come quickly; and <sup>h</sup> my reward is with me, <sup>i</sup> to render to every man according to his work†. 13 I <sup>k</sup> am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.

14 Blessed are they that wash their robes†, that they may have right to <sup>l</sup> the tree of life, and <sup>m</sup> may enter in through the gates into the city; <sup>n</sup> for <sup>o</sup> outside are the dogs and the sorcerers and the fornicators and the murderers and the idolaters, and every one that loveth and maketh a lie.

16 I Jesus have sent my angel to testify unto you these things for the churches. I am <sup>p</sup> the root and the offspring of David, and <sup>q</sup> the bright and morning star.

17 And <sup>r</sup> the Spirit and <sup>s</sup> the Bride say, Come; and let him that heareth say, Come; and let him that thirsteth come: and whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.

18 I† testify unto every one that heareth <sup>t</sup> the words of the prophecy of this book, <sup>u</sup> If any one shall add unto them, God will add unto him the plagues that are written in this book; <sup>v</sup> and if any one shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God <sup>w</sup> will take away his part from the tree* of life, and out of the holy city, which are written of in this book.

20 He who testifieth these things saith: Surely I come quickly. Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus.

21 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with the saints†. Amen.

NOTE.—In the first part of the above Tables, comprising the principal epochs in the book of Genesis, the dates assigned by Usher and Hales respectively are given in separate columns; Usher following in the main the present Hebrew text, and Hales, the Septuagint. After the death of Joseph, the dates given in the Tables differ from both systems, and are the result of careful computation, together with a comparison of the best authorities. Although it must be admitted that in the earlier parts of the history there are few instances in which perfect exactness can be asserted, there are so many checks upon any serious mistake as to give a reasonable degree of probability to the general line of the chronology.

It will be observed that no dates of contemporary events in heathen countries are given before the first Olympiad, s. c. 776; all secular chronology before that era being quite uncertain. And some of the later dates which appear in the Table have been placed there, according to the usual chronology, without reference to the questions which have been raised as to the events themselves.
